Mrs. Ralph Hamilton is again occupying her home on O'Brien Avenue, after the place having been rented for a couple of years.

By defeating Goodwood at Uxbridge last week the Royals of the latter town are the winners of the York-Ontario lacrosse group for this season.

Following the wintry weather of last week with quite a fall of snow, a mild spell set in on Monday, which is hoped will continue long enough to take away the white blanket and thus give those farmers who were caught with turnips still in the fields, a chance to get them up, and in the barns. These hopes, however, are shattered for the present by weather forecasts promising colder weather.

We are always loath to part with lifelong friends of the district, hence it with some regret that we report the removal of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Burkholder from our midst to reside in Breslau, where their son Rev. O. Burkholder is located. They left for their new location on Monday, and they take with them the best wishes of everybody for their future good health.

Merchants or others who use counter check books should look over their supplies, and order promptly. There is a "war" on among the printers and favorable quotations much below regular rates can be secured. An agreement may be reached any day among the warring factors so do not delay your order. Let The Tribune quote you on your requirements.

Saturday—November 18—Drop in for a cup of tea at Turner's ice cream parlors. The girls of the Mary Haig Mission Circle will be there to welcome one and all.

Do not miss Cranberry Corners by the Y.P.S. of Lemonville, at Melville Church, on Wednesday, November 22. The drama will also be repeated in Bloomington United Church, on Friday, Nov. 24th.

Miss Ada Robinson who has been staying at the home of Dr. Ira Freel left last weekend on her trip south to St. Petersburg, Florida, where she will spend the winter season.

The local chapter of the Eastern Star is planning to entertain the presiding matrons and patrons of the district on the evening of Nov. 21. The visitors with the members of the local chapter will enjoy a banquet served in Ratcliff's Hall, to be followed by a toast list and other entertainment. Miss J. Birckett is worthy matron of the local chapter and Mr. E. M. Still, worthy patron. The event will be looked forward to with considerable interest by members of the order.

Friday, Nov. 24, is nomination day, for municipalities that have by-laws favoring the early date. In this vicinity there are no townships or villages adopting the early date, although it has many advantages, and some disadvantages. Elections held the first week in December leave the Christmas season (often with bad roads) free for many people otherwise publicly engaged, but when it comes to showing a balanced budget before tax collection time, its not so good. Whitechurch, Markham or Uxbridge have never saw fit to even consider the earlier date.

The first transient introduced to the town wood-pile and given an opportunity to do a turn and work up an appetite when he would be kept for the night, said to have been with bucking wood, and no one has seen him since. This wood-pile game is all right for a certain class of vagrant, but of course, it must not be abused for there are old men, and those under-fed and otherwise unfit to even saw wood. We believe the council will use their discretion in saying who is to saw and who not.

Some people think that Clayt. Tarr carries a rabbit foot the symbol of good luck, with him when he goes north for the deer hunting season each fall, because for a second time he has shot a bear. Word comes from the north where he is hunting with a party of Markham hunters, that Clayt. shot a big black bear weighing some 250 pounds. Two years ago he dropped a young one weighing around 150 pounds. Most hunters are over-joyed in shooting a deer, but this O'Brien Avenue marksman, seems to be able to go them one better every other season.

The Business and Young Men's Bible Class of Stouffville are holding a social evening at the parsonage, Church Street, on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Former members and any young men of the town and vicinity who are not connected with any other class, are cordially welcome to this social gathering at which the class will reorganize for the winter session. This class will meet at 2:30 on the coming Sunday upstairs in the municipal building. Those interested hope for a big turnout, and may each do his part to make this class a real factor for good in our town, by supplying a need that has been patent for a long time.

Only about 35 local veterans and friends gathered at the cemetery on Sunday morning at 10:30 to do honor to the war veterans who are buried there. Rev. Thos. Laidlaw and Rev. C. O. Sommer conducted the brief service, and the veterans placed wreaths on the graves of their departed comrades. The grounds were blanketed with snow, while the weather was not otherwise inviting, a fact which kept many of the elder folk from being present.

Beyond the passing of a few small accounts, and reading public school Inspector Wilkinson's report on the findings of his last visit to the school, there was very little other business to transact at the regular meeting of the school board on Friday evening. The inspector reported in detail on organization, teaching and discipline, all of which he said was good. Classes examined were efficient, and the only matters needing attention were to procure more supplementary reading books, and a few boards off the fence in the play ground. The Property Committee was instructed to have the annual inspection of the boiler made, following a complaint from Queen's Park officials that the matter had not been attended to. There was just a bear quorum present, being E. Lloyd, Ambrose Stover, J. W. McMullen, and Dr. H. Freel who was appointed chairman of the meeting.

