

TOWN TOPICS

You are invited to the euche to be held in the Eastern Star Rooms next Tuesday night, Oct. 22. Pleasant social time, prizes and refreshments.

The regular monthly meeting of the W.C.T.U. will be held at the home of Mrs. (Rev.) H. Lee, Church Street, on Thursday, October 17th, at 3 o'clock. Be on hand to help boost the Temperance cause.

Mr. Wm. Dawn is in town for an indefinite time, visiting at the home of his daughter Mrs. Morley Barker. Mr. Dawn is 88 years of age and a remarkably alert man for his advanced age.

Rev. W. M. McGuire will be on the air this week Thursday evening instead of Friday evening, due to broadcasting changes. The hour is the same 8 o'clock. Tune in on this camp fire meeting. It will do you good.

In the bye-election held in North York just a year ago Stouffville participated in that contest, and polled 186 Conservative votes and the Liberals 483. Compare this standing with Monday's results.

The Baptist church was filled to capacity on Sunday evening for the mass meeting of the Upper Canada Bible Society, when Rev. C. I. Pincock, returned missionary from Africa, delivered the address. He clearly laid before the church people the needs of the society and the great work they are carrying on, all of which demands the wholehearted support of all Christian people, irrespective of their denominationalism. The local society will shortly make their annual canvass, when they anticipate your help in making their annual contribution to the work.

Prizes given away at the Stanley Theatre last week were won by Gordon Blackburn, George Swift, and by Harris Little, Agincourt.

The Loyal Temperance Legion, junior branch of the W.C.T.U. organized in Stouffville last year, will hold their first meeting for the fall season on Friday, October 18th, in room 4 at the public school. An interesting program for the boys and girls is promised, and all students are urged to attend.

The Band of Willing Helpers of the Presbyterian Church, Stouffville, cordially invites the public to their meeting Monday night, October 21st at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Carrie Murchison, Church street. A pot luck lunch will be served, and a program given, after which a patch work quilt will be sold. A silver offering will be received.

On Monday afternoon when the party workers were feverishly rushing around, drawing in the voters where they had a chance to the local polls, the town baker Mr. Ambrose Stover called at the office of this paper and enquired on how the Grits would do. "We'll put our guess down on paper," said the man of the office. He did and the figures were 480 for Fleming. The official figures gave him 479, just one of a difference—not a bad guess, you say.

Rev. C. O. Sommer, wife and child, made a brief call at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Closson on Thursday night, when enroute to Toronto for a day. Mr. Sommer, who was pastor of Stouffville Christian church congregation two years ago, is now on a United Church Mission field at Bala, Muskoka, and Mrs. Sommer is the public school teacher on the charge. They had a couple of days off during the teachers convention held at Bracebridge.

348 candidates in Monday's election lost their deposit of $200 each, realizing the Dominion treasury about $70,000.

Howard Harper of Goodwood, with 15 acres of potatoes planted, has harvested 1500 bags, one of the best yields we have heard of this fall. Mr. Harper uses good seed, and fertilizes the ground.

Edward Morris, son of Mr. Carmen Morris, passed away at the Toronto General Hospital early Wednesday morning of this week. The remains were being brought back to Stouffville at the time of going to press. Funeral service in the Presbyterian Church, Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Unloading gravel on the Glasgow Hill the other day Walter Todd had an exciting experience. As he was about to dump the load from the rear, the weight of the gravel proved to be more than the engine and front end of his truck, with the result that the front wheels left the ground, and the driver was suspended in the air until the balance of weight was in his favor again.

Although the North York Plowing Match will be held this year in the vicinity of Newmarket on the Blanchard & Davis farm, Stouffville contributed better perhaps than any other municipality towards the prize list. The contest comes off on Oct. 23rd, and undoubtedly will be well attended from here. Copies of the prize list are available at the office of this paper.

Its a long time since Stouffville had five cops in office in one day, but on Monday two of the gentry graced each of the two polling booths, while Constable Quibel did general duty as usual over the town. There were no squabbles to settle, no convictions, and generally speaking "nothing doing." Election day was like a quiet Sunday in mid-summer.

Stouffville friends are asked to keep in view the coming evangelistic services to be held at Grace Chapel, 562 Jones Ave, Toronto, commencing on Wednesday, Oct. 16 and continuing until November 3rd. Mr. and Mrs. Edson Crosby will feature special music on the pipe organ and other instruments. The week night services commence at 7 and on Sunday the services are at 11 and 7. Next Sunday the church will observe its anniversary with Rev. C. N. Good preaching at three services. Rev. S. Goudie, pastor.

On Sunday October 20th, the Christian Church at Churchill begins a series of special meetings. There will be special music, and messages each night, also on Sundays. The week-night meetings begin at 8 p.m. the Sunday services at 3 p.m. Rev. E. Morton and Harry Worling of Stouffville will bring the messages. The co-operation of all the local people will ensure the success of these services which are being held for the welfare of the community.

