BIG HOG PRODUCERS

The attractive price for hogs over the past six months has induced farmers to rush into the hog raising business with renewed vigor. We hear of one farmer in Whitchurch with eighteen hogs bred, but as the average farm would not provide feed for such a prolific lot of mothers, the pigs would likely be sold at six weeks of age. Otto Barkey, Lemouville, has 12 sows due in September. He has 15 sows in all, two with pigs in August. Mr. Barkey must be doing his part to keep pork prices from soaring beyond the average man's reach. Please note that we said "pork." As for bacon, millionaire prices are exacted all year round, irrespective of cheap hogs or dear hogs.

CLAREMONT

John Beelby is making satisfactory recovery after his recent operation.
Robert Beelby has purchased a building lot on the west side of the village on which he is erecting a new home for himself.
Several from Claremont attended the Labor Day Celebration in Stouffville.
Mr. Reynolds moved his family here from Peterboro last week. Mr. Reynolds is an employee of the H. G. McIntyre Co.
Mr. Brunell, employee of the Connor Bakery has moved his family to the village. Mr. Brunell formerly resided on the 9th con. of Pickering, west of Claremont.
Miss Hazel Bacon leaves next week to attend Normal School in Toronto.
Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Pilkey, and Mrs. D. Woodburn are visiting relatives at Strathroy and other places in Western Ontario.
Miss Marjory Ward went to Toronto on Tuesday to begin a three year course in the Western Hospital Training School for nurses.
The death of Mr. Charles C. Tracy occurred at Jefferson Park Hospital, Chicago, on Friday, Sept. 6th. The late Mr. Tracy who was in his 77th year was a native of Claremont and brother of Prof. F. Tracy of Toronto—His remains were brought here on Monday for burial.
School reopened on Tuesday, with two changes on the teaching staff. They are Miss O. M. Clark, B. A. of Kempsville, principal of the Continuation School, and Miss Lois Linton, of Uxbridge, assistant teacher in the Public School.

BETHESDA

Reesor Steckley, is attending Markham High School this year.
Mrs. Russell Hunt was a Toronto visitor for a few days.
Miss Kathleen Steckley visited Mr. and Mrs. James Drewery of Willowdale recently.
Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Sheffer spent a day recently at the home of Mr. Robert Meade.
On the first Sunday in September, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pike and daughter, Mary from Toronto, were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Burkholder.
Mr. Eldon Bolender, accompanied by his daughter Velma, motored to Beamsville and Niagara Falls with Mr. Harry Forrester last week.
Mrs. Louis Brillinger and Mrs. A. B. Sheffer enjoyed an overnight visit with Mrs. David Snider in Stouffville.
Omair Atkinson and his sister Hazel from Stayner paid a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Atkinson on Sunday.
Once again school has started and we see the children trudging the road which leads to the house of knowledge.
Well, our record of Bethesda in 1935 is broken as far as births are concerned—Our first 1935 baby, is an extraordinary toned bass soloist, who lustily proclaims his presence at Clarence Atkinson's. Congratulations
Whitchurch Township Council meets for general business at Vandorf next Saturday. It will be the first gathering in the new council chambers. Will the Civic Fathers serve tea?
Mrs. Percy Winterstein of Michigan is spending an enforced vacation at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Burkholder. During a visit here she was stricken ill and is under the doctor's care at present, thus prolonging her visit in an unexpected way.
Last Friday night the Y.P.S. held their annual corn roast at Harbroy Farm, otherwise known as Bachelor's Paradise, where the two hosts, Ray Baker and Brian Crastwaite, were pleased to have their friends meet. Outdoor games, a huge bonfire on which the corn was boiled, and a lovely evening all contributed to making it a success. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed the "round the bonfire" singing with Velma Gibson playing the guitar. The pie and corn needless to say disappeared without much adieu.
Last weekend, Frank Bielby, Miss Isabel Ham, Miss Edna McKeown and Wellington Yako motored to the Falls. Too bad, Happy, that you didn't get any peaches, although we know your intentions were good when you planned to pile the baskets between you and your congenial girl friend. But, what a way to keep warm in a rumble seat. Such a wooden barricade might have been the beginning of the end of a happy romance.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Watson, Claude and Dean motored to Four Mile Lake, on Sunday visiting at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Ramsden, of Toronto, going in the afternoon to Gooderham, returning home on Monday night, bringing enough black bass to prove there is still some fish in the north even though the holidays have been hard on them.
Harvey Maye, while taking Mr. Charles Jones to his school at Wilberforce had the misfortune to stall on one of the large hills in that county and while backing down went into the ditch for an upset. The car landed on its side, damaging the fenders. They had to walk five miles to get assistance causing considerable delay.
The Uxbridge Ministerial Association met in the United Church here last week. It was the first meeting after the vacation season, and business meeting for the new year. The officers of last year were reappointed. Rev. P. G. Powell, Uxbridge, president, and Rev. George Barry Goodwood, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Bishop gave a very illuminating address on the Alberta Social Credit System. An earnest discussion followed. Sympathy was expressed for Mr. Meek whose daughter recently underwent an operation for appendicitis. A pleasant social hour was later spent at the parsonage.

