IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of a dear husband and father, J. M. Grove who passed away April 2nd 1930. Beside your grave we often stand with hearts both crushed and sore. But in the gloom the sweet words come.

Not lost, but gone before. God knows how much we miss you, He counts the tears we shed. And whispers, "Hush, he only sleeps."

Your loved one is not dead. Your loving voice we'll never forget. Though years may pass away, The loss of you we sadly feel, As keen as that first day.

Who's so lonesome here without you, There's such a vacant place, Where we never hear your foot-steps, Or see your smiling face. Friends may think we have forgotten. When at times they see us smile, But they little know the heartache Which that smile hides all the while.

MEETING TOLD OF TOWER FINANCING

Market Situation Under Discussion, Also Talking Pictures and Canning Factory

An enthusiastic meeting of the Business Men's Association was held on Monday evening with the president Dr. Ira Frel presiding. He announced that the money for the new Memorial Tower had all been arranged, and was ready for the council to proceed with the building just as soon as arrangements were completed for the purchase of the clock with the donor of the new public time-piece. This information was received with real satisfaction, and all went away with visions of a fine tower and clock dials that will be illuminated after dark so that it will render a full 24-hour service.

While the money for the tower is assured to the satisfaction of the council, it is still necessary to proceed with a live subscription list to reimburse the men who are financing the scheme in the meantime. They have pledged the necessary funds in the belief that the citizens and former residents will come along with the necessary subscriptions to erect this memorial gift in recognition of the handsome gift of the fine clock so generously given by a former citizen, a member of a family very highly revered in the community.

New business taken up at the meeting included a discussion on ways and means of providing better market accommodation in town, the prospect and need of a canning factory here in the midst of one of the best vegetable sections in the province, and the desirability of introducing a talking picture show.

No definite action was taken on these matters, as no one seemed to offer any concrete suggestions that might be followed out. It was pointed out that so far as a market is concerned Stouffville could never regain the prominence she once had as a market town. The coming of the automobile and the buying by truck direct from the farmer had changed all this. Others, however, declared that if more suitable quarters were provided at least we could improve the present situation.

After appointing a committee to act on the invitation of the council with that body in viewing the tenders for the clock tower, the meeting adjourned to assemble at the call of the president.

SEVENTH LINE MARKHAM

Mrs. Alex MacMillan and sons Albert and Lawrence called on Mr. and Mrs. Allin Lewis on Sunday family and Mr. and Mrs. N. Smith visited with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stiver of the sixth line on Wednesday night last.

Mr. Ward Hallman spent the weekend of March 22nd visiting friends over in Herb Hoover's domain—or at least in that part ruled by Franklin D. Roosevelt. We missed this last week but better late than never. East side, west side, etc.

Building operations have been started in for 1931 on this avenue. Assisted by Jonas Lewis, Esq., Elmer Wells, L. MacMillan and John Hosking, Mr. Allin Lewis constructed a brand new chicken house. Verily a masterpiece of the gentle art of carpentry! "Bet Melville hasn't a new chicken-house, so there!"

Mr. E. J. Jarvis had a rather unpleasant experience last Thursday morning. A horse recently purchased took a sudden dislike to E. J. while in the stall beside him and it was the old story of the "irresistible force with James in between. Luckily no serious injuries were suffered, which we are very glad to hear.

Do you remember away back in 1925 when we had the chicken-thief episode on this line? A farmhand nearly captured a swarm of chicken-thieves single handed; became a hero overnight, offered prizes at the local church for general proficiency; then faded away taking the wool with him. "What wool?" sez you. Sez we, "The wool he pulled over our eyes!" Hook, Line and sinker, everyone was guilty.

Signing off until next week were has Bloomington Pharisee, betaken himself? Interesting chap, very. By the way two weeks ago describing the Almhra hockey team we forgot two very important members of the group. These two embryonic puck-chasers which at the bottom of the picture were Masters' Allin Wells and Grant Cooney the former being the son of ye honorable goal-tender, Elmer Wells and the latter forming the son complement of the trucking firm of J. B. Cooney & Son. To the young gentlemen we offer our most abject apologies.

