C. F. Cooke of Niagara-on-the-Lake has leased the billiard parlors and bowling alleys in the Auditorium and is now in charge. A native of Sweden Mr. Cooke intends to move his family here shortly, and thus become a permanent resident.

Lost—Leather key case and number of keys, also dollar bill enclosed. Finder keep the dollar and leave keys at Tribune office or Shadow Lake camp.

Mr. James Barry has completed arrangements for the rebuilding of the large barn on his farm adjoining town to the west. The barn which was hurled to earth on July 18 when struck by a cyclone will again be put up with a wood frame, but with sheet metal siding Work is now underway.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Simpson are now located in the Mansion House with Mrs. Frank Miller. Mrs. Simpson's ability, especially in the conduct of a dining room and culinary department, is well known and the hotel is fortunate in securing her services. The Mansion House is a widely known hostelry of many years standing.

Mr. and Mrs. William Simpson and family have vacated their house in the west end and leased it to Mrs. Thompson who had been living in Miss Elsie Johnson's house on Charles street. Miss Johnson is again occupying part of her own home, and the remainder has been rented to Mrs. Harry Gilbert.

The Tribune is official agent for all Toronto daily papers, which can be renewed through this office at a direct saving to you.

Roth Eaton cup, baseball games at Sunderland on Wednesday August 19. Street Dance at night. 48th Highlanders Band.

The village of Markdale has refused to allow any more gasoline pumps to be installed on the Main street, and also passed a bylaw assessing those now doing business a yearly rental of $25.

During the intense heat of last Thursday one of the work horses on the farm of Mr. Tom Simpson at Ballantrae succumbed to the heat and died in the harness while working in the harvest field.

A Chevrolet car parked in Uxbridge town last Saturday night, was located on Tuesday night south of Goodwood, where it had been abandoned after having been driven some 200 miles. The car belonged to Oscar Fairman of Uxbridge.

Last Thursday the district auctioneer F. W. Silversides celebrated his 64th birthday, and as a sort of birthday handout (although his patrons didn't know it) he booked three auction sales for the fall season. Indications are that there will be quite a number of sales this coming season, according to the man who wields the hammer on the auction block. It is just 25 years this month since Mr. Silversides gave up the management of the McGillivray farm to devote his entire time to the auction business.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Fleury of Welwyn, Sask., with their four children are in town visiting with her mother Mrs. S. M. Warriner. They made the trip by automobile travelling through the States to Chicago, and crossing the line at Detroit. Speaking of conditions in his home territory Mr. Fleury states that the farmers will scarcely have enough crop this year for feeding purposes due to the unprecedented drought. Last year 50 per cent of the farmers were unable to pay their taxes at all, and he could not predict what they will do his year to get them paid. Being the general merchant at Welwyn he is in close touch with conditions and says the banks are not extending any loans while the merchant must do business strictly on a cash basis or he could not survive long. His town is located near the Manitoba boundary about 130 miles east of Regina and while a small village, it is located in what is generally a good farming settlement. His father, who is a former citizen of Stouffville, is a member of the firm with himself. The Fleurys intend to spend a few pleasant weeks among old friends here before starting on the return journey.

House to rent on Albert street. Garage. Apply John Cleaver.

The Tribune mailed to any address from now until Dec. 31 for only 50c, to new subscribers.

Mr. Jess Boyer of Markham Township, the well-known honey king of this section, is authority for the opinion that this year's crop of the sweet goods will not be heavy. Since commencing to gather the nectar from his big army of workers located at various outposts in Whitchurch and Markham, he has arrived at the belief that for some reason the bees have not laid up in store anything like the supply of the year previous.

Harvesting operations were interrupted over the weekend by the wet weather, but everything was so well advanced that the hold-up was not the subject of any complaint from the farmers. The odd farmer is all through drawing in, while others have just a few loads out, but some threshing done. Grain is just an average crop with excellent straw. The root crop promises to be extra good. Fields of vegetables near town present a wonderful picture, and the crop will be a record one.

