

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Spofford's big auction sale today at the farm, 6th con., Markham.

Cephas Raymer has been on a couple of weeks holiday among friends in Toronto.

Harry Leadbetter, one time butcher of Stouffville, and farmer of the Godwood district, has purchased the butcher business at Mount Albert from Gordon Trusty, who, we are informed is going to Newmarket.

The two Toronto lads who were found guilty of breaking into summer cottages at the lake last December and also stealing Gordon Lemon's car at Lemonville, have been sentenced to a five-year jail term. It pays to go straight.

Have you any old gold in trinkets, rings or watches? Two men who judging by their appearances didn't indicate that they possessed too much of the precious metal, canvassed the town last week in search of those articles which might contain gold. Persons who have such to sell should take them to an authorized business place to have them appraised, and where they might obtain their real value in dollars. Useless trinkets of this nature might well be turned into cash. Gold at the present time is at the peak price for many years, but it is not likely to remain there indefinitely.

You can do better by ordering counter check books through The Tribune office.

Special cooking demonstration at Ratcliff's store on Thursday afternoon of this week—3 p.m. You are cordially invited.

Rev. D. L. Shultz of Pontiac, Mich., who has been conducting special meetings in the Mennonite Church, at Dickson Hill, enjoyed a real joke at the expense of Constable Alf Pugh, on Saturday morning. Spotting the American car at the east end of the business section on Main street he chased it west until it pulled in to the curb in front of The Tribune office. The cop rushed up, and asked the driver if he didn't know his license plates were out of date, and that 1932 markers were taboo now. The reverend gentleman from across the border, first looked amazed, and then smiled broadly, and said "go and get the authorities to furnish you with a pair of glasses," thus indicating the chief's eyesight was in his opinion badly out of focus. Taking the tip the cop gingerly stepped up for a closer inspection of the "offensive" plates, when to his consternation the white markers (1932 color in Ontario) bore the print, "Michigan 1933". The joke being on the limb of the law, that individual accepted the situation with a smile, but the Rev. Mr. Shultz is still rolling in laughter.

Good Friday falls on April 14th this year, and Easter Monday on April 17.

Strayed—Light gray male Persian Cat, answers to name Buster. Valued as pet (reward). Margaret Byer, Corner School lane and Main street.

Ratepayers are well advised not to evade the dog tax now payable. Failure to pay the assessment will only result in a visit from the town constable, who will be armed with authority to destroy the family pet.

At the parsonage at Richmond Hill on Saturday, March 11th, Miss Pearl Denie, youngest daughter of Mr. Wm. Denie of Gormley, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. John Smith of Victoria Square.

Try Turner's new dairy for pasteurized milk and pasteurized cream from our own T. B. tested cows. Milking done under most sanitary conditions, with electrical milkers eliminating open faced pails under cows. We give you 26 tickets for $1.00, and solicit a share of your patronage. Lloyd Turner's Dairy open all day. 2 doors west of Post Office.

Mr. Dean Kester, Northern Ontario's leading lawyer, and an old Stouffville boy, made a hasty visit in town on Thursday to visit his mother, Mrs. George Kester. Dean has been in the lime-light this past week, as manager of the Timmins hockey team, who were in Toronto, where they met the Hamilton Pats. Although the Pats eliminated the northern boys in the Senior B. Section, the Kester aggregation took some beating but were said to be handicapped on the big ice.

Joseph Betz of Markham Township brought into the office of this paper a five dollar bill last week which is 75 years old. It was issued by The International Bank of Canada in 1858, and is redeemable in gold. While a local bank refused to cash the five pound note, it is undoubtedly worth a good deal more to some one who has a penchant for relics in this line, and Mr. Betz has been advised to see some of the Toronto firms who deal in coinage of this nature.

