MASONS MARK 75TH ANNIVERSARY

Local Lodge Had Humble Beginning in an Old Hall Over the Cashel Hotel Sheds.

Members of the Masonic Craft in Stouffville, and a large number of visiting Masons joined in celebrating the 75th anniversary of Richardson Lodge Stouffville, in Ratcliff's Hall last Friday evening the affair taking the form of a splendidly catered banquet. The meeting was featured by the presence of W. J.
Dunlop, deputy grand master of the Grand Lodge in Canada, who sketched the origin and history of Masonry down through the seven epochs into which the speaker chose to divide it. To Masons his address was instructive and interesting, throwing many new lights on the various crusades through which the order had passed since the days of Solomon.

A brief toast list was presided over by the present head of the order in Stouffville W. J. Reid, of Goodwood. A toast to Grand Lodge was proposed by J. Borinsky and responded to by J. P. Henderson of Birch Cliff, while John W. Ratcliff introduced a toast to the visitors, himself being a member of the order 54 years. Several visitors responded to this toast.

Mr. Harold Mason of Toronto, a former manager of the local Gold Fish Supply Co., was responsible for the presence of the St. James Tobacco Melody Trio of radio fame.
Their numbers interspersing the addresses were well received.

H. C. Tugwell, of Toronto read an interesting summary of the history of Richardson lodge since its first meeting at Cashel on the 6th concession of Markham. The historical sketch was prepared by N.
M. MacLean, historian of the lodge.
From it we gather the following notes:

Richardson Lodge was so named in honor of the late Francis Richardson who was grand secretary of the Grand Lodge of Canada West in the year 1853.

He was born in England and migrated to Canada in 1814 settling first in Toronto. In 1833, he laid the corner stone in Whitby.
Francis Richardson died in 1898 in Toronto.

The first candidate initiated was in Lodge by dispensation 136 was held above the sheds of the Cashel hotel situated on the 6th concession of Markham, a few miles south of Stouffville, and a live trading post at that early date. The hotel and stables are still standing. The lodge continued to meet there from 1860 to 1866 when it was moved to Stouffville, locating in Knill's Hall, where now stands Queen's Court and prior to that the old Queen's Hotel.

In 1890 rooms were secured in the present Lehman block hence the lodge has been in its present quarters 46 years.

The first candidate initiated was in 1860, he being Samuel Mighton, and the second was one John Stephenson.
The first officers of the lodge were:

W.M.—John Bowman
S.W.—James Gibson
J.W.—Wm. Trudgeon
Secretary—Jno. Bowman
Sen. Deacon—Thos. Bowman
Jr. Deacon—Ben Bowman
Inner Guard—Sam Mighton
Tyler—W. J. Ieing

On the membership at present time are seven Masons of over 30 years standing, all initiated here: They are John Monkhouse, 43 years, George Collard 41, Hugh Boyd 32, Truman Holden 31, S. P. Foote 31, Dr. W. A. Sangster 31, A. C. Burkholder 31.

The advance steadily noticeable all last week in the price of potatoes, must cheer the heart of the farmer, the price off trucks in Toronto touching $1.50 per 90 lb. bag.

ENTOMBED, DOCTOR SAVED LOCAL LIFE

One of the greatest living dramas that most of us can recall in our day is the mine disaster and attempted rescue of Dr. Robertson, chief surgeon of the Sick Children's Hospital, Toronto, and his two associates trapped in a Nova Scotia mine. Dr. Robertson is known to all our medical men as a friend, and at least one of our citizens freely acknowledges the fact that he is alive today to the professional skill of Dr. Robertson. Mr. Allan Closson, about 20 years ago, was given up by other doctors as he suffered from peritonitis. Dr. Robertson performed a remarkable operation which was the means of restoring Mr.
Closson to well being again. No doubt there are hundreds of similar testimonies being given on behalf of this man who like another, and still greater one, could restore life to others, yet could not save himself from a horrible death.

As this paper goes to press at 3 p.m. Wednesday Dr. Robertson and his associate Alfred Scadding are being taken from their entombment where they had been confined for ten days. A third man Magill died in the shaft within three days of being rescued. Every radio in town, and there's one in almost every home, listened in closely all morning and afternoon as the newspapers and Radio Commission described the rescue work.

