LIVED 86 YEARS ON ADJOINING FARMS DICKSON HILL

In the death of Susanna Wideman, relect of the late Samuel B. Hoover of Markham Township, one of the oldest residents of Markham Born in the-township where she died, and on the next farm to where she lived, her entire life of $6 years was spent in that immediate the road and forced to abandon locality at Dickson's Hill. Until last Octo er Mrs. Hoover was extremely active, and was about daily, but at citizens were in this predicathat time she fell ill, and had since been confined to her bed. Because of her genial, social nature, she was widely known, and although her generation had pretty well passed on she lived into the lives of the younger generation.

The late Mrs. Hoover was the sixth child born to Henry Wideman and his wife Elizabeth Hoover. She was of a family of nine children, and her father died in 1883 and her mother in 1897. While in her twenties Susanna united in marriage with Samuel B. Hoover who predeceased her by quite a few years. The widowed mother made her home with her son Anthony on the homeschool property is situated.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoover seven survive. They are two sons Louis W. and ! Anthony, and five daughters. Mrs. H. J. Locke, of Montreal; Mrs. Harry Spang, of Sandford; Mrs. W. Mrs. H. Kidd, Ballantrae. They J. Lehman, of Almira; Mrs. David | made Stouffville next day by train.

COUNTY NAMES PENSION BOARD

Council Rejects Suggestion of Paying Salary to Members

Re-establishment of the York County Pension Board having been assured by the Provincial Government, 'County Council, appointed five members for the new board.

At the same time, council in structed its solicitors to draw up the necessary by-law providing for the setting up again of the board. A recommendation that members of the board be remunerated for their services caused considerable where they too were forced to spend | Cherrywood, where her only brother controversy. Warden J. O. Little the night. ## PEOPLE STRANDED BY BAD STORM

The worst storm of the winter which visited Ontario last Thursday afternoon and night, although has passed into the Great Beyond. heralded over the radio by the weather prophets, caught, a good many Stouffville people away from home only to become floundered on motor cars for the refuge of wayside homes and hotels. At least eighteen ment, and possibly others of whom -we are not aware.

> The roads were so badly blocked that all Friday morning scarcely a motor car moved along Main street, and it was around one o'clock when the road between Stouffville and Markham along the 8th concession was opened to motor traffic. However, in the meantime, the overnight folk trailed into town on the morn ing train which they boarded mostly at Markham where the largest crowd had put up for the night. The Toronto bus of the Gray Coach Lines dug into a snow bank away south of Unionville and never stead on which the Dickson Hill moved an inch again that night. Passengers and bus driver made Of eight children born to the late their way to a farm house, and were sheltered for the night, thirteen in number, including two. from Stouffville, being two Celestials Harry and Alex. Fong, also Mr. and

L. Stouffer, of Ringwood, and Miss In line where the Gray Coach bus Bertha M. at home. There are 20 was stalled at Agincourt fifteen or grandchildren and 7 great grand- more cars and trucks were stalled in children. Mrs. Hoover was a member the snow, including George Lee's of the Dickson Hill Mennonite transport from here. George spent Church, and the funeral servce on the night with other stranded Wednesday afternoon was in charge | passengers in a garage at Agincourt Canada supplied twenty per cent of of Rev. Wm. Brown, the pastor. where some of them tried to wile Interment was made in the Wide- away the hours before morning with a deck of cards.

One party composed of Mr. Harry Klinck, Mrs. J. Borinsky, Mrs. Thos. Rae, Mrs. Alex. Grubin and Miss Marjorie Mertens, attendants at the Horticultural Society annual meeting in Toronto, put in a rather hectic night. Scriking north up Yonge street in the evening the party reached Thornhill where the car lights failed and the party were forced to seek shelter at a private home, when the local president of the flower show was tucked away in the only spare bed in the place, while the ladies sat up with their knitting until the breakfast gong rang. They proceeded to Markham the road was blocked to-Stouffville, when they made the remainder of the journey by C.N.R.

with the greatest difficulty that they reached the Danforth and the City streets. The road, they said was like a great sea, and the white swirling snow blinded them so that they could not distinguish the road from the ditch, nor could they detect a snowbank until the car would stop and they got out to investigate. "It was an impossible night to drive,' declared George.

Possibly there were other vacant beds in town during that record storm, which blocked every road in the country, and caused the Whitchurch Township Council to abandon their monthly meeting, already postponed for a week, from Saturday until Tuesday this week.

The road to Goodwood was blocked until Saturday afternoon, also the 4th concession of Whitchurch from Gormley north to Vandorf was filled badly and closed to traffic over the weekend.