One of Stouffville's eldest citizens but not by any means the most inactive, is Mr. Ab. Raymer, who on March 2nd, 1933, reached his 82nd birthday. While four or five other citizens boast of an age in excess of Mr. Raymer, he is perhaps the most active man in town for his years. Only a few years ago he worked steadily when building a new home next the Mennonite church, and even now puts in full time six days a week with his wide range of interests between town and country. Not long ago we saw him going through town on top of a load of hay, indicating that he is able to take a man's place on the farm yet. Long life to Mr. Raymer and his faithful wife!

Last week Mrs. C. Perry received word that the Badinton Club of Ottawa had tendered a Complimentary Dinner, to the Robertson sisters, Canadian champions, with their parents, and Mr. Goodwin, Champion, also being an honored guest. Miss Margaret was presented with a life membership in the club, in appreciation of her numerous wins during the past 4 years, which brought credit to Ottawa and the club. Miss Ruth, twice Singles Dominion Champion had already received membership two years ago. The champions were presented with the Ottawa Crest, awarded only to national champions. In addition to this Miss Ruth was presented with a beautiful Sheffield Silver Flower Bowl, and Margaret, a Sheffield Silver Salver, both suitably engraved. The girls are very popular, and Ottawa City feels proud of their success. They are cousins of Mrs. Perry of Stouffville, who is also naturally elated over the success of the girls.

Hugh Thomas was seized with a fainting spell on Saturday, and was quite ill for a few days. He had to be assisted home when overcome on the street.

Coming—F. E. Luko, Optometrist, 167 Yonge Street, Toronto's able eyesight specialist, may be consulted about your eyes for glasses at Boardway's Drug Store, Stouffville, on Thursday, March 23rd.

Mr. J. A. Muston has again been appointed a judge on roses for the annual spring flower show to be held in the Eaton Auditorium next week. This year the spring fashion show held in conjunction is expected to attract widespread interest. There will be an admission of 50c in aid of expenses.

An indignant scribe from Vandroff is justified in reporting the visit of chicken thieves to that part of Whitechurch township, last week, in these terms:—"That despicable type of humanity, the chicken thief (we know of a lot more definite and expressive names to call him but the editor wouldn't print them) made a visit to this neighbourhood last week and lightened the burden of some hen roosts. If in future, neighbours, you are able to get a look at these human weasels in action, have the old shot gun handy, shoot first and ask questions afterwards."

The Toronto Men's Hostel which recently purchased the Vestro farm from the more recent owner, Mr. Ledson, has over 100 unemployed men living on the premises. The farm and large white house are immediately north of the Township Hall, and the property is well known. Col. W. P. Mulock has presented a cow as the nucleus of a larger herd, and several organizations have put in other animals. Extensive improvements including sanitary arrangements are being made in the house, and the work is largely contributed by the unemployed living on the premises.

Forty-seven members were present at the Stouffville W.I. meeting, held at the home of Mrs. Alexander Grubin, on Wednesday of last week.

The district president, Mrs. W. A. Young, was present and addressed the gathering on the subject 'Home' A reading was given by Mrs. P. Lehman, and a solo by Mrs. Thomas Laidlaw. The Stouffville Ladies' Quartette was present and sang several numbers. They are: Mrs. T. Laidlaw, Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. R. Leslie, Miss Ann Lehman, with Miss Eva Hoover at the piano. The roll-call was answered by an Irish joke and the menu for lunch was made up of Irish dishes. The institute is planning activities for relief and are sewing on quilts and layettes. A letter of thanks was read from the recipient. A pot-luck lunch and afternoon is planned for April. The hostesses were Mrs. Geo. Kester, Mrs. Peter Lehman, Mrs. Malloy, Mrs. D. Rusnell, and Mrs. Grubin.

"Take our advertisement out of your paper," phones Mr. William Rennie of the 10th concession, Markham. This farmer or his son Reg. advertised young pigs for sale. Fourteen phone calls were received, and one prospective buyer wanted 200 small pigs. There's a real live market for young pigs since porkers have advanced more than a dollar per hundred in recent weeks.
