PARTIAL PAYMENT ON BOND INTEREST

Every one of Ontario's 34 defaulting municipalities will make some interest payment on their debentures during this year, Hon. David Croll, Minister of Municipal Affairs, announced at Queen's Park. Although in many cases only partial interest may be paid, some provision for payment is being made in the budget of each of the municipalities. "It will go far toward restoring the confidence of the investing public in these municipalities," Mr. Croll said.

Last year 14 municipalities resumed interest payments, full or partial. They were Blind River, East York, Etobicoke, Leamington, Leaside, Long Branch, Niagara Falls, North Bay, Stamford, Sudbury, Weston, Windsor and York Township. Twenty additional municipalities will follow suit this year. They are Calvert Township, Dysart Township, Eastview, Essex, Fort Erie, Hawkesbury, Kingsville, LaSalle, Midland, Mimico, New Toronto, Pembroke, Penetanguishene, Riverside, Rockland, Sandwich East, Scarborough, Tecumseh and Thorold.

OIL IMPORTED DURING YEAR WOULD CREATE LARGE LAKE

Few people realize the magnitude of the petroleum industry in Canada, but the following comparison based on quantities readily visualized, gives a conception of the size of the business which supplies the Canadian demand for petroleum products:

Water flows over Niagara Falls at the rate of approximately 160,000 cubic feet per second. If it were possible to divert the crude oil brought into Canada in 1934 for the manufacture of gasoline and allied products, down the Niagara River, it would take nearly eighteen minutes to flow over the Falls and the lake of crude oil formed at the bottom would cover an area of one square mile to a depth of six and one-half feet.

Crude oil is brought into Canada principally by pipeline and during the open season of navigation, by ocean tankers with an average capacity of 12,000 tons. Approximately one-third of the crude must be stored to cover requirements during the winter months.

SELECT DEPUTY-REEVE FIRST IN FIFTY YEARS

John O. Little Elected Warden, Defeating Reeve R. J. Wallace by 2 to 1

Breaking a precedent of more than 50 years, York county council at its 86th Inaugural session opened last week in Toronto, chose a deputy-reeve as warden. John O. Little of Newmarket defeated Reeve R. J. Wallace of Swansea, by a 2 to 1 vote.

Supporting Reeve Wallace, Reeve W. A. Edwards of Mimico charged that the contest for the wardenship had become a "lobbying racket."

Reeve W. A. MacDonald of New Toronto, who was nominated but withdrew, referred to the election as a "horse race."

Dr. L. W. Dales, reeve of Newmarket, declared "Reeve Edwards is merely putting up a weak defence for a good cause."

The late Hon. Clark Wallace of Vaughan township, elected warden more than half a century ago, was previously the only deputy-reeve to hold the seat. Mr. Little is the sixth representative of Newmarket to occupy the warden's chair.

BLAST FROM A YORK COUNTY PEN

"We want to rush into print with a blast of the pen to call on every Scarborough Civic body P. U. Commission and Council especially, to pass strong resolutions supporting Premier Hepburn's cancellation of power contracts, says the York County Post."

"This is in view of the fact that Mr. King's crowd at Ottawa has been invited to disallow that act of decent justice by Mr. Hepburn."

No Ontario premier has ever shown the wise and patient attitude towards the interests of the province that Mr. Hepburn showed in waiting on these power pirates. They were given every chance to produce fair new contracts and even then the Government erred on the side of kindness to them before proclaiming the cancellation.

Just why Ontario Hydro users should pay seven millions of dollars into the coffers of the power gang for "power the power companies could not possibly deliver because they had not the equipment for its production" is beyond our limited sense of honesty.

Frankly the Power deal was a racket in which Mr. King's bigwigs had their greedy paws, as well as Mr. Ferguson's underlings. In that nasty "grab" Mr. Hepburn had no part and his repudiation of the whole thing was timely and right.

It may seem impertinent for the Scarborough Post to stand against journalistic giants, but apart from the physical attributes of The Post, we yield second place to none in mental honesty or moral justice. Let all Scarborough public bodies leap into the breach to defend our right to attend our own business. No provincial legislation has ever been disallowed before. Only when the power of Big Money is threatened do the battalions move.

Charles Dunning and Mr. La Pointe are dangerous men. Dunning, especially is the Big interest guardian at Ottawa.

Let Scarborough be among those to whom Liberty and Freedom from Money Power is dear.

It is more than a "power contract" fight—it is the beginning of a fight to live our own lives freely and honorably. Tory reaction and Whig greediness of money are foes before us!

WOULD ABANDON COUNTY OWNERSHIP OF ROADS.

At the annual Nomination Meeting of the Electors of the Municipality of the Township of Pickering, held at the Township Hall of the said municipality, in the Village of Broomham.

It was moved by Mr. G. M. Forsyth, seconded by Dr. N. E. McEwen and carried by a unanimous vote, that

Whereas the bonded indebtedness of the County of Ontario has reached the enormous sum of $800,000.00 or thereabouts, and the annual levy upon this township for county purposes constitutes practically 45 per cent of all the taxes entered on the Tax Roll of this municipality for year 1935.

