DEATH CLAIMS AGED RESIDENT

The death of Mrs. Hiram Winterstein, occurred on Saturday, at Grace Hospital, Windsor, in which city Mrs. Winterstein had lived the past few years. She was 75 years of age. The body is now resting at the undertaking parlors of L. E. O'Neill, Stouffville, awaiting the arrival of her only son and offspring, Percy E. Winterstein, who had been wintering in Florida. Immediately on notification of his mother's demise, he left Miami with his wife to make the long truck back to Canadian soil, and is expected to be in Stouffville next Saturday when the funeral will be held Saturday afternoon at 2:30. Interment Stouffville Cemetery. Born in the Township of Kings, Mrs. Winterstein's maiden name was Arvilla Hughes. After her marriage to Hiram Winterstein the couple farmed for many years in the Twp. of Whitchurch, finally retiring on a small place just north of the town on the 9th concession. A few years ago they decided to move to the U.S.A. to be with their only son Percy, but at that time the strict regulations at the border prevented their entry to that country, and they took up their home at the border in Windsor, a few hours motor drive from their son's home at Royal Oak, Michigan. Mr. Winterstein died in Windsor about two years ago.

A brother of Mrs. Winterstein died in Toronto recently, and a surviving sister is Mrs. Frank Gray, of Toronto. Deceased was highly respected in the district and had many warm friends and admirers here.

John McEwen, united in marriage Verda Esther, only daughter of Mrs. Gayman and the late Mr. Gayman, and Clayton Arnold Morton, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Morton, Thornhill.

During the ceremony, the bride party stood under a canopy of white streamers and a white bell, before a bank of flowering plants and ferns. The bride, who entered on the arm of her uncle, Mr. J. Mr. Warder, one time Mennonite pastor at Stouffville, became the bride of Harry Stover, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Stover, of Stouffville. (Rev. W. B. Moyer performed the ceremony and Mrs. Irwin Warder played the wedding march. During the signing of the register, Mrs. Eldon Smith, sang "Because.") Given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Theodore Warder, the bride looked lovely in a white satin gown fashioned on simple lines with long light sleeves coming to points over the hands, high cowl neckline, and slight train. Her tulle veil was caught at the back of her head with wide pleats and a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried red roses and white sweet peas. Miss Laura Warder, sister of the bride, attended as bridesmaid, frocked in Capri blue chiffon and wearing a bandeau of peach-colored flowers in her hair. She carried Johanna Hill roses. COOPER BROTHERS CIRCUS

The circus is coming. There is news for you! Cooper Brothers Trained Animal Circus will bring their circus and wild west offering to entertain this community, on Tuesday, May 26, with performances afternoon and evening. The circus will occupy the grounds south of Lintner & Griffith Blacksmith Shop, and will spread happiness for old and young in the way happiness comes only on circus days, in the circus atmosphere and in the enchanting thrall of this universally enjoyed style of amusement. In addition to the regular circus, the side-show and the many enjoyable features common to circuses, there will be displays of horsemanship and dare-devil riding by skilled masters of the rein, sur and saddle.

And speaking of horses—there is "Pewee," with Cooper Brothers circus, and "Pewee" is a horse worth going miles to see. Here is a perfectly formed equine, standing 26 inches high and weighing only 40 lbs. mouse colored, sleek, healthy and as perfect as horse can be formed. Imagine the joy of the youngsters to see this tiny animal; guess if you can how every body and girl will thrill with the imagination of owning, riding and petting "Pewee," their tiny friend.

The menagerie with Cooper Bros. circus is the pride of the show. From all climes have been assembled beasts and birds; skilled trainers have "broken" some of them to do amazing tricks and stunts. Acrobats and athletes, men and women of skill and poise, on horseback or swinging in the air; funny clowns to make old and young forget themselves in spontaneous laughter; dogs, ponies and domestic animals doing cute and almost unbelievable tricks—everything to amuse and delight old and young is promised in the program of entertainment Cooper's shows will bring to town.

Byer on the old homestead, proceeded to the Wideman cemetery for interment.

Peter was twice married, his first wife being Jane Herrington. To them six of a family survive, being Mrs. Alex Reesor and Mrs. Frank Hall, Toronto; Dr. R.A. Byer, Woodville; J. L. Byer, Markham, Peter Byer, Winnipeg; Nelson W. Byer, Stouffville. By the second marriage one son Walter survives.

EX-STAGE FIGURE TOM MARKS DEAD

Smoked His Big Cigar and Drew Gales of Laughter

A familiar figure on the stage of practically every opera house in Canada in bygone days, Tom Marks, who started his theatrical career in the early 1870's, is dead. He was the father of Ernie Marks, of Oshawa, who sponsored a number of shows in Stouffville of very recent times.

Born southwest of Ottawa, 81 years ago, Tom Marks is said to have got his start with the "Buffalo Bill" company, later joining a stock company owned by his brother, R. W. Marks. This company, under the name of Marks Brothers, toured Canada producing old-fashioned melodramas.

Tom Marks is displaced now by the Chaplins Beerys and Fields of the modern screen, but in many a small town he will be remembered.

There, they can't think of Tom Marks without linking him with Jiggs of the comic sheets. Before the crude scenery in many an oil-lit town hall, he smoked his thick cigar and drew gales of laughter from people whose one diversion was his annual visit.

Moving pictures and radio were practically non-existent and anyway the rural roads were terrible.

He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. James Perrin, Chicago; four brothers, R. W. Joseph, E. C. of Christy's Lake, Ernest of Oshawa and John of British Columbia. His wife, the former Ella Maud Broken-shire, of Wingham, died five years ago.
