LIFE'S AMENITIES

The campaign to keep the sidewalks clean in Walkerton took a rather ludicrous turn on Monday evening last, when Price Fields in driving a cow out the Queen's Hotel barn, observed the bovine about to put the sidewalk in an unsanitary state, and rushing up, smote the quadruped a surprise blow on the flank, with the result that in the lurch his clothes received what the concrete escaped.

Not only were his garments in a fit state for the cleaners, but the crowd, including Chief Constable Ferguson, who witnessed the affair, got almost a stitch in their sides roaring over their bridgework at this Comedy of Errors.

A RARE COUNTRY HOME

Possibly one of the finest summer homes in the country is situated about fifteen miles from Stouffville and is owned by Sir Wm. Mulock, Chief Justice of Ontario. On Civic Holiday some two weeks ago whilst mingling with a crowd of some three hundred of the Black Watch Association of Toronto which yearly are his Honor's guests, and strolling about the estate admiring the avenues of stately trees, sweeps of well-kept lawns and lengths of finely-cut stone foot paths, we came upon Jas. Dixon the man in charge of the estate.

"You have everything looking like the proverbial million dollars, Mr. Dixon," we ventured with the hope that the gentleman in question would feel inclined to talk.

"Yes sir," he replied, "the place looks at its best this time of year."

"You have a lot of ground to look after here, haven't you? How many acres are there in this part?"

"About forty. Would you like me to show you over the place?"

Replying in the affirmative, the genial head gardener, who has made such his life-work, and who for the past seven years has tended to the needs of the Mulock Estate, took us first to the extreme west, where, surrounded by a regular bevy of flowers, is Dixon's home, and the large garden that supplies the Toronto home of Sir Wm. over the fall and winter with vegetables.

From here, by paths, shady nooks and over soft yielding grassy sward we were taken to be shown the different spots of interest. Here a summer house of rustic erected over fifty years, here a stately elm, pine or maple planted by Sir Wm. in the years gone by when he represented North York in the Dominion House. Rose beds flower beds walks, shrubberies, groves of walnut trees, were viewed under the guiding eye of Mr. Dixon. This was the fountain here, he pointed out at one particular spot, but Sir Wm. had it removed and the pool filled in. He was nervous that some child might fall in. Characteristic of Canada's Grand Old Man, we thought, who despite his eighty-eight years, is still a keen thinker and ever thoughtful of the welfare of others.

Coming to the front of the residence, we could not help but be impressed by the glorious mass of brilliant bloom on the long verandah. Here twenty-six hanging baskets and a dozen long window boxes bespoke watchful care and attention.

"How many flower-beds are there?" we asked Dixon.

"Thirty-six beside the border beds, then there is the flower garden at the back where we get our cut flowers."

To the inquiry of how the lawns were looked after, we were informed that it took three men three days to go over them with a small horse mower. The grass around the trees had to be cut by a lawn mower and clippers.

Truly, this country estate, so close to our town is one of which we can be justly proud as is James Dixon, under whose watchful eye neatness and beauty are personified.

Uxbridge Twp. Council

The Uxbridge Council met at Goodwood on Saturday. Reeve Isaac Catherwood presided, with all members present.

R. D. Ruddy, the county clerk, wrote as to one Seymour Weiser being admitted to the Sick Children's Hospital. The clerk wrote repudiating the liability on the ground of the patient not being a resident of Uxbridge Township.

I. E. Weldon, K.C. Toronto, filed a claim for damage to his car, while travelling on the west towline on June 26. As the legal time for filing such claim had expired, no action was taken.

The clerk was instructed to repudiate any charge made against the township relative to John Meck being admitted to the General Hospital, Toronto, on ground of non-residence.

The treasurer's half-yearly report of the financial standing was received. This showed the finances in excellent condition and highly gratifying to the council.

As there is a small amount of unpaid taxes, the treasurer was instructed to proceed with the collection forthwith.

Mr. A. J. DeCarle of Parkhill, a former printer, gave council a brief call. He complimented them on the business like manner in which they handle the public affairs, and said that his old friendship for the township is still keen.

