

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

A real chance to procure a new hat or dress at a bargain below regular prices will be given all this week at Mrs. M. E. Watts. Everything reduced.

The ladies of the Melville W. A. desire to express their thanks and appreciation to Mr. Johnson of the Bowling Academy for the courtesy shown them by withdrawing bowling the night of the play at the Auditorium Theatre.

By the will of the late Mary A. Bruce of Stouffville who died on May 12 last, the local Menonite Church is left a gift of $100 in cash. The executors of the Bruce estate are two nephews of the deceased, namely Lambert Stouffer and Harry Stouffer.

A baptismal service will be held next Sunday afternoon at J. Sider's pond on the towline. The service is under auspices of the Markham circuit Menonite church, and the public are invited to attend. It is expected that some fifteen or twenty candidates will be immersed.

The Kitchener News-Record has this to say of the Stouffville Menonite pastor who is conducting the revival meetings in that city with the Gospel Chorus Quintette: "The splendid and stirring messages given by Rev. S. S. Shantz are much enjoyed. He preaches the simple old-fashioned gospel which is reaching and stirring hearts."

We understand that Mr. D. G. Walls of Toronto is shortly to return to town, and occupy his house on Main street almost opposite the home of Mrs. W. H. Todd. Mr. Walls moved to the city only a few years ago, and we will be pleased to welcome him again as a resident of Stouffville.

Dr. Gould who practised medicine here for a year some 25 years ago, died in Fenelon Falls this week.

Decoration Day at Uxbridge cemetery is always held the last Sunday in June, this year the 28th.

The household goods belonging to the estate of the late Mary Jane Reesor will be sold by auction at the late residence on Friday afternoon this week. No reserve.

Another new residence is going up on main street to make a new home for Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thorn. The house for which the foundation was completed last week will be 22 by 26 feet in size, and is being erected on the vacant lot opposite the premises of Mr. Sandy Jones. It will be a frame structure.

A meeting of the Horticultural Society is called for this Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Business of urgent importance requires a good attendance. Exhibitors at the annual flower show or others who are interested should attend and assist in arranging the prize list. Meeting to be held in the municipal hall.

The mixed bowling tournament held on the local greens on Monday evening failed to draw the crowd hoped for by the officials, but the greens were good and those who participated had a splendid evening. Gilman's rink from Newmarket won first prize and T. Burckett's rink of Stouffville got second. Mr. Burckett was supported by D. Russell, Mrs. Doten and Mrs. Nolan. Third prize went to M. E. Watt's rink with A. V. Nolan, Mrs. Muston and Mrs. Burckett. Ben Doten, Bert Smith, Mrs. Leslie and Francis Ratcliff won the fourth and last prize. The men's tourney was announced for July 15.

Matinee this Saturday at the Auditorium for the screen picture "City Lights."

Lost—A roll of bills totaling $10.00 Reward. Finder please notify Mrs. L. E. Todd.

Don't plan your summer wardrobe until you have seen the Fashion Show at the Eastern Star Strawberry Festival.

The Forsyth Clan will hold their annual gathering in Memorial Park, Stouffville, on Dominion Day, July 1st. Probably a couple of hundred or more visitors will be present.

The husband of Dorothy Grace James of Uxbridge Township was last week granted a divorce from his wife on the ground of adultery. W. S. Ormiston of Uxbridge pleaded the case for James before Mr. Justice Wright at Whitby. Neither of the parties concerned appeared in court, but the decree of the Judge granted the divorce effective in six months.

We notice a number of weekly papers are carrying warning advertisements directed against those who fail to cut weeds on vacant lots. All very good, we say, but what about the municipalities themselves? Take some of our side streets and you will find the weeds thriving like a healthy corn patch right now, also places on the highways and county roads. Weed inspectors have been appointed in Stouffville, Whitechurch, and other places, but the weeds still thrive.

