SCHOOL BOARD TANGLE SETTLED

Teachers Re-engaged till end of June

At an urgent meeting of the School Board held on Thursday evening last, the nightmare into which the members had plunged themselves over the dismissal of two public school teachers, was set right, and the two teachers are again instructing the young hopefuls of the district in the three "R's" as if nothing had happened.

Mr. Button acted before the Board on behalf of the teachers and he said that although he considered they had been treated most unjustly the teachers had consented to fill out the remainder of the term, and the offer was promptly accepted by the Board.

It was understood also that the contracts of the two teachers, would end June 30, unless they are re-engaged at the next meeting, and from a private poll of the members this is predicted.

DOGS DEMAND PRIZE SHEEP?

Mutton-eating dogs seem to have a special liking for C. J. Brodie's fancy sheep of the Southdown breed—Some of this flock is fitted, up annually for the Chicago Show, and from past records of the dogs, they have their own ideas in slaughtering prize animals while others of more common flocks are passed up. A couple of weeks ago dogs ravaged the flock for the first time spring and killed four lambs outright, two others had to be destroyed and a ewe was injured in the slaughter, that went through the flock of 146 ewes and 170 lambs.

Only this spring Mr. Brodie rented new pasture on the A. L. Law farm, sixth concession, in a locality where dogs have not been guilty of molesting sheep to any extent, and it was hoped that the more central grazing grounds would be a protection for the animals.

During the past two years the owner has lost over 100 sheep in this way, and the township has been called on to pay hundreds of dollars because of the bad behaviour of the canines.

CROWDED COLUMNS

A considerable amount of live news matter is crowded out of this issue, in order to accommodate the large election notices which must be carried this week, although they arrived almost as the forms went to press.

Settlement Reached on Mill Pond Case

The court action over the water rights at the mill pond, corner of 5th concession and Whitechurch townline, has been settled after a three-day hearing before His Honor Judge Barton, in Toronto. From the outset the judge pressed the parties to make a settlement out of court which was ultimately accomplished by Mr. Sider and the mortgagee Frank Harvey offering to grant Mr. Wideman the two acres of land at the north of the pond, and also to repair the roadway under dispute. In lieu of this Mr. Sider is permitted to maintain the water in the pond at the present level.

Each party to the case will pay their own lawyers and witnesses of which about ten were subpoenaed for each side, while the court costs will be divided.

WOLVES PROWLING LOCAL COUNTRYSIDE

Animal Shot near Cashel with Sheep's Wool in Stomach— Others Sighted near Bethesda

Hunting for wolves in the Township of Markham around the Cashel settlement on the sixth concession would appear to be a foolish pastime to most everybody, but it proved profitable for Lewis Hertle, an unemployed man of the district, when on Saturday afternoon he shot down one brush wolf and wounded a second animal. Hertle was standing leaning against a tree when the pair came into view a short distance away about a half mile south of the Cashel corner. When he shot the first animal he only wounded it badly, and the mate in its frenzy tried to carry it away but Hertle ran up, and killed the wolf with a club. The other one stood some distance and snarled at him. He only had one shot left and fired this at the lone beast, but his aim was not good and with the report of the gun the wolf fled apparently wounded.

The dead wolf weighed 25 pounds. Examination of its stomach revealed sheep's wool, indicating that the animal had been responsible for some of the sheep killed in the district. It was a female, and showed evidence of having had a litter of pups this spring, and these are believed to be at large in the country. Heavy damage to the sheep on James Brodie's ranch a few miles north in Whitechurch Township, is now suspected to be from wolves in the section, as they have been sighted all around there.

At seven o'clock last Sunday morning Charles Atkinson, Bethesda saw a wolf right near his house. It was easily identified because it came so close. Other members of the family also saw it. Mr. Atkinson shot at it across a field, when it ran to the bush. Again on Monday Nora Macklem saw one near their farm house, but it made off hastily. Hunters have been out for the game, hoping to cash in as Hertle did on Monday when he took his prize to Toronto to collect the $15 bounty. It is expected that both Whitechurch and Markham township councils will post an extra bounty over that of the government.

Floyd Steckley, it will be recalled shot a wolf near Bethesda last winter.

Masons Hold Inspection Night

Over 100 Masons and their friends sat down to a banquet in the Eastern Star Rooms on Friday evening, the like of which is not excelled in the finest hotels in the land, where menus as similar as the bricks on a house are served. It was the occasion of the official visit of the District Deputy Grand Master, Albert H. Downs, to Richardson Masonic Lodge. The work of the order was carried out in the lodge rooms in the Lehman Block, when the brethren repaired to the O.E.S. Rooms as stated. Following the table courses, a happy and interesting toast list was proposed and responded to mostly by visiting brethren while a couple of entertainers from Toronto supplied the lighter amusement. Visitors were present from Toronto, Markham, Clarendon and Uxbridge. Seminary Graduation Attended By Town Folk

Bruce Heise, Received Prize For Highest Christian Character

The Jarvis Street Baptist Church, Toronto, was comfortably filled Thursday evening last week, when twelve young people received diplomas and certificates at the commencement service of the Toronto Baptist Seminary. The diplomas were presented and the service conducted by Rev. Dr. Shields, president of the seminary, who was assisted by Rev. Alexander Thompson, of Mount Pleasant Road Baptist Church, Rev. A. C. Whitcombe of the Orangeville Church and Rev. W. S. Whitcombe, seminary instructor in English, who delivered the commencement sermon. Rev. W. S. Whitcombe, is a former pastor of the Sixth Line and Baker Hill Baptist Churches.

