

TOWN TOPICS

It is rumored that Markham are endeavoring to work up a little enthusiasm for a baseball team to enter the O.B.A.A. this coming season.

The public school teacher at Lemonville, a male pedagogue from Milliken, was let out at Easter, and a Miss Stewart of Toronto engaged in his stead.

Mr. and Mrs. Abram S. Honsberger of Waterloo are visiting her brother Mr. Albert Wideman of Markham Township, and other friends in the district.

Mr. Percy Brillinger is carrying out plans to enlarge the heating capacity of his greenhouse. A boiler room is under construction and the heating system will be extended to all the area now under glass.

Henry Lehman, aged 44 years, died in Oakville, and was buried at the Wideman Cemetery, on Good Friday. He was a former resident of this village, employed for years by Mr. W. J. Mather, but moved to Long Branch. His father is a resident of Richmond Hill.

A fine was handed out the other day by Magistrate Keith in police court to a Markham man found guilty of shooting off fire arms after dark and before sun rise. Sportsmen should try and obey the law, in this regard, and it is pointed out that shooting close to buildings or dwelling houses is a very unwise thing.

Earl Cook our local twirler with the big leaguers has been let out to Toronto by the Cincinnati Reds of the National League. Earl made four starts with the "big boys" and came through with a win each time. However Cincinnati are a little overstocked this year and Manager Ike Boone of the Leafs is quite eager to have Earl pitch another season for the Toronto Club.

Next Sunday the United Church congregation will hear two different preachers in their quest to extend a call to a new minister. At the morning service Rev. Geo. Purchase of Streetsville will occupy the pulpit, and in the evening Rev. C. Krug of Chatsworth will give the sermon. The congregational meeting to extend a call is likely to be held on Tuesday April 28.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McKeown, Toronto, were in town Saturday visiting his brother Sam. Mr. McKeown is an ex-police officer of the Toronto force season.

Mrs. George Kester has closed her home for a time, and has gone to Scarborough to be with her son Lorne, whom we regret to hear, is not in the best of health. He is employed with the Canadian Line Materials Co.

Miss Margaret McLaughlin of Saskatchewan, but at present a student at Toronto Normal School, accompanied by Miss Thelma Wagg, were Easter guests at D. Stapleton's and J. Winterstein's.

A foot-note at the bottom of Mr. Clarence Stouffer's letter appearing in the last issue of this paper was in error. Mr. Stouffer is a nephew of Mr. John R. Barkey, of Maple Villa, in the west end of Stouffville, and not Isaac Barkey as wrongly reported.

A White Leghorn hen belonging to Nathan Cox of Atha is the first to crow this spring about a large or oversized egg. This particular bird laid an egg the other day measuring 6 1/4 x 3 1/2 inches, perfectly formed, with a nice smooth shell. If it doesn't happen to be the biggest one brought in this spring, its at least the first of its kind this season. Now hear the hens cackle.

Mr. Archie McGillivray, one of Toronto's noted gospel singers, will sing and preach in the Stouffville Christian Church on Sunday. When Mr. McGillivray was in charge of an evening service here last summer it will be remembered that he had a capacity house and many were turned away. Come early and enjoy the bright song service preceding the evening service.

Its often blarney when a woman is told that she does not look her age, but when we say that Mrs. Lemon Baker who reached her 79th year on Sunday last, looks at least ten years younger, there's no blarney about it. Mrs. Baker's bright, happy disposition, and cheerful outlook on life keeps her young in body and spirit too. To mark the event in her life Mrs. Baker had as guests on Sunday her daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ratcliff and family, Mr. and Mrs. Crawford Macklem, also a niece from Toronto, Mrs. Hall.

Like the bride groom who waited at the church in vain, Constable Quibell too waited in vain at the cemetery on Good Friday for his man. Receiving instructions by long distance to effect an arrest of a certain wayward individual who was expected to attend a funeral, the cop swung into duty shortly after-noon keeping well in the back ground in the hopes of getting his man immediately after the expected funeral completed its course to the last resting place. As the afternoon wiled away with no mourners or hearse hooving into sight, the limb of the law decided to crash in among the tomb stones and see what was going on at closer range, only to learn that not even a grave had been opened for immediate use, nor was any funeral expected. It was learned later that the wrong information had been handed out respecting the place of interment, under which circumstances the slogan "he got his man," could hardly be expected to be written.

Special items including "Old Time Letters" by H. S. O'Brien are crowded out of this issue due to the demand for advertising space. In his next instalment Mr. O'Brien will tell of the $25,000 building boon in one summer about 1885, followed by more business blocks erected.

