

TOWN TOPICS

E. A. Grubin, R.O., Optometrist and Optician, will be at his office in Stouffville on Monday and Tuesday, March 18th and 19th.

Chattel Mortgage sale of entire contents of a city home will be sold on the Stouffville market Saturday at 2 o'clock. See list in this issue.

It is said that sap could have been gathered over last weekend, so spring-like has been the weather. Anyway, farmers are preparing for the run and tapping may be done any day, possibly before this paper is issued.

Rev. S. Goudie was in town on Thursday. It is about a year and a half since he took the Toronto Jones Avenue M.B.C. pastorate, and our former townsman hasn't been called on yet to perform the funeral ceremony which indicates that his congregation has been well blessed in not being visited by the unbidden hand in all these months. Mr. Goudie, smilingly observed that the demand for the services of the pastor for wedding ceremonies had been running almost equally as quiet.

The new suitings in tweeds, worsteds and other cloths, for the spring season, are now in at F. E. Rae's tailor shop. These suit lengths are a treat to look at. We will be pleased to show them.

Mrs. W. J. Mather who is spending the winter in Vancouver, has been on a trip south, visiting her sisters at Seattle, Wash. and Portland, Oregon. Our former resident is accompanied on her western trip by little Betty, and they are making their headquarters at 1203 Eleventh Avenue west, Vancouver.

Stouffville is credited in the county council reports as having 43 old age pensioners. This, it should be pointed out includes the rural routes from this place. The actual numbers of pensioners in the village is about 25, and they are enjoying the operation of one of the best laws ever put on the statute books.

Miss Ruby Good, daughter of Mr. C. N. Good of the Briarbrush Hospital, has joined the local staff of nurses after completing her course at the General Hospital, Hamilton. Miss Good will receive her graduation diploma at Hamilton in June when the annual exercises come off. It will then be Miss Ruby Good, R.N. Congratulations.

The Daily Star carried a picture of Earl Cook of Lemonville as he bid farewell at Toronto Union Station to the president of the Maple Leaf Baseball team as the boys entrained for Tampa for the opening training season of the league team. Earl is likely to be on the pitching end of the Toronto team again, but of course there may be some sales made and exchange of players, but nothing along this line has been suggested yet by the officials.

Wanted—56 to 75 cedar rails. Apply Tribune Office.

Jos. Gayman who delivers the staff of life to our homes for the Stouffville Bakery is serving on jury in Toronto. This is Joe's first experience in a court of justice.

A farmer from south of Markham was in The Tribune office on Tuesday seeking information on farm help, which he sought to employ. Times are sure looking better in the country.

Low priced ready-to-wear men's and young men's suits, at Rae's tailor shop in the Shaw block. For the fellow who wants a low priced ready-made suit with plenty of wearing quality we have the goods. F. E. Rae, tailor.

We are sorry to report the death at Simcoe Hospital, on March 6th, of Gordon Betz, aged 18 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Betz of Orillia. The funeral was held at Orillia on Saturday, March 9th. Mr. Arthur Betz is a brother of Mr. Fred Betz of this village, and Mrs. Betz, was formerly Miss Ida Bowers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bowers. The sympathy of their old friends here is extended to all of them in their sorrow. Relatives from Stouffville attended the funeral.

A very attractive premium list has been compiled by the local horticultural society for the 1935 membership. Copies are now in the hands of the secretary and district canvassers are available to all contemplating joining the organization. Persons uniting with the society not only assist in civic beautification but get valuable plants for themselves at greatly reduced cost.

On Monday Rev. W. E. Smalley brought to The Tribune office a branch from a plum tree laden with blossom. After expressing our astonishment at such phenomenal growth for the 10th of March, Mr. Smalley blandly explained that he had plucked the limb and taken it into the house, nursing it on a bottle as one would a bouquet.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Sarah Alecia May took place from the residence of Mr. W. E. Morden on Friday afternoon. An impressive service was conducted by Rev. Thos. Laidlaw, assisted by Rev. E. Morton. Interment was made at Erinvale cemetery, near where deceased spent many years of her life. Numerous friends and relatives from Toronto, Brampton, and other places were here for the funeral, and followed the remains to their last resting place.

Mr. Harry Klinck, in company with his mother Mrs. Thos. Klinck, were in Aurora last Thursday for the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bovair. The bride of 50 years and Mrs. Klinck were school girls together, both being born at Eversley. Mrs. Klinck was 80 years of age last January and Mrs. Bovair is slightly younger. Mr. and Mrs. Bovair were married at Eversley by the late Walter Amos. Before her marriage she was Miss Eliza Scott. With her husband they farmed in King for the greater part of forty years, until ten years ago when they retired in Aurora. Mrs. Lindsay Ferguson of Ringwood is a daughter of this venerable couple. About 100 attended the wedding anniversary.

Not so long ago, less than 20 years, Herb. O'Brien and Sam McCann conducted a lively barn in Stouffville at the rear of the old frame building, which stood on the present post office site. While O'Brien & McCann sounds as Irish as Paddy's pig, McCann was really an ardent Orangeman and sometimes was called Orange McCann. Last week our former citizen (McCann) died at his home in Oshawa, in the 80th year of his age. He had been in ailing health for the past two years and last spring he underwent two operations from which he never fully recovered, being forced to remain in bed for the final four months previous to his death.