A RARE TREAT

Do not fail to hear Toll Brothers' tell of their experiences "Hitch Hiking 'round the world," in the United Church, on the evening of May 12th.
Thrilling and amusing experiences and unusual pictures, taken by the brothers, in many lands.
Remember the date, Tuesday, May 12th. Tickets may be procured from any member of the choir, under whose auspices the Toll Brothers are coming to Stouffville.

THE CRUSADES

Nobody is going to be disappointed in "The Crusades," showing at the Stanley Theatre this Friday and Saturday. It is a great story of the Middle Ages produced by Mr. de Mille. A grand spectacle from start to finish, with two impressive climaxes a siege and a battle. In the intervals there is much parading of Christian princes and heathen leaders with their armies, some lively hand-to-hand fighting, a good deal of love making on the grand scale between Richard the Lion Heart (Henry Wilcoxon) and Berengaria (Loretta Young). The picture has everything one could look for and moves with action, pace and glitter.
Some coming attractions at The Theatre for the next two months are —"Hands Across the Table," "Call of the Wild," "Curly Top," "Three Musketiers," "Trail of the Lonesome Pine," "Magnificent Obsession," and "Ginger".

"MINSTREL FLASHES" PLEASES MIRTHFUL PATRONS

The big two-night show entitled "Minstrel Flashes" presented under auspices of the Stouffville Baseball Club, in Ratcliff's Hall last Saturday and Monday evenings, drew splendid crowds, considering it was given three times, for there was a Saturday afternoon matinee for the school children. Over forty local people contributed to the program, which was varied, good and not so good, sensible and nonsensical. The program was divided into fourteen radio flashes, each flash representing a scene on the program. It opened with the customary end-men and Fred McNair as interlocutor, and finished with Bill Blackburn, proprietor of the Mansion House, and a citizen of more than average avoidance, being presented as "the blushing bride," and young Bob Abell (undersize) as groom.
The song hits and dances throughout were especially appreciated, although the rush in which the cast for the different parts was gotten together did not permit or take into consideration the fitness of the person for some of the numbers at least. This was especially noticeable in the absence of good singers where they were most needed.
However, the young folks were out to help the baseball boys, and everybody did their best to make the show "go over" with a bang.
Birrell Bell, and his family of four children provided several numbers on their stringed instruments while his two daughters entertained with a couple of pretty little dances in peasant style.
Pete Lowry of St. Thomas, a stranger to Stouffville, came here to train the artists and direct the show and incidentally made a few warm friends. The baseball boys appreciate the hearty co-operation of everybody in aiding them, and incidentally putting a few dollars in their hands to open the spring baseball season with.

BETHESDA

Miss Mary Wright, who has been spending the Easter holidays with her cousin, Miss Kathleen Steckley, returned to her home in Toronto, on Sunday.
The members of the choir will note that choir practice will be held this Thursday night at the home of Mrs.
Haines.
Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Foote who have not been in the best of health for some time, have gone to the home of their daughter, Mrs. Geo.
Leary of Gormley, to recuperate. We hope to see them both home again soon, enjoying good health.
There was a large number out to church on Sunday when Rev. Mr.
Brown of Halton exchanged pulpits with our minister, Rev. J. M.
McEwen. Accompanying Mr. Brown were Mrs. Brown and their son Edward.
There was a large attendance at the Young People's Society, on Tuesday night. The topic "Bound by superstition" was taken by Chas.
Atkinson.
The Young People's Society are planning for a social evening to be held on Friday night at the home of Mrs. Hicks. Girls please provide refreshments.
The Junior Women's Institute met on Tuesday afternoon at home of Miss Jeannette McEwen. The project, "Being Well Groomed" was started under the leadership of Miss Gertrude Clarke. The girls will meet again next Wednesday, April 29th at the home of Mrs.
Haines. They are requested to bring a mended silk stocking and woolen garment, also the pattern for the slip. And please remember the meeting begins at 2 o'clock. So make sure you are there on time.

ALTONA

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs.
Clarence Bunker on their recent marriage.
Miss Jean Linton of Toronto,

ACCIDENT GROUP RECOVERING

The five Claremont women injured in a motor accident on April 3rd are reported to be making slow but steady progress towards recovery. Mrs. Stanbury was taken from the Oshawa General Hospital to the home of her daughter at Peterboro, on Saturday last. Mrs.
Condy and Mrs. Ward are still in the hospital and the other two, Mrs.
Tomlinson and Mrs. Cooper are being cared for at their homes. All of the injured were still confined to bed last week.