The Easter Thank-Offering meeting of Stouffville United Church Woman's Missionary Society, held on Thursday afternoon of last week with Mrs. Deibert Holden occupying the chair, was favored by the presence of Mrs. G. F. Forbes, Dominion President, and by a large number of guests from Mount Albert, Goodwood, and other outside points. In an interesting address the guest speaker Mrs. Forbes impressed the members of the organization with their individual responsibility for the successful carrying on of the work of the missionary cause, which maintains no less than 300 missionaries actively engaged. No matter how small the gift, it was a boost, and a donation of $2 would maintain the work of the whole organization for one minute. Mrs. Forbes, introduced by Mrs. S. W. Hastings, was accorded a vote of thanks extended by Mrs. Laidlaw. The devotional part of the meeting was led by Mrs. H. W. Sanders. Musical numbers were contributed by Miss Alma Baker, daughter of Morgan Baker, M.L.A., Mrs. Kellington and Mrs. Leslie. The tables in the basement of the church were beautifully decorated for the tea hour which followed the meeting held in the body of the church. About 200 attended, and the thank-offering collection as reported by the treasurer, Mrs. D. C. Smith, totalled $30, with other amounts to be received which will swell the total, it is expected, to at least $100.

If you don't sleep well buy a Simmons mattress from L.E. O'Neill and save $5 off the regular prices while the sale is on now.

One or two rats snouidered their guns on Good Friday and sallied forth to shoot groundhogs. After shooting one or two, and enjoying a target shoot in the belief that no more rats would be seen than the one shot so early in the season, half a dozen more loomed into view, but the boys had wasted all their ammunition on the target, which no doubt would meet with the sanction of Mr. Groundhog.

Er-Reeve Tom Griffith of York Township was in town on Tuesday in his official capacity as corn bored inspector for this section of the county. His assistant is John R. Campbell.

Boys from Stouffville attending night school in Toronto have been successful in their recent examinations at the Northern Vocational, Wm. Malloy and Ivan Goudie, passed in classes one and two respectively in plumbing, and Alfred Thomas in class 2 automotive mechanics.

Good Friday was a very quiet day in town. Few visitors were about so far as we could see, but the time of year is so uncertain on weather conditions, that the holiday is one for which little is planned, and the nature of Easter is not exactly befitting to celebrations and a hilarious time. There were meetings of one kind or another in nearly every church. Good Friday evening, with a special Easter picture at the Stanley theatre befitting the observance of the Easter time. It was entitled "The Last Days of Pompeii," depicting the rejection of the Christ by one of the Roman Gladiators who was called upon to choose between Christ and the world.

Archie Stewart, renewing his subscription to the Tribune writes from Isabella, Man., as follows: "Green backs" are hard to get out here, and are getting more scarce. Crop conditions last fall in this district were the best ever, but when the rust came it sure made the crop look light also. Winter set in around the first of November, followed with plenty of snow, and there hasn't been a mild day since, no thaw whatever. The snow is about four feet on the level, and a stiff north-west wind is blowing right now so that we will not have spring for a time at least, and its now April 6. We still blow a hockey team, won 14 tournaments out of 16 played in. So you see, if we can't grow good crops we can grow good hockey players." Mr. Stewart is a son of our veteran Main street citizen, Wm. Stewart.

John Urquhart of Ayr, has been visiting his sister Miss Mae Urquhart over Easter.

Miss Margaret Graham of Claremont is a patient at the Brierbush Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lehman sr., have returned from Detroit after an absence of three months.

Joyce Ball, youngest daughter of Dr. Ball is nursing a fractured ankle received in a most simple manner in the home the other day.

Mrs. S. M. Warriner after spending the winter with her daughter Mrs. Totten of the manse in Freeleton, has returned home again. Mrs. Totten and young daughter are with her for a few days.

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union will be held in the Mennonite Church, on Thursday, April 16th, at 3 o'clock. Let each member come and bring a friend. All ladies invited.

The Holiness Convention held in the Mennonite church during the Easter time attracted large gatherings at the various services, and Rev. Isaac Brubacher, pastor, feels that great good was accomplished from the meetings.

With the inauguration of much stricter discipline in the manner in which municipal officials carry out their work, there appears in this issue the complete report of the village auditor, T.B. Rae, as provided by statute in that behalf. Mr. Rae's report, presented to the council last week, is published by the treasurer in pursuance of his duty so that nothing may be hidden from the scrutiny of the ratepayers about the financial set-up of the village. Read it at your leisure.

Just when the firemen were called on duty for the first spring practise Monday evening, for which the fire bell was clanging at intervals, a real alarm came from Church street, and some of the boys thought it was a joke, but a prompt response was made, when it was found there was trouble at the home of Mr. John Murrison. It appears that some coal was dumped into the kitchen stove with coal oil on it, and the blaze reached the ceiling and caught on to articles in the room before the lids could be replaced. Nathan Forsyth, neighbor, heard the call of Mrs. Murrison, and rushed the burning things from the room, then applied the lawn hose. The fire was put out before the brigade came into play although the boys were ready for action in an incredible short time.
