HUNTSVILLE KNOCKS
THIS TAX

(Huntsville Forester)

Mr. Hepburn's decision to levy a tax on amusement fares up to 25c is perhaps the most unpopular bit of tax legislation he could have devised. It is more than an annoyance.
It is irritating and, in the end, will prove abortive.

The case of an enforcement of the new law came to light the other day in Huntsville. The Orangemen here decided upon a street dance to end their celebration. Word of this intention reached the ears of the Government officials at Toronto. To insure that there should be no evasion of the tax, an inspector was despatched to Huntsville to check up.
After the admissions paid had been accounted for—the dance ended rather abruptly under civic authority —the Government representative issued a receipt for 43c as the share claimed by the Department. It is not supposed that the cost of collecting this amount could have been less than $15.00. Even if slightly less the cost was so absurdly out of proportion to the revenue that the whole transaction is made to look ridiculous.

APPLES FOR SWEET CIDER

Tests conducted in the Fruit Products Laboratory at the Central Experimental Farm have shown that Rufus, Ribston, Scott Hunter Baldwin, Mayis, Russet and a blend of Ben Davis and Spy are excellent varieties of apples for making good cider.

HOG STORY COMES FROM WHITCHURCH

We saw some literature the other day about hogs, and the theme was that at six months the hog should weigh 200 pounds, and right close to that time the hog should go to market. Pictures in the literature too showed the way fat and lean should be streaked in the bacon. Directions for feeding were given. Everything must conform to that one idea of six months and 200 pounds. Then off to the packing house. Perhaps that is the best way to raise hogs, but it's hard on the hogs. They don't get a chance to live long enough—to learn much or see much or do much. They are cut off before they've had time, to feel at home on the farm where they belong. It did not use to be so, according to a Bethesda farmer whom the scribe encountered at the Whitchurch council meeting on Saturday. This old stalwart—from Bethesda locality said that in his early days a hog had a chance, with no limit to weight as we have today. He explained, that it was well fed and the day of its departure was not hastened. It got everything to eat in the way of swill, whey, a bit of bran, some corn cobs and all it could pick up on its own hog. How many wormy apples the hog ate in season we never knew. It grew big and it got fat. Time came though said our informant, when there was a fire put under the old iron kettle in the yard beside the barn. That meant the hog was going to be scraped, and the fact that it was going to be scraped meant that it was going to be killed. But even so, that hog had been allowed to live long enough to know what winter and summer was like. In some cases it could compare this summer with last summer; it had opportunity to perceive the wickedness of the world and that should have made it easier to escape from any more of it. Actually there were no particular dimensions to which a hog should attain in those days. We know that after a hog killing the young folk used to be able to play football for a short time. Of course said the old timer, people who live in cities will not understand that. We recall too there was much lard to be rendered and if the hog were made into sausages there would have been enough of them to have roped off a diamond for a soft-ball game. The thing seemed to go along more smoothly than it does today. At a hog-killing some of the neighbors used to come over just like a threshing or a barn raising. We don't recall that there was any literature issued, then saying how long or how high a hog ought to be before the hangman slipped the black cap over its head, but the idea of doing away with a hog at six months was not heard of. A hog used to have a decent chance to show how big it could grow. But of course that was quite a long time ago before everything got put on the efficiency basis.

BETHESDA

The W.M.S. was held in the church last Wednesday afternoon.
Quite a number attended the Friendship Circle last week, which was held at home of Mrs. Clifford Burkholder. The program was very instructive and interesting.
—Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs.
Louis Brillinger were Mr. and Mrs.
Arthur Rose from Stevensville; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hisey of Ringwood.

Miss Ella Hoover and Mrs.
Hoover from Agincourt visited a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Steckley and family last week.

Mrs. Ross Chapman and Bruce underwent a minor operation on Thursday last, when they had their tonsils removed.

Next Tuesday evening, August 20th, David Harris of the Sixth Line will be the speaker at the Y.P.S. meeting. Everybody welcome.

Miss Kathleen Steckley is holidaying with her aunt in Kitchener for a week.

During the rain storm which passed over Bethesda on Sunday afternoon part of the district was showered with hail for a period of two or three minutes.

During her stay at Deer Lake, Perry Sound, Blanche Atkinson availed herself of the opportunity of seeing the Dionne Quintuplets near Callander.

On Tuesday evening the B.Y.P.S. joined with the Young People of Lemonville in providing the program at the latter's church. Lantern slides on Trinidad, instrumental and vocal selections, and a social hour were thoroughly enjoyed by all. Thanks for the kind invitation, Lemonville.

A week ago Sunday, when Percy Taun was driving near Oshawa he met with an accident which wrecked his car quite badly. Although ditched neither he nor his companions, Messrs. Luther and Ralph Allen, were seriously injured. We hope that it is a long time before they meet with a similar experience.

