MODERN TALKIES FOR STOUFFVILLE NOW POSSIBLE

Stouffville is likely to have a modern talkie picture theatre in the near future. Plans approved by the Department, have been decided on for some time, but financing of the proposition has caused some delay. Citizens of the village, chiefly business and professional men, have contributed almost five hundred dollars to date, in order to complete the financing. So keen were these local bodies for the theatre, that with the exception of three refusals, every one approached on the matter pledged from $10 to $25. Mr. and Mrs. Sid Schmidt, who are venturing a considerable sum of money in the enterprise are greatly encouraged, and as they intimated some weeks ago, were ready to proceed with the undertaking, provided the people backed them for at least $500.

It is the intention of the Schmidts to purchase the old Auditorium Theatre, and build the picture house on the ground floor. The plans involve the removal of the present upper floor, building a cement floor on the ground where the pool room and bowling alleys are now operated.

Every attention will be given to sound effect, and the sweeping high ceiling, will add materially to this.

Retiring rooms for ladies and men, with spacious entrance or rotunda, will be provided.

It is estimated that at least a month will be required for the contractor to make the necessary changes, hence even if the canvassing for funds is completed this week and the deal rushed through for the building now held under option, it would probably be the middle of January or later before the opening could be announced.

There is a keen desire on the part of business men to see a real movie in operation, because such an attraction would draw good night crowds to town, while other citizens claim that such entertainment in our midst, obviated the necessity of our young people driving to other centres so much, as they now do, to attend picture shows.

CLAREMONT

Mrs. Lyman Pilkey is spending a couple of weeks with relatives in Toronto.

Ray and Mrs. Rumohr and daughter, of Hamilton, spent the weekend with the former's parents, S. and Mrs. Rumohr.

Mr. Lennox has advertised a sale for to-day, Thursday, of about seven acres of standing timber north of the railway tracks. The clearing of this bush land will be another improvement to North Claremont as Mr. Lennox is planning to have gardens where the bush now stands.

Rev. Mr. Hamilton, of Toronto, occupied the pulpit of the Baptist Church on Sunday and Rev. M. O. Priele, of Bridgewater, that of the United Church. Both churches are without a regular pastor at present.

Miss Mary Graham, of the local Bank of Commerce staff, who is on leave of absence owing to ill health, is not gaining in strength as speedily as her many friends would like to have her.

MERCHANT FINED

An Uxbridge merchant, charged with an infringement of the egg grading act was fined $21 in court at Uxbridge last week, the sum so assessed including the cost of the court. The charge was laid by a government inspector.

JEWELS FOR 25 YEAR ODDFELLOWS

Monday evening was an eventful and important night among the local Oddfellows, it being the occasion of the presentation of 25-year jewels to no less than twelve of their members, the event also being marked by a bountiful supper, followed by an excellent program, furnished chiefly by Duncan Cowan, noted entertainer of Toronto.

The Grand Lodge of Oddfellowship was represented by Mr. Malcolm Sinclair of Toronto, who presented the jewels. The D.D.G.M. for this district also performed an important function when on behalf of the brethren he presented Messrs. Clayt, Baker and Henry Slack each with the jewel of a past district deputy which they are entitled to wear.

Those who received a jewel emblematic of 25 years of Oddfellowship are W. R. Sanders, J. S. Dougherty, Frank Stiver, J. F. Madill, A. C. Burkholder, Dr. E. S. Barker, John Ratcliff, Joseph Hoover, Harry Spang, John Monkhouse. The other two eligibles who are entitled to this recognition but were not present to receive their jewels are Dr. W. A. Sangster and Mr. F. W. Silvester.

The work of the evening was over at an early hour, and at once the supper got underway. For those who do not like oysters, a hot meal of potatoes and meat was served, followed by tempting pastry. A feature of the banquet was the fact that the brethren, or many of them, were accompanied by their wives, and in all about 55 were present.

IT PAYS TO CAUTIOUS

A ten per cent. reduction in insurance rates to motorists whose records are clear in connection with claims on policies and infractions of traffic laws is embodied in the new regulations of the Canadian Automobile Underwriters' Association. This discrimination is gratifying to the thousands of careful, law-abiding drivers who for years have been paying the same rates as his more reckless fellow motorists, and more than he should of late years due to the increase in rates made necessary by the number of accidents resulting from the carelessness of violators of traffic laws. It is also anticipated that a further reduction of 20 per cent. in both theft and collision rates will be made in all territorial divisions excepting Northern Ontario. Drivers in small towns and in rural Ontario are expected to get a reduction similar to that for territorial divisions irrespective of the ten per cent. previously referred to. The local agents will be pleased to pass on this substantial reduction on the new and renewal business.

A Scarborough Native

The death of Mr. William Knight at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. R. G. Munn, on Nov. 8th removes another of Ripley's worthy citizens from the scenes of this transitory life says the Chesley Enterprise. Born at Scarborough, Ontario, in the year 1848, a son of the late William Knight and Mary Bryant Wickett; he came with the family to Brant township when he was nine years of age. Growing to manhood in that vicinity, he experienced many of the hardships of pioneer life. Fifty-five years ago he was married to Elizabeth Stewart, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Stewart and one year later they moved to concession 12, Huron. For many years he followed the occupation of a carpenter, specializing in the moving of buildings. For one year they lived at Sault Ste Marie, Ontario, later returning to Huron and forty years ago moved to Ripley, where they have since resided. Deceased was 84 years of age.

