

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Furniture auction on Saturday. See display adv. in this issue.

E. A. Grubin, Optometrist, will be at his Stouffville office on Monday and Tuesday, March 21st and 22nd.

Markham Agricultural Society have been advised that there will not be any government aid for field crop competitions this year.

Thos. Findlay, aged 76 years, died in Toronto on Saturday, and was buried on Monday under L.O.L. auspices. The late Mr. Findlay lived in Stouffville with his wife for about three years, residing on Stouffer street. A year ago they returned to Toronto.

M. R. Wilson, general merchant at Locust Hill, entertained the hockey team of that place to an oyster supper, as a mark of appreciation, when the boys won the Stouffville Hockey League Championship. The final victory over Claremont is a great source of satisfaction to the Hill folk.

This section is not immune from the flu epidemic now raging over the province. Almost every home in the locality has been touched, but fortunately there are no serious cases. For the most part a few days in bed, and the affected one is recovered. Attendance at school and churches have been depleted to a noticeable extent since the flu started.

The subscription rate for The Tribune is $2 per year, and $2.50 to United States points. The label on your paper indicates the expiring date of your subscription. See that your subscription renewal is attended to before the expiring date.

Call and see the new suit lengths for spring at F. E. Rae's.

Mrs. Joseph Hoover has been spending some time with her daughter Mrs. Percy Steckley who has been quite ill at her home in East Toronto.

Why Get Pinched?—Brakes re-lined free.—You pay only for the break lining. Be prompt, this bargain won't last forever. Swift's Garage.

Vincent Wagg is serving on Jury in Toronto, while his place at the farm north of town is being filled by his brother Leo, who is temporarily out of employment in Toronto.

An improvement in the butter market has given an impetus to the cream situation, and last week there was a sharp advance of several cents per pound in the price of butter fat.

Miss Aleda Russel has returned to town and re-opened her apartment in the Silvester block following her illness in St. John's Hospital, and several weeks spent with her mother in Markham while convalescing. Miss Russel is prepared to resume her business in dress-making.

Despite all the protests from private parties, municipal bodies, etc., the C.P.R. station at Beeton has been closed, when the agent was removed, and a caretaker installed. The village however is still served by the C.N.R., and surely one steam road can handle all the traffic of a place with 600 population.

Mrs. Milton Clark and little son Cameron from Omemeo, also Mrs. Frank Rowbotham who is spending the winter in Toronto, were guests at the Klunk home on O'Brien Ave for the past week.

Tapping maple trees the last days of February came to an abrupt ending in the vicinity of Goodwood, when cold weather suddenly fell upon us. We have heard of no new syrup being offered for sale locally so far.

Mr. Morley Barker who has been travelling lately for a wholesale leather concern, was suddenly taken ill in the city of Guelph, on Tuesday. He was seized with appendicitis and removed to the city hospital there for an operation. Early Wednesday morning Mrs. Barker left for the scene of the trouble in order to be with her husband.

The Junior Institute meeting on Tuesday afternoon held at the home of Mrs. S. Goudie, Mill street, was an unusually interesting gathering. Mr. G. H. Clark, who is addressing horticultural societies throughout Ontario, was the guest speaker of the afternoon. On this account the regular program was somewhat altered. Mr. Clark's remarks were highly appreciated because of their informative nature. At the conclusion of the program an excellent lunch was served by the hostess.

Listen in next Sunday evening to the Raymer Eventide Hour at 5.30 o'clock (see adv. in this issue) and hear the sweet gospel messages in song, also the historical sketch of Stouffville and Dixon Hill. Mr. Lloyd Raymer, sponsor of this program wishes us to announce that this is not a "service," and that it is his wish that you do not contribute toward paying for this hour, although he thanks all those who sent in contributions—up to this time. This program is one hour of old-fashioned hymns and favorites for the pleasure of the radio audience. It is presented and paid for by Mr. Raymer, a native of Dickson Hill, who is personally a lover of old hymns and music, such as this Raymer Eventide Hour offers.

Those who on Monday evening of this week failed to hear Dr. Macdougall, who lectured at the United Church under the auspices of the Swastikas, certainly missed an opportunity to enjoy a rare intellectual and spiritual treat.

The Doctor is a man of profound scholarship, sincerity and fearlessness, possessing a background of long service to humanity of all classes combined with an experience obtained by long contact and association with a great variety of religions and nationalities. No one could be better fitted to deal with the subject of the evening—"The Creating of a World Mind." The inter-relationships of interests of all people to-day the unconscious use by us from day to day of the tools forged in distant Eastern lands or by ancient civilizations, the development of an intelligent appreciation of diversity of customs and methods, above all the commanding necessity for the utter destruction of the spirit of war and nationalism—all these were dealt with in a manner which held the audience in rapt attention.

After beautiful renditions in song by Mrs. Laidlaw and the Stouffville Ladies' Quartette Dr. Macdougall, by request, conducted a question and answer period on India. The questions were dealt with in a very able and convincing manner. All who listened felt that the Indian problem was greatly clarified in their minds and that Great Britain in her Indian Empire is charged with a great responsibility, which she is endeavoring to fulfill in a spirit of great fairness and discretion in the best interests of all India. While full recognition was given Mahatma Ghandi as a great spiritual force and great eulogy was due him as an apostle of simplicity of living, as a friend of the depressed and as a teacher of the necessity of the industrial self-sufficiency of the family unit, it was the opinion of the speaker that the Mahatma, particularly since the opening of the London Round Table Conference has weakened his prestige by playing the role of the politician, and by lack of conciliatory spirit. He believed, moreover, that the firmness of policy being pursued by the present authorities in Indian affairs was already having a salutary effect and that Mr. Ghandi himself though in jail, is happy that forces which were growing beyond his control are being subdued.