All the high lights in the lawn bowling field were expected to compete at the big tournament held at High Park, Toronto, last week. Whether Stouffville possess any of those high lights we cannot say, but nothing daunted they sent down a team to compete against the high and mighty. The standard bearers were Messrs. Mervyn Watts, P. Spafford, George Saunders and Blake Sanders. The first day brought little luck to the locals but in the second day's event they nearly topped the best of them, for running into the finals of the third division they were presented with four splendid coffee tables built of metal. 64 rinks were in the competition.

The funeral of the late Ralph Hamilton whose sudden death was announced in this paper last week took place to Stouffville cemetery on Friday afternoon. The service was conducted by Rev. W. W. Fleischer and Rev. C. Hyde. The pall bearers were Messrs. A. B. Steckley, Amos Lehman, H. O. Klinek, and Joseph Samuel and Elias Hoover. Mr. Ralph Hamilton who died at the wheel of his car while taking a test for a driver's license, is survived by his wife whose maiden name was Mary Ann Raymer. The very sudden death cast a profound gloom over a large host of friends, while Mrs. Hamilton was completely overcome suffering from the severe shock for some time.

To us nothing is finer than to see a man of great age still possessed of all his faculties, and giving out the benefit of his ripe experience to the younger generation. As a typical example we have in mind the Rev. Henry Goudie of Markham who for three weeks past was in charge of the ministerial work in the local Menonite church. While the regular pastor was on evangelistic work in Kitchener Mr. Goudie carried on all branches of the pastor's duties, and in the period mentioned he visited no less than 65 homes for pastoral calls. In addition to this he preached twice each Sunday, and we would say that for a man over 80 years of age this is some achievement, and something our friend from Markham may be justly proud of. Rev. Mr. Goudie is a brother to our Rev. Samuel Goudie, residing on Mill street.

The pupils of Mrs. Barnes and Mrs. Gilbert were greeted by a fair sized audience in Ratcliff's Hall on Monday evening when they presented a musical recital in a manner highly pleasing to all. Most of the pupils were under ten years of age, and much credit is due their instructors for the manner in which they had developed this young talent. The duet of Elaine and Clarion Baker was unique and was fully appreciated, while as usual Luella Gayman and Mrs. H. Lewis were well received, the former in her rendition of the "Song of the Woods," and the latter in "Love the Pedlar." Doris Baker showed good talent also Ruth Nendick in their instrumental selections. Alma Baker sang "Merry Month of May," showing careful training, enhanced by a pleasing personality. Margaret Forsyth and Margaret Ball exhibited marked ability and delighted their respective audiences with their respective numbers on the piano. Pauline Boadway played "The Lark Song" with good satisfaction. The boys Clarion Baker and Claude Brillinger upheld the sterner sex acceptably in their instrumental numbers. This recital should be followed by others as the love of good music is universal, and moreover has a definite uplift on any community. Dr. Ira Freil acted as chairman during the evening.

At the big garden party and festival to be held in the Arena on Monday evening next a choir of 30 voices under Madam Holland will sing. A comedy drama "The Schemers" will also be a feature of the program. Reserve the evening and bring your friends.

The old bell was lowered from the fire hall tower on Wednesday and the demolition of the tower is proceeding apace. Contractor Fred Betz has the work in charge and expects the new structure to raise its head within a few weeks.

The Stouffville Old Boys and Girls Association of Toronto wish to invite all past and present citizens to the annual picnic in Exhibition Park, Toronto, on Wednesday July 1st. (Area No. 6.) It is hoped that Chancellor Flint of Syracuse will be present for the event.

Stouffville baseball team further added to their laurels on Tuesday by defeating Uxbridge 5 to 5 in the northern town. The losing team with Newmarket are equal for second place in the league. Stouffville played a superb game on Tuesday, good hitting and base running being a feature. Dinty Hodgins banged out a home run.

