The Old Elm Tree

My childhood dreams and fancies My secrets and delights Are all wrapped up in the old elm tree,
That grew to dizzy heights.

It was a long survivor, Of the slain primeval wood,
And was a stately landmark, Where in Stouffville park it stood.
Among its friendly branches, Hung many a proud bird's nest, And spreading deep shade so far around,
For the children to play and rest.

It was the gathering centre, Of the young of the neighborhood, Where many a wholesome game was played
And names carved in outer wood.
In fancy it told us stories Of the Indians who did roam, Along the bank of Muddy York, Or wherever they chose for home.

It has seen a tree-covered settlement Change into a flourishing town, And the green of the original landscape,
Give place to roofs of brown.

It warmed its way into the hearts Of all that played thereby; And deep was the pang of many a one,
When it was doomed to die.

Condemned by the Parks Commission,
The old elm had to go,
The stately tree had a hollow trunk, Strong winds might overthrow.

LEMONTVILLE

Mrs. Sarah Spence formerly of this place is spending some weeks here with friends. We are pleased to have her in our midst again.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Kerr of Toronto, also son Thos. visited in town recently.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Pennock of Stouffville, and Rev. Harry R. Miller of Littleton, North Carolina, U.S.A., visited Mrs. M. Cook one day this week.

The tap, tap, tap, of the hammers will be heard in the village on Thursday as a bee is on to shingle the south side of the church. The ladies will serve dinner in the basement, and a good piece of work will have been accomplished.

CLAREMONT

To bad to let the boy friend walk so far, isn't it Grace?

Miss Alice Bacon, R.N., is nursing at Richmond Hill at present.

C. A. Overland has been confined to bed for several days with flu.

Charles and Mrs. Macnab, of Uxbridge spent Sunday with the former's sister, Miss Margaret.

Dr. Tomlinson and son won the honours last Saturday in Stouffville, at the Tennis Tournament.

E. Woodward moved recently from Stouffville to Levi Linton's house at North Claremont.

James Evans who suffered a severe stroke several weeks ago is now able to be out of bed for a few hours each day.

Ernest Hman is having his new home, formerly the property of R.
Bowen, wired for electricity and redecorated before moving into it the end of this month.

Ed. Gibson's sale of farm stock and implements held on Saturday, Sept. 9th, was fairly well attended and average prices were realized.

His farm has been leased to John Neal, son of Wm. Neal, who took possession last week.

The W.M.S. of the United Church met at the home of Mrs. John Fleming, on Thursday afternoon last, with a good attendance. A splendid program was given by the group in charge and included an excellent paper on "Faith" by Mrs. (Rev.) Glover. A social hour and tea.

The Claremont Canning Factory opened for the canning of tomatoes on August 30th. The yield in this district will be below the average owing to the intense heat and prolonged drought earlier in the season. Recent rains have improved conditions to some extent and both growers and canners are hoping for favorable weather during the next few weeks.

The Mission Circle of the Uxbridge Baptist Church was entertained by the Claremont Mission Circle at the home of Mrs. (Rev.) Horton on Tuesday evening last. The visitors provided a fine program which was much appreciated by the large number present.

The congregation of the United Church held a meeting in the church basement on Tuesday evening, Sept.
12th, for the purpose of deciding on a suitable Memorial to the late Rev.
A. McLellan. A committee was appointed to have charge of the Memorial Fund to which a large number have already contributed.

Others who may wish to do so are requested to communicate with David Dawson or Jas. McCullough by Sept. 30th. It was decided that the Memorial take the form of a Bronze Tablet.

TAX COLLECTION COMING IN WELL

Collector's Real Goal is to Gather the "Fag End."

Over $15000 of the village tax levy for 1933 has been paid into the municipal coffers to date by tax collector Lud Lowndsbrough. The total taxes amount to about $23-000, half of which ($11,500) was due on Sept. 1st. It will therefore be noted that considerably over half the total levy is paid in to date.