After being bone-dry for a long spell, the wells are taking on a new lease of life, refreshed by the recent rain-fall. What a relief.

Two weeks ago, we noticed something in the Melville section of the Tribune concerning Allin Lewis and a two-hundred pound calf. Mr. Lewis wishes us to say that in his opinion those Melville correspondents should take a short course in Agriculture. And then again he remarked that "if the drovers judged calves like that I'd make money."

Far be it from us dear readers, to discredit any of our friends' efforts, but this miniature bossy truly weighs about 140 lbs. at the present date, so we'll place his weight of two weeks ago at 125 lb. on the hoof.

We turned out for a spell to a Euchre the other night, held by the Markham township War Veterans, in the Municipal Hall at Unionville. This was the fourth of a series which have been put on, the proceeds to go for relief work in the Township. The prize winners were as follows: Men's high score, Mr. John Miller, second Mr. Hugh Beckett; Lone Hands Mr. Saxby, and the consolation or booty prize Mr. James MacCartney. Results for the ladies as follows: High Score Mrs. Percy Cooper, second, Mrs. Findlay; Lone Hands, Miss Drew Kelly; Consolation, Mrs. J. Hood. In presenting the prizes Warden Wes. Gohn commended the Veteran's Organization on the work they were doing also explained that this body was sort of an offshot of the North York Veterans. He hoped that there would be more in the future and congratulated Mr. Miller on obtaining fifty points more than he (Mr. Gohn) did. (We were low too.) The trial feature was a cushion with the 1914-15 veterans inscribed entirely with pins. The number was seventeen hundred and some thing and the prize, a pound box of chocolates was won by Mr. Clark Young of Milliken.

SPROXTON — BRILLINGER

A most interesting and very pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday afternoon, March 25th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Brillinger, Bethesda, when their eldest daughter, Ruby Irene became the bride of Joseph Russel Sproxtton, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sproxtton, of Newmarket. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. W. Lynd, of Aurora, pastor of the contracting parties.

The bride charmingly attired in white satin, made in low lines, her long veil being caught in cap effect with orange blossoms, and carrying a beautiful bouquet of calla lilies, entered the drawing room on the arm of her father, to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Miss Marjorie Graham, and took her place beneath an arch, most artistically arranged with evergreens, pink and white carnations and wedding bell. She was attended by her sister Dorothy May in a pretty dress of rich pink taffeta, and carrying Tallisian roses, while the groom was ably supported by Herbert Dawson Hisey. During the signing of the register Mrs. Roy Morley, cousin of the bride, sang "From all the world I've chosen you," accompanied by Miss Lottie Atkinson of Aurora.

Following the ceremony about eighty guests sat down to a sumptuous wedding breakfast, served in the spacious dining room where the decorations were carried out in pink and white, with roses of similar hue on the tables. A number of girl friends of the bride sewed. Mr. and Mrs. Christel Brillinger, grandparents of the bride, and Mrs. Eliza Hoover, grandmother of the groom were interested guests at the ceremony.

The bride and bridesmaid were wearing pearl necklaces, the gift of the groom, the groomsmen, soloist and pianists were also fittingly remembered by the groom. The bride's going away dress was of sand reed, with shoes, hat, coat and fox fur to match.

The happy young couple left amid showers of much confetti and many good wishes for a honeymoon in Buffalo and other points. The bride and groom, who are both active workers in Wesley United Church, will on their return take up residence on the groom's farm in Whitechurch.

THE SITUATION

Open Letter From President of Business Men.

Gifts To Date

Stouffville W. L. $225
D. Holden—Celebration Fund $225
Mrs. James McCullough 50
Bal. required $850

Stouffville is blessed with affectionate interest, in community welfare, not only among the present residents but also among those who may have passed happy hours of their childhood in our midst, or been associated with us as one of the stalwarts among our business men.

This desirable state is probably due to the harmony that has existed, since our incorporation, there being remarkable freedom from political religious, and business rancor, a big factor in leaving pleasing memories to those who have passed to other communities.

