ALTONA

Miss Lizzie Davis was home over the weekend.
 Miss Ethel Bunker spent Sunday with her parents.
 Mr. and Mrs. Willis McNair spent Sunday with Mrs. R. Brown.
 Mr. and Mrs. O. Madill and family spent Sunday afternoon with relatives near Brougham.
 Mr. and Mrs. D. Nighswander and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. Moyer.
 Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, bride and groom, have returned home safe from their honeymoon.

They are making good progress in levelling the Altona cemetery which is the biggest improvement the corner has had in many a year.
 A shooting match is announced for Saturday, Dec. 5th at the farm of Bert Lewis. Mrs. Lewis has some choice ducks and geese which will be put up for prizes, so a keen competition is looked forward to.

ALEXANDER WALKER

The death occurred in Peterborough, Ont., on Tuesday, November 10th, 1931, of Alexander Walker, in his 64th year, following a paralytic stroke a few weeks previous from which he never recovered. The funeral took place to Little Lake cemetery, Peterborough, on Thursday, November 12th, 1931.

The late Mr. Walker was born at Markham and learned the blacksmithing in Stouffville, but later went to Uxbridge and engaged with the Conboy Carriage factory. He married Miss Susan Wagg, who predeceased him in 1901, leaving one daughter Mrs. Frank Reynolds of Uxbridge. He later married Miss Annie Wesley of Peterborough, who also survives and to whom the sympathy of all is extended in their bereavement. The late Mr. Walker is related to the Dunkeld family at Atha and to the McConnachie of Stouffville.

LEMONVILLE

Mr. Michael Wallace spent Sunday in Toronto with his sister Mrs. Mary Canning.
 Mr. George Hannah and Miss Stella Cook, both of Newmarket, spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. James Cooney and children spent Sunday with Mrs. Cooney's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walsh at Newmarket.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Brown and son Walter attended the Royal Winter Fair, last week. Miss Nora Macklem and Mr. Ralph Richards were other guests present from here.

The attendance at church is increasing, as we note it was comfortably filled on Sunday evening. With an outstanding speaker in Rev. Mr. French our congregation should be on the increase.

A very pleasant time was spent at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. John K. Brown, on Thursday evening last week when some ninety friends and neighbors of the family assembled in a body to bid farewell to this popular family. Mr. and Mrs. Brown and Walter are moving to Stouffville in a few days. Mr. Brown having purchased a house there. At the winding up of this very pleasant evening Mrs. Hood came forth, and silenced the party by reading a very beautiful address to the Brown family. At this point Mrs. Talbot presented the departing friends with a lovely electric floor lamp. Mrs. Brown and Walter on behalf of themselves and Mr. Brown made a fitting reply. Mr. Brown was a very active church worker while Mrs. Brown took a keen interest in the Women's Association, and was a former member of the choir. She was also ever willing to do her share in the welfare of the community. We as a community deeply regret the loss of these much valued citizens. Lunch was served

CLAREMONT

The Community Hall was filled almost to capacity on Friday evening November 20th, when the B.Y. P.U. presented a three act comedy, drama, "The Path Across the Hill". This drama is a mixture of pathos and humor and contains a good moral. The ten young people who comprised the cast, are to be congratulated on their success, as each performed his or her part in a creditable manner. The Mandolin music provided between acts by the Nidderly Trio from Prospect was of a fine quality and was greatly appreciated. At the close of the evening Mrs. G. M. Forsyth was presented with a beautiful bouquet in appreciation of her time and patience in training the young people for the drama. It is possible that they will take this play to Stouffville under some church organization.

A well attended meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Jones on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 18th. The president, Mrs. G. M. Forsyth was in the chair. Roll Call—"My favorite book and its author", was responded to by most of the ladies present. The business session occupied more time than usual as several requests for donations had been received since it was known that the Institute had on hand the receipts from the banquet served to the South Ontario Plowmen's Association. Among the donations granted was one of $30 for the Public Library. Arrangements were also made to give substantial aid to a needy family in the community. Miss Mary Forsyth read a splendid paper on "The Literature of the Day."

4th LINE UXBRIDGE

Miss Marjorie Maye spent last Wednesday with Mary Jones.

Miss Mary Jones spent a few days with Geo. Jones and family.

Miss Hilda Ashenlurst visited her aunt Mrs. Silver in Balsam last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Alsop and children visited with friends in Goodwood Sunday.

This fine weather is certainly giving the plowmen a good chance to finish their fall work.

Miss Hattie and Bert Rueben also Johnny Maye spent Friday evening with Geo. Jones and family.

Perhaps we will see our neighbors more often now as a number of phones have been taken out.

A number of our Potato Club Boys attended the Royal Winter Fair in Toronto last week.

We are sorry to hear of the misfortune of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Coppins in the loss of their son a few days old.

We are well supplied with meat or at least should be, as no less than four butchers last week canvassed here, also Jack Norton has started his business again for the winter.

BLOOMINGTON

The Bloomington Christian Church held their 39th Anniversary Services last Sunday when splendid congregations greeted Mr. Emerson Sanderson, student minister of Victoria Park Ave., Christian Church, Toronto, who was the speaker.

The Ringwood Church Choir and male quartette led the evening worship in song. The male quartette consisted of Messrs Percy and Howard Steckley and Messrs. Truman and Jacob Grove. The choir and quartette gave three numbers which were well rendered with Mrs. L. Barrett presiding at the organ.

Mr. Sanderson's subject at the evening service was taken from Luke 18:22 "Attractive Sinners". His remarks were drawn from the story of the Rich Young Ruler. There are many rich young rulers in this day and age, who like the one of old have education and culture and are attractive but—"Lack One Thing."

Miss Leask of Toronto was present as soloist rendering two numbers: "The Cry in the Wilderness" and "Face to Face" Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stafford also favored the audience with a duet. "The Rose of Sharon," while Miss Nora Stapleton conducted the worship service at the organ.

Mr. Sanderson is a specially talented and impressive speaker, and his presence was appreciated and enjoyed by all who heard him. His text at the morning service being, Thes. 5:21. Subject—"The Twin have met," or "Between two generations." The speaker emphasized the thought to "Hold Fast" to those things which have been proven valuable by the older generation and to prove first the new ideas advanced by youth.
