Miss Grace Ratcliff, R.N., of Toronto spent New Years at home.

Mr. George Millard, of Newmarket, who has been visiting with his aunt, Mrs. George Robinson for the past ten days, returned home last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sparling, of London, Ontario, spent Saturday and Sunday at Mr. Frank Rao's. Mr. Sparling is Western Ontario manager of Canada Vinegars.

The Christmas mail was about on a par with the 1932 mail at Stouffville, says Postmaster Leavens. Last year there was a decided slump in the postal receipts due to the depression period, but the noticeable drop at that time must have been the bottom, for 1933 business was as good or slightly better than 1932.

Elmer Clayton Percy, native of Newmarket, and as a young man resident of Stouffville, died at his home in Windsor, on Christmas Day. He was 55 years of age, and had spent the last 22 years in Windsor. For 11 years he was a partner in the firm of Hughes & Percy, printers. The deceased was a son of the late Rev. Wm. Percy a former minister here, and he was educated in Stouffville where he later entered the employ of Malloy & Keefer in the printing trade. The late Mr. Percy is survived by his widow, one son and two daughters, and by a sister Miss Elizabeth Percy of Rhode Island who erected the Percy Memorial Clock and bell in our village.

Mild speculation might have been heard on the street last Friday morning, or rather in the offices and store buildings, for it was 25 below zero at mall time (9.30) as to whether the night had been the coldest ever recorded in Stouffville or not. Frank Rao was telling some of the boys that allowing the thermometer had touched 34 below which was reported by the milkmen and others; who were about in the early hours, there was a winter back in war days when it registered 49 below in Stouffville. Despite the fact that lawyers are credited with being able to make the truth go further than most people, Mr. F. L. Button was heard to tell someone that he recalled it was once 25 below and he seemed to adhere to the idea that Friday morning's low of 34 was about the worst he'd ever had. One thing sure Friday's dip was had enough for most of us, and we hope it will be a long time repeating the record. But few car drivers could stop on the accelerator and get away, and because of this our garages were more than busy, and so were the plumbers for a number of bursted water pipes were reported in the homes. The extreme cold weather of the mid-holiday time which is usually quiet for the stores, was responsible for still fewer people being in town than might have been under more normal winter weather conditions last week.

LADIES, NOTICE

There will be a very special sale of Hats and Dresses this Saturday, January 6, all at greatly reduced prices. This will be the final sale of the season.

MRS. M. E. WATTS West End Block Stouffville

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rowbotham and Miss Helen spent New Years in town.

The Watch Night Service held in the Stouffville Baptist Church, was very well attended considering the weather conditions.

The coldest dip in some years, covers the weather report for last week.

Mr. Bill Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Smith, returned to his home at Hagersville, Ontario, after spending the holiday season here with his parents.

Mrs. Wm. Asling is making satisfactory recovery from her recent accident in which she slipped on a piece of ice at her home just west of the village, and in the fall sustained a fractured small bone in one foot. Mrs. Asling has been confined to her home for more than three weeks during which time she has been unable to bear any weight on the injured foot.

George Courtney who has been in charge of the local undrinking parlors of R. G. Clendening, has resigned his position and moved into Markham township, on the town-line east. His position at the local mortuary will be filled by Mr. Frank Clendening, brother of the proprietor, who with his young wife will reside in the apartment above the store.

Herb Porter the mail courier on Routes 2 and 4 from Stouffville completed his 8,000 mile journey on Saturday and handed over the job to Less Wideman on whose tender the Dominion government will save several hundred dollars. Herb took four years to complete the great mileage he had rolled up in the pursuance of delivering mail, and as a sort of "send off" Old Jack Frost gave him the coldest few days the last of his journey that he had experienced in his carrying time.

Owing to the regular pastor, Rev. Mr. McGrath suffering from a severe cold, the pulpit of the local Baptist Church was filled Sunday evening by Mr. Bruce Hisey, who is attending the Baptist Seminary in Toronto. Bruce with his pleasing personality and great speaking ability will no doubt be an outstanding minister of his day.

There were no less than twelve candidates running for a seat on the municipal council in Newmarket last Monday. That was just double the size of the slate in Stouffville while in addition the Canal Town ratepayers had to choose a reeve and a deputy reeve. Some voters required about five minutes to complete their ballot.

There were two candidates by the name of Harry Sanders in Monday's election in York County and both were successful. In addition to our own "Harry" there was running one Harry Sanders for the reeveship of Scarborough who had his slate broadcast all over the Township promising to move to reduce the size and cost of County Council. We think he will have a good ally in his campaign, and the pair will be designated at the county seat as T. Harry Sanders of Scarborough and Harry W. Sanders of Stouffville.

The remains of the late Alexander Reesor, aged 57 years, were laid to rest in the Wideman cemetery, (8th concession) on Dec. 24. He was raised on the 8th concession of Markham, and for years was a forman for the Jupp Construction Co., but for the past ten years had been in failing health, and was unable to work, although still on the roll with his old firm. He is survived by his wife who is a daughter of Mr. Peter Byer of Stouffville, and sister to N. E., Walter and Jess Byer, all of whom attended the funeral. Three daughters survive. The sympathy of their old friends is extended to the family in the untimely death of their father.

Mr. Percy Winterstein and family motored over from Royal Oak, Mich., to spend the holiday season with relatives here. Mr. Winterstein says that everything is humming in his locality, as compared with thousands being out of work six months ago. While government contracts are absorbing the workmen at good wages, it is even making factory hands scarce, because the industries pay lower wages, and are not permitted to operate more than eight hour shifts. The U.S.A. government method of raising wages is by raising them itself and taking all the available workmen on Royal Oak where Mr. Winterstein lives is almost under the shadow of the Church of the Little Flower, made famous through its radio pastor Father Coughlin.

Your Hardware Store

This is the season of the year when the farmer finds time on his hands to do the "odd job" about his farm buildings. No matter whether it is putting in a pane of glass or replacing a broken hinge you will find the small hardware at our store. Perhaps its something for the house in the way of new pipes, or a new stove. Our Findlay heaters, and cook stoves are so well known that you can easily find a neighbor to tell you of their merit.