The late Mr. McCann was born at Coulson's Corners, living most of his early life in and around Gilford and Bradford. He then resided in Stouffville, but for 16 years lived in Toronto before moving to 167 Park Road North, Oshawa, where he lived until his death. In 1885 he married Ellen Huff. He was a Presbyterian, a Conservative and an Orangeman.

He is survived by his wife, one son, Jack, at North Bay, two daughters, Florence at Beaverton and Sadie at home, also one grandchild. Three sons and one daughter predeceased him, Wallace being killed overseas. Following a service at Oshawa, six members of Lambton L.O.L., of which he was a member acted as pallbearers. Interment was made at St. John's Church Cemetery, Coulson's Hill, on Saturday, March 2nd, with Rev. R. B. Stevenson conducting the service, also the Orange service. The pallbearers at Coulson's were Messrs. Frank Steele, Sam Steele, Mac Sturgeon, William Sturgeon, Henry Moriarty and Thos. Thorpe.

This your last chance to take advantage of this offer which will be withdrawn after March 21.

Five woollen blankets are being made in Lindsay, and they will be sent to the Dionne children. If not immediately needed, the little girls can put them away in their hope chests.

F. E. Rae, merchant tailor, has just received a spring shipment of new suitings and overcoatings, in the newest patterns and fabrics. Men and young men should see them. Over Shaw's Store.

C. V. Charters of Brampton gave The Tribune a hasty call on Friday when in town for the funeral of the late Mrs. Alecia May. He is a member of the firm of the Charters Publishing Co., and son of Sam Charters the member for Peel county.

Monday, May 6, the twenty-fifth anniversary of King George's accession, is to be observed in Canada as a public holiday, which will make two holidays for that month, Victoria Day, May 24, being fixed by statute. As the King has expressed a desire that celebrations should be local there will be none initiated on a national scale. To mark the occasion the Governor-General did on March 1 begin a campaign to be known as the King George V Silver Jubilee Cancer Fund of Canada.

Three generations of curlers have been throwing the granite rocks in the local academy for curlers here during the past winter months, and on more than one occasion the three generations were in action at one time. They are Mr. Henry Brillinger, and his son Harry, along with the latter's son Claude. The junior member of the trio, although yet a school boy, is the tallest of the family circle. We wonder how many clubs could offer such a combination as the Brillinger family present in curling circles?

Mrs. Jane Williams, our 90 year-old east end resident, has had medical attention this past week, suffering from shock, alleged to be the result of some hoodlums disturbing the aged lady very late one night recently. It appears that some men tramping to their homes east of Stouffville, became quite rowdy at "Brimstone Point," and entered into a scuffling match right on the veranda of the Williams' home which is unprotected and close to the street. They smashed into the door, and badly frightened the occupants of the house, with the result as above stated. Constable Pugh has been getting information on the matter, but no charges have been laid as yet.

Body hardwood is being delivered in town at $10 per cord cut four lengths. Other grades of wood are selling at various lower prices.

Miss Wylie, Messrs C. W. Coulson and C. Sandford, of Oshawa, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. A. Leaney.

Mrs. Archie Hill of Limerick, Sask., visited one day this week with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Barkey, Spruce Villa.

Toronto council announces that daylight saving time will begin in that city on April 28. It is more correct to say that the great annual mix-up with the rest of the province begins on that date.

One of the popular screen pictures "It Happened One Night" has been secured for the Stanley, showing Friday and Saturday, March 22 and 23. The officers and members of the local Masonic Order will entertain the ladies to a theatre party at the Friday showing of this picture, and later to a banquet.

The Senior Women's Institute will hold a St. Patrick's supper in Ratcliff's Hall, on Saturday evening, March 16. The ladies will serve Irish stew and mashed potatoes, pan cakes with syrup, pie, cake, tea and coffee. All you can eat for 25c.

Mrs. H. B. Preston, wife of our C.N.R. agent, has come up from Belleville their old home, to spend the summer here. Mrs. Preston is very much taken with the general advantages of Stouffville.

The Stanley Theatre will commence their Tuesday and Wednesday program again after having discontinued this showing for the heavy winter months. Next Tuesday and Wednesday the "Ninth Guest" will be the feature.

Failure to pay dog taxes and secure the necessary licenses, resulted in four local residents' of Smiths Falls appearing in Police Court before Magistrate J. T. Kirkland, and in each case the Magistrate ordered that license fees be paid along with $3.00 costs or sentences of 10 days in Jail would be pronounced. Police are checking up on dog taxes and failure to secure the licenses will result in additional court cases. Assessor George Storey is now making his rounds in Stouffville and those who neglect to procure a tag for any dog harbored, are liable to the same treatment as was handed out at the Falls.

Mr. Edward Baker is moving from the Booth farm adjoining the public school property to the residence of the late Dr. John Storey, Main street west, which has been vacant since Dr. Storey's death, or since his housekeeper gave up occupying the home. This is one of the best built residences in town, being erected between 45 and 50 years ago. It was built by Dr. Patterson, a young veterinarian, who lived but a few years to enjoy his fine property. Another vet who occupied the place was the late Phil Button, who was also a prominent horse fancier and widely known as such. The late W. J. Stark acquired the property when he was here, and we believe it passed from him to Dr. Storey. The fine brick stables in connection were well suited for horsemen. In giving up the farm and settling in this property Mr. Baker intends to devote his time to the decorating and painting business.