Taking as his text the passage in the Epistle to Timothy, "make full proof of thy ministry," Mr. Whitcombe, admitting the existence of reasons for pessimism, declared that there was still cause for joy. "Jesus Christ is still the same, yesterday, today and forevermore," he told the graduates. "The Gospel is still the same Gospel which the Apostle Paul preached." The graduates were advised that they must not only hold fast to the doctrines but preach them, "your business," he declared, "is not to amuse people, but to preach and teach to them the Word of God."

Dr. Shields, before bestowing the prizes and diplomas, recalled the history of the seminary and stated that it was good to look out on the broad fields of the world "and feel that we have a little share in occupying them for Christ."

Besides the diplomas that were granted an additional prize list included the names of Russel R. Travers, for first ranking in Greek. This young man will be remembered by those who attended the sacred musical service given by the Invictus Male Quartette, in the local Baptist Church here a few weeks ago. Mr. Travers was the member of the quartette that delivered the message of the evening; Miss Hilda Broad, for the same proficiency in Hebrew. Miss Broad is no stranger in town for she is a guest of Mrs. S. Heise, Clark Street, from time to time; Mr. Bruce Heise, a local boy, and a son of Mrs. S. Heise was chosen by vote of the students for a prize given by a missionary to Liberia for highest Christian Character.

Among those who attended the graduation and reception from town were: Rev. Charles McGrath, Rev. and Mrs. Roy Heise, Mrs. James Ratcliff, Miss Ila McGuire, Messrs. H. C. Penneck, G. F. Ratcliff, Grant Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Smith.

The B.B.L. Society made up of the young people of Bloomington, Ballantrae and Lemonville, will give the 4-act play "Cranberry Corners," on Friday, May 25 at 8 p.m., in Ratcliff's Hall. This play has proven very popular in each of the seven centres already given. The proceeds are in aid of a Lemonville family who were burned out. Admission 25 and 15 cents.

NATIVE OF SCOTT TWP.

Robert H. Noble who died in Winnipeg last week where he had been police magistrate for 13 years, was a native of Scott Township, and a solicitor in Uxbridge for some years prior to going West 30 years ago. A sister Mrs. Jacob Rynard of Sunderland survives him; also two brothers, Alexander of Uxbridge and Donald barrister at Milford, Mich. A wife and two sons survive him also.

RINGWOOD

Mr. Abner Baker and son Jacob attended the graduation service of the Toronto Baptist Seminary, last Thursday night, in the Jarvis Street Church.

Our attention has been called to the death of a former resident of this locality in the passing of Mrs. Andrew Haig at the home of her son-in-law at Oshawa where she had resided for some time. When her late husband was in active life the family lived at Ringwood on the Bassett farm, and they were prominent and consistent members of the Presbyterian church in Stouffville. The Mission Society there named their band after Miss Mary Haig, who is now on mission work in the East, and Mary Haig Band today forms an active society in the United Church at Stouffville. The late Mrs. Haig lived to a ripe old age, and her passing removes a woman of very high moral standing from our midst.

R. J. Daley of Bittern Lake, Alberta, who is enjoying a holiday in Stouffville among the scenes of his boyhood days and of his early business activities. Mr. Daley appears to have made a successful recovery from a serious operation, the first sickness encountered since childhood.

We are looking forward to a contribution on the early days of Stouffville from this native son for some future issue.

VOTERS' LIST PATRONAGE

In the riding of East York the work of printing the Voters' List has been given to one of the Conservative standard bearers in Scarborough, while in North York, Mr. Clifford Case has designated that the printing should be done by the Aurora Banner. The printers awarded the work will have to get help in setting up the type, as it is beyond their ability to do it alone. At the last election, all printing offices were given a fair share of the printing through the Clerk of the Peace at Toronto, instead of making it a straight patronage job.

MELVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Reid Brunwell and son visited at Mr. Harry Forrester's on Sunday.

Mrs. Stan Topham and son Billie spent Tuesday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hisey.

The question these days seems to be, "whom afraid of the big bad wolf?"

Mrs. E. Elliott visited her mother, Mrs. J. Nigh last week, and returned home with her daughters, Jean and Kathleen, Sunday evening.

Miss Nettie Bruce is visiting with Mr. Walter Scott and family of St. Catharines and other friends, she will return home by motor with Miss Jean Scott.

also to s and

The second annual Spring Fair was held in the church sheds on Thursday evening, May 17, with very gratifying results. The ladies of the W. A. netted over $55. The attendance was good, and judging by the crowd around the lunch counter they did full justice to the good things to be found there. The ice cream was sold out at an early hour, likewise the candy, which was made and marketed by the young ladies of the congregation. The fish pond proved an attraction to young and old alike, and the "catch" was often quite as wonderful as the tales told by the Almirra fishermen, after a day at the lake.

The W.A. extend hearty thanks to those who helped in any way to make the fair a success and hope to meet all again at the 3rd Annual in 1935.

GORMLEY

Mr. and Mrs. George Hilts and Miss Vera Hilts, also Mrs. Scholl motored to Nottawa to attend the love feast there.

Mr. J. Thompson has been under the doctors care and is feeling better again.

George Baker & Sons have a fairly large construction job in Stouffville, enlarging the United Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Doner from Brampton have been visiting with Mrs. Levi Hoover.

Mr. Frank Harvey is making quite an improvement in his surroundings by having the house stuccoed and his barn painted.

Gormley people are happier again since the little showers, because the seeds and shrubs are beginning to grow. It has been so backward and dry that the leaves etc. seemed to be at a stand still and the gardens were coming up only in spots.

Last week the young peoples class of the Mennonite church gathered at Mr. Will Wilson's to give a little farewell to Eldon Gooding who has been with Mr. Clarence Doner. A very pleasant evening was had and Eldon was presented with a wrist watch.
