POULTRY WANTED — Keep in mind that we want your poultry, and will pay highest market prices. Sam Golden, at Pennock's Livery.

VIOLIN

9.30 p.m. 9.30 p.m.

Stouffville! Do you want a real orchestra?—well, you can, if we can get enough pupils to form a violin group. I will undertake to train a drummer, then, you can invite local talent on other instruments. We will give 2 trial lessons 50c each. Outfits loaned—yours on the course (same offer as guitar course) you will be astonished at the new simple Hohman system, which is now used more than any other, including Toronto Conservatory of Music. You will very soon be able to play with the guitar players, and what a wonderful source of delight that will be, for all time. Come along Tuesday, at 9.30 at Mansion House, and we will have a violin outfit ready for you.

Hirrell Bell, L.M.A.C., A.V.C.M.
London, England

BALLANTRAE LAD INJURED BY GUN

Master Ernie Nesbitt, son of Robt Nesbitt of Ballantrae, was the victim of a shooting accident the other day, when the lad was shot through the hand by a gun in the hands of his pal, a son of Walter Mitchell's. The boys were out shooting when the accident, purely accidental, happened. The bullet entered the hand above the knuckle and travelled upwards to the wrist. It is expected that the hand will be saved.

GORMLEY

This locality is to have a visit from Dr. Jonathan Goforth who will speak in the Mennonite church, on Sunday evening, Dec. 22. This veteran missionary is an orator, and his tales of life in the East are most impressive. Blinded from the service he rendered on the mission field, he speaks as one with a great vision. There will be a crowded church to hear Dr. Goforth.

Rev. Marshall Winger who has been holding special services in the Brethren in Christ Church here will continue his services indefinitely. The Lord's presence is felt at these meetings and many souls are being saved, and back sliders restored. May the Lord so fill these new born children to His family with the Holy Spirit that they will win other souls for Christ. If all Christians would be true to their responsibility this old world would be won for Him.—If you are a Christian why not help this great cause by doing personal work in this world of sin.

CREAM UP IN PRICE

The price paid for cream at the Stouffville Creamery hit the high spot of the year the past few days when the price of 29 cents was paid for special grade and 27c for first grade. This is the top notch for about a year, and an increase of 5 cents a pound over the quotations of this same period in 1934.

Last Thursday Messrs. David Smales and Miss Vera Tarr were in Toronto attending the funeral of their cousin, the late Mrs. Andrew Leslie, (Mary Ramsey) who passed away at the early age of 27 years. Mrs. Leslie was a daughter of the late Robt. Ramsey, native of Mongolia, and her untimely death is a great shock to all her young friends. The funeral was also attended from here by Mrs. Lambert Stouffer.

The hydro clerk, J. S. Dougherty states that there is a noticeable advance in the amount of customers hydro bills now being issued for the months of October and November. This is due to the long absence of the sun, making dark days in which electric lights were needed almost continuously.

An innovation in those pleasing social events so much enjoyed by the ladies was a "mite-box" tea held at the home of Mrs. H. W. Sanders for the members of the W.M.S. of the United Church, whom holders of mite boxes were the guests of the occasion. Mrs. Laidlaw sang and Mrs. Hastings gave a short talk, all of which added to the social time enjoyed.

The Claremont Baptist Mission Circle were entertained by the local society, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Lee, on Tuesday night. The visiting circle rendered the program, consisting of a paper by Mrs. M. Forsythe; recitation by Mrs. C. Gostick, and quartette numbers by Messrs. Ward Evans, Morgan Pugh, Jas. Coates, and Will Birkett. Mrs. Sara Evans gave a report of the Women's Convention held at Simcoe. Some 60 enjoyed lunch and social time.