Benjamin R. Law, 60, for many years manager of the Heinzi Piano Co. and lately with Mason and Risch, died this week at his home, 7 Poplar Plains road Toronto. He was born in Stouffville and had resided in Toronto about 40 years. He attended Indian Road Baptist Church, and is survived by his widow, formerly Miss Ada Pears, and a daughter, at home.

All the latest in plumbing requisites will be demonstrated at Buttons Hardware on Saturday next. A huge motor truck will be here in charge of the well known Crane Company who will display all that is finest in plumbing supplies. The big truck will be fully equipped with these things installed. Stouffville and people of the district are invited to visit the car and view the set up.

On Tuesday evening the Swastika executive of the United Church presented Miss Kathleen Logan with a handsome brass tea pot and tray. This former teacher was a valued member of the organization, and having determined to lay down the chalk and brush her well-wishers were delighted in assisting her to take up some household utensil. Miss Logan has given up her position after eight years on the public school staff.

Put on your best smile and take all your friends and relatives out for a good time at the St. James Pres. Church Garden Party on C. J. Brodie's lawn on Friday evening, June 26th. Ralph Gordon will be there to make you laugh, a choir leader from Toronto will make you want to sing, and when Dewar Bros. play the bagpipes, well, are you Scotch? Admission 35 and 20 cents. Cake and ice cream free, served from 7 p.m. Program 8.15 standard time.

The I.O.O.F. held their annual church and decoration service on Sunday June 21, in the Anglican Church. The Rev. Mr. Robbins, rector of the church, preached a very instructive sermon, after which the members of the lodge marched to the cemetery headed by Stouffville band. Here they decorated the graves of fourteen brethren. The ceremony was in charge of Mr. Jess Cook P. G. and Mr. J. W. Ratcliff, chaplain. The absence of relatives of the departed brothers was regretted by the members of the order.

DIVISION COURT MARKHAM VILLAGE

The regular setting of the Second Division Court of the County of York was held in Markham on Monday morning June 8th, says the Economist. His Honor Judge Lee was in charge of the court. There were just three cases on the docket. The first case was a suit brought by R. S. Strong, Stouffville, garage owner, against Leslie Ogden to collect a bill for repairs on defendant's car for $105.65. Defendants disputed claim on the grounds that work was negligently done and that he had to take it to another garage shortly after and have it overhauled at a cost of 106.65. He put in a counter claim for $60.00. Judgment was given in favor of plaintiff for $61.85 with no costs and also, for $25. counter claim in favor of defendant.

The second case was a suit brought by the Markham Electric & Radio Co. against George Lecuyer to collect $109.01 for a stove and other goods purchased. Defendant denied owing plaintiff declaring that Richard Nuttall was the recipient of the purchases. The case was further complicated by a payment of $5.00 cash from plaintiff to defendant on purchases amounting to $13.41 and an allowance of $9.00 which defendant declared was made him on a sale. Judgment was given in favor of plaintiff for $13.41 and for defendant of -14.00 No costs on either side.

The third case was a suit brought by R. E. Strong against E. J. Cable for $3.20 car repair bill. Judgment was given plaintiff.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE PARTY

On Saturday afternoon at Ringwood a thoroughly enjoyable surprise party took place in honor of the 73rd birthday anniversary of Mrs. W. Pipher who has been an esteemed resident of the district for practically all her life. Mrs. Pipher was taken completely by surprise when several car loads drove in to her home about 4 p.m. It was intended to have the birthday supper on the lawn but on account of the heavy showers it was found necessary to have it indoors.

Those present were: Miss Addie Pipher, Mr. and Mrs. P. Pipher, Mr. and Mrs. G. Pipher, Mr. and Mrs. R. Burkholder, Mr. F. Hewitt, Mr. S. Ferguson, Mrs. N. E. Smith, Misses H. & M. Smith, Miss Cunningham and Mrs. Felsing, all of Toronto and Mr. and Mrs. A. Pipher and Mr. E. Norris of Oshawa, Miss G. Fisher, Ringwood and Mr. Farmer, Port Perry and twelve grandchildren.