The monthly meeting of the School Board held Monday was a record for brevity. Election results were sizzling over the wires, but aside from this inducement to cut short the meeting, there was very little business to transact beyond passing a few accounts. Number on the roll at the public school was shown to be 174, with 19 of this number being pupils from outside the section, but all paying fees. The accounts recommended for payment were: Letter Shop Co. supplies $2.50; Boardway Drug Store $31.45; Stiver Bros. Coal $46.40; Thos. Nelson, books $0.08; George Hendry Co. supplies, $8.05; Brathwaite Hardware $25.30; Button Hardware $8.08; Tribune, supplies $11.20; J. S. Dougherty, postage $4.00.

Dr. H. B. Freel presided over the meeting, members present being Trustees Rev. McLeod, Ambrose Stover, J. McMullen, Edw. Baker. The weather man was kind to the vote-drawers on Monday, and to those who went out to exercise their franchise, for the sun shone brightly, and the warmth was like a day in June. This accounted for one of the heaviest votes ever polled in Stouffville and district. The town as usual was divided into two polls, one for the south side of Main street and one for the north. Each of the two polls had two booths. On the south side Edward Walls and Martin Tait were the two officials acting deputy returning officer and poll clerk, and in the other booth was Morley Barker and Norman MacLean. The south side voted in Alex. Scott's store where there were two constables to keep order; Dent. Law and Joe McMullen. On the north side of the street the poll was at Hugh Anderson's near the station and the four officers were Wm. Griffith and Sam Armstrong, deputies, and Lud Hoover and Ross Davis, poll clerks. The constables were two brawny blacksmiths, Murray Hill and Edw. Lintner. On the south side Mr. and Mrs. Lou Todd recently moved to Toronto, were the first to cast their ballots, while on the north side Mrs. James McDonald and Edward Lintner started the flow into the ballot box.

"My poor fellow," said the old lady, "here is a quarter for you. Goodness gracious, it must be dreadful to be lame, but just think how much worse it would be if you were blind."

"Yer right, lady," agreed the beggar, "when I was blind, I was always getting counterfeit money."

An important sale of house paints is now in swing at the Brathwaite Hardware, and first quality paint can be procured in a variety of colors at only 55c. per quart. Varnish, varnish stain, and paints for inside and outside use, are included in the sale. The low price is no reflection on quality, as the paints are made by the same reliable maker of higher-priced goods, the attractive price being arranged purely as a stimulant to business. If you do not need paint now, it will pay you to buy at this sale and lay away until spring.

Gordon Cober's radio broadcast down on Main street Monday evening did good service, in announcing the election returns. Farmers were in town from as far-out as Lemonville, while local residents were down town to fraternize as they heard the returns picked up from the Toronto newspaper offices, and amplified over Mr. Cober's machine to the groups standing around. The service was appreciated, Mr. Cober.

55 years of married life was celebrated quietly by Mr. and Mrs. Elias Lehman on Tuesday, with the venerable couple enjoying very good health, a blessing which has followed them more or less through life. Mr. and Mrs. Lehman have spent every year of their long married life right here in Stouffville. In fact they were married here by the late Elder Percy, and unlike the wedding parties of today which are not happy without a trip around the world, Mr. and Mrs. Lehman settled right down in the village after the ceremony to live happily ever after. They are faithful members of the Christian church, and are revered by their two children who are Mrs. Dawson of Toronto, and Ab. Lehman of Stouffville. Mrs. Lehman before her marriage was Fannie Grove daughter of Abram B. Grove, pioneer settler on the 8th of Markham.

Following the publication of Earl Clendening's letter in our last issue written from Providence, N.V.T., The Tribune learns that a nurse has gone out to that distant northern post who is a personal friend of Miss Marjorie Stewart, R.N. of the Weston Hospital staff and daughter of our Mrs. Stewart, Mill street. We learn from Miss Stewart that on August 2 of this year Miss Helen Hutcheson from the Weston Hospital left for the Anglican Mission Hospital in Aklavik which is the next stopping place north of Ft. Providence where Mr. Clendening is stationed. Miss Hutcheson intends to remain in the northern hospital for a five year term. The type of hospital is similar to that at Weston, a tuberculosis sanitarium, and there are about 50 patients of which Indians and "Huskies" make up the census. The Eskimos are called "Huskies" because they do not like the former name. These people, Miss Stewart explains to The Tribune, are very susceptible to tuberculosis and have poor resistance. There are approximately 150 white people in the village of Aklavik, and the hospital staff consists of a charge nurse, a day and night nurse, a minister and a R.C.M.P. officer. Their winter experience there will be of interest to our readers.
