E. A. Grubin, Optometrist, is conducting a special sale of glasses. Read his display on the back page.

Wanted—Photograph for historical record, Cashel Hotel, 5th concession of Markham and Knill's hotel, Stouffville. Photos will be promptly returned. Norman M. McLean, Stouffville, Ontario.

The tender of Mr. George Patton has been accepted to paint the exterior of the United Church, two coats.

Two Uxbridge youths who broke into the pool room of that town and made away with ten boxes of chocolate bars, were apprehended and administered a thrashing in the magistrate's court. The parents of the boys wielded the strap.

Mrs. Ambrose Stover has returned from the General Hospital following her recent operation for appendicitis. Mrs. Stover was just nine days absent from home, a remarkably brief spell in which to go through so much and recover sufficiently to be able to be brought home.

Owing to necessary changes on the hydro system in this district the power will be cut off on Wednesday of next week from 1 p.m. until 6 p.m. As this is press day in the Tribune office the paper will not be printed until Thursday, May 25th, and will thus be a day late in distribution.

The Uxbridge Times notes that Stouffville council granted the local band $25 to repair the drum, and wants to know what a new drum would cost. Ask Bill Dougherty.

Friday, June the 26th, has been chosen as the date on which St. James' Presbyterian Church of Stouffville will hold their Garden Party on C. J. Brodie's lawn, west of the town. A good program is being prepared. Watch for further announcements.

Children's Picture Beauty Contest—at the Auditorium Theatre—Photo slides of entries will be shown on the screen and prizes awarded to winners, this Saturday, May 23. Judging of winners, and awards are decided by Toronto officials.

The easy manner in which apparently the simplest accident may have disastrous results was brought home to us last week on the death of young Theodore Dixon of Unionville a 16-year-old school lad, followed a tumble when he fell from his bicycle on colliding with another lad also on a bike. Dixon was riding his bicycle south on the front street of the village, when he met Charlie Church going north. On the wheels coming together the lads fell, and Theodore struck his head on the curb. Dr. McKay ordered him to the hospital where he died a few hours later. A Sunday school worker, bright school pupil, and an ardent lover of nature the lad was generally respected and beloved throughout the community.

Monday, May 25th, is a public holiday and all places of business will be closed.

Crop prospects in this district are excellent but the price is not nearly so promising at the moment.

School teachers have been hustling here from outside points the past few days making personal application for the position on the local High School staff caused by the resignation of Miss Fuller. A general session of the school board will be held on Friday evening to consider the applications.

The price of eggs has evidently hit the bottom, and this week stiffened somewhat and advanced to 16 cents to the farmers, an increase of one cent a dozen. While the lowest price obtaining here for fresh extras was 15c, in many parts of the province they brought only 10 cents a dozen. In the firm belief that when the farmer prospers, we all prosper, we sincerely trust that the day of low priced egg-nogs is near at hand.

Mrs. Jacob Yake suffered a heavy stroke about 12 o'clock last Saturday night and her condition is very critical. The Globe radio broadcast that evening sent out a call over the air to her two sons who are sailing the Great Lakes, both sons being captains of their respective boats sailing from Montreal and Owen Sound. One son caught the message as he was leaving Montreal harbor, and wired that he would be here on Wednesday, being delayed somewhat until another captain could be brought in to relieve him. Mrs. Yake was still in an unconscious condition on Wednesday morning.

The Stouffville Old Boys' and Girls' Association of Toronto, which heard Professor Frank H. Underhill at its last meeting, is giving a musical evening at its next meeting in Public Utilities Hall, 60 Bond Street, Toronto, on May 29, one week from Friday evening. The artists will be Mr. Lex Holmes, violinist; Miss Luella Gayman, vocalist, and Miss Florence Jones, elocutionist. Friends resident in Stouffville are invited, as well as former townfolk. Professor Underhill's address, which made an important period of Canadian history live again, will be long remembered by those who were privileged to attend the recent meeting. He is a vigorous and interesting speaker as well as a profound student of modern history. The Association is now planning for its grand annual picnic, to be held at Exhibition Park, Toronto, on the afternoon of Dominion Day.

