

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Delos Morris of Rochester Mich., made a brief visit to relatives here last week.

Friends are asked to note that the Stouffville United Church Sunday School Christmas tree entertainment will take place on Monday evening, December 18th.

Uxbridge merchants, through the Board of Trade, are contributing $50 in cash prizes for the annual Christmas market. If Stouffville merchants would organize to boost the Christmas market here, it would be better for business.

On Saturday, December 2nd, at 3.00 p.m. an afternoon tea and baking sale will be held by the Band of Willing Helpers of St. James Presbyterian Church, Stouffville at the Ice Cream Parlor of Turner's Dairy.

There will be a special talk picture at the Stanley Theatre shown on the evening of Wednesday, Dec. 6, when a big special on the program will be the draw for the electric clocks and gasoline to be given away free by Delbert Holden, Ford agent, to the lucky ticket holders for the month of November. No doubt there will be a big crowd on hand to hear the results, and to enjoy the big special picture feature which Manager Sid Schmidt is arranging for.

Roy Beach, youthful son of Mr. Oliver Beach of Church Hill territory, was painfully injured a few days ago when engaged in sawing wood. The lad sawed the end of his thumb before he realized it, and left only a piece of skin hanging. Rushed to Dr. Freely's office, the dismembered part was sewn on, and hopes are entertained that it will heal successfully. Roy can get plenty of sympathy among his own brothers and sisters for he has nine to cheer him along.

The case of Freely vs. the Village of Stouffville, which Judge O'Connell advised the parties to settle, after giving them direction on which to base a decision, has been referred back to His Honor for judgment.

Last week the Village Council made an offer to pay $200 damages and half Dr. Freely's law costs ($70) taxed as $140, a total payment of $270, which has been rejected by Dr. Freely as too low.

The decision of the Judge is expected to be given any day.

In addressing the Court at the conclusion of the hearing here on Nov. 15, His Honor gave very specific directions as to the amount of damages, which he placed at between $280 and $350, and later between $240 and $300.

He also referred to a benefit the new walk is to the property, but said there was no evidence to prove the amount in so many dollars. No reference was made about payment of costs.

You may or may not be interested, but Christmas is less than four weeks away.

Mrs. R. Tarr and family, and Mr. David Smales, attended the funeral on Friday of the former brother, Mr. Wm. Ramsay, of Toronto.

The egg market continues attractive to the farmer with laying fowl. Pullets eggs sold on Thursday from 32 to 35c a dozen on Stouffville market, and extras at 45c a dozen. Despite the high price for eggs poultry is still low, hens selling at 10 to 15 cents pound.

Mr. Thos. Birkett, the local insurance broker, was called to the U.S.A. last week, owing to the death of his uncle, the late John Graham, at Ithica, N.Y. The deceased left Ontario for the States long years ago. His death was due to pneumonia.

Toronto folk will be shocked to learn that a darling wolf has roamed from the north to within 25 miles of the city limits, but the fact was proven when Floyd Steekley shot Mrs. Wolf right in her tracks. The question now arises, is Mr. Wolf and the family?

Mrs. J. D. Winterstein is in the "Women's College Hospital", Toronto, where she is undergoing a minor operation on the lower jaw, and taking x-ray treatments. Her many friends will be glad to know that she is improving nicely.

We listened to a scientist giving an address over the radio, the other evening, and was surprised to hear him say that every person has one leg a little longer than the other. Even if the difference is so slight that it can scarcely be detected in most persons, why not let the politicians "pull the other leg" for a change.

Mrs. Delbert Jennings received the sad news on Sunday afternoon of the death of her step-mother, Mrs. Beatrice Buckler, of Toronto. Deceased was only 53 years of age, but had passed through a very serious operation. She was acquainted in Stouffville where she had visited at the home of Mrs. Jennings on many occasions. Two daughters, Mrs. Del. Jennings, and Mrs. George DeLaine and one step-son Floyd besides her husband are the surviving members of the family.

The death occurred on Thursday, Nov. 23 of Mary McFarlane, aged 76, following an illness of some duration. She was the daughter of the late Robt. McFarlane who lived in the east end of the village on the adjoining property to Mrs. Harding. The late Miss McFarlane, save for about ten years spent away from town recently, lived most of her life here. During her last illness she was nursed at the home of the Misses Grice, and the funeral on Saturday to Stouffville cemetery took place from the home of Mr. John Monkhouse. Surviving is a sister, Mrs. Wallace in Toronto.

