

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Miss Marjorie Richmond of Toronto spent a day or two in town visiting her friend Miss Houston of the Continuation School staff.

Mrs. A. C. Burkholder has been in Toronto for a few days visiting her daughter Mrs. Fraser Ritchie.

Revere H. W. Sanders and Mrs. Sanders are spending a week at the Windsor Arms, in Toronto, during the sessions of York County Council.

The Markham Township recount is scheduled to open at the City Hall, Toronto, today, before His Honor Judge Jackson.

The Aurora Intermediates, leaders in the local league standing will play in Stouffville on Friday night. You'll want to see this game, because Altona line-up will be at top notch, and ready for a big battle.

The oyster supper announced for last week by the Young Men's Bible Class, will now be served in the Oddfellows Hall, this Friday evening, January 26. The hall will be open at 8 o'clock for those who wish to participate in indoor games while the supper will be served at 10 o'clock. There will be a demonstration on eating oysters conducted by Rev. Mr. Laidlaw, class teacher, and Vice-President M. E. Watts. You must not miss this. An invitation is extended to all members to be on hand for this social event.

With Old Saul shining only 5 1/2 hours the first half of January, and with the never-ending talk about the forth-coming beer program to be introduced at the 1934 session of the Ontario legislature, the general interest in moonshine and sunshine has been evenly divided.

Mr. Bruce Hisey, who is attending the Baptist Seminary, in Toronto, was home for the weekend.

Stenographer desires position in store. Experienced. Live in if possible. State salary. Apply to Box M. Tribune Office.

Mrs. Milton Clark of Peterborough and Mrs. F. C. Rowbotham of Toronto spent the weekend with their mother Mrs. T. W. Kinck, of O'Brien Avenue.

On Monday evening, Feb. 5, the regular meeting of the local C.C.F. Club will be held in the Municipal Hall. The subject of the discussion will be "The Abolition of the Canadian Senate", the address to be given by our local barrister H. A. Sanders. Everyone welcome.

Mr. Fred Silversides purchased a snappy looking team of horses here last week, which he sent to his new farm in Scott Township. A dapple gray mare was contributed by Frank Timbers, and a bay gelding by Edward Hoover, both 4-years-old. The horse market is steadily growing stronger, and good animals are becoming increasingly scarce, and hard to buy. Mr. George Watson, the local buyer has shipped several animals to the city markets recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Stover were in town from Brooklyn on Sunday visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ward. If her friends happen to see Mrs. Stover using a cane as she walks about, they need not jump at the conclusion that she is adopting a new style or becoming "high hat." Mrs. Stover fractured a small bone in one foot recently and requires the aid of a walking stick while the injured member is gaining strength again.

We noticed the other day that a baby had been born in Wabash, Ind., with the mumps, so we suppose the first problem that will confront the young miss will be one of reducing.

The fire alarm was sounded one morning last week about 3.30 o'clock when the brigade raced to the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Watson on O'Brien Avenue, where the chimney was afire. The chemical wagon was in readiness for action, but the danger was averted and no damage was done.

Mrs. Elsie Gray, friends will be glad to note, is improving in health following her recent serious operation which was performed at St. John's Hospital, Toronto. Mrs. Gray has been removed to the home of her mother on Silverbirch Avenue. The home in Stouffville opposite Mr. James Morrins, centre Main street, is closed during Mrs. Gray's absence.

Skaters will look forward with interest to the coming hard-time carnival to be held in Stouffville Arena on the evening of Thursday, February 1. There will be two races including a marathon of 25 laps and a shorter one of 15 laps. Prizes for best lady and gentleman in costume. If you do not skate come down and enjoy the scenery and hear Billy Dougherty's Band. The prizes to be awarded will shortly be on display in Curtis' Men's Store window.

Manager Sid Schmidt deserves credit for bringing some of the leading pictures to the local theatre, and giving the general public a "peep" at them without any advanced or fancy prices attached. While crowds are attracted to the Stanley when a big special is put on such as Mae West in "I'm no Angel" played here last Friday and Saturday, the management reaps no revenue for the house over a normal showing, because of the great cost in securing these newer pictures, that are having a big run in the larger city theatres. However, they're a special treat, and it all helps to make the Stanley more popular. There wasn't seating accommodation for the crowd last Saturday, many coming quite a distance for the show.

Following only a brief illness, Mrs. James Waddingham died in Toronto, on Sunday last, and was laid to rest in Mt. Pleasant cemetery on Tuesday afternoon. Until only a few years ago Mrs. Waddingham was a resident of Church street, Stouffville, but after the death of her husband made her permanent home in Toronto where her only daughter Mrs. Sam. Johnston resides on Sackville street. The late Mrs. Waddingham, whose maiden name was Margaret Ogilvie, was a niece of the late Sir James Anderson of Edinburgh, Scotland, and was a very refined lady. While in Stouffville where she became a resident because of the healthful community for her husband at that time, she was a worker in the Presbyterian church, and since her removal to Toronto, has been a frequent visitor at the home of Mrs. Sam. Warriner here. Old acquaintances will greatly regret to learn of her demise.

The Stouffville Creamery Co. installed a large new butter churn this week which was brought here by truck from the manufacturers in St. Mary's. The huge churn will handle 1200 pounds of butter at one churning, and is up-to-date and efficient in every way.

If you have any notion of buying a radio it will be advisable to see the stock at Button's Hardware which is being cleared out at startling low prices. If the prices on the back page of this issue do not interest you, there are others in stock that you should see.

