The By-Election

The by-election Campaign in North York is now humming, with meetings every night being held by either party. Col. Mulock has a big campaign mapped out and is supported by a number of the high lights of the Liberal party. In fact during this week and next the riding will be visited by some of the outstanding speakers in Canada of both political persuasions. Among those who will support Col. Mulock on the platform in this by-election are Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, Federal Liberal leader; Hon. Mitchell F. Hepburn, Ontario Premier, Hon. J. L. Ralston, Hon. Ian Mackenzie, Hon. J. C. Elliott, Hon. Arthur Roebuck, Ontario's Attorney General; Hon. Duncan Marshall, Minister of Agriculture; Hon. Dr. L. J. Simpson, Minister of Education; Arthur G. Slaght, K. C., and a number of others. It is expected that Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King will speak in Markham Village arena, Tuesday evening, Sept. 18th, and Premier Mitchell F. Hepburn will be in Richmond Hill, Thursday, September 20th. Capt. Breuls, Conservative candidate has not disclosed his entire list of speakers so far as we can learn, but his campaign was opened last Thursday night at Aurora with Hon. Robt. Weir as chief spokesman.

While Premier R. B. Bennett has decided to go to Geneva instead of North York, a representative of Capt. Breuls has announced that the Hon. H. H. Stevens, federal minister of trade and commerce, and the stormy petrel of the Conservative administration, will address about four meetings, in the riding. Hon. R. C. Matthews, federal minister of internal revenue, is also expected to enter the struggle. Hon. Hugh Guthrie Minister of Justice is to speak at Stouffville. This is a big fight, and both candidates are leaving nothing undone to win it.

TO LIQUIDATE $152,000 HEAD WEST CATTLE

Animals Face Early Starvation in Dry Areas.

Ottawa—Seeking a policy under which approximately 125,000 head of cattle west of the Great Lakes may be marketed within the next six weeks and thus saved from starvation, a delegation representing the three prairie provinces is in negotiation with Hon. Robert Weir, Minister of Agriculture, and the heads of the packing companies at Toronto.

Diverse elements involved in the problem concern taxpayers, packing houses and their shareholders, tanneries and consumers everywhere in the country. Failing a policy which will lift this vast amount of beef off the market, prices will be hammered down in the next six weeks to unprecedented lows, it is predicted. In fact shipments will be halted only when prices fail to pay the rail charges. Packing plants will be deluged with low grade beef. On the other hand, government co-operation in disposing of these cattle outside of Canada will involve about $1,000,000 by way of subventions.

Drought Victims These cattle are the victims of drought and according to western delegates are but the ill-bred, second rate livestock in the cropless areas. It is not proposed to sacrifice high class breeding stock.

The western delegates are Hon. D. G. McKenzie, Minister of Agriculture for Manitoba; Hon. J. G. Taggart, Minister of Agriculture for Saskatchewan; R. A. Wright, official of the Western Livestock Union.

After preliminary negotiations with Mr. Weir, the delegates went to Toronto where they interviewed the packers. They then returned to Ottawa for further negotiations here. It is recognized, by all parties, that the western cattle problem is more acute than ever before.

125,000 Head Of the 125 head, one half are in Saskatchewan and the balance is evenly divided between Manitoba and Alberta. In the two latter provinces, it is understood that the situation of the drought areas have no feed for winter, there is pasturage which will keep the animals alive until the frost comes—probably in mid-October. In Saskatchewan it is reported that between 6,000 and 10,000 head of cattle are now starving and must either be slaughtered or fed if they are to be of the slightest value to their owners. The balance may be able to keep going until freeze-up. But with the onset of winter, the feed problem for the entire number will become emergent and the abattoirs of the west are not nearly large enough to handle so vast a number in a few days; even weeks. Therefore the delegation is urging the importance of beginning to handle the stock forthwith.

Turn Into Hog Feed Surveys carried out in the provinces reveal that some 20,000 are fit only for tannage. This means they should be desiccated and converted into pig feed. Some 90,000 could be slaughtered and packed in one or other form of low grade beef. The balance might be transported into northern areas and sold to farmers in need of stock—they would be chiefly milk cows.

RICHARDS-NEWMAN
A lovely early autumn wedding was solemnized, at high noon, on Saturday, September 1st, when the Rev. W. Cliff of Cooke's United Church, united in marriage, Florence Edith, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Newman of Kingston and Ralph Edward Richards of Chatham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Richards of Ottawa. The ceremony was performed in the drawing room under an archway of flowers, and the bride who was given in marriage by her father, entered to the strains of wedding music from "Lohengrin," played by Mrs. Warren Black. She wore a lovely form fitting gown of sapphire blue chiffon velvet and picture hat of velvet to match and carried an arm bouquet of white orchids and lily-of-the-valley. Mrs. T. H. Neville, was beautifully gowned in salmon chiffon velvet with hat to match and carried Talsmen roses and blue corn flowers. Mr. Robert Jack of Chateaugua Basin, Que., was best man during the ceremony. Mr. Warren Black sang "Oh Promise Me."