The by-law for striking the various rates of the township was given its several readings and passed. The County Rate will be four fifths of a mill lower than last year, or 12, 75/100, mills. The township rate one half mill lower 7.5/100 mills. The general school rate the same as last year 6.31/100, mills. The council has no control over school rates. The trustee rates, for the different schools in township, struck to suit the requirement of School Boards. There will be a very noticeable difference in some of the school sections where the Trustees have benefited by engaging teachers at lower salaries. Some school secretaries, not having returned their requisition, no rate was struck for them.

The heaviest part of the business was the passing and payment of the following accounts:

Here and There

The Nova Scotia Dairyman's Association will hold their next annual convention, in 1932, at the Cornwallis Inn, Kentville, N.S.

Shipments of celery to Canada this year from Bermuda totalled 25,000 crates in contrast to last year when the shipments were virtually negligible.

Eastern Steamship Lines, Inc. had heavy traffic on an excursion from New York to Nova Scotia on the occasion of the first trip in June of the S.S. Acadia from New York to Yarmouth, N.S.

Railroad transportation is an essential economic function on this continent and given reasonably free rein should speedily show good recovery using it to increase buying of materials and employment of labor, says the Greenville (S.C.) News editorially.

Total production of honey in Canada in 1931 amounted to 27,867,397 lbs. valued at $2,058,094. Ontario led the Dominion with a production of 12,000,000 lbs. with Manitoba second with 7,367,375 lbs., and Quebec third with 5,633,400 lbs.

Ten thousand rainbow trout fingerlings have been deposited in the French River in June, following 7,500 fingerlings deposited last year. The previous experiment was so satisfactory that the present action has been taken and if success still attends these efforts, the French River Bungalow Camp will have added rainbow trout to its already well diversified angling attractions.

Bob Davis, globe-trotting New York Sun columnist, is back in his beloved British Columbia, having recently arrived from Honolulu aboard the Empress of Canada, of the Canadian Pacific fleet. He proposes to spend some time in fishing expeditions both in the province and also in the Rockies where he will meet Irvin S. Cobb and Courtney Riley Cooper, also famous American publicists.

Tourists spent almost one million dollars for every working day in Canada last year, a sum virtually equal to $280,000,000, the Cannington, Ontario, Gleaner, points out and claims that this puts it into the class of big business which should be carefully fostered. Commenting on the same subject, the Nelson, B.C., News states that there are numbers of small towns throughout Canada which have not yet realized what the tourist business could do for them.

Evidence of the growing popularity of the Canadian Pacific Railway low rate bargain return trips, inaugurated this year, was again furnished by the success of the Quebec Province and Montreal excursion to Toronto and Niagara Falls, June 17, when no fewer than 2,500 Quebecers took the trip in four specials on the Friday, returning the following Sunday night. His Honor the Mayor of Toronto issued a hearty welcome to those making the trip.

The thirty-two business and professional men and women from the British Isles now touring British Columbia under provincial government auspices found Victoria much to their liking and quite up to advance notices of being the most "English" city on this side of the Atlantic. They were particularly impressed by the beauty of the formal gardens at some of the homes they inspected and specially with the famous Butchart Gardens. They are travelling by Canadian Pacific Railway. (853)

BACK TO THE LAND MOVEMENT FAVORED IN FORT WILLIAM

The back-to-the-land movement inaugurated by the Ontario Government is being received with approval by some municipalities, while in others it has awakened little or no interest. Lindsay, for instance, is taking no action on the circulars received from the Department of Lands and Forests. Not so, however, with Fort William, where a special meeting of the City Council decided on adoption of the plan and arranged for the appointment of a special committee to act in the matter.

The plan in brief, is that the Ontario Government, through the Department of Land and Forests, proposes, to expend about $600,000 to assist a limited number of farmers to re-establish themselves on the land. The amount is to be divided equally between the federal and provincial Governments and the municipalities that co-operate, each municipality to provide a maximum of $200 or pro rata part thereof per applicant. It is understood that only those who appear to be qualified, of good physique, and with a knowledge of the hazards of pioneer life, will be approved. These families must, of course be residents of Canada and be from the class that would otherwise be receiving direct relief. There is to be no discrimination as regards politics, race or religion. No payments will be made in cash but the funds are for the purchase of such lumber, hardware and modest farm equipment as many be required.

A man familiar with local conditions will be appointed from each co-operating municipality to represent the department in working out the scheme. Out of the movement may grow a permanent colonization plan with reference to lands in Northern Ontario.
