

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Reserve the evening of Tuesday, November 29th, for the play to be presented by the Jr. Institute.

Mr. A. M. Carpenter of Minden was a guest at the home of Clerk J. S. Dougherty on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Powell, accompanied by his mother, were in town over Sunday. Mrs. Powell Jr. will visit her parents Mr. and Mrs. George Cook, for a few weeks.

Mrs. F. A. Dales of Toronto, who since the death of the doctor, has given up her home in the city, has recently moved to Keswick, Ontario where she has a sister residing.

Mr. H. McKelvie of Toronto will preach in the Church of Christ, west end, Stouffville, on Sunday November 13th, at 11 o'clock a.m. All are welcome.

Rev. W. W. Fleischer, pastor of our Baptist church, and who is also professor of Church History in the Toronto Baptist seminary, is slated to give an address in Cannington on Armistice Day, at the semi-annual meeting of the Regular Baptist Association.

Rev. George Little, E. A., editor of the Sunday School publications, was the special speaker in the United Church last Sunday at both services, to mark the occasion of the church anniversary. The visiting preacher delivered two outstanding sermons, which appeared in a wonderful way to the congregations. The choir, under the direction of Mr. Robt. Leslie rendered special numbers, which added to the interest of the anniversary. On Monday evening the ladies of the congregation served a hot chicken pie supper, and this proved a very popular event, the proceeds of which totalled over $100. A program followed the supper, all contributed by local talent.

Reeve W. E. Morden attended the public function and official opening of the Old Forest Hill Road over the Bathurst street bridge, on Saturday afternoon. This new structure marks another step in the progress of the county and city suburban area to open new territory for development. County and city officials participated in the speech making, while many members of the county council were present for the affair. Earlier in the afternoon the visitors attended the opening ceremony for the New Forest Hill Village police station and fire hall. The crowd paraded from the hall to the bridge for the second event. At night the attending guests were present at a dinner served at the Victoria Hotel in Toronto. Clerk J. S. Dougherty and A. V. Nolan accompanied Reeve Morden and enjoyed the various stages of the function. Among the widely known citizens in the gathering were Mayor Stewart, W. D. Robbins, George Ramsden, county commissioners, Mayor McKenzie and Reeve R. J. Wallace of Swansea, Hon. Leopold Macaulay, Minister of Highways and others. The village of Forest Hill was host at the evening banquet.

E. A. Grubin, Optometrist, will be at his office in Stouffville on Monday and Tuesday, November 14th and 15th.

Dominion Stores' shipment of Quaker Flour will arrive on Tuesday next, at $1.59 bag for the week. Limited allotment.

Our Tip Top Tailor representative will be here on Friday this week, to fit customers for new winter Suits and Overcoats. Finest clothes, tailor made to latest fashion for only $22.50. A. E. Weldon.

Veterans, attention.—Fall in on Friday morning at 10.30 sharp at the post office, to attend the public service announced elsewhere in this issue by the authorities. Veterans please attend in memory of our fallen heroes. G.H. Saunders, sec'y.

The Stouffville Women's Liberal Association will pack a box of clothing and food for the Neighborhood Workers, early in December. All contributions will be gratefully received, and may be left at the home of Mrs. George Storey, on or before December 13.

Mrs. Florence Chapman, a winsome lady from Colorado, was in town last week spending a few days with Mr. Jacob Yake, whose comfortable apartments are in the Silvester block. Mrs. Chapman, who is a widow, is a cousin of the late Mrs. Annie Corson Yake. On Sunday Mrs. Chapman was hastily summoned to Toronto, where a friend had taken very ill.

Anniversary service will be held in the Presbyterian Church next Sunday, November 13, at 3 p.m. Rev. J. A. Hills of Davenport Road will be the speaker, and special music will be rendered including a duet by Misses Olive and Eileen Harrington. Miss Isabelle Scott of Cedar Grove Zion Church will be at the organ. All people are cordially welcome. Rev. W. H. Fuller, pastor.

"Step on it, Stan," a comedy drama will be presented in Ratcliff's Hall on the evening of Friday, November 25, by local talent from Markham. This is the fourth engagement for the group to present their play. They come to Stouffville under auspices of the I.O.O.F. and the proceeds will be used for relief work that will be carried on this winter.