Judge Charles H. Widdfield celebrated his 75th birthday last Sunday. His Honor is a familiar figure in the local courts, but has been off duty since Sept. 21, when he was injured when alighting from a street car. Judge Widdfield is a native of Uxbridge, and a brother to Mrs. F. H. Sangster, of Stouffville. His friends will be pleased to learn that he is making recovery, and will soon be on duty again.

The school chums and former neighbors will be concerned about the serious illness of a former Ballantrae boy, David Kirby, who with his mother only recently moved to Toronto. The lad who is attending Normal School this year, was removed to the hospital last week suffering from hemorrhage. His chum Chas. Ratcliff from here was summoned to give a blood transfusion but it was decided to delay it after Charles had reached the hospital in readiness for the undertaking. Dave is said to be considerably improved this week.

Constable Walker of Markham Township has been getting after those impostors who are guilty of killing pheasants in the neighborhood, and on a tip from someone he rushed over to Buttonville, in the south-west corner of the Township, apprehended four fellows against whom summonses will be issued. He confiscated their guns and the pheasants they had shot, for they were caught with the goods on them.

Robt. Fong, the young Chinaman who was seriously injured by a passing motor car on Main street some thirteen weeks ago, is able to leave the Stouffville Hospital this week, where he has been confined since the accident in which he suffered a compound fracture of both legs. The young lad is rapidly regaining strength, although he is scarcely able to get about on crutches as yet. Local physicians appear to have made a splendid job of his case, which is said to have been a difficult setting.

After setting the pace for Markham Juniors to the tune of 2 to 1 the locals fell away in the third period of the O.H.A. game here on Tuesday night, and the visitors finished them off by the score of 2 to 5. Markham ran in their three last goals in rapid succession, and had much the best of the period, after the teams played quite evenly in the earlier stages. Markham boys were fast and should go to the top in the league standing. This defeat settles Stouffville's fate in so far as league championship goes. The lads have done well for a new aggregation, and must be given credit for the organization they had assembled. They play their final game at Bradford on Friday night.

Mr. John Turner has just received word of the death of his brother, Rev. Ezra Turner, which occurred at Portland, Oregon, where the deceased had spent some years as pastor of one of the Baptist churches there. He was 60 years of age, and four years ago visited in Stouffville when on his holidays. His death followed a long illness, as a result of being struck on the side of the head by a ball when attending some professional baseball match in the U.S.A. Rev. Mr. Turner was born on the 7th concession of Pickering on the old Turner homestead now occupied by his brother Frank, who with two other brothers, John and William survives the pastor, also five sisters survive, two in Toronto and three living in Pickering township.

Mr. S. W. Hastings narrowly missed a serious accident a few mornings ago while driving his car to town along the townline west of Ringwood. Overtaking some school children on the road he attempted to slow his car down, when it slowed on the icy way, and struck a lad of about 11 years, the son of Mr. Lindsay Ferguson. Fortunately the lad was not badly injured although he was taken to Dr. Ball's office suffering from a cut on the leg. He was allowed to go home later after the injury was dressed. These are dangerous days for motorists, for it is almost impossible to control a car on the glaring ice of which there is so much this season.

The ruddy and smiling countenance of our north Church street resident, Mr. George Winn, is slightly misleading when it comes to estimating his age. Instead of being around 62 years, this retired farmer on Saturday celebrated his 75th birthday. The occasion was marked by a birthday party held at the home of one of his sons, Mr. Fred Winn, concession 10, Whitchurch. George

Your Hardware Store

This is the season of the year when the farmer finds time on his hands to do the "odd job" about his farm buildings. No matter whether it is putting in a pane of glass or replacing a broken hinge you will find the small hardware at our store. Perhaps its something for the house in the way of new pipes, or a new stove. Our Findlay heaters, and cook stoves are so well known that you can easily find a neighbor to tell you of their merit.

Winn came to Canada from old Somersetshire, England, when a youth and made good here from the start due to his integrity and good judgment. For many years he farmed south of Stouffville on the Silverthorne farm, and here his family was born. Shortly after purchasing the Lincolnville farm, his life partner passed away in 1911, but Mr. Winn carried on with the farm until six years ago, when he retired to Stouffville. His entire family of four sons and two daughters were all present on Saturday for the auspicious event. They are Roland, Fred, Frank and Clifford, also Misses Bortha and Emma, both living at home.

COMMUNITY STUDY GROUP PLANNED

All those in Stouffville and vicinity who are interested in meeting together once a week for ten weeks to study some subject relating to a larger, fuller kind of life, are invited to attend an organization meeting Friday Jan. 26th at 8:00 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Sommer, Church street south. The subject to be chosen will be decided upon by those attending this meeting. To suggest the wideness of the field from which a subject may be chosen the following are indicated:
(1) Dramatic
(2) Home and Family
(3) How the Bible Originated and Grew.
(4) Social and Recreational Leadership.
(5) The Life or Teachings of Christ.
(6) A Study About the Old or New Testament, etc.
It is suggested that the method be discussion, with a sharing of ideas and experience of everyone attending.
This is non-denominational and though the main purpose of the study group may not be to receive credits, recognition can be obtained from the Religious Educational Council of Canada for the required work done, by those who desire it.
The first hour will be devoted to study placing the latter part of the evening open for recreation of various kinds, if desired. Let us all—
