

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

April 14 will be the next public holiday—Good Friday.

Mrs. Harold Sanders and babe have returned from a two weeks' visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. Claughton in Uxbridge.

A village bylaw forbids dogs running at large, and the season is near at hand when the citizens want the law more rigidly enforced.

Mrs. Bilby and family have moved to town from Green River, and are occupying the west side of Richard Burton's double house two doors east of the Christian Church.

Mrs. Gibson of Newcastle, Dr. Stratton and wife, also Mr. and Mrs. Harrington, all of Napanee were in town last weekend, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Blake Sanders.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Smith and Mrs. Williams (mother of Mrs. Laidlaw) were in town over the weekend from Toronto, as guests of Rev. Thos. and Mrs. Laidlaw at the United Church parsonage.

It is rumored that the council will abandon the annual "Can Collection Day" this spring, as an economy measure. What do the citizens think of the idea? If you have an opinion for or against tell the editor of this paper, so we can size up the situation in a fair way.

The Women's Missionary Society of the United Church are holding their Easter Thank Offering meeting on Friday, April 7th, at 3 p.m. in the lecture room of the Church. Instead of on Thursday, the regular day of meeting. The women of Unionville W.M.S. are to be the guests of the Stouffville Auxiliary and will provide the program. Mrs. Mac Keracher is giving the address. A splendid meeting is looked for. All women of the church are cordially invited.

Whitechurch Township Council will meet on Saturday at Vandorf.

Mrs. James Lewis of Peterboro attended the funeral of her uncle, Mr. Tillman Reesor, and spent the weekend with friends in Stouffville.

Pigs, or rather the price of them has about hit the $5. mark, one of the best things to happen in a year. As the hockey announcer would say, "they are now at the blue line."—Stratford Beacon.

The Boardway house on Montreal Street, belonging to Mrs. Jacob Boardway, Church street has been sold to Mrs. Woodland of Goodwood, whose husband met with a fatal accident in a bush at Mount Albert this winter. He was killed by a falling tree.

The season of bad roads is here again, with the frost coming out of the ground. The rural mail couriers have abandoned their autos in favor of the reliable horse-drawn vehicles, and instead of finishing at noon, the day's work is extended until late in the afternoon.

Boys have been annoying Mr. and Mrs. James Mott an aged couple who live alone at Montreal and Stouffer street, by running over their lawns and around their house at night, making a noise. The elderly people have been alarmed. Parents whose lads might be implicated should prevail on the boys not to disturb aged people in any way.

"I enjoy reading The Tribune and would miss even one copy" writes Mrs. L. Murrell of 59 Myrtle Avenue, Toronto, in renewing her subscription for another year. Send your old Stouffville friends or your own family the home town paper, for it's better than a letter every week, to keep them in touch with the local district.

Last Saturday, April 1st, was All Fools Day. Did someone fool you?

Col. T. H. Lennox entertained the Newmarket Hockey Team in the parliamentary restaurant, on their recent visit to the Capital.

With the reopening of navigation on the Great Lakes, W. P. Jack who has been in town here with his mother, Mrs. David Jack, has left to board his vessel for the season, the S. S. Westmount.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hastings were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Williams Toronto, at a supper party on Sunday last. Mrs. Hastings has been visiting for two weeks with her sister in Rosedale, and is expected home this week.

Mrs. John Postill of Markham village, a former resident of the 9th concession of Markham, was honored one day last week by a number of friends on the occasion of her birthday. Mrs. Postill is a sister of Mrs. James Mowat, and is quite well acquainted in the village.

A woman's page is a new feature which The Tribune added to your local paper two weeks ago. This feature is specially prepared by one of their own sect, and we trust The Tribune readers will appreciate the innovation, which will be carried weekly.

The regular monthly meeting of the Jr. Women's Institute will be held at the home of Mrs. Everton Smith, on Wednesday, April 12th, at 2.30. Roll call—Say, Sing, or Play—Papers on Music by Mrs. Ratcliff and Miss Myrtle Watson. Reading by Mrs. O. Trammer. Members please bring your own dishes.

Between fifteen and twenty members of the local Eastern Star Chapter attended a reception tendered their Worthy Grand Matron, at the Royal York in Toronto, on Friday evening. Over 1000 sat down to the banquet, but 2,000 persons were present for the cards and dancing, which followed. Owing to the "London" fog which prevailed it is reported that the trip home was a hazardous one, and required two hours on the road.

You are invited to attend the meeting of the Stouffville Women's Liberal Association, to be held on Tuesday evening, April 11, at the home of Dr. W. A. Sangster. This meeting should be of outstanding interest, as the entire program will be contributed by Toronto talent, including Mrs. Farwell, first vice-president of the Ontario Women's Liberal Association, and Mrs. Stowe, president of the Toronto Associations.

On the first day of April there were two German brothers and two Canadian sisters at the home of Rev. E. Morton from Toronto. One of those young women, Bernice Bradburg, daughter of Mrs. Tena Bradburg (widow) became the wife of one of the brothers, Walter Vanholtz. After the ceremony was performed the two young couples motored to Toronto, where they make their home, and the young men have good positions.

