

TOWN TOPICS

Miss Eva Hoover carried off the most prizes at the flower show last week, thus keeping O'Brien Ave., in the front van of big prize winners, as she has done in other years.

The Tribune is $2 per year to any address in Canada. If you are in arrears, or if your paper is expiring now, we would appreciate a remittance.

Miss Gladys Dougherty, Marvyn Lemon, and Bert Carpenter, were among a party to visit the Rouyn district in Northern Ontario for a few days.

Mrs. M. E. Watts and Mrs. George Storey's rinks from Stouffville were among the prize winners at the ladies' tournament in Markham on Wednesday last week. The former rink carried off first and the latter rink third prize.

Miss Clare Burgess and Miss Leona McKechnie of Lions Head have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rennie, Mongolia. The young ladies are down for the Sunday School convention at Gormley, Miss Burgess being the delegate from Lions Head church.

Mrs. Nathan Forsyth who was seriously injured in a motor accident between Goodwood and Uxbridge, some weeks ago, is making gradual recovery. She has been under the care of a nurse and the announcement of her improvement will meet with widespread satisfaction.

If you would make a dollar stretch twice its usual length, pick up one of the bargains at George Saunders store in the Ratcliff block. He would appreciate a call from any citizen during his clearing sale. Ladies Sport Shoes, Men's Shoes, Sport Pants, Belts, Sweaters, etc. at big reductions. Read display adv. giving only a few of the offerings. Better still, come right to the store, and see the goods.

Miss Ruth Curtis of Daytona Beach, Florida is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rowbotham.

Mrs. Aaron Burkholder and son Orval motored to Hamilton district over last weekend.

Misses Leta Bunker and Erma Holden were both successful in passing their "Health Exams" in their recent summer school course in Toronto.

On account of the Dominion elections being set for October 14, Thanksgiving Day will be observed on Thursday, October 24, a later date than was heretofore announced.

Mr. Kenneth Kernaghan of Glendonwyne Road, Toronto, and Miss K. Budd, also Mr. Donald Sheppard, of Albertus Ave. Toronto, accompanied by Miss Fenn, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E.C. Pennock one day last week.

Mrs. A. Nichol and the Misses Isabel and Mary Nichol of Owen Sound have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Leslie, Church street. Mrs. Leslie returned with them to the northern town on Monday, and will be followed later in the week by Mr. Leslie when they will spend their holidays in their old home locality.

A former resident of Stouffville until nineteen years ago Mr. Thos. Johnson of Brantford has been visiting at the home of Mr. Wm. Griffith. Mr. Johnson is a tailor by trade and still plies the needle. He occupied a house in Stouffville which stood on the site of the present school building, and was living in the place when the old school was burned. His family haven't forgot the exciting evening of the fire for they first gave the alarm as the old school stood just south of their home. That was back in 1916. The Johnson house was moved to the west end the following year to make room for the new structure of learning, and it was just at this time that the family moved away from town.

Mrs. George T. Lee was in Detroit for a couple of days.

Mrs. Loss Hill of Claremont has been visiting her sister Mr. Joan Lewis, Queen's Court.

Birds for Sale—Singing Canaries $2.50 and $3.00 each. Apply to Mrs. Turner, Baker Avenue, Stouffville.

Councillor Ross Brown, wife and family, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Winterstein of Royal Oak Mich. have been on an extended motor trip to Northern Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Rowbotham with their son Bruce left early this week for Beloeil, near Montreal, whither Bruce has been summoned to employment in the Research Department of Canadian Industries Limited. We extend congratulations and bespeak for Bruce great success in his chosen work.

Betty Woodland, young daughter of Mrs. Jennie Woodland, Montreal street, is nursing a badly injured arm, as a result of the bone being splintered at the elbow from a fall. The child was visiting in the country and seeing an apple fall from a tree she made a dash to recover the fallen fruit as she saw a calf angling for it. In the race she fell heavily to the ground, and it was several days later that she could not bend her arm, a doctor was called and the full extent of the injury discovered. Thus the apple which caused the downfall of Adam and Eve thereby bringing sin into the world to curse the present generation and all before it is now the trouble-maker for even the little innocent child.

On Friday evening, August 23, a big free concert will be presented at the Arena under the auspices of the local Horticultural Society. Free? Yes free to all who paid admission to the Flower Show on either Aug. 15 or August 16. Free also to all children who accompanied parent or guardian on that occasion. However to help defray extra costs there will be a charge on all others amounting to the astounding figure of ten cents each.

The Society hopes in this way not only to more than make amends for the disappointment of August 16 but also to present at low cost an evening of real enjoyment to a host of friends from far and near.

The big Danforth United Church Orchestra is well and widely known for the excellence of its presentations. With assisting artists to add further vanity this organization is prepared to make next Friday evening one you will remember.

Good seating will be provided and flowers will give the place a real horticultural touch. Let's pack the Arena!

Our esteemed contemporary The Markham Economist offers criticism in its last issue against the manner in which school examinations are published in the press. The Economist contends that the results of the failures should be disclosed as well as the passes. The Tribune at one time published results in just this manner, but we since decided that it was unfair and an injustice to the pupils, and discontinued the practise.

