CYCLONE VISITED THIS SECTION LAST SATURDAY

Barn Structure is Lifted 8 Feet in The Air Then it Crashes

Last Saturday afternoon this section was visited by a cyclone which demolished the large barn on what is known as the Joan Lewis farm immediately west of the village. The terrific wind blast is said to be the only one of its kind to have visited here in forty years, and those who saw it hope it will be another forty before there is a return engagement.

At about 3.30 in the afternoon a threatening black cloud from the north was watched by many because of its evident fierceness. Suddenly the blackness seemed to reach to earth in three shafts just over one of the fields on the Davis farm, and then the cyclone started. Breezing across the grain field it heaved the alfalfa and alsike heavenward, and much of it still clings to the high wires of the telephone lines. Crossing the road as it travelled south the huge barn was right in the path of the cyclone which lifted the structure intact some eight feet or more, then it came heavily down on the stone foundation to crumple into firewood under its own tremendous weight. Tons of hay was in the building, and the large doors were open at the time taking in straw. Because of this the wind had a better chance to do its work.

Thos. Farrow employed at the barn seeing the storm, rushed to the driving shed, and got into an automobile. The top blew off the shed but Mr. Farrow was uninjured. A number of calves in the stabling beneath were dug from under the debris and were uninjured, but the pigs did not fare so well. One critter received a broken back and others broken legs. No other stock was in the building. Had the storm been just a few minutes later it would have caught the men and team with another load of straw on the barn floor, and some casualties might have been recorded.

A strange thing was that the maple trees on the roadside in front of where the barn stood were not uprooted or injured in any way, and while the cyclone started about 60 rods north of the barn it ended a few fields to the south of the wreckage without further damage.

The loss on the building which is owned by James Burry is estimated at around $4,000, and is a severe one as the regular insurance policies do not cover loss from wind where there is no fire. Scarcely a whole piece of timber is to be found in the wreckage, and pieces were carried twenty feet into the air when the wind was at its height. The whole affair happened in just a few moments, when all was calm again.

THE VANHORN PICNIC

A very pleasant event took place on the afternoon of June 27th, at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Tomlinson in the Township of Markham (two miles east of Richmond Hill) when the Vanhorne family connection met to celebrate the settling of the early pioneers of the above name on the 3rd concession of the aforesaid Twp., many years ago. The early part of the afternoon was spent in making the acquaintance of many of the clan who had never met before, there being about 30 guests present. About 5 p.m. the ladies got busy laying out the many good things contained in their baskets to satisfy the inner man. Later the camera man arranged the guests into a family group and took a picture of the assembly.

Mr. Isaac Wagg of Goodwood, being the oldest person present was called upon to address the gathering and act as chairman in organizing the family compact for future gatherings to be held annually. The youngest child present was Audrey Mapes, 1 year, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mapes of Toronto.

A very pleasing feature of the event was the presence of two guests from far off Vancouver B.C., Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Boden who were introduced to the gathering by the chairman and very heartily welcomed by the whole assembly. Both are direct descendants of the Vanhorne family and both had spent their youthful days in the Town of Uxbridge where Mr. Boden first entered the old Journal office to learn the printing and publishing business in which he is still engaged in Vancouver.

Stouffville, Ringwood and Altona Christian church Sunday Schools held a picnic on Wednesday to Kew Beach Toronto. Fair weather prevailed for the holiday group.

Another Drowning at Lake Musselman

Musselman's Lake claimed another victim when on Sunday evening William McEnery, aged 16, lost his life and the body was recovered in seven feet of water. The lad had gone to the lake with a party of 14 from Toronto, and all went in swimming off Davies' pavilion on the north side around 4 o'clock. Not until seven was he missed when the gathering assembled for their tea. His clothes were found in the bath house after which a diligent search was made for him.

Ross Davies and Richard Evans of Musselman secured an outfit of dragging irons from the south side of the lake and after considerable work located the body a short distance from the diving board, and near where Ross Hall was drowned only a few weeks ago. The body was recovered at 10.30. The lad was said not to be able to swim.

