thought, well, what's the use the new school is here to stay anyway. A. H. Williams was chosen chairman of the meeting, and was then elected a trustee for a three year period to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Albert Clark. Clean shaves and nobby hair cuts are the order of the day around the barber shop, with a welcome Happy New Year thrown in. Our district was well represented at the nomination meeting on Monday. It's within the memory of our old ratepayers when such meetings were held alternate years at our corners, but now Vandorf is the capital city of our township. Cottagers around the lake next summer will welcome the reduced hydro rates just announced.

As the season approached, Maurice Pike began raising his semi-annual moustache. As this facial appendage became so bushy and showed rapid signs of growth, one kind friend of his foresaw future difficulties which he would encounter in the act of taking a drink from a cup. Hence, prompted by deep sympathy, presented him with a huge moustache cup as a Christmas present. But just a short time before opening the parcel Maurice shaved off the protruding whiskers. Alas! Alas!

HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL

Paul Boadway, Manager

GORMLEY

Get out and poll your vote on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Jones and family were guests of his sister Mrs. H. Leigh, Toronto for Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Sider were Toronto visitors for the holiday. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Brillinger were with their niece Mrs. W. Beynon, Aurora.

Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Doner, entertained the Hoover family in their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Henderson spent the weekend with their daughter Mrs. Lewis Clinehage of Stevensville.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Heise and family spent the holiday with Mr. Heise's father, brothers and sisters at Victoria Square.

After spending Christmas day with the home folks at Gormley, Mr. Elmer L. Steckley returned to his home in Grantham, Pa.

Miss Anna M. Steckley and Mr. Clifford Winger, in company with Mr. O. L. Heise and wife are spending a few days in Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cober met with misfortune while on their honeymoon trip. In the afternoon following their marriage on Dec. 18th, they left by motor for Ridgeway, Buffalo, and other points, but met with an accident near Bismark, with the result that their car was badly wrecked. Mrs. Cober had several cuts on her face besides body bruises while Mr. Cober escaped without a scratch. A parked truck on the side of the highway was the cause of the crash.

After the Christmas Service held at the Heise Hill church, Gormley, the family circle of the late Joseph, and Mrs. Leah Steckley, met at the residence of Bishop A. Winger. Five daughters and four sons were present, including Miss Anna M. missionary to India and Elmer a teacher in Messiah Bible College, Grantham, Pa. Thirty grandchildren were also present. After partaking of the sumptuous Christmas dinner a very enjoyable time was spent.

Cober - Winger
On Wednesday at noon, Dec. 18, 1935, at the home of the bride's parents, a very quiet wedding took place, when Miss Viola May, eldest daughter of Bishop and Mrs. Alvin L. Winger, was united in holy wedlock to Mr. Earl H. Cober, son of Elder Joseph Cober, all of Gormley.

In the presence of forty-five guests the ceremony was performed in the parlor which was beautifully decorated with evergreens.

The bride was becomingly attired in a dress of white satin, and was attended by her sister Miss Marion Winger, dressed in pink canton crepe. The groom was supported by Mr. Clifford L. Winger, brother of the bride. Rev. Alvin Winger tied the nuptial knot. A quartette sang, "O God of Wisdom."

After the signing of the register a sumptuous wedding dinner was served in the spacious dining room, and shortly after the happy couple left for Ridgeway, and other points east, the bride travelling in brown with accessories to match.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts. On their return they will reside in New Gormley.

LINCOLNVILLE

This modest settlement isn't always drowsy, as will be seen from the hustle and bustle of the Yuletide. First let us see if there is a man at the great age of Benjamin Hare enjoying his health. Well, we doubt it. Then there are the Mantle boys stopping out in a new Durant Car, but please don't rush applications as chauffeurs for the boys will manage for the winter themselves. Christmas spirit prevailed every home, and visiting was right in order. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Reesor were in town at Ira Rusnell's, Ted Linter and wife were with his parents down in Stouffville our southern boundary, while Ted Mantle went over to Altona, and did he have a good time! Bill Mantle struck for Almira to be with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hisey, and this visiting reminds us that Ralph Connor, the dean of Gravel Hill was in Bloomington for a Christmas meal at Mr. E. Barnes'. Harry Hope they say didn't get all around at Christmas time, but it may have been there trouble, which will afflict these automobiles at times, but of all times, Christmas time. We noticed Dan Morrison in our section the other day on a brief visit, now isn't that quite a stir for our corners.

Popular Attorney Elevated to "K.C."

The Timmins Daily Press reports the elevation of their townsman Mr. Dean Kester, son of our Mrs. George Kester, to a King's Counselor in the following front page article appearing in the Express on December 21:

"In the list made public by Attorney General Roobuck today Dean Kester, Timmins, was named as a King's Counsel.

One of the best-known barristers in the District of Cochrane, Mr. Kester has been in practice here since May, 1924. He was associated with Daniel W. O'Sullivan until Mr. O'Sullivan was drowned in September, 1925.

Subsequently, Mr. Kester went into practice for himself and is now carrying on a legal practice with Charles W. Kerr, formerly of Belleville.

Graduating from Osgoode Hall Dean Kester was apprenticed to H. L. Slaght of Halleybury for two years. He then served three years in the office of A. G. Slaght, K.C., of Toronto, now member of the Federal House for Parry Sound.

Mr. Kester is a member of the local Masonic Lodge and is on the executive of the Northern Ontario Hockey Association. His favorite sports are hunting, fishing, and gardening."