Following, a buffet luncheon was served, the bride's table being centered with the bride's cake, surmounted with four tiny pink tapers. Later the bride and groom left on an extended motor trip to Lake Placid and New York, the bride wearing an extremely smart frock of navyblue taffeta, with navy fur trimmed coat, hat and accessories to match.

Both the bride and groom are graduates of McGill University. Mrs. Newman, mother of the bride, wore a lovely gown of black chiffon and lace and a corsage bouquet of red roses, and Mrs. Richards of Ottawa, mother of the groom, also chose black triple sheer georgette with lace insets and a corsage bouquet of Sweetheart roses. Mr. and Mrs. Richards will reside in Chatham, Ontario.

May Prorogue Ottawa House in November

Ottawa—Dissolution of parliament following Prime Minister R.B. Bennett's return from Geneva, as a direct result of the rift with Hon. H. H. Stevens, is considered possible here by persons high in the councils of the Conservative party. It is believed that Mr. Bennett would rather do this than continue with a divided council and an intransigent House of Commons. It is pointed out that the new voters' lists will be compiled and ready for use by November 1, and no obstacle will exist after that date to an immediate appeal to the country.

It appears that Mr. Stevens is assured of the chairmanship of the Price Spreads Committee and that he has withstood the crisis in his career, resulting from the publication of the now famous pamphlet. Letters which have flooded into Ottawa have made it plain that, while Mr. Stevens may be in the bad graces of the Cabinet, the position which he has taken is endorsed by a great number of voters.

Stevens Heads Party Conservative headquarters announced that Mr. Stevens will lead the government forces in the by-elections, when Federal issues will be fought in five constituencies. Evidently the future developments in this fascinating political incident will be deeply affected by the results of the contests. If the Conservative candidates make a good showing, Mr. Stevens will be in an impregnable position and will be practically certain of the leadership when Mr. Bennett retires.

It is equally obvious that he will be in a position to dictate the report of the Price Spreads Commission and of the legislation to follow. Attempts by his colleagues to interfere will bring the party face to face with the consequences of his resignation on the eve of an election.

New Liberal Strategy From the Liberal point of view the by-elections will mark a new development in strategy. The Liberal leader, Rt. Hon. W.L.M. King, will seek from the electors of five seats a mandate to obstruct the government in every constitutional way and to compel a general election. Success will mean that government business will be hamstrung from the opening of the last session onward.

MUTTON RECORD SET AT $50 PER POUND

"Believe it or not," mutton sold recently at $50, per pound. The mutton was on the hoof, however, in the shape of a Uardy sud ram, which was disposed of at the sheep sale, at Sydney, Australia, for $3,660, the highest price paid for a ram of this breed during the past five years. It was also announced by officers of the Canadian National Steamships that the Australian wool sales for the season showed an increase of approximately $33,441,950, or 43.4 per cent, and the clip was estimated at $3,147,000 bales, or almost a billion pounds of wool.

BAN ON HEAVY TRUCKS ON HIGHWAYS IS URGED

Trucks of more than one-and-a-half tons should not be allowed to use the highways, J. O. Little, Newmarket, county commissioner for York County, told the Ontario Association of Rural municipalities at the King Edward.

Mr. Little said that allowing trucks to use the highways for transport purposes had helped to ruin the railroads, and that because of the immense weight of the vehicles they were damaging the highways and therefore increasing the cost of upkeep.

ASK FOR INVENTORY OF YORK'S HOLDINGS

Matter of Good Business, Says Reeve Kidd, After Meeting

An inventory of all buildings, equipment and properties belonging to York county was ordered last week by the property committee of county council. Reeve Heriman Kidd, chairman, stated following a meeting of the committee, J. D. Lucas, county solicitor, was requested to bring to date the records of all county property.

"We want to take stock of the properties under the control and ownership of the county as a matter of good business," explained Reeve Kidd.

The properties are: York county building, 57 Adelaide St. E., registry offices at Newmarket and Richmond St. E., Children's Shelter, Willowdale; House of Refuge, Newmarket; East York and West York markets; reforestation lands, Holland Landing; and several properties owned jointly by the Toronto and York Roads' Commission.