Last Sunday morning a thin line of veterans, who termed themselves the faithful few, paraded to the Stouffville cemetery, where poppies were reverently placed on the graves of their fallen comrades, thirteen in number. Preceding this ceremony, the veterans decorated the gates at Memorial park.

Mr. Stanley Martin of Detroit was here for a day or two visiting his mother, Mrs. Jos. Martin, at Ballantrae. A noticeable improvement in business conditions are discernible in the Detroit centre, according to this citizen.

The cabbage market at present is completely wrecked, and local growers are having to store their products in any conceivable building, and in pits. The cabbage this fall are a rare fine lot, large and heavy, and it is doubtful if the section ever produced finer. Some have found sale at around $4 per ton in the field, and $5 delivered, but one grower informs us that he could not get $4 per ton in the field. Fact is, there is no bid on them at all. In small quantities of ten or twenty dozen, they are selling off field for as low as 15c dozen, but the demand is very limited.

Those who think that all the goodness has gone out of man's heart, and that real honest charity is a thing of the past, should learn of the action of several of our young men in Stouffville, who through their ingenuity have caused to be erected a miniature "castle" for one Fred Johnston, better and more widely known as "Cuffie." This individual has been experiencing times more or less tough since cold weather set in and sleeping out with only the canopy of heaven over him, the weather was at times bitter. Because of this, a number of the boys got together last week, raised sufficient money to purchase lumber, nails, etc., and on Saturday a "bee" was held for the building of the proposed home for Cuffie. The site chosen is in the vicinity of the park, south of the creamery property. Ralph Rae and Harry Peacock acted as head carpenters, and with the aid of the willing helpers, the one-roomed building was soon completed. We understand the Women's Institute are looking into the matter of blankets, etc. so that our bachelor citizen should be in first-class position for this coming winter, with such comfortable quarters to abide in. The young men who took up this work are to be commended for the splendid spirit which they displayed in giving Cuffie the helping hand he needed. The young men requested The Tribune to extend thanks to all those who gave their financial support for the purchase of lumber and supplies, and to those who aided in the work on Saturday.

Christmas Cake Supplies of Canned and Dried Fruits are on display at Dominion Stores Ltd.

Call and inspect the Tip Top Tailor Suits and Overcoats at our store on Friday this week. A. E. Weldon, west end merchant.

COMING—F. E. Luke, Optometrist, 167 Yonge Street, Toronto's Eyesight Specialist may be consulted at Boardway Drug Store, Stouffville, Thursday November 24th. Glasses at right prices if required.

Desirable house to rent or for sale, solid brick, 6-roomed, hardwood floors, hot water heating, sun room and electric fire place. Splendid garden. Well located on Church street. Apply to owner N. Forsyth.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. McCay and daughter Kathleen all of Burlington were weekend guests with Mrs. Ira Badgero.

The late Dr. Wm. Booth, who died recently, left an estate totalling $22,000, which is just filed for probate. His widow and daughter are the sole beneficiaries. Dr. Booth was the Methodist church pastor in Stouffville during the war years.

Dr. Warriner's wife is in town from Winnipeg, visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. S. M. Warriner, on Church street. Mrs. J. O. Totten is also visiting her mother, while over Sunday Melvin Honey and Harold Totten of Toronto University enjoyed the day at the home of the latter's grandmother.

Mrs. George Boadway mails in $2 for the renewal of her Tribune for another year. Mrs. Boadway is living at 1239 Shaw street, Toronto, and is a former resident of the east end of Stouffville. She is among the pioneer folk of this district, and her interest in the village is ever keen.

The ladies of the Presbyterian Church will hold their annual Bazaar and sale of homemade baking and candy, in McGrattan's store west of the post office, on Saturday, November 19. Sale starts at 2.30. Come early and select that Christmas gift, while the choice is largest.

The regular meeting of the Sr. Women's Institute will be held on Wednesday afternoon, November 16, at the home of Mrs. Peter Lehman. There will be an address given by Mr. Fred Marshall on banking as it interests women. A demonstration on different ways of cooking apples, will also be held. Social half hour. Everybody welcome.

