F. Y. W. BRATHWAITE HARDWARE STOUFFVILLE

Miss Elsie Johnson has reopened the old home in the west end, after being absent from town for some weeks.

Dr. D. C. Smith and Mrs. Smith were on a holiday trip through the Thousand Islands last weekend. They left Toronto by boat on Saturday, and Mrs. George Boadway, accompanied by her daughter and nephew Mrs. Cheeseman and son Reg., were in town for a few hours on Saturday afternoon, motoring out from their home in Toronto.

With the co-operation of the citizens observing the town water by-law which permits the use of lawn hose from 6 to 8 p.m. each evening, the supply in the reservoirs is gaining ground in a satisfactory way.

Early cauliflower and cabbage, grown by local gardeners, are finding a ready market in Toronto, which is not glutted such as it becomes in the fall season. The crop is definitely short because of the intense heat, and lack of more moisture.

Rev. Harry Miller, pastor of one of the leading Baptist congregations at Littleton, North Carolina, is in town visiting at the home of his sisters, Mrs. Latchford and Mrs. Miller. Friends will be sorry to learn that Mr. Miller is in very poor health, having passed through a serious illness.

A quiet wedding was solemnized on Sunday, July 9th, when Miss Annie Velma Spofford, was united in marriage with Harry Porter, both of Claremont. The bride who was a school teacher, was on the staff at the local public school here some years ago. After a short honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Porter will reside in Claremont.

Naughton & Jenkins, solicitors, are advertising a mortgage sale of 100 acres of land located at lot 34, in concession 6, Whitechurch, on which there is default in payment. The sale will be on Saturday, July 29, at the office of the solicitors, 55 Richmond street, Toronto, according to an advertisement published in a newspaper which does not circulate in the territory where the land is located.

The famous Lennox Picnic will be held at Jackson's Point, Lake Simcoe, on Monday, August 7th, Toronto Civic Holiday. The Honourable George S. Henry, the Honourable W. A. Gordon, the Honourable Dr. Manion, the Honourable H. A. Stewart, the Honourable Dr. Robb, the Honourable Chas. McCrae, other Cabinet Ministers and many members of Parliament are speakers who will attend and deliver addresses.

Mrs. Schell's Nursing Quarters, corner of Mill and Main streets. Maternity cases. Reasonable charges.

Rev. Gordon Duncan, pastor of Warkworth Presbyterian Church, accompanied by his sister Miss Annie are holidaying in the village.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ross, their three sons and daughter Dorothy of Vineland were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Rae.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Ryan and Miss Shirley spent Sunday at R. McKinnon's.

Berries are better than ever at Gravel Hill Patch. Permission to pick 20c day. Apply on premises.

The Male Quartette of the Stouffville United Church rendered special music in the United Church at Jackson's Point on Sunday evening.

The big acreage of tomatoes in the Claremont district is looking well, but is threatened with serious damage unless there is more rain. The Claremont Canning factory is vitally interested in this crop.

Attend the garden party this Friday evening on the beautiful lawn of Mrs. J. A. Heise, Main street west. Supper from six o'clock, followed by a program featuring Miss Erma Brownscombe, soloist of Uxbridge, and Chic Rogers, the radio star.

Mr. Truman Holden observed his 80th birthday last Sabbath in good health, and "just like a boy." This veteran citizen attended the "walk" at Mount Albert on July 12th and was one of the oldest boys in the parade. Mr. Holden is 33 years an Orangeman.

An ever popular event at the Lennox Picnic is the baby show. In 1932 over 60 babies made the task of selecting the prize winners very difficult. This year the picnic will be held at Jackson's Point on August 7th and all babies one year and under are welcome to compete. Each baby receives a suitable token of appreciation for its entry.

The death occurred at Mount Albert, on Thursday, July 20, 1933, of Annie Oldham, widow of the late James Brooks, in her 81st year. Dr. and Mrs. Ball of Stouffville were among the relatives attending the funeral at Mount Albert on Saturday afternoon. The late Mrs. Brooks was the mother of Miss Gladys Brooks of the Stouffville public school staff, and to the bereaved the sympathy of the community is extended.

The July meeting of the Stouffville Women's Institute took the form of a picnic at Memorial park on Wednesday afternoon last week, which was attended by over thirty people. This was considered extra good in the absence of the usual press notice which was omitted from The Tribune through an error, in the office of this paper. A good program and a lunch fit to be laid before the king was enjoyed by all present.

Constable Alf. Pugh who draws down the handsome salary of $125 per year—this is no error, its per year alright—isn't often absent from town, but last week he took on a job with the other men engaged at the reservoirs, in a successful effort to increase the flow of fluid there. The old adage, when the cat's away, the mice do play, might have been fulfilled had the boys been aware of the cop's absence, but as matters stood the chief's baton wasn't missed on the beat and no one attempted to flout the statutes when the door was open.