An interesting dinner party took place at the Blue Bird Inn on Thursday evening last when Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lehman were the guests of Mrs. W. T. Byam and Miss Ethel. It was the occasion of Mr. and Mrs. Lehman's 41st wedding anniversary, and the local harnessmaker and his good wife enjoyed every moment of the time. In addition to the well served supper, the hosts had provided a wedding cake bedecked with 41 candles to mark the progress Mr. and Mrs. Lehman had made along the road of married life. This couple were married by Mr. H. M. Evans at Stouffville, in the year 1892, the preacher being the pastor of the Disciples congregation which flourished at that time, when the church stood just north of Main street on the 10th concession, and the parsonage also was located in the east end. Since that time the white church has been moved to the west end of the village, but is still in good condition, and serving as a place of worship. The newly married couple went direct to their farm at Pine Orchard, after visiting among relatives. Nineteen years ago they came to Stouffville and Mr. Lehman's first place of business was in the west end block. He later moved the harness business to a small building near his dwelling, house, and when the horse days were flourishing he did a large trade. A few years ago he moved the business down town almost opposite the fire hall where he is daily at his bench. Mr. Lehman was the son of Daniel and Sarah Lehman, pioneer parents of North Whitechurch. His life partner before her marriage was Ida Gilroy, one of the maids of Pine Orchard. Her parents were William and Mary Gilroy who were also early settlers in that district. While this happy union was never blessed with a family of children, they enjoy a wide circle of friends to whom they are bound throughout a life-time acquaintance. May they live long to enjoy this fellowship, is the sincere wish of one and all, who know Mr. and Mrs. Lehman.

Dr. Ira and Mrs. Freely left on Friday for St. Petersburg, Florida, where they intend to spend the winter months. As usual Ross Lewis went along as chauffeur.

Do not miss seeing the play, "Cranberry Corners" which will be given in Bloomington United Church on Friday evening, December 1, 1933. Admission 25c and 15c.

Don't forget! the hydro will be off on Thursday and Friday this week, 8.30 to 11.30 a.m. The new line at Ringwood is progressing favorably, and the service will not be greatly inconvenienced from this out.

The recently formed Bible class which meets each Sunday afternoon in the Oddfellows Hall, has formed a hockey team, but will not enter the O.H.A. as was currently rumored. The Bible boys intend to challenge other teams in friendly combat later in the season.

Mr. J. D. Winterstein and sons Reginald and Eugene, accompanied by their cousin Miss Doris Cook, and aunt Miss Anna Stapleton of town, spent Sunday with friends in Toronto. They visited Mrs. Winterstein in the hospital who speaks great praise for this institution for their efficiency in caring for their patients.

You have another whole month in which to purchase gas and oil at Delbert Holden's and get tickets on the Ford V-8 which he will give to the lucky ticket holder absolutely free after January 1st. Here is a real sporting chance with no cost to you. All oils and gas at regular prices.

25 young men from Unionville have made application to go north on the government road work provided for the winter months. Magistrate Keith and Constable Walker are completing the arrangements. Reg. Walker of Stouffville will join the group.

Mrs. Crawford Macklem, aged 77 years, fell on the hard ground the other day when her feet slipped, and sustained a broken arm, just below the right shoulder. The accident happened at the Macklem home at Lemonville, where the patient is doing nicely following the severe shock.

Mrs. George Valder sold her new house on Main street two doors west of the Bank of Commerce, to Mr. David Sulder, who at present occupies half the double house owned by Mr. Noah Baker, Main and Church streets. As our school principal Mr. E. W. Durnin has a year's lease on the Valder house, there will not likely be any change of residence until next August, when the lease expires. Mrs. Valder acquired the new house from the estate of the late Mrs. Noah Hoover, but last August gave up keeping house and rented the premises. It was only built three years ago, and is a comfortable six-roomed brick, with every modern convenience.

The central relief committee for Stouffville met on Monday evening, and were more than pleased to report that no cases were demanding their attention at this time.

Mr. Frank Cooper of Sunderland is reported as being seriously ill, and relatives from here have recently been north to visit him. Mr. Cooper is a former resident here. He was born on the third concession of Uxbridge, Jos. Cooper being his uncle. Only a few years ago he moved from Stouffville to the capital village of Brock Township.

Mrs. Chris. Brillinger was delighted to receive a letter from Sask., last week thanking her for a couple of pairs of mitts which she had knitted and sent out in the recent car from Stouffville. Mrs. Brillinger is 91 years of age, but her willing fingers are always busy knitting for the needy. Mrs. Brillinger with her aged husband who is just under 90, live on the 5th concession north of Bethesda.

This is the last day of the month and the final one on which you can make a purchase at Delbert Holden's service station, to count on the draw to be made for the fortunate ticket holders for the month of November. There are six prizes, namely three electric clocks, 50-gallons of gasoline, and 25 gallons of motor oil. Read the conditions in Mr. Holden's display ad. No advance in price for goods you buy, but my, what a chance to win a special gift at this time.

Miss M. McQuain is leaving town this week to spend the winter at the home of her sister, Mrs. H. H. Chamberlain at Standish, Michigan.

Mrs. Wm. Kaiser, Church street south, is making slow but satisfactory recovery from her recent severe illness which necessitated her being in the hospital for some time.

Regular bi-weekly C.C.F. open meeting will be held in Municipal Hall, Monday evening, Dec. 4th 1933. Subject for discussion "The Machine and the Social Revolution" Discussion open to everyone. Questions answered.