Mrs. Violet Stadlebauer of Toronto was in town on Tuesday.

Suits with extra trousers, (ready-to-wear) by best makers at only $19.50. F. E. Rae's tailoring shop.

Suckers are up! And the boys were busy last Saturday hauling them out of the creek south of the town.

Fred Stephenson, one of our esteemed farmers on the 9th concession south of town, brought into the office of this paper on Tuesday a real live grasshopper. Fred could hardly believe his own eyes, and had us confirm what he saw. This summer best weathered the few cold days by securing quarters in the farm home where it was first discovered.

The young men who have sponsored the various dances held in the Auditorium this winter, are shortly to issue invitations for an Easter Dance to be held on the evening of Friday, April 1st. The patronesses for the event are Mrs. James Muston, Mrs. Blake Sanders, Miss Jean Collard, Mrs. Clayton Baker, Miss Opal Dotey, Mrs. Harry Brillinger, Mrs. S. S. Ball.

Mr. Sam Strong who returned to Stouffville a year ago to work with his son Roy in the garage, has secured employment at Grimsby, and will move his household effects this week. Mr. Strong who farmed in this locality for years, has been appointed foreman of a 22 acre fruit farm, producing grapes and other small fruits. Mr. and Mrs. Strong have occupied half the double house south of Swift's Garage, which is now available for another tenant. Their friends will regret their departure from town.

The March meeting of the school Board was marked for its brevity. There was very little business introduced, and only two small accounts were presented and paid. G. K. Mills, Continuation School Inspector, filed his annual report concerning his recent inspection of the school. The lack of accommodation for the science class is becoming increasingly noticeable, and the inspector said it hampered the best work of the students. The small laboratory accommodates barely 16, whereas the class numbers 26. The work of the janitor was marked as good, while for the most part the general standing of the school was satisfactory.

The former principal of Stouffville Continuation School, Mr. C. E. Powell, who in addition to being a school teacher, is something of a successful director of dramatics, as the local people will remember after his two big productions here, "It Can't be Done" and "Some Baby." Since leaving here last summer for Grand Valley Mr. Powell has trained his pupils in that place for the presentation of "The Arrival of Kitty," which was given in Grand Valley two successive nights last week. The success attending Mr. Powell's latest effort is told in a column or more space by the Grand Valley Star which declares it to be quite the most elaborate local undertaking ever attempted.

Considerable interest is being awakened in the annual oratorical contest under the Stouffville Continuation School, in the Auditorium on Thursday March 24. The prizes for this event are being donated by Mr. E. M. Still. This is an annual event which should draw a good crowd as public speaking is a part of the local school work being stressed this year. A very interesting part of the program will take the form of slides which have been obtained from the Ontario Board of Education. The scenes are all taken in Canada and should help to make the evening most entertaining. As quite a crowd is expected one should come early to obtain a seat. To defray the expenses an admission of 25c is charged.

The second euchre of the series will be held in the O. E. S. rooms on the evening of Tuesday, March 22.

Coming! F. E. Luke, 167 Yonge St., Toronto's able Eyesight Specialist for glasses may be consulted at Boardway's Drug Store, Stouffville, on Thursday, March 24th.

On account of so much sickness at the present time, it has been decided to cancel the St. Patrick's supper announced last week to be held in the Presbyterian church on March 17.

The soloists taking part in the Cantata "Olivet to Calvary," and which is to be given by the choir of the United Church, on the evening of Good Friday, March 25th are: Mrs. Harold Lewis, soprano, Mr. Carson Wideman, tenor, and Mr. Roberts Williams of Toronto, baritone.

Deputy-Reeve Robt. Smith, who is holding a public auction sale on Saturday, will undoubtedly attract one of the largest crowds of the season, at his farm 3 1/2 miles south of Stouffville on the seventh concession. All the stock and implements, as well as the farm will be put on the auction block.

The wedding of Miss Edna B. Hallman of Detroit, formerly of Kitchener, to Mr. Byron Sheepe, Badaxe, Michigan, was solemnized at the home of the bride's sister Mrs. O. Cressman, New Dundee, on Thursday 10th, 1932. After the ceremony the happy couple left on their honeymoon to Toronto and points north. They were guests of Mrs. S. B. Hoover, Dixon's Hill, aunt of the bride, and Mr. Martin Wideman uncle of the bride on Friday. On their return they will reside in Badaxe, Mich., U.S.A.

The cold weather this last week gave a new life to the curling fraternity, and enabled the locals to play home and home games with Richmond Hill, winning the round by three shots. On Monday this week three local rinks went to Toronto to play the Strathcona Club, winning out with nine shots of a total. Following were the rinks: S. Armstrong sk, C. Pipher; W. McNair, Walter Brillinger—up 5. Harry Brillinger, Thos. Birkett, W. H. Brillinger, D. Holden—up 11. J. S. Dougherty, Blake Sanders, Bert Smith, Allan Closson—down 7.

An Oatmeal Feed!

Just what Baby Chicks should have

No wonder baby chicks thrive so heartily on Quaker Ful-O-Pep Chick Starter. The base of this remarkable feed is good pure oatmeal—just the thing for tiny, tender crops. Combined with the oatmeal are Cod Liver Oil and Cod Liver Meal, together with essential minerals and other valuable ingredients. All thoroughly and accurately mixed! All ready for feeding, just as it comes from the sack.

Chicks grow faster, stronger, and resist unfavourable weather when you give them this wholesome oatmeal-base feed.