NOTICE!

To the Public, and Especially to Ford Owners

D. F. Holden, Ford dealer at Stouffville and Markham wishes to announce that we have opened a Ford Service and Repair Shop at our premises in Markham, on September 9th.

We have secured Mr. Bruce Valleu for a mechanic. His long experience and training as forman for twelve years in the Ford Factory in Toronto, in the assembling, repairing and servicing of Ford Cars, especially fits him to render service of the most advanced and skilled type, which in the end is always the lowest cost. Mr. Valleu has also spent four years steady on Tractors, which will enable him to give expert service on tractors.

We are installing modern equipment which will be maintained for the purpose of rendering every type of service that might be needed in the operation of Ford Cars. We will also give expert service on all makes of Cars, Trucks and Tractors.

We solicit a trial of your patronage when service is required. Our Motto to serve, and to please.

9th LINE, MARKHAM
A number from this line attended the Exhibition last week.
We wondered what Herman Jones' broad smile was about—it's a girl. Congratulations.
Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Rawson and family of Claremont spent Sunday at Jas. McCreights.
Mr. and Mrs. Jack Forester accompanied by Mr. Rolph Boyd and Miss Anna Houser motored to Niagara Falls and Vineland on Sunday.
Frank Burkholder is wearing a big smile again. He has purchased another Harley-Davidson motorcycle.
The reflection of the big Locust Hill fire was easily noticed on this line Sunday morning, when the Locust Hill Station and Elevator was burned down. The cause was unknown.
Our line was represented at Callendar, Ontario, last week when Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hoover accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Burkholder to North Bay, Ironquois Falls and other points. They were fortunate enough to see two showings of the famous Dionne Quints.
(Last week's news)
Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hannah of Toronto spent the weekend at Jas. McCreights.
Miss Marian Honsberger of Waterloo spent Monday with the Burkholder girls.
Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hoover and family attended the Mennonite Conference in Kitchener.
Melville Baker spent Sunday with relatives at Unionville.
Mr. and Mrs. Ken Graham of Newmarket spent Sunday at her parents Mr. and Mrs. Peacock.
Holidays are over, and the school bell ringing again. We are fortunate in having our teacher of last term Miss MacPherson.
Messrs. Rolph Boyd and Albert Walton and Misses Anna Houser and Mildred Bell enjoyed a day at the Exhibition. It is too bad that silo-filling had to start just now, though, but a foursome is nice.

CARD OF THANKS
I am very grateful and thank all those thoughtful friends and neighbors for their help and sympathy in my present great bereavement.
Harry Burgess

CARD OF THANKS
We express herewith our appreciation and thanks to the Stouffville congregation, friends and neighbors for their kindness and consideration extended to the Cressman family during the illness of Rev. Mr. Cressman.