COMING—F. E. Luke, Optometrist, 167 Yonge Street, Toronto's able eyesight specialist, may be consulted about your eyes for glasses at Boardway's Drug Store, Stouffville, on Thursday, Nov. 30th.

The girls of the Mary Haig Circle will serve a tea in Turner's ice cream parlors on the afternoon of Saturday, November 18, from 3 o'clock. Come and enjoy a social hour and at the same time advance the cause of the Mission Circle.

The Horticultural Society meeting in the Stanley Theatre on Monday evening was well attended, and the talk on "A Trip Through Ontario Gardens" was keenly listened to, given by Mr. John H. Clark of Toronto. An added feature to the evening program was the presence of Mrs. Clark who rendered several solos in a very pleasing manner. The Society issued their prize money to the winners at the fall exhibition. Mr. H. O. Klinek acted as chairman.

Owing to the crippled condition of the outer door on the post office, it has been tied open for a day or two, and patrons of the building are able to enter without the arduous formality of pushing open two doors. While outer and inner doors may be necessary during the winter season it certainly is a nuisance all summer, and serves no good purpose. As we are speaking a little out of season, any further remarks are curtailed until "the good old summer time."

Work on the new Hydro electric line and substation at Ringwood will get under way at once. A new pole system will be erected from Mount Joy to Ringwood, and when the work of changing over the wires is underway, there will be some interruptions to the service in Stouffville and other parts of the system. It is expected that the first of these interruptions will be on Thursday and Friday of next week (Nov. 23-4) when the current will be turned off each day from 8:30 to 11:30, and from 1 to 4 p.m. Household and other matters should make a note of this matter, and if there is any change in the arrangements it will be announced in our issue a week from today.

Under direction of the reeve and council, an impressive service in memory of those who laid down their lives in the great war, was held in the Stanley Theatre, on Saturday morning, Remembrance Day. Silence was reverently observed at 11 o'clock for two minutes, and this was respected by persons and motor traffic on the streets as well. As we sat in the theatre Stouffville's "Big Ben" pealed out the hour of eleven, as every head was bent forward, and a deep solemn filled the building. Reeve W. E. Mordon acted as chairman, and stood on the platform beside a massive wreath presented by the Province of Ontario to the local Veterans, and community. Others on the platform included Rev. S. Cressman, Rev. H. Lee, Rev. C. O. Sommer, all three of whom participated in the service by offering prayers. Rev. E. Morton read the lesson, and Rev. Thos. Laidlaw was one of the speakers. The main address was brought by Rev. J. J. Robbins, who touched feelingly on the heroic part played by the boys in the great war, and the hope that we would never again be called to witness such carnage.

Councillor M. E. Watts was also on the platform, and as a veteran, expressed the hope that next year the people generally would take a real interest in this Remembrance Day service, so that the Theatre seating might be taxed to hold them. As it was, the building was about half filled.

CLAREMONT

Miss A. McGlashan left on Monday to spend the winter in Toronto. Ed. Gibson is confined to bed suffering from a severe heart attack. Mrs. Wm. Thompson is visiting relatives in Toronto.

The Bowling Club is holding its annual club dinner this Friday evening in the Community Hall. On Sunday evening Rev. J. L. Harton of the Baptist Church gave the second in his series of sermons on the life of Joseph. The subject of his sermon was "from pit to Palace." Next Sunday it will be "From Palace to Prison."

The Baptist Choir had charge of the music at Mount Zion Anniversary service on Sunday evening and a number from Claremont attended the service there.

The evening service in the Claremont United Church was withdrawn on Sunday on account of the Anniversary services at Brougham. Several from here attended these services and also the concert on Monday evening when an enjoyable program was given by members of the Boys' Junior Vocational School, of Toronto.

Mrs. Rogers of Newcastle, Presbyterian Secretary of the C.G.I.T. gave a very interesting and informative address on the work of this group at a meeting of the W.M.S. held in the school room of the United Church, on Thursday afternoon last. Several of the teen age girls attended the meeting in response to a special invitation.

A tablet in memory of the late Rev. A. and Mrs. McLelland will be unveiled in the Claremont United Church on Sunday next, Nov. 19th, at 2 p.m. Rev. G.C.R. McQuade, chairman of Oshawa Presbytery will preside and D. Davidson, principal of Emmanuel College, will deliver the address. Rev. W. Findland, M.A., B.D., will also take part in the service.

And getting back to Ontario there are somewhat similar assertions. True the end of October was exceptionally cold, but this very thing is used as an argument that from now on just the opposite kind of weather may be anticipated.

Open Wet Winter "Cornwall Island Indians," says the Standard Freeholder, claim that the early snowfall is a certain sign of an open winter. They predict above-normal temperatures for November and December, at least, with heavy rains, at frequent intervals.