FIRE DESTROYS
FARM HOUSE

On Sunday the farm home of Peter Moynighan, just west of Ballantrae, was completely demolished by fire, but fortunately the furniture was rescued from the flames. The family were about the home at the time, but the fire got a good start above the ceiling, and below the roof, making it hard to detect and difficult to fight. A call sent for the Stouffville fire brigade was too late, and the residence, a brick structure, was consumed by the flames in short order.
The trouble is believed to have started from a spark from a fire which had recently been in the stove, although the chimney had been rebuilt within a year. The property belonged to Mr. E. M.
Clark of the 6th concession, who has the place leased to Mr. Moynighan.
The place was insured.

GLASGOW

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Slack motored to Lake Simcoe on Sunday.

Miss Fern Ferrier of Stouffville is holidaying with Miss Ellie Davis.

Mrs. Louis Slack and Miss Gertrude Slack are home after spending a couple of weeks camping at Orillia.

Miss Gertrude Winn of Mongolia spent a few days with Miss Margaret Forsythe.

Floyd Tindall, accompanied by Miss Ella Slack, motored to Kirk-field on Sunday.

A number from here attended the Sunday School picnic. The picnicers motored to Toronto and spent a very enjoyable day at the Island.

Mrs. James Slack of Stouffville spent Saturday with her daughter-in-law Mrs. Henry Slack.

Note the change in the Sunday school hour to 2 p.m. There will be a church service following at 3 p.m. conducted by a capable speaker.

Miss Elsie Eckardt was spending a few days with her aunt Mrs. Henry Slack.

GORMLEY

The farmers are well on with the grain harvest, a heavy crop and hard to cut.

On Sunday Miss Hazel Bond will preach in the Mennonite Church here. Miss Bond is a mission worker in St. Thomas and is a Gormley girl.

A number from Gormley were also taking part in the sick list at camp meeting but we are glad they weren't down long.

Mr. J. Thompson and Miss M.
Thompson are visiting in Toronto for a few days with Mr. and Mrs.
Frank Thompson.

Wedding bells will soon be ringing in new Gormley once more by what we hear.

It was a welcome rain we had on Sunday again—rather tough for the grain, but good for the gardens and root crop.

On August 20-21 a Sunday school convention will be held here in the M.B.C. church, New Gormley. A large number of delegates will be billed in the village, we hear.

George Leary attended council at Vandorf Saturday, George is a capable administrator, and we are fortunate in having our community thus represented. Some day he will make his influence so felt that we'll have a paved road to town.

Services will be resumed in the M.B.C. church next Sunday, after being closed down for the camp meeting in Stouffville, where the local church quartette sang on several occasions. Over 2000 heard them Sunday evening alone, and we congratulate Rev. Mr. Shantz, Alvin Farmer, Frank Harvey, and Clarence Steckley.

GOODWOOD

Miss Evelyn and Master Lloyd Tate are holidaying in Toronto.

Mrs. Mary Laird and son Burns and daughter Joan of Ottawa are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Reid.

Mrs. Florence Button of Toronto is visiting Mrs. Wm. Harper for a few days.

Rev. R. Young and Mrs. Young late of Hornings Mills, also Mrs. M.
J. Houck and Miss Edna were entertained to dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Tate one day recently.

The regular meeting of the Ladies' Aid of the Baptist church took place at the home of Mrs. Henry White on Tuesday August 6th. After the meeting Mrs. White was presented with a comfortable fibre rocker. This was in recognition of twenty five years service as church organist. She was completely taken by surprise, but made a suitable reply in which she thanked the members of the church for the gift.
In presenting the chair Deacon Woodland spoke words of appreciation. The church had previously sent a letter in which they expressed their gratitude for Mrs. White's work as organist. Refreshments were served.

Well, well, the advanced legislation brought down by Councillor Owen Davies in Uxbridge Council meeting on Saturday was defeated.
Some members with cold feet, feared to try an improvement that a good many other municipalities have found to be satisfactory. Mr. Davies, we understand, wished to take advantage of the law which permits municipal elections to be held on the first Monday in December instead of a month later. The early date would avoid snow blocked roads, and other inconveniences of that season. Mr. Davies bylaw might have been given a trial, and if the earlier election date did not suit the majority, then the January election could be reverted to at any time.
Anyway we do appreciate a man with ideas on the municipal board, and no doubt the majority of the council will give the matter more thought and possibly the new date a trial anyway.

Farmers' Information

In an experiment conducted on the Central Experimental Farm, mustard was controlled in the following manner: Buckwheat, which is a past growing smother crop was seeded about June 15. The mustard seed lying in the first 1 1/2 inches of soil germinated about the same time as the buckwheat but the mustard seedlings were soon killed by the faster growing smother crop. After harvesting the buckwheat, the land was not cultivated or disturbed in any way. The following spring, oats were seeded on the buckwheat stubble, directly with the seed drill, with no previous cultivation. Some mustard came up in the grain but the infestation was so small that the plants were hand pulled with little difficulty and the yield of the grain was higher than an adjoining plots seeded in the ordinary way.