The annual lawn bowling tournament held on Wednesday afternoon and evening of last week proved one of the most successful in the history of the Stouffville club. Not only in point of numbers, but the geniality of the crowd and smoothness with which everything passed off, was a great pleasure to the contestants and to the officials responsible. Forty rinks competed, and over 100 meals were served by the ladies club, who maintained their good reputation for providing refreshments that tickled the most fastidious palate. The Stouffville Club was more than generous with giving prizes. No less than seven sets being handed out, and they were of the type that could be appreciated. Uxbridge came down with four rinks and carried off the two main prizes. Charlie MacNabb's rink won first, and received handsome electric percolators, while Walter Tunstall's rink took second and received four heavy blankets. St. Matthews rink from Toronto skipped by Hollbrook won third for which the prize was bowling bags. Walton's Agincourt rink came fourth, Wilson's Globe Manor fifth, Davidson's Markham rink sixth, and a W. R. Sanders local rink seventh. All these winners received blankets, pullovers, or sweaters for their standing. While the weather was ideal all afternoon, a light shower fell in the evening, but it did not interfere with the tournament, although some players lost their "stride" during the forced intermission.

Mrs. Watt's Millinery Shop will be closed after this week until further notice.

Miss Anne Robb has returned to Toronto for the autumn millinery season.

Visitors from a distance with Mr. and Mrs. Mowat last week were Miss Madill, Miss MacCauley and Miss O'Neill from Fort Arthur, Mr. Magness Mowat and son Billie of Campbellford.

On behalf of H. Davis of Lackbert, Sask., Mr. R. F. Sellers of Brown's Corners, is endeavouring to raise a fund to assist this worthy former citizen, who is a son of the late Albert Davis. After returning from the war H. Davis went to Western Canada where he took up homesteading, and worked hard to accumulate the necessities for a home. Now his cherished home is lost through a fire, and Mr. Sellers proposes to start a fund at the Canadian Bank of Commerce, Stouffville. In the fire Mr. Davis almost lost his wife and child, both of whom had a narrow escape from the flames. No matter how small the amount, if you are disposed to assist this war hero and old Stouffville boy, leave your donation at the bank.

Fifteen members of Richardson Masonic Lodge, Stouffville, were in attendance at the annual Grand Lodge meeting held in the city of St. Catharines last week. During the course of the Grand Master's address an urgent appeal was made to the 115,000 Masons in the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of Canada to assist in making the highways safe. Co-incident with this address was the fact that enroute to Stouffville on Wednesday evening (July 19) we saw no less than five wrecks along the way. Most of them appeared to have been from collision, although not all were from this cause. The last piece of trouble was almost right at home, where a car was ditched coming down the 8th concession of Whitechurch at Ringwood. Not familiar with the corner the driver going at a high rate of speed was unable to make the turn. Passengers were seriously injured when the car was ditched. All were strangers and residents of the city of Toronto. W. S. Herrington, K.C., in his Grand Master's address said:

"If a band of desperados were to inaugurate a campaign of reckless and indiscriminate slaughter and maiming of our citizens, young and old, for the mere gratification of a desire to experience a thrill, every organization in the county would resort to every means at its disposal to check them in their mad career. Yet how complacently have we all witnessed the hundreds of tragedies upon our highways and the sacrifice of precious lives without putting forth any effort to end it." Those in attendance at Grand Lodge from here included John W. Ratcliff, George Collard, Sam and Chris. Armstrong, Dr. D. C. and Dr. Neil Smith, Dr. H. Erel, H. Slack, A. V. Nolan, Dr. Ball, N. M. MacLean, Jas. Muston and T. Birkett, Ross Davis, and Distin McDonald.

Civic Holiday, Monday, Aug. 7th.

L. E. Beebe, teacher of Hawaiian guitar will be at the Stouffville branch of Mauna Kea Studios Saturday afternoon and evening. Terms moderate.

Mr. and Mrs. James McDonald of Youngstown, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Helly of Toronto were recent visitors in Stouffville with Mrs. W. Hopkins.

The Horticultural Society will hold a meeting in the Municipal Hall this Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Very important matters need attention, regarding the coming flower exhibition. Please note this is not only a directors' meeting, but a meeting of all members who can possibly be present.

The mortgage sale of the John Bray homestead one door east of the Stouffville Christian Church on Main street, has been cancelled. The property was recently in possession of Dr. Patterson who vacated the place and moved to Toronto. Recently it was advertised for sale under mortgage, which is now withdrawn, we are informed by the solicitors McCullough & Button.