"Silent Biddle," an ex-convict appeared in Ratcliff's Hall on Thursday evening last week, and lectured on his life's history. A fair sized audience heard the address, which was clean, interesting, and educational. "Silent Biddle" is a native of Allandale, but got much of his experience down in the Southern States.

A Remembrance Day Service will be held in Grace Anglican Church, Markham, on Friday, November 11, at 8 p.m. Rev. H. C. Cox, M.C., will be the preacher. Music by St. Simon's Church male voice choir. Everybody cordially invited. All veterans are specially asked to parade. Offering for relief fund of the North York Veterans.

Mr. Robert Miller has produced a turnip this fall that bids fair to command an outstanding place on the vegetable market as a table vegetable. The rutabagas as they are called in the U.S.A. for table use, is from an imported seed, and in addition to having a splendid smooth appearance, thereby adding to its attractiveness for retail store use, has a particularly fine flavor, free from the bitterness that is so noticeable in many turnips. Mr. Miller is finding a market in the larger hotels in Toronto for his product, and has arranged with Stiver Bros. to handle them in Stouffville. Housewives will be able to procure any quantity, large or small, by phoning their order to the flour and feed store.

Our Candy Department has a rare supply of Toothsome Tid Bits of interest. Dominion Stores Ltd.

SILENCE THE ROOSTERS
Stouffville, Nov. 7, 1932
To the Editor of The Tribune.

Will you please allow me space in your valuable paper, for a note of enquiry.

Do we as citizens of Stouffville have to endure the crowing of that domestic "animal" the rooster? Our rest broken night after night by the singing of those most beautiful birds. They certainly make things lively about two or three o'clock in the morning, until daylight. No rest for the weary, from that time. Nerves worn to a frazzle, more tired in the a.m. than on going to bed.

Well, here's hoping if we have to endure the music, that they all get "larenights," and lose their melodious voice. There has been many noted singers lose their voice from that trouble. Here's hoping the birds do.

Chicken and Ham

The ladies of the Lemonville United Church will serve a ham and cold roast chicken supper in the church there on Wednesday, Nov. 16. A good program will follow, contributed by Kidd Bros Orchestra—Mrs. Oliver and Mr. Brown in duet selection, Miss Jean Hunter of Newmarket and Mrs. J.A.C. Kell, soloists, and Miss King and Miss Brumwell, elocutionists, also Peaches quartette. Supper from 6.30. Admission 35c; children 12 and under 20c. Don't miss this treat.

RINGWOOD

Miss Ada Barkey spent the weekend in Tilsonburg.

Mrs. Hulda Raymer is spending a few days at Lemonville.

Our garage is expected to open for business again about the last of this week.

A number from here attended the supper at Claremont Baptist church on a recent date.

We are glad to see Harry Davis home again, after spending several weeks in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. George McTavish and family of Gilford visited friends in this community on Sunday.

Alex Ratcliff had the misfortune of being struck on the head by the lever of the tractor plow, sustaining a cut which required several stitches before it was closed up.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hardy who have been living in part of A. Pemberton's house, moved to Burgessville on Saturday where they have purchased a farm.

Ringwood choir rendered the music at Bethesda Anniversary two weeks ago. Our choristers are apparently appreciated in other localities too.

About ninety friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pemberton last Wednesday night for a social evening before our village smithy moves to his new home in Burgessville. Their many friends here are very sorry to have them move from our midst, but what is this community's loss is another's gain, and we wish them every success in their new place of abode. Mr. Pemberton conducted the woodworking shop here for several years, and the premises are now for lease again.

1832-1932

In 1867 the Fathers of Confederation sat in their memorable councils to consolidate a nation. Thirty-five years before that, The Bank of Nova Scotia was founded by a group of local business men in Halifax, N.S.

35 Years Before Confederation...

The Confederation of the Canadian Provinces was of paramount importance to the political and economic life of the Dominion. Likewise the founding of The Bank of Nova Scotia, a century ago, was a milestone in Canada's financial history. Founded to meet the needs of a small community The Bank of Nova Scotia today serves its customers through an organization international in scope and above all with the accumulated experience of a century of successful banking.