MAIL COURIER IS DEAD, CLAREMONT

Mr. William Jones, one of Clare-mont's highly respected citizens died suddenly from heart trouble, at his home there on Tuesday morning, April 14th, in his 77th year. Deceased had been one of the local mail couriers for many years and, although not in the best of health, had gone on his route the day previous. He served the patrons on R.R.
3 which passes within almost a mile of Stouffville. His sudden death came as a great shock to his family and many friends. The late Mr.
Jones was a native of Georgian Township, but had resided in Claremont and vicinity for the past thirty years. He was a man of quiet disposition, fond of his home and family and a member of the United Church. His wife predeceased him only a few years ago. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. John Spenceley, with whom he lived, and one son of Quaker Hill. Surviving also is one sister who lives north of Uxbridge and eight grandchildren.

GLASGOW MEETING

D. Steiner Krady, of Lancaster City, Pa., will speak next Sunday afternoon at the Glasgow Church, at 2:30, under auspices of the Sunday School. Everybody is invited to hear Mr. Krady, a noted evangelist and mission worker.

STOUFFVILLE WAR VETERANS

The big draw for valuable prizes will take place at the Stanley Theatre, on Friday, May 1. The Veterans make this last urgent appeal that you purchase a ticket to help send a representative to the "Unveiling at Vimy" where some of the Stouffville lads made the supreme sacrifice.

UNITED FOLKS TO INVITE MINISTER NEXT TUESDAY

After hearing no less than eight ministers preaching in the local pulpit in anticipation of a call or invitation to become their pastor, the members of the United Church congregation will be called upon next Tuesday evening to extend a call to a new minister to become pastor here after July 1st.
We understand that the manner in which the selection will be made from the men heard, will be by ballot. The Official Board members will bring before the meeting the names of certain ministers and recommend that from them a choice be made. The members of the congregation present will then be called upon to exercise their ballot for possibly a first and second and third choice. It will only be necessary for the one voting to write the name of the minister of their choice, then a second and perhaps a third choice, and deposit the ballot in the box or other receptacle.
The idea of asking for a second and third choice is a safeguard against any possible chance of the first man chosen being already called elsewhere, or for any other reason he may not be able to accept. In that event the second man would be invited. By this method the congregation will eliminate holding a second meeting.
It is pointed out that persons who fail to attend will have no choice in the matter, hence a large membership is being urged by the officials to be present.
Next Sunday Rev. L. E. Atkinson, of Windermere, a native of Whitchurch Township, will preach in the evening and possibly at the morning service for which arrangements were being made as we go to press.
The eight ministers who will have been heard in connection with the call, and the order in which they were heard is:
E. A. Chester, B.A., B.D., White River
W. B. Bugden, B.A.,

FAVOR ROAD BEATS 5 MILES LONG

Government Induce Uxbridge Twp. to Enlarge Beats and Pay Yearly Salary to Supt.

A special meeting of the Uxbridge Township Council held on April 14th, was called for the purpose of enlarging the road divisions in the township and lowering the number of Road Foremen.

Mr. P. M. Higgins District Engineer of the Highway Department who has advocated the change was present with the members of Council went over a map of the Roads in the Township, and made changes giving the Road Foremen from 3 to 5 miles of road to look after as near as could be, 5 miles was the choice of Mr. Higgins, where it could be worked out.

It is considered to be better than the small divisions less foremen to be looked after, less vouchers, and fewer cheques.

It is also recommended by the Department that the Road Superintendent be engaged on a yearly salary, and that a man outside the Superintendent be engaged and trained to operate the Grader, leaving the Superintendent free to supervise the work going on.

A by-law is likely to be passed at next regular meeting of Council fixing the yearly salary of the Road Superintendent.

There were formerly 40 Road Divisions, in the Twp., but after the revision 25

"HIDDEN HARVEST" DRAWS CROWDS

Free shows are naturally popular events, and the talking picture "Better Farms in Canada" shown in Ratcliff's Hall on Wednesday last week, drew a capacity house. Although every business place in town was closed, Main street and the side streets were crowded with cars and parking space was at a premium. In fact the cars exceeded many a Saturday night jam. The picture was sponsored by Stiver Bros., grain dealers, and no charge whatever was made to see the show which was primarily of an educational nature.