This happy faculty is well illustrated by the munificent gift of $2,000, from one who spent childhood and adult life in this municipality. Our former citizen is donating $2,000 to buy a clock and bell (having noted the need of same by editorial comment in Tribune) which will ornament the Town and please the present residents, although the donor lives many miles in the neighboring Republic.

The large sum of $2,000 is amply sufficient to purchase a clock and bell by the same maker, as that, which delights the neighborhood residents of the University of Toronto, and Parliament Hill, Ottawa.

Yet this bell and clock must be properly housed, in a sturdy brick tower on our present fire hall, which will cost $1,350.

On account of a $100,000 pavement being laid throughout our Main street the Reeve and Council feel that no further taxation should be levied at the present time.

The Business Men by personal note to the Bank of Commerce have obligated themselves to raise the $1,350, without any cost to the taxpayer, so that the corporation may, immediately, contract to build a brick tower housing this splendid gift from a former citizen.

The Business Men intend holding field days, garden parties, etc., to raise funds and also, have a hope that the Old Boys and Girls may come forward with contributions, big or small, to help in the good work.

All such subscriptions will be acknowledged in The Tribune and the names of the donors written in the Municipal Archives, and possibly, if through desirable, the names of the subscribers would be suitably engraved on Brass Plates to be hung in the tower.

Mrs. Jas. McCullough has graciously started off the fund with the generous gift of $50.

A miscellaneous shower was tendered Mr. Orville Martin and Miss Edrie Beach, at her home Friday night March, 20th. A large number were present and showered them with beautiful gifts.

Easter music next Sunday, in the United Church, Stouffville. Morning—Anthem—Exult, O Bright Heaven, Solo—Mrs. T. Laidlaw Mixed Quartette—Christ Arose! Evening—Anthem—Christ, the Lord is Risen Today. Men's Voices—Risen, As He Said Vocal Duett—Is It Nothing to You?

POTATO CASE

Arthur Cullen, Orangeville, appeared before Magistrate Falconer Tuesday afternoon and pleaded guilty to having omitted to tag potato bags, as required by section 6, S.S. 1 (a) of the Root Vegetables Act, and was assessed $10 and costs. F. L. Gabel, of the Federal Dept. of Agriculture, prosecuted. —The Banner

GOODWOOD

Wedding bells are ringing again. Who! who! Pleased to see Rev. A. Harden out again. Mr. Geo. Todd spent Monday in Hamilton. Mrs. Jos. Middleton spent last week in Toronto. Mr. George Todd is loading vegetables.

Mr. Frank Middleton is visiting friends in Orillia this week. A car of carrots was shipped to Winnipeg last week from here. Frank Fields of Hamilton spent the weekend with his parents here. The Johnston Show caused quite a thrill and made many wise as to their future.

The roads are being shovelled out which will cost the Township a nice sum. Sorry to report that Mrs. Fred Stiner is in a serious condition in Toronto. Mr. J. F. Reid and daughter Viola attended a funeral at Brampton last week. The United Choir are preparing special music for Easter services next Sunday "Cyclone Sally" is progressing favorably. The cost expected to present it to the public some time in April.

VICTORIA SQUARE SALE

LARGELY ATTENDED

Probably the largest farm auction sale held in York County this year took place on the J. Farquharson farm at Victoria Square. The sale originally advertised for March 10 was postponed to the 19th owing to the snow storm.

While a casual observer in the morning felt it would be impossible to dispose of so much in a few hours yet everything was put under the hammer and sold with exception of the tractor. Lunch was provided to one thousand. A unique feature of the lunch, was the enclosure of a card bearing an important scripture verse in each bag. Judging from the locquacity of some, such verses were not too, often considered by them.

Selling commenced at 11 a.m. and continued until nightfall. Fifty two head of cattle, a number of horses, sheep and swine went under the hammer as well as a long list of implements and farm machinery. The highest price paid for a cow and calf was $140. and horses brought as high as $170. In all the sale realized in the neighbourhood of $7000, which was very satisfactory considering the general period of depression. In addition half the proceeds was in cash.

Implements were perhaps the one article poorly bid on, and went rather draggy. Prentice & Prentice were the auctioneers.
