WILL BALANCE YORK COUNTY BUDGET

Mothers' Allowance Costs Exceed Estimates

Despite the fact that hospitalization will cost York County several will balance its budget for 1935. County Treasurer W.W. Gardhouse Itold County Council.

The Warden's and Commissioners total levy was $1,076,854.33, there is a balance on hand of $108,306.11 serve for November and December. It was expected that 83.33 per expended for the first ten months. But by rigid economy officials succeeded in keeping down the cost to 81.72 per cent.

Hospitalization for the period ending Oct. 31 cost $244,443.96. The figure is expected to reach $300,000 could barely hear it, he reports, alby Dec. 31. Only $280,000 budgeted for the expenditure.

Old age pensions and mothers' al lowances also will be sightly above within a hundred yards of the bell,

Statements given out in the report do not include the accounts of mission, the financial position of wife of the reeve, heard the bell on by his widow, as well as four sisters: the Children's Aid Society, provision O'Brien Avenue, and other homes Mrs. M. 150 Guests on 30th Anniversary

The manse at Keswick was the centre of social activity on a recent day, when Rev. C. E. and Mrs. Fockler, were at home to their congregations of Ravenshoe, and Keswick as well as to numerous other friends, both afternoon and evening. It was the occasion of their 30th wedding anniversary, as well as Mr. Fockler's birthday.

Gorgeous flowers were everywhere, chrysanthemums and roses decked the living-room, where at the entrance from the hall, Mr. and Mrs. Fockler, with Miss Margaret Fockler, the charming daughter of the manse received. Mrs. Fockler wore a most becoming black triple crepe gown with a corsage of roses, and Miss Margaret Fockler was lovely in a frock of yellow net, oses being also her chosen flowers.

REST

Jesus! I rest in Thee, In Thee myself I hide; Laden with guilt and misery,

Thou Holy One of God!

Where can I rest beside? 'Tis on Thy meek and lowly breast My weary soul alone could rest.

The Father rests in Thee; And in the savor of that blood: That speaks to Him for me, The curse is gone—through Thee . I'm blest God rests in Thee-in Thee I rest

The slave of sin and fear, Thy truth my bondage broke; My willing spirit loves to bear Thy light and easy yoke; The love that fills my grateful breast.

Makes duty joy, and labor rest Soon the bright, glorious day, The rest of God shall-come! Sorrow, and sin shall pass away. And I shall reach my home!

My soul shall know eternal rest-
