In Memoriam

In loving memory of a dear wife and fond mother, Sarah Catherine Dresser, who departed this life March 18, 1929.

The evening stars shine o'er a grave Of one we loved, but could not save

She bade no one a last farewell She said good-bye to no one God called her home, it was his will

But in our hearts she liveth still A loving "Mother", true and kind No truer friend on earth we'll find For all of us she did her best

And God gave her eternal rest Never one day forgotten Peter H. Raymer and family.

Glover occupied the chair in an able and pleasing manner. The program opened with a chorus by the school. This was followed by a humorous four act drama, "The Road to the City," which held the interest of the audience throughout. The fine manner in which this play was presented reflected great credit on those who took part and also on the principal, Mr. Caskey, director. Vocal and instrumental musical numbers were given between acts, and between acts two and three Mr. Caskey presented diplomas to the following graduates: Misses Isha Green, Hazel Bacon, Enid Cook, Alma Evans, and Master Earl Cook.