In the death of Mrs. J. B. Wurts which occurred on Tuesday of last week, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. D. A. Galloway, Alimco, there is removed a citizen of very long standing in this community. Until nine years ago she resided in town, but since the death of Mr. Wurts she had lived mostly with her daughter Mrs. Galloway, now of Toronto. Mrs. Wurts was born at Cedar Grove 76 years ago, her maiden name being Mary Reesor, daughter of Benjamin and Sarah Ann Reesor. She was twice married, her first husband being the late Thos. Kelly, and to their union three children were born, one son Thos. Kelly and one daughter, Mrs. Jas. Galloway, surviving. Her second marriage was to the late J. B. Wurts, prominent business man of Stouffville who conducted the bakery here for many years. Mrs. Wurts was a Baptist in religion, and a consistent Christian woman. The funeral took place from Toronto on Thursday, the remains being brought to Stouffville for interment in the Kelly plot here. Pall bearers were her son-in-law D. A. Galloway, and her two brothers John and Darius of Kitchener, and three grandchildren, David, Bert, and Edward Galloway.

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Lee and Mr. John W. Ratcliff enjoyed a delightful ten-day motor trip through parts of the United States in which they visited the Capital City of Washington, but, missed the President because he was on a holiday too. The party were accompanied by Mrs. Richardson and her son who were returning to their home in Virginia, after a visit here with Mrs. Lee.

Mrs. Lee gives The Tribune an interesting detailed account of their trip as follows:—"The party left Stouffville on a Thursday, and made their first night's stop at Detroit, then pushing on through Ohio, where the motorist is delighted with the long stretches of level country. All the grain was cut, and threshing completed in the fields. The home of President Harding is an interesting point which the visitors didn't miss. On the highway to Columbus the land is rolling. The city is noticeably very long. Soon the Alleghany Mountains come into view, but they present no difficult passage, with great roads cut through them, the Stouffville passengers were able to pass over Mount Pleasant toll bridge, when they crossed the line into west Virginia. On Saturday morning, just three mornings after leaving home we set out along the Kanawa River and Alleghany Mountains for a sixty mile trip. Went over Mount Tyler, and we had a drink of the famed alkaline water. The visitor is delighted with the fine colonial houses. We passed through the pretty city of Charleston, where there are many coal mines. At Gauley's Bridge we climbed the mountain by the same name. Rock lilies and magnolia grow everywhere. We felt right at home striking such places as Glasgow and Scarborough. Dinner was served at a place called Beckley, when we proceeded to Princeton over an elevation of land 3,200 called Flat Mountain.

We stopped at Roanoke, at the home of Mrs. Richardson for a few days and got freshened up. It was Sunday when we arrived there. The city is noted for its rayon silk mills, the finest in the world, where 4500 girls are employed. Roanoke is also famous for its weeping willow trees and fine churches. We attended Baptist church service where the congregation numbered 2,000. A side trip from the city took us four miles up Twelve O'Clock Knob Mountain, and four down the opposite side. Colored people are plentiful here, but so very friendly and courteous.

Leaving Roanoke on Wednesday the party took the Lehigh route through the Blue Ridge Mountain of West Virginia, later touching Lac Falls and Newmarket where we visited the Endless Caverns, first discovered in 1879 by a lad hunting rabbits. It is hard to describe the feeling and wonder of the caverns. The symphony of sound and color creates a vague intangible awe and the mind is filled with one predominant thought—the bitterness of man, and the omnipotence of the Great Creator.

When we reached Washington we engaged a guide to take us to the most interesting points, we were in Constitution Hall where President Hoover made his speech. In the new Health Building at Washington (a Carnegie gift) we saw the most huge as well as the tiniest electric bulbs, the smallest no larger than a grain of wheat, and it gives light.

One quarter of the population of Washington is colored. Lincoln's statue is interesting. It stands 20 feet high, and 12 foot to the knees.

The green houses, we visited, where the flowers are grown and picked daily for the White House.

We visited the principal shopping Street, and leading departmental store where the president's wife shops, and was through the Hotel Willard where Woodrow Wilson lived. The senate office building is interesting, for here all the U.S. senators have their offices. The flag on the Capitol building is the only one which flies all the time; the one on the White House only going up when the President is home. Many more interesting buildings and points in the city, which we saw, might be mentioned.

Coming home by way of Baltimore and Philadelphia we followed the Susquehanna River from Harrisburg to Williamsport. We were interested in our trip through Maryland. At Niagara Falls we crossed back into Canada over the Peace Bridge and reached Stouffville, after many hundreds of miles journey with paved roads all the way."