HER 88th BIRTHDAY

But the Years Have not Dimmed the Sight of Mrs. Lehman of Almira

One of Markham Township's oldest citizens, Mrs. Frances Lehman, will be celebrating her 88th birthday at the time this paper goes to the press. She will have reached that grand old age on Thursday, December 1st.

Mrs. Lehman, the daughter of John Howarth, one of the township's early pioneers, was born on the eighth concession of Markham, but has lived for the past fifty-four years in Almira. She possesses a very keen mind, with an exceptionally good memory, and she reads without the aid of glasses. Rheumatism is her only ailment.

We wish her many happy returns, and hope that she may experience many more such occasions.

CHEERYWOOD

Mr. and Mrs. James Todd of Cheerywood will be "At Home" on the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding on Monday, the twelfth of December, nineteen hundred and thirty-two, from two to five, and seven to nine o'clock, at the residence of their son, Mr. George Todd, Cheerywood, Ontario.

NOTICE—I will not accept any more bench work at my jewelry store this winter, unless it is absolutely necessary. Jacob Yake.

Mrs. Marry Canning, and son Hugh, have returned to their home in Toronto, after spending the past six months at their country home at Lemonsville.

CHEAP MEALS

Port Elgin council has decided to give transients a ticket good for 15 cents with which a bottle of milk, bread, bologna or biscuits and cheese might be purchased. Last year these visitors were given a 34 cent meal and the town had more than its share to look after as a result of such good eats. The Mildmay council, at its last meeting, decreed that the limit to be paid a meal for transients is not to exceed 25 cents.

EUCOURE AND DANCE

The North York Plowing Association will sponsor a dance and progressive eucoure to be held in the Community Hall, Vandorf, on Friday, Dec. 9. Watch for further advertising next week, and get your tickets in advance.

PRaise IS DUE INSTITUTE PLAYERS

The Junior Institute cast excelled themselves on Tuesday evening, when they presented their play, "The Adventures of Grandpa," before a jam-full house in Ratcliff's Hall. The big crowd could not have been disappointed, for they fairly rolled in laughter, and some of them must surely have worked up a pain in their side, as they watched the roaring comedy.

The cast appeared right at home, so to speak, and did not give any indication of nervousness, so noticeable in amateur players at times. The costumes and "make-up" of the characters was accomplished to a professional degree, and played no small part in the presentation of the play.

It would be difficult to single out any character for special mention, as each player measured up to the importance of their particular roll. The characters as they first appeared on the stage are: "Monte" Rae, Grandpa's grandson; Miss Laura Hill; Tod Hunter, dancing master; Mrs. Bert Tait; Grandpa; Miss Hazel Boyd; Police Officer; Miss Ethel Sanders; Lucy Hunter, Hunter's wife;

Mrs. Stan. Rose; Miss Edith Swift; Mrs. Hopscotch, fair and fat; Mrs. Everett, Smith; Miss Jean Baker; Bridget from Cork;

Mrs. Joseph Cooney; Between acts Messrs. Walter and Harry Thorn, and Miss Luella Geyman rendered musical numbers, and Edith Börinsky gave a recitation.

Homer conducted the meetings which are bright and attractive with lively singing of favorite gospel hymns. Special music, in solos, quartets, and duets are to be given each night. Come and enjoy these meetings and hear Mr. Young's vibrant messages. Every night at eight o'clock, for the remainder of the week, excepting Saturday, come and pack the church. GUESS IT AND EAT IT AT MELVILLE

There's mystery in the air at Melville. Come and help solve it at the "Mystic Tea" on Friday evening, December 2nd. The place? The United Church—Fun?—Lots of it—Eats?—Yes, fit for a King?—Price?—Well that's up to you. You see it's this way—A smiling waitress will hand you a menu card, with prices ranging from one to six cents opposite each item. From this you make your selection and that's where the fun comes in. For instance, you order "Granite" cake and find its "Marble" but it's good to eat just the same. "A Southern Beauty" is a "peach" etc. A good meal may be obtained for fifteen cents or you may order all the nineteen articles on the menu for forty-five cents, in which case there is a special article added free as a bonus. Then your meal completed, you are handed a slip with the total marked on it, just as in a city restaurant. This you hand to the cashier. If you have spent adults, at least fifteen cents, children ten, you are admitted free to the excellent program which follows. You will have the pleasure of hearing Mrs. Ross Winterstein, elocutionist. A one-act play, entitled "Aunt Susan Jones". Mr. Jess Cook, soloist and other musical numbers. In fact you'll find it the most you've been offered for your money in a long time. Tea served in the basement from 6 to 8 o'clock. Those who cannot come for the "tea" but would like to drop in at 8.15 p.m. for the programme may do so, for the small amount of fifteen cents.