On Monday last Rev. Thos. and Mrs. Laidlaw were celebrating the 20th anniversary of their wedding day which was observed quietly at their own home, and quite unknown to their many friends, we believe. When the pastor and his wife were first married they located on the Epsom circuit of the old Methodist church just five miles east of Uxbridge where they remained for the allotted time granted a preacher at that time. Friends will join with The Tribune in extending to Mr. and Mrs. Laidlaw many happy returns, which although a trifle late is none the less sincere.

The tax rate for the town of Warton up on the Bruce Peninsula was struck last week at 60 mills, or 24 mills higher than the rate prevailing in Stouffville. The county rate up in that neck of the woods is about the same as we have to pay in Stouffville, but the school tax is abnormally high, as well as the rate for general expenses. Another place just the size of Stouffville to outdistance us as a heavy taxed community is Aliston with a rate struck last Friday of 56 mills. Both of these communities are splendid places, but do not possess any modern improvements over Stouffville, all of which indicates that we are in a very favored position.

Mrs. Ralph Hamilton has decided to vacate her brick residence on O'Brien Avenue, and will make her home with her sisters for a time at least. The premises have been rented to Mr. Hugh Watson, principal of the Continuation School, who will move to town within the next two weeks. Mr. Watson had previously rented the John Baker place opposite Dr. Sangster's, but preferred the Hamilton residence because of the increased garden privileges which appealed to the school principal who is an agricultural specialist. Mrs. Hamilton will not hold an auction sale at present but will store her furniture

A few days ago Mr. Herb Mitchell showed us a certificate just received from the Department of Agriculture indicating that his herd of Ayrshires are now fully accredited, being entirely free from tubercular of any kind, something very common to most cattle. Mr. Mitchell is to be congratulated on his progressive farming ability, especially so when we recall that just five years ago he was a city lad, and knew nothing whatever of the life of rural Ont. The supply of milk from this herd is sold during the summer months to the campers at Lake Musselman where Mr. Mitchell has built up a satisfactory trade among the cottagers.

Some people imagine they are being imposed on when they are asked to buy a ticket for a celebration, even when the ticket carries with it a chance to win a new car. We wonder what this class of people would think if they were asked to subscribe for a newspaper published in some distant town in which they are not locally interested in the least, just to give the subscription agent a chance to win a new car. This sort of thing is going on right now in various parts of Ontario, and agents have been soliciting the Stouffville district for subscriptions to weekly papers published in outside districts, in order that the agent might secure a prize for selling the most papers. While the vast majority of weeklies rely on their ability to publish a good newspaper to maintain their circulation, others start a campaign for the purpose of bolstering their circulation, and the disinterested outside districts are made the goat. If your home town paper solicits a subscription it has something to offer you in return for your money in the way of a newspaper in which the news should be of real interest and value to you, but if a weekly paper from a town in which perhaps you know no one solicits your money, it surely does look like an imposition.

House to rent on Victoria street. Apply Mrs. Wilson east end, phone 6515.

Attend Sunderland Legion Street Dance on August 19. 48th Highlanders Band in attendance (broadcast CKGW 6.55 p.m. fast time.)

Get ready for corn roasts—Golden Bantam corn ready this weekend at only 12c dozen, also cucumbers for pickling. Alex. Denison, east end, phone 6713.

The church service next Sunday morning at Lake Musselman will be held at the usual hour of 10 o'clock, but it will be of an especial nature. Mr. A. J. Ward will preach, and arrangements are being made for special music. All who can take in this lakeside service in the church are requested to do so.

Mr. George Taylor, employee at the Raitch store, will move at the end of this month into his new home on Mill street just north of the Shaw store. The new residence which Mr. Taylor purchased from Mr. John Madill, is nearing completion, and contains all modern conveniences with nice bright rooms.