The weather was 2 below zero on Monday morning with a stiff wind blowing, but on Tuesday morning it was four points above freezing, and felt like a spring morning. A Chinook wind could not have brought a more sudden change.

The slippery condition of the sidewalks from time to time at this changeable period of the year makes dangerous walking, especially for the older folk. The trouble can be greatly lessened if property owners were more alert to shovelling off the slush when the opportunity presents itself.

There is a real shortage of Ontario cabbage over the province, and truckers have roamed in to Stouffville this past week from as far away as Windsor, endeavouring to buy a few tons of Jiggs' famous vegetable. The price is now quoted around $25 per ton, and may go even higher. It is said that about the only cabbage to be had here in this district and north from Barrie to Stayner and Collingwood.

The death of James R. Underhill of Claremont, took place in St. Michael's Hospital, on November 23. This long-standing resident of Claremont was in his 69th year, and was always a healthy robust looking individual. His death came as a real surprise to numerous old friends in Stouffville who were not aware of his entry to the hospital. He was laid to rest in the little cemetery at Salem, on Sunday afternoon.

A meeting of town boys held Monday evening, went on record as agreeable to entering a junior team in the O.H.A. Dick Stewart (bank clerk) was elected secretary and an energetic president is being sought. This junior entry will not interfere with the Altoon intermediates in any way, in so far as the jurisdiction of the teams are concerned.

The wolf bounty paid by the Ontario Government is $15 according to the 1933 statutes, and not $25 as stated in The Toronto Star. In 1930 the bounty was raised from $15 to $25, but the act was later amended to $15. Even this latter sum added to any bonus the Township Council of Whitechurch may decide to post up, is worth striving for.

A venison supper was served at Anderson's restaurant on Saturday evening as a six o'clock dinner. Sam Armstrong, who boards there, provided the venison, while the "extras" were taken care of by Mrs. Anderson in her own capable and inimitable way. The guests included all "the boys" from around that corner of business activity.

This paper once hailed Mrs. Hodgins, Church street south and Mrs. George Bowers living in the west end, as the oldest pair of twins in the County of York, and no newspaper or individual rose up to challenge our statement. The pair are 82 years of age, but they enjoyed a trip to Toronto the other week to attend the official entry of Santa Claus to the city for this coming Christmas season. We wonder if there were any other 82-year-old twins on Yonge street that day to welcome Santa? Keeping young is the secret to their long and healthy lives.

Members of the different denominations who are attending the special meetings held in the Christian Church this week are having the opportunity of sharing in a broader fellowship. Through the co-operation of the ministers of most of the local churches we are receiving fine messages from these men and getting to know one another better. A sing from 7.45 to 8.00 p.m., and worship and address from 8.00 till 9.00 contributes to a very fine evening. Wednesday Mr. Laidlaw will speak upon "The Place of the Church in the Life of the Individual" and Mrs. Laidlaw will bring us messages in song. Thursday, Mr. Cressman will address us on "The Secret of Spiritual Power". The week's meetings will close on Friday with Mr. Morton speaking to us about "Self-Denial"; special music every night to aid in the worship. Let all co-operate in making these meetings serve the highest needs of the people of this community. C. O. Sommer.

Rev. E. Morton addressed the recently organized Bible Class, last Sunday afternoon in the Oddfellows Hall. An attendance of over 40 young men was recorded. We understand a special drive will be made for still more membership.

Mr. John P. Cassidy, second year student of the Ontario Veterinary College, Guelph, and local Massey Harris Agent here during the summer months was in town a few days last week attending to some business.

The condition of Mrs. M. Irwin who has been lying in a serious state for a couple of weeks is not changed, and grave hopes are entertained for her recovery. Mrs. Irwin lives on Victoria Street.

COMING - F. E. Luke, Optometrist, 167 Yonge Street, Toronto's able eyesight specialist, may be consulted about your eyes for glasses at Boardway's Drug Store, Stouffville, on Thursday, Nov. 30th.

N. M. MacLean, father of the community Christmas tree idea, which has been followed out each year for some time, of erecting a tree in front of the Municipal Building, informs us that there will be a tree as usual this year. The kiddies will be glad to receive this good news.

Roy and Carl Davis of Ringwood, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Davis, were fortunate in killing a whole family of coons and other day. The lads tracked the animals to a hollow tree, and there caught the parent coons with three fully grown children. The old male coon weighed 18 pounds. It is not often that such luck is encountered in this part of Whitechurch in killing coon, and it comes with a bit of cherrio right on top of another young farmer shooting a wolf. The five coon hides are said to be worth around $25.

Arrangements have been made through the courtesy of the Curling Club to extend playing privileges to the young men of Rev. H. Lee's Sunday School class on Friday afternoon of this week right after school. Secretary Harry W. Sanders will be present to give the boys instruction in the art of throwing the granite rocks. This is a splendid idea and a commendable move on the part of the sponsors. Some of these days Stouffville may develop a rink of young players good enough to enter the Ontario Junior Tankard. In any case the boys will be brought into touch with a clean bit of sport that they will enjoy.
