Candidate Will Resign Legal Position in Ontario Hydro

At a convention Saturday, tism, Back ache, Lumbago, Newmarket Captain H. A. Breuls, solicitor in the legal department of the Ontario Hydro, was nominated by the Liberal-Conservacases tive Association of North York contest the Federal riding made vacant by the death of Col. T. H. Lennox. In accepting the nomination, Captain Breuls announced he would immediately resign his post with the Hydro. .

This announcement settled all the speculations which preceded meeting regarding the new candidate's immediate future. Association Unionville; Dr. Tomlinson, Clare- Mr. and Mrs. Linklater and members from all over the riding discussed the probable fate of Captain Breuls whom they all apparently knew would be nominated.

The former president of the association, Dr. George Lockhart, farm physician, was nominated. E. Nesbitt, chairman of the meeting and successor to Dr. Lockhart president of the association, ar nounced that "the increaing press of professional duties" had made is impossible for the doctor to accept nomination, and had resulted in the necessity of Dr. Lockhart resigning as president of the association, ar office held by him for almost years." RE-UNION AND CHURCH SERVICE

Visitors from Ohio and North Carolina in the south to New Liskeard, in the north gathered at Maple Farm, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Mertens, for the centennial anniversary of the Mertens family in Canada.

Guests were also present from Newmarket, Burlington, Oshawa, Weston, Markham, Vandorf. Claremont and Toronto. The day was spent in getting acquainted and in renewing friendships. An interesting program of sports and music was enjoyed also short speeches by Mr. F. W. Mertens of Weston, one of the chief organizers for the Mertens families, and by Miss Nora Stapleton of Stouffville.

A cake four layers high, decorated with candles decked the centre of the table, while the dishes used were those brought over by the original family 100 years ago.

The Congregational - Christian Church was filled to capacity and seats had to be placed in the aisles on Sunday evening for the Mertens Re-union service held there. Mr. Carl Chapman of Burlington - was the speaker for the occasion. He is a young university graduate who is about to enter the teaching profession, but like his father Rev.