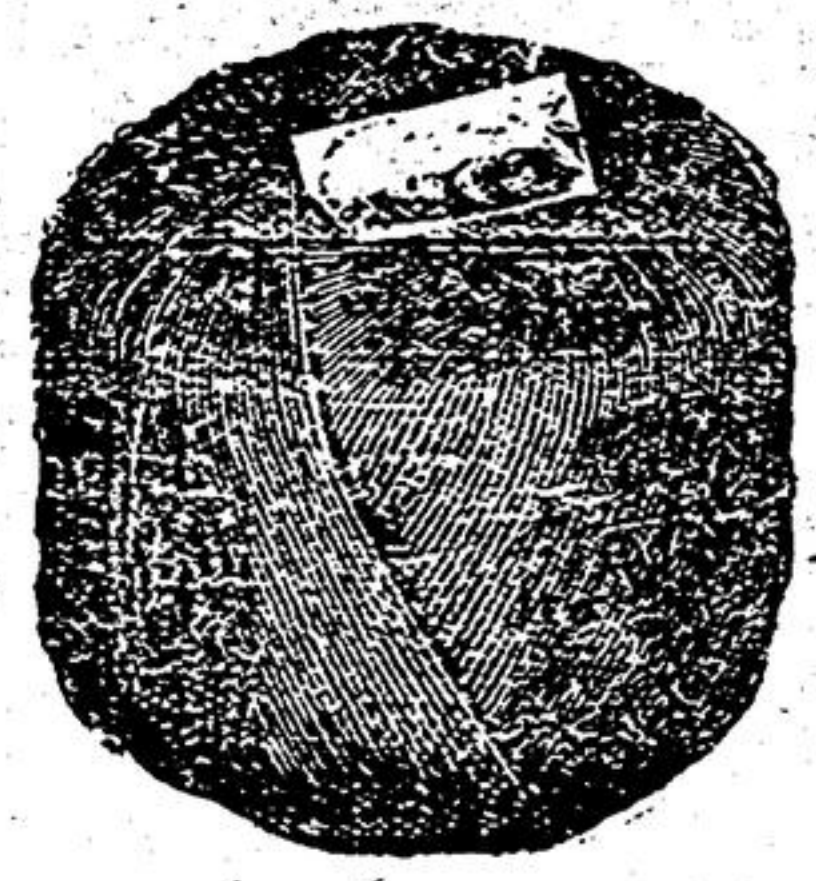

Reg. Walker of Stouffville was sent to the 'Work Boys' Home for an indefinite period on Monday when he appeared before Magistrate Keith on a charge of stealing from the cash box at the Mansion House here. The lad was previously on probation, but the magistrate took a lenient view of his case, and showed a desire to give him every chance to apply himself. Walker was arrested at Lake Musselman by Constable Pugh, and later admitted his guilt of lifting the change from the cash drawer when no one was in the room at the hotel.

The citizens are growing anxious to see the new tower clock erected and in operation. The tower is now completed excepting for a few finishing touches, but the clock is not expected to be installed until next week, or until an expert clock man arrives from Toronto to superintend the work of installation. On Tuesday morning the new bell was taken up to the floor where it will be swung from the big beam in readiness for the clock connections. The matter of installing the clock is in charge of the municipal council.

In the home-and-home games with Newmarket played here on Saturday and in Newmarket on Monday, Stouffville forfeited any right they had to the championship of the York-Ontario Baseball League. The Canal Town took both games in two of the most ragged exhibitions of baseball staged in the league this summer. The score at Stouffville on Saturday was 9 to 1 in the return game the score was 11 to 2, practically every run being scored on errors. The Lehman battery stood up well in both games but received little or no support. Just what happened the Stouffville team that they played poorer ball at the end of the season than at the start is hard to understand, but anyway this is the way it came out. Cheerio.

Between 11 and 12 o'clock on Friday night Mr. Roy Grove, the Ringwood merchant, was disturbed from a peaceful sleep by the fierce grinding of brakes, and putting his head out of the window, was just in time to see a big McLaughlin Buick car pass down the 8th concession, and crash into a garage at the corner, which belongs to himself. Before Mr. Grove could give the alarm, the two men in the car had left on foot at a lively clip

IS IT HOT ENOUGH FOR YOU?

The recent heat wave which swept the whole North American continent inspired columns of comment in newspapers throughout the land, but the following outburst of protest can be attributed to the energetic and perspiring editor of the Alvinston Free Press:

Though the mercury's perspiring far above old ninety-two, Still those darn fools keep enquiring:

"Is it hot enough for you?" People swoon from heat congestion Horses die and turn to glue, But it doesn't stop that question, "Is it hot enough for you?"

When from mundane life we're fleeing, From the world where troubles brew, Wonder if we'll head that greeting Wonder if we'll hear that greeting