During this week and next the Stouffville Horticultural Society will make their annual canvass for members, the result of which will be reflected in the work of the organization this summer. This is one organization which is worthy the support of every citizen. The society encourages the citizens to improve their properties by planting flowers, shrubs, etc., thus carrying a message of cheer into the future and helping to beautify the lives of those living at present. The membership fee is a small one, and not only carries membership, but with the fee everyone is entitled to receive a certain premium, having a choice from a climbing rose to a number of other flowers or shrubs. Be ready to receive the canvassers for your district when they call on you early in April. They will have the premium lists, and your cordial reception will help them in their good work which is the work of every household at least.

Prices this week at the Creamery are: Special 26c first 24, second 21c.

Sawdon, 30 Timothy St., phone 549, Newmarket.

Friends in town will regret to learn that Mrs. Frank Burkholder of Markham, was rushed to the Wellesley hospital last week, to undergo a surgical operation which was performed last weekend. While the condition of the patient is serious, her recovery is confidently expected. Mrs. Burkholder whose maiden name was Isabel Sargent, taught in our public school for several years, until her marriage to one of our native boys two years ago.

HYDRO OFFICIALS' SALARIES

To refuse to state the salaries of members of the Hydro Electric Power Commission the Ontario government is showing a defiance of public opinion. The Public Accounts, which contain the amount paid out to every person who performed a service for the province, is not complete without including payments to all hydro officials.

PASTEURIZATION

"Various methods of solving the problem are being followed, but probably effective pasteurization of the milk is the best protection for the consumer, and milk so treated appears to retain its valuable food properties practically unimpaired."

This quotation is from a recent publication of Sir George Newman, Chief Medical Officer of the Ministry of Health for England and Wales. Considering the source, we do not know of any endorsement of pasteurization which should mean more to each one of us, interested as we are in the protection of children and adults from the dangers of contaminated milk.

It is unfortunate that milk, which is such a valuable food, may, if it becomes contaminated, be responsible for the spread of disease. It is more fortunate that there is available a simple, practical means whereby this danger may be overcome and milk made safe.

Pasteurization means the heating of milk to a temperature which destroys all disease germs that may have gained entrance to the milk. It is not a hit-or-miss process. The temperature and the length of time required are well-known and are set down in the milk laws defining pasteurization. It is also required by law that after pasteurization, the milk be cooled and kept cool until delivered, after which it is the responsibility of the householder to keep the milk cold until it is used.

The purpose of pasteurization is to make milk safe. Together with pasteurization must go inspection. It is not to be thought that pasteurization is used to overcome uncleanness in milk or in the handling of the milk. Through inspection, there should be produced in a cleanly manner and handled in a sanitary way. After all this has been done, the clean milk is then pasteurized to ensure its safety.

There is no objection to heating foods. All of the animal foods and many others are subjected to heat before being eaten. The cooking of foods is one of the most important safeguards which we possess against disease. There is, therefore, no inherent reason why milk should not be heated before being used.

The advantages of pasteurization are not based solely on theory. Practically, those communities which have a pasteurized milk supply have experienced a tremendous reduction in the number of cases of sickness and of deaths from those diseases which are commonly spread by contaminated milk.

Pasteurized milk is safe. Are you using a safe milk?

GOODWOOD

The annual supper and play of the League and Women's Association of the United Church were held on Friday, March 24th. The supper, consisting of salmon loaf, devilled eggs, salads, pies cakes, etc., and the usual accompanying items was enjoyed by a large crowd. The play, entitled "Betty, the Girl of My Heart," was most interesting, and afforded almost two hours of very enjoyable entertainment. Those taking part were: Betty Graves, Miss Muriel Mayo, Peter Graves (Betty's father), Howard Haynes, Mrs. Graves, Miss Alma Ward, her daughter, Miss Gladys Wagg, Mr. Jerry Carmichael, Herbert Wagg, Martin, the butler, Lorne Tindall, the housekeeper, Irene Storey, parlor maid, Miss Blanche Todd. Each player proved a star performer in the part they assumed, and it is doubtful whether a better group could be found. Each one is worthy of special mention. It seems to be the general opinion that it is the best play yet put on by the young people, and the most cleverly presented. Between the acts, Miss Gladys Wagg sang, "The Sunshine of Your Smile," Miss Helene Darling played "The Glow Worm," and Mrs. Geo. Mayo gave a humorous reading. At the conclusion, Mr. Burry called for a vote of appreciation for Mrs. R. Storry who managed the play, and she was given an enthusiastic response. The United Orchestra played while the crowd was gathering. Because of the very reasonable charge for the evening, a larger crowd than usual attended—many coming from quite a distance.

Owing to the absence of pastor Homer of the Baptist Church on Sunday, due to the sudden illness of Mrs. Homer's mother, there was no sermon, but those present, enjoyed an old time song service. We hope for improvement with Mrs. Homer's mother.