YOUNG COUPLE WEDS

"Some Baby" Comedy Leads to Romance

On Saturday, July 18, 1931, at eleven o'clock at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Allan Bartholomew, Newmarket, a very quiet wedding took place, when Miss Mabel Cook, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Cook of Stouffville, was united in marriage to Mr. C. E. Powell, B.A., of London, Ontario, and recently principal of our continuation school in Stouffville. Rev. Thos. Laidlaw, M.A., returned from his holidays at Lake Huron to unite the happy couple.

The groom now admits that it was none other than his little bride-to-be who was the inspiration last winter for his great play success, "Some Baby!" given under auspices of the Swastika Club.

At the wedding on Saturday the young couple were unattended, and after a wedding luncheon set off on a motor trip to Niagara Falls, London, and points west, with the ultimate goal being the Rockies and Lake Louise. About the end of August the bride and groom will return by way of the Great Lakes and will set up housekeeping at Grand Valley where the groom is to be principal of one of the best Grade A Continuation Schools in the province.

Friends of both the bride and groom in Stouffville will join with this paper in extending good wishes and hearty congratulations to the newly wedded couple.

RINGWOOD

Geo. McTavich of Lefroy called on friends in this vicinity on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Pemberton motored to Muskoka on Tuesday and spent a couple of days picking huckleberries.

Harvesting operations are in full swing in this district. The crops are considerably above the average.

BLOOMINGTON

Rev. C. E. Fockler of Keswick visited his brother W. A. Fockler here for a day or two.

Arthur Smith was on a fishing trip in the North country. What luck Arthur?

Miss Edna Lemon is home from Toronto for holidays.

Following their attendance at the summer school held at Lakemount, N.Y. Miss Elsie Lemon and Melville have returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Storey were in Toronto last week.

The wet weather had prevented our farmers from completing the haying in this district. Many acres are still uncut, while alsike and wheat are ready for cutting and demand immediate attention. Here's hoping for dry weather.

PICNIC SEEKERS HAD BIG TIME AT ISLAND GROVE

Col. Mulock's Picnic Provides Big Day of Fun

North York Liberals (and many Conservatives too) turned out in mass on Saturday to attend Col. W. P. Mulock's picnic at Island Grove, Stouffville was well represented and the local band was one of five such organizations to furnish the music during the afternoon.

With picnicking baskets piled high and a real holiday step they arrived in great numbers, pitched horse-shoes, cheered, ate and went swimming, as well as took chances in buying tickets on some five cars to be given away free at various functions to be staged shortly throughout the district. Stouffville's car to be given away on August 3 was on the grounds and some 400 tickets were sold for it.

In the midst of all this amusement those who preferred listening to political speeches were being entertained from the grand stand by the following speakers: The gist of whose remarks have appeared in the daily press:—
Hon. Geo. P. Graham, Hon. Chas. Stewart, Hon. G. N. Gordon, George McPhee, M.P., Jos. Bradette, M.P., and Samuel Factor M.P., Col. Mulock introduced the speakers.

Although this was the first picnic Col. Mulock has held he announces that it will be an annual affair. This one was well advertised both in the press and by other means. The small pony going about on a truck for several days prior to the picnic was won by Orme Link, aged 10 years of Roach's Point as the winner in the candy contest.

Messrs. Seneca Baker and David Clark, both of Whitechurch were tied in years for second place as being the oldest North York Liberals on the grounds, but Mr. Clark had it over Mr. Baker by seven-seven days. He was born on August 17, 1851, and Mr. Baker a week later. William Curtis 84, won first in this contest. He comes from Roach's Point.

Unionville won the soft ball tournament.

A message from Rt. Hon. W.L.M. King was read by the chairman J. M. Walton and received by the crowd with rounds of applause.

Col. Mulock also received a royal reception when he stepped forward to welcome the big crowd as his guests.