And whereas the County, notwithstanding the continuing annual increase of the county debt, continues to build expensive roads, costing $4000 and more per mile.

And whereas in the opinion of this representative gathering of the ratepayers of the Township of Pickering all county roads should be allowed to revert to the local municipalities, and that such roads could be quite as well maintained as now by the local municipalities and at much less expense than under county control:

Be It Therefore Resolved that we respectfully request the Government and Legislature of the Province of Ontario to so amend the Municipal and Highways Acts as to abolish all county roads and allow the same to revert to the jurisdiction and control of the local municipalities in which they are now located respectively.

FROM TRIBUNE FILES JANUARY 1923

13 Years Ago This Month

Dr. Smith and Mr. A. D. Bruce attended a banquet on Tuesday evening at the King Edward Hotel, Toronto, tendered by Sir James Woods, to the lay representatives of the Toronto Presbytery, about 500 guests were present.

Big Crowd at Carnival—The first carnival of the season in the Maple Leaf rink was held on Tuesday night. The attendance was large, and Stouffville band rendered good music. The prize winners are:—Best fancy dress lady—Miss Monkhouse, Altona, in a calendar suit representing 1923; Second Miss Russell. Consolation prizes—Miss Ivy Saunders, in Highland costume. The best gents costume was won by Miss Hanna Stiver, representing Geo. Washington; C. Shackel in the costume of a demon won second. Butcher Steekley, won the speed race. F. C. Hessel and Geo. Collard were judges.

Last week Mr. George Watson of this town was called to St. Louis, Illinois, owing to the death of his cousin, Joseph Nugent, a prominent citizen of that city. He has been a horse trader all his life, and during his 61 years has accumulated a great deal of this world's goods, he is estimated to be worth five million dollars.

A party was in town last week negotiating for the Auditorium building, with a view to commencing a new industry in town.

Newmarket's bread war is over, and the loaf is back to 18c again, after being cut to 11c. Eighteen cents is the ruling price throughout Ontario.

Miss M. Edwards has been confined to her home in Claremont with a bad cold since Christmas holidays, we hope for her a speedy recovery.

The price of coal is advertised in Markham at $20 per ton of the car. As mild weather prevails, coal prices soar to help out the coal baron.

The new curling rink was opened for business last week in earnest. The local club expect a membership of 40, and all who enjoy this clean winter sport, are requested to become members.

KING'S DEATH REVIVES SUPREME EXPERIENCE FOR LOCAL NEWS MAN

Ten years have passed since the editor of The Tribune accompanied a Canadian press party on a tour of the British Isles and the continent, but the holiday is still rich in memories. Nothing, however, impressed us quite so much as our visit to Buckingham Palace where we were so graciously received by our now lamented and beloved King George the V. At this time of mourning for the dead monarch, reference to the event may bear repeating.

Visitors to the Palace are not invited to the big garden parties held there during the summer season, but rather the invitation comes as a command, issued in the customary engraved card form, by the Lord Chamberlain, on behalf of their majesties. Our command was delivered directly to our room at the Russell Hotel, several days before the event, and we still prize that piece of cardboard. Formal dress is expected, and everybody conforms to it.

In company with a companion or two on the eventful afternoon, we made our way to the palace in a horse drawn carriage and found no difficulty in passing through the crowds of people outside the palace gates, to the large entrance where light top coats are checked and the freedom of the place granted.

After entering the Grand Entrance and passing through the ground floor of the Palace out into the spacious grounds, the editors, under the guidance of Col. Crichton the assistant Lord Chamberlain, were assembled on the royal lawn which is usually reserved for the Royal Family until after their Majesties have greeted them. The Royal Family appeared by a special entrance and assembled under a tree on the lawn opposite the entrance by which the King and Queen leave the palace. As soon as their Majesties appeared a signal was given and the large military band which was present played the National Anthem. The King came forward accompanied by the Lord Chamberlain who is known as Lord Cromer, and a fine gentlemen. The Queen separated from King George and mingled with a company of ladies. King George was particularly interested in the soldier members of our party, enquiring in detail about their battalions and the battles they engaged in. When our turn came he inquired as to what part of Ontario we resided in, and when we stated that we lived near Toronto, he said "I shall never forget the great loyalty of that city with its fine record for service." We had met the King of Belgium and the President of France, but the reception by our own King and Queen was a long looked for event, that shall never be effaced from our memory.

The grounds at Buckingham Palace are beautiful. The lawns are like velvet, and the flower beds and shrubbery all wonderful. The grand old palace, which since 1837 has been the London residence of the sovereign, derives its name from John Sheffield, Duke of Buckingham.

BE KIND TO HORSES

"Be kind to your horse; give him a little help this cold weather," urges a well-known local humanitarian.

"The fashion seems to be of late years to forget all about the old fashioned horse blanket, and leave the team or horse standing out in this zero weather shivering at the curb, and often bathed in perspiration after a hard pull."

One other humane act would be the warming up of the frosty steel bit before putting it in the horse's mouth in the morning, points out the local man.