After all it only resembled the Steckley - At Brierbush Hospital, winters many remember of 20 and Stouffville, on February 18th, 25 years ago, but in those days no 1936, to Mr. and Mrs. Floyd one tried to use wheels, relying on Steckley, Whitchurch Twp., a son. #### HORSE STABLES SOLD

The large horse barns on Market street owned by Mr. Ambrose Stover since 1921 when he bought out the bakery business from Mr. Frank Rowbotham, were sold this week to Mr. George Watson. There is stabling for upwards of 15 horses, which is much greater accommodation than Mr. Stover requires in these days when trucks are so much in use for delivery purposes. He has rented Mr. Ed. Pennock's barns for his limited number of horses.

George Watson & Son are stepping into the horse business in a more extensive way, and on Tuesday night received a car load from Montreal, for local sale. With their new quarters they will have ample stable room conveniently located for buy-

Further games will be played Friday night and again next week on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday.

UXBRIDGE LAWYER DEAD

W. S. Ormiston, Barrister Uxbridge, died on Tuesday, and will be buried there today from his late home. Widely known as a prominent Freemason, he filled many offices in the gift of the Order, and was a past District Deputy Grand Master of the local district. He will be interred at Uxbridge Cemetery following service in Chalmer's Presbyterian Church.

A fine old mother in Israel, Mrs. Rosanna Culp, was called to her village Friday morning only to learn February 14th, 1936, about and had lived in half the double residence belonging to Russel Grove at Wideman's. ### HAPPINESS IN WIFE'S BAKING and Mrs. James Malcolm Markham Celebrate 55th Wedding Anniversary

James Malcolm, S1, Markham village, has a practical reason for his 55 years of successful married life. Last week he and his wife celebrated their anniversary, and he told the newspapers that Mrs. Malcolm's cooking is one of the most important factors in their happiness.

"Yes, I made sure she was a cook before I married her," he said, humorously. "It certainly is one of the reasons why we get along so well together!"

Both Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm are of Scotch parentage and were born in Scarboro. He was born at Malvern in 1885. As a boy he lived in Toronto and came to Markham after the death of his father. There, he was carpenter until he received an injury to his eye and turned to in-Active in Masonic work, Mr. Malcolm is a past master of the Markham Lodge, A.F. and A.M., member of the Shriners and Scottish Rite. He has held the position of grand standard-bearer of the grand lodge of Ontario.

"He didn't tell me it was the cooking he was after," commented Mrs. Malcolm with a twinkle in her "He used to talk about quite different things."

The couple attributed their contentment to their interest in church work. Both are active members of Markham Presbyterian church and their two sons are ministers: Rev W. J. Malcolm, Three Rivers, Mich., and Rev. C. A. Malcolm, Seaforth, Ontario. They have one daughter, Miss A. T. Malcolm, Toronto.

"This will be the first winter that we haven't gone to church every Sunday, usually twice a day," said Mr. Malcolm. "This year the streets were too bad for us to go out

PORT PERRY AND PICKER ING TWP. CLAIM FROM COUNTY

Ontario County has an unusual school wrangle on its hands, which has led to a law suit yet undecided by the courts. The village of Port Perry has filed suit against the county, to be heard on May 11, while the Township of Pickering stands by ready to take the plunge with a similar action, although it heavenly home on Friday afternoon, has not done so. These two municipalities are claiming $6,000 loss. o'clock. She was in her 77th year, -They contend that through an error, over a period of years, their school board secretaries failed to 10:00 a.m.-Sunday School collect from the county the statutory grants coming to them for the Subject "Visions of David Concerncost of educating county pupils. The county has legal advice saying they are not liable while Port Perry has legal advice claiming the county is liable. The Port Perry suit, may form the basis of settlement in the case of Pickering one would imagine as the claims are similar, and it is possible the Township will not press their claim until the outcome of the Port Perry case is known.

ALTONA FARMER'S UNTIMELY DEATH

The untimely death of Charles Armstrong at his farm home just north of Glasgow, is received by the community with the keenest regret. He was only in his 46th year, but had been ailing for about a year. He had suffered a stroke.

A son of William Armstrong, he was one of a family of eight children all of whom were born in the Township of Gooderham. Charles married Miss Essie Drewery, daughter of Mrs. Wm. Drewery, and the couple farmed on the place where he passed away for nine years. To them was born one daughter, Mrs. Earl McMullen, who with the mother survive him. He is also survived by his father, four brothers, Joseph of Detroit; Caleb, Wesley and Alfred all of Saskatchewan; and by three sisters. namely: Sarah, Mrs. Wm. Haywood, of Gooderham; Ida, Mrs. Gibbon O. Rude and Alma, Mrs. R. Hanscome, both living in the West where their father also resides. They are located near Stayner Hall.

The funeral on Tuesday afternoon was to Stouffville cemetery, many being unable to attend who otherwise would have done so, but for the terrible condition of the roads which are impassable in many places and the main ones being bad for wheel-

His brother Joseph came up for the funeral, but the relatives in Western Canada, of course, were unable to come.