This excellent showing, none-the-less, does not mean that every tax payer in the village has met his or her tax demand due on Sept. 1st.
The fact is a couple of dozen or more are in default with their first payment, but then there are so many who pay the second instalment (due in Dec.) with the first instalment, that the total is swelled so that more than half the total demand is actually paid.

All the receipts coming in to Sept. 1st were voluntary contributions, as it were. That is the collector simply had to sit at the receipt of customs, and accept the amounts.
The last few thousand will take more effort to collect, than the entire roll thus far. In fact it was in order to get the fag-end of the demand both for 1932-33 that a collector was engaged in lieu of the people paying into the bank.
About $15000 of the 1932 levy is still uncollected, and the newly appointed publican is about to demonstrate his ability to clean up the situation.

WEDDINGS

A quiet wedding took place at the residence of the Rev. Wm.
Haig, at Victoria Square, Ontario, when Marie Frances, daughter of Mr. Charles Dennie, and the late Mrs. Dennie, became the bride of Mr. George Carl Shaw, of Aurora, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Shaw, Aylmer. The bride looked lovely in a navy blue French crepe gown, trimmed with white and navy, and white accessories. She wore a corsage of Talisman roses and lily-of-the-valley, and a wrist watch, the gift of the groom. Miss Evelyn Froeland of Toronto attended the bride, wearing a gown of liberly blue crepe with white accessories. Her corsage was of Talisman roses and baby's breath.

Mr. Mitchell Jarvis of Aurora, acted as best man. After the ceremony, the wedding party motored to Barrie, where they had a wedding dinner. Following a motor trip to Montreal and Quebec, Mr. and Mrs. Shaw will live on North Yonge Street, Aurora.

A wedding of special interest to the Vandorf community was quietly solemnized at Temperanceville United Church Parsonage, Aurora, on Saturday, Sept. 9th, when Marjorie Evelyn, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Graham became the bride of George Ernest Richardson, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. D. Richardson of Vandorf. The bride was charmingly attired in bordeaux wine triple sheer crepe and lace of the same hue, and carried a large bouquet of talisman roses. She was given away by her father and was attended by her only sister, Clara Elsie, wearing delph blue crepe and carrying ophelia roses, while the groom was supported by Mr.
John W. Crawford. The wedding service was read by the pastor of the contracting parties, Rev. G. W.
Lynd, in the presence of the immediate relatives. The groom presented the bride with a lovely silver fish scale net purse bag, the bridesmaid with a silver bracelet and the groomsmen with a signet ring.
Immediately following the ceremony the happy couple left for a motor trip to Montreal and other eastern points, the bride wearing a black cloth coat with grey fur, and satin hat to match. On their return they will take up residence on the groom's farm at Vandorf.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Richardson are active workers in Wesley United Church, Mr. Richardson being choir leader and organist, while his bride is president of the Young People's Society. Their many Wesley friends extend the best of wishes for a happy married life.

Holiday Continues

Despite the fact that a small local item on page five announces that the Wednesday half-holiday will be over for Stouffville merchants next week, the stores will remain closed all through the month of October on Wednesday afternoon, as was done last year.

There will be five more half-holidays before the winter time-table will be reverted to.

christian fortitude. Deceased was a spinster, and had lived with her sister Mrs. Fred Wilson at whose home she passed away.

Altona district, her parents having died long years ago. Mrs. Wilson is the last surviving member of the family. Miss Lehman was an active church worker, in the former Methodist Church, and later in the United Church here.

The funeral on Wednesday afternoon to Stouffville cemetery was largely attended. Rev. Thos. Laidlaw conducted the service. The pall bearers were W. C. Schell, Ross Kester, Percy Brillinger, Ross Davis, Frank Rae, and F. L. Button.

SCHOOL FAIR IS LARGEST ON RECORD

"The best school fair yet held in Stouffville," is the way patrons described Monday's exhibition by the school children, at Memorial Park.
Twelve schools competed, including the five rooms of Stouffville scholars, which are pitted against each other as separate units.

There was a noticeable increase in the amount of live stock this year, and this pleased the crowd.

More table space should be provided for the exhibits in fruits, flowers, etc., which would improve the appearance of the display.
