New Year's Day and Monday were quietly celebrated in town, with fine weather prevailing. As there was no snow, motoring was good on all roads, but the number of cars on the go, seemed away below the average. With prices in most lines taking a decided slump, the high price of gasoline is having its effect on the consumption. With a six cents sales tax, and other taxation back of that to be absorbed, the government is seeing to it that no reduction is possible in this necessary commodity. One thing most people can get along with using much less of the stuff.

The marriage took place on Dec. 24th, 1932, of Marion Adele Sturgeon and James W. Johnston. The young couple have the hearty congratulations of many Stouffville people, for the groom, who is a grandson of Mrs. Waddingham of Toronto, spent many of his school days in town here, when Mrs. Waddingham and the late Mr. Waddingham were residents on Church street. Mr. and Mrs. Johnston are making their home at the Osgoode Mansions on Palmerston Blvd.

Plenty of our readers will remember the old Whitechurch Agricultural Society which was a thriving organization back in the eighties. It was the custom to issue a complimentary badge to friends of the organization in those days, just as it is for agricultural societies to do it today. A number of the old issue put out in 1883, 1886 and 1888, were preserved among the relics belonging to the late Mary Ann Wright, and are now in possession of The Tribune. If any of the "old timers" would like to see any of the ancient issues, just call at the Tribune.

BARWARE STOUFFVILLE, ONTARIO

E. A. Grubin, Optometrist, will be at his office in Stouffville on Monday and Tuesday, January 9th and 10th.

The promoters of the Public Christmas Tree, in Stouffville, wish to thank Messrs. Thomas and Del. Jennings who helped in the work, in their always cheerful manner, of the erection and electrifying of the tree.

Matthew Moore, a carter in Meaford, found business dull and had to go on town relief. The town, however, declined to keep his horse, so he traded the animal with halter for three roosters. Cock-a-doodle doo.

Stouffville with its usual dearth of houses to rent, is just now displaying the "to let" sign in an unusual number of windows on Main street. There are three houses vacant right in a row opposite the public school, being Mrs. Elson's, M. Tait's and Dr. Patterson's properties, while farther east the Brier Bush and the former Christian Church parsonage premises are vacant.

The death was announced last week of Jack Hanna, who at one time lived in Stouffville being employed here by his brother Jim, who conducted a barber shop. The late Mr. Hanna passed away at Rockwood, Ontario. His wife predeceased him some years. Her maiden name was Mabel Yake, daughter of our Mr. Jacob Yake. Mrs. Hanna died while the couple lived in town here.

The funeral of the late John Mahaffy of Stouffville, took place on Friday to Brampton Cemetery for interment. Rev. Chas. MacLeod acted as minister, and the pall bearers were Messrs. Frank Rae, Eugene Leavens, Leland Johnston, Walter Dickson, E. C. Pennoek, and A. V. Nolan. The late Mr. Mahaffy came to Stouffville about five years ago to live with his sister the late Mrs. James Hand. Following his sister's death, Mr. Mahaffy was in steadily declining health. He was a staunch Conservative, an Orangeman, and in religion a Presbyterian, and had spent practically all his life in Brampton. The late Mr. Mahaffy was a brother to Judge Mahaffy of Red Deer, Alberta. He is also survived by four sisters, Mrs. Taylor with whom he lived in Stouffville since the death of Mrs. Hand, and Mrs. Smythe and Mrs. Maughan all of Toronto, and Mrs. Blain of Ottawa.