Local people were sorry to learn last Saturday of the death in Toronto of Jenima Hoover, youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Hoover of this place. Mima, as Miss Hoover was so familiarly known among her many friends, had been in ill health for the past year, but her condition was not regarded as serious. She had resided in Toronto for about twenty years, along with another maiden sister Miss Mita. The late Miss Hoover is survived by two brothers, and four sisters, as follows: Alfred and Lud. of Stouffville, Mrs. Hare of Markham, Mrs. Jos. Mowder and Mrs. Nelson Mowder of Stouffville, also Miss Mita previously mentioned. The funeral to Stouffville cemetery on Tuesday came direct from Toronto, and was joined by a large number of old friends at the burial grounds here where Rev. Jas. Wilson of Wychwood Presbyterian Church performed the last sad rites. Miss Hoover's untimely death is to be greatly regretted, and a very large circle of intimate friends will feel the loss keenly, and well as the immediate family.

Everybody present seemed more than delighted with the public school concert held in Ratcliff's Hall on Tuesday evening. The prime reason for staging the event was to give the ratepayers an idea of what is being accomplished in musical lines, since a music instructor had been engaged for the school last Christmas. Evidently the result was pleasing to all, and the various classes rendered their selections in approved style under the direction of Mr. Lynde, of Whitby, the instructor. An oratorical contest was also conducted, being won by Claude Prillinger, Lambert Malloy, and R. Bainborough in the order mentioned. They were presented by a set of books each, prizes being donated by Dr. Ira Freil, who made the presentation. Edith Borinsky won the oratorical contest with Ruth Marshall second and Morley Brown third. Prizes were also awarded in this contest. The ability displayed by every contestant in these events was a revelation to all present, and each entrant should feel justly proud of his or her effort. Rev. S. S. Shantz announced the decision of the judges, and Rev. T. Laidlaw acted as chairman for the evening. The seating capacity of the hall was all taken up for the concert.

The tenders for the construction of a brick clock tower at the fire hall will close on Monday next when the work is likely to be proceeded with very soon after.

On Saturday, May 16 a quiet marriage ceremony took place at the United Church parsonage, Uxbridge, when Mrs. Bainborough of Stouffville was united in matrimony with Mr. R. Robinson of Manitoulin Island, by the Rev. A. E. Owen, Uxbridge. After a brief honeymoon the bride and groom arrived back in Stouffville where they are spending a short time prior to leaving for Manitoulin where the groom is a prosperous merchant, and a man highly regarded throughout his district. Mrs. Robinson's departure from town will be generally regretted. Being an ardent worker in the church there will be a gap not easily filled, but with her will go good wishes and happy returns for a continued life of usefulness and of pleasure.

Miss Mabel B. Cook, daughter of the late Samuel and Matilda Cook, was laid to rest in Cedar Lawn Cemetery at Paterson, New Jersey in the United States. Miss Cook passed away in the Paterson General Hospital after an illness of several months duration. The funeral services were held in St Paul's Episcopal Church, with Dr. David Stuart Hamilton, officiating. Mrs. Lazolla Crooks Whitmore sang "Beautiful Land On High," "Abide With Me" and "Asleep in Jesus." The body of Miss Cook, which was clothed in nurses uniform and cape, reposed in a solid mahogany casket which was surrounded by many floral pieces. Besides relatives and friends attending the funeral were the members of the Alumni of the Paterson General Hospital, who wore nursing uniforms and capes. Miss Cook is survived by three brothers, Samuel, Leo and Dean, and a niece, Mrs. Huson Coon, of Toronto and daughter of the late William Cook of Stouffville.

Suddenly stricken with a heart attack as he climbed from the swimming tank in Eglinton Hunt Club, Toronto, at 6.30 last Thursday evening, Grant Cooper, barrister, of 91 Forest Hill Road, collapsed and died. Mr. Hunt is well known to older Stouffville citizens, being a resident here back in 1897-1900 when he was a member of our champion lacrosse team of that day.

The late Mr. Cooper was greatly interested in athletics and had entered the tank for a swim. He apparently was in good health when he entered the water. While swimming he did not complain of being ill. It was when he got out of the tank he was seen to stagger, then collapse.

Police from North Toronto Station rushed to the crib with inhalator. Dr. H. Sullivan, 44 Burnaby avenue, was also summoned and pronounced the man dead. Chief Coroner Dr. M. M. Crawford was notified, and released the body to the family for burial.

Mr. Cooper, who was a brother-in-law of Sir Thomas White, was formerly a master at St. Andrew's College, but left there to study law. He was a graduate of the University of Toronto and had been the solicitor of the British American Oil Company for the past seven years.

Mr. Cooper is survived by a widow and one daughter, Aleen.