Take the student writing on only one or two papers with 100 per cent failure; This student might be held up to ridicule, while another student with more failures, but writing on six or eight papers would be adjudged by the public to have been more successful.

That the ratepayers have a right to know what progress the school is making is quite right, but it can be done by disclosing the total number of papers written, number passing, and number of failures, or it might be given by the principal furnishing on a percentage basis the number of successful and unsuccessful students.

The Toronto and York Road Commission have retired Mr. Cliff Pipher, foreman on the beat between Stouffville and Markham, and along the townline west of town. Because of the pending change in management on the beat the entire gang is having a holiday, awaiting the announcement of Mr. Pipher's successor. The retiring foreman has been employed on roads for upwards of twenty years.

Chairman Wm. Croft of Toronto, is on holidays in the north country and the Vice-chairman E. G. Farr of Weston, intimated on Tuesday that no successor had been named or considered for the position, but the appointment would be made promptly.

The Toronto and York Road Commission is composed of five members, two of whom represent the York County Council, two the city of Toronto, and one from the Ontario Government. It's duty is the improvement and maintenance of suburban roads surrounding Toronto. The cost is borne by the city, the county and the Ontario Government in the following manner: 25 per cent by the city, 25 per cent by the county, and 50 per cent by the government.

Mrs. F. L. Button and Miss Gertrude Todd are spending a week at Elgin House, Muskoka.

Misses Mildred and Edra Birkett have returned after visiting their parents in Oakville, and sister Miss Maude McDonald, in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Honeyford and daughter Phyllis were in town for a few days from their home in Palmerston, visiting with Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Davey.

Jacob Grove of Ringwood will have charge of the evening service in the Stouffville Christian church next Sunday (August 25). The pastor will be speaking at a special young peoples' service in an East Toronto United Church.

Mr. W. J. Beckett, of Edmonton, Alberta, visited the Misses Daley on Saturday. His wife (nee Nellie Dougherty) is their niece. Mr. Beckett has been Government Butter Grader, for the Province of Alberta for a number of years. He was sent East to learn more about the Cheese Industry.

Word was received on Tuesday by John Turner of the death of his aunt, the late Ellen Hagerman, relict of the late Rev. Ezra Turner. Death occurred at the home of her daughter down in Oregon, where she will be buried this week. The late Mrs. Ezra Turner was in her 98th year, was born in Pickering Township, and spent most of her long life in Ontario, where her husband preached the gospel for many years. She is the last of the Hagerman family. A brother widely known in the district kept the Hagerman store at Zephyr for many years.

Stouffville Horticultural Society certainly put the old town on the map last week, when it staged a flower show that sent "Dick the Gardener" into raptures, so that during his radio broadcast from Hamilton on Friday noon, he spoke at length on our exhibition and challenged the big societies of Hamilton and Toronto to equal the Stouffville show. The executive work of the local society is largely left to a small handful of people, but the citizens in general support them well when the annual exhibition rolls around, thus the officers are encouraged to press on with the work. We know of no organization that has helped to beautify the home village like the Horticultural Society by interesting almost every household in flowers and general improvement of their lots and gardens.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Collins were on a motor trip to the Caledon district last week, calling at Alliston to see the former Loblaw farm, where Mr. Collins says he saw grain that beat anything he ever dreamed of.

Don't forget this Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday the big attraction at the Stanley Theatre, Gene Stratton Porter's famous story "Laddie" with an outstanding portrayal of characters. Showing three nights at 8:15. Also beginning this week is a new series of technical cartoon, the latest released. Other outstanding programs to follow in September are "Roberta," "Clive of India," "Girl of the Limerlost," "Folles Bergere" and "Les Miserables."

There are still those who tell in glowing terms about the good old horse-back days, but few there are who demonstrate them. However, Dr. James Cotton with his wife and a groom pulled into town the other day astride their steeds and made a short stay here stopping at the Mansion House. They rode down from Muskoka, being eleven days at their leisure. Dr. Cotton says it's the most comfortable means of travel, and with a proper going steed, one never gets tired.

Rev. Harry Miller and daughter Miss Elizabeth made record time motoring from their home in Littleton, North Carolina, to Stouffville, a distance of 900 miles. They left home on Saturday morning racing across six States to reach Ontario and the bedside of his dying sister Mrs. Kate Miller. Although they arrived here the next day at 3:30 (Sunday) the crepe on the door of his sister's home told the outcome of his race against death. Miss Elizabeth was at the wheel of the car throughout the whole journey, resting only at Rochester for a few hours.

Mr. Pearson is the last of a family of eight children born to the late Mr. and Mrs. John Pearson, pioneer farmers in the Glasgow district. It will be recalled that Dave and his late brother John were employed as C.N.R. sectionmen in this village for many years, but Mr. Pearson is now living in Hamilton. He was accompanied here by his wife and daughter Edith, and grandson T. B. Hamil and his wife.

NEWMARKET POOL GETS OUTSIDE AID

The citizens of Newmarket have gone in for securing a swimming pool in dead earnest, and are putting on a big garden party to raise funds. The Canal Town sent our invitations, and solicited aid, which brought forth a cheque from the Robt. Simpson, Co. of Toronto for $200 cash, and a certificate for $25 in goods to be given away at the party. Sir William Mulock also gave a donation of $10. Newmarket is fortunate in getting in on an early campaign.