An almost unanimous utterance at all nomination meetings held on Christmas Day last, was the words of the various nominees for office, when they arose to say that they thanked the mover and seconder for the nomination, and the electors for the past confidence placed in them if they happened to have served in office before. While all this is the most natural thing to say, Councilor Downswell of Stouffville, did not follow the usual procedure, and sort of blazed a new trail for himself. He said that while he appreciated the confidence placed in him by the ratepayers, he thought the thanks should really come from the ratepayers, and not from him. Pointing out as he did, that he had given many hours of service to the town, and at absolutely no remuneration whatever, it is only too true that the ratepayers should be thanking the councillors and not the councillors thanking the ratepayers. But how unusual it would be to have someone rise from their seat at one of these meetings, and move a vote of thanks to the council for their good works in the past. While we realize that such a thing would prejudice the position of any possible new candidates for office, it would only be honest and right to do this. We are all too prone to criticize rather than to praise, but usually the loudest talker is the least capable himself. Let's give our public men in office a boost when it is coming to them, just as readily as we give them a knock when they make a mistake.

A number of citizens are nursing bruised bodies as a result of the icy condition of the roadway during the past week, which made motor traffic precarious business. Fred Doten while coming from Uxbridge after attending a recent hockey match, failed to make the turn at Lincolnville, and in crashing into the fence sustained several nasty cuts to his face. He is making good recovery. On Friday morning of last week, when the roadway west of town was a glare of ice, and in a heavy fog, Mr. F. W. Silversides was ditched, when he attempted to give an approaching truck more of the roadway than it was really entitled to. Applying his brakes to slow down in making the pass, his car turned completely around, and came to a stop on its side in the ditch. Mr. Silversides suffered a bruise to his back, and was quite knocked out for a time. The car was not badly smashed, serious damage being avoided because he was travelling at a low rate of speed. In going out to look at the spot where the auctioneer's car came to grief, Dr. Sangster had a narrow escape from going over too. Chas. Ward's car was ditched west of town without serious damage. All roads were dangerous for motor traffic that morning and scores of accidents are reported from all parts of the country.

Mr. Harry Stover, son of the local baker, Mr. Ambrose Stover, has gone to Guelph to take a special course in bread and cake baking.

Shipments of vegetables to the Campbell Soup Co. at New Toronto, are being made in car lots by the buyer R. E. Brown of Stouffville. Mostly mixed cars are being loaded.

Down in Scarborough Township for the reeveship Reeve Frank Barchard was defeated by Deputy Reeve Sanders by only eight votes in Monday's election. There is a recount talked of.

Dr. Harry Wilson of Englehart missed having his Christmas or New Year dinner under the parental roof for perhaps the first time in his life, this year. This former old boy was prevented from getting home owing to his young son Murray being in quarantine for Scarlet Fever, at his northern home.

The curling club ask all members to attend a meeting to be held in the curling rink on the evening of Friday, this week, at 7.30 o'clock. The business to be transacted is the appointment of Tankard and District Skips. Old and new players are asked to be on hand Friday night.

One afternoon last week Mr. Howard Malloy with his two sons visited Port Perry, and enjoyed a skate on the Seagow. There wasn't any "Has Beans" about the party either, for "Dad" skated across the lake and several miles down the stream also.

The regular monthly meeting of the Jr. Women's Institute will be held at the home of Mrs. Allan Goudie, on Wednesday, January 11th, at 2.30. Roll call to be responded to by "A Beautiful Thought from Prose or Poetry". There will be a talk by Rev. Thos. Laidlaw and solo by Mrs. Laidlaw. We would like to see all members present. Visitors welcome.—P.S. Don't forget your Christmas cake.

Dr. Fletcher has prepared a wonderful program for the Stouffville Choral Society Concert to be given on Friday, January 13th. The numbers will include the great dramatic cantata "Liberty," by Fanning, "Spinning Chorus" from Flying Dutchman, "By Babylon's Wave," Gounod, "Bolt-Turnip," "Lass of Richmond Hill," "Dancing on the Green," "Street Song from Naughty Marietta." The Symphony Orchestra will give three selections. Anthony Remouch, violin solos. J. A. Crampton will give an 8-minute funny sketch with xylophone and drums, requiring six players. Mrs. H. Lewis, in addition to singing the solo parts in the choruses, will sing solos and Misses Lehman and Hoover will give piano duet. Watch for full program in the next issue of this paper. This will be the greatest concert of the kind ever given in Stouffville.
