For the five months ending March 31, the city of Oshawa received only $449.08 as their share of the take-off from the sale of booze sold in that period. This government rebate is 20 per cent of the profits, but it indicates that the frothy suds are not foaming very freely in the Ontario County city.

George H. Noble, resident of this village 40 years ago, became a permanent resident again this month when he returned to live with his son Bert Noble, manager of the Waste Paper Co. Mr. Noble was employed here as a tailor with the late John Bray, and after that he was employed by F. E. Rae.

One of the town brush artists, Massey Mowder, accompanied the furniture dealer Tim O'Neill on a fishing trip to the north country in the Timiskaming district which is on the Quebec border, and the very spot where Mr. O'Neill a year ago made a wonderful catch. This time, however, the beautiful pink salmon were not keen for the Stouffville bait, and the catch wasn't so large as the sportsmen had hoped for—at that it wasn't disappointing.

The Goodall Co. will shortly commence operations here, moving their entire business from Toronto as previously announced in this paper.

Born in Stouffville 82 years ago, Maria Fleury, widow of the late G. W. Reesor, died at the Brierbush Hospital, on Thursday, June 11, following three weeks illness. For years she had resided in Markham village, and it was a co-incidence that she should come back to her native village to leave this mortal life which she took on here so many years ago. Mrs. Reesor was highly respected, but as she had said her most intimate friends had gone on before. She is survived by two daughters in the U.S.A. and one son also living over the line in Detroit. A member of a well known Stouffville family of half a century ago, two brothers still survive here, being S. C. Fleury, of Wellwyn, Sask and Milton Fleury, of Aurora. Interment was in Grace church cemetery, Markham, on June 13, following a service conducted at her late home in Markham village.

The Thomsons are prominent cattle raisers in Bruce and Grey, and Melville is a chip off the old block. With his bride he will take up farming at Desboro.

The season may be regarded as backward, but on June 10, we looked over our potato patch at Theo. Madill's, Main street, on the old Hand property, where part of the patch was in blossom. It looks like new potatoes by July 12th all right, and that is regarded as early enough for most of us.

Editor of the Dutton Advance until his son took over the paper, Mr. M. S. Smith, is here from Elgin County accompanied by his wife, visiting their daughter, Mrs. Ed. Williams just south of town. Mr. Smith learned the printing in the office of the Markham Economist with the father of the late R. J. Corson. Prize for highest standing in Miss Maxwell's Junior Religious Knowledge Class, also went to our local young lady who has just completed her first year college course at Whitby.

BISHOP FLINT TO LOCATE IN FLORIDA

Charles Flint, who for fourteen years has been Chancellor of Syracuse University was elected a Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church by the General Conference in session at Columbus, Ohio, last month as previously reported in this paper.

This came as a surprise to him and to the University, which in the past fourteen years has increased its net permanent resources from 8 1/2 millions to 12 1/2 millions and now has a yearly budget of over $2,000,000 with about 7000 students and 600 faculty.

The University is breaking ground this month for two new buildings, one costing $325,000 and the other $500,000.

"Charlie" told his friends he preferred to stay at Syracuse, but yielded to a sudden and decisive sweep of votes into the Episcopacy, as a call of the church to this new field of work.

While with the other Bishops, his activities through the various Boards, will be nation-wide, his residence will be at Atlanta Georgia, and he will have immediate supervision of Georgia, South Carolina and Florida, spending four months each year in Florida. This area is regarded as strategic importance in the view of the working out of union with the Methodist Episcopal Church South, during the next four years.

In the New York Christian Advocate of June 11 was the news item: "Bishop Charles Wesley Flint's first official act as bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church was the ordination as Elder on Friday, May 29, of his son, the Rev. George Yetter Flint, who graduates next month from the Yale Divinity School. The ordination took place at the New York East Conference session, of which Bishop Flint was for several years a member."

"Bishop" Flint will be also "Chancellor" Flint during the summer while closing up his work at Syracuse; he will move to Atlanta Ga. in the fall.

He is also Charlie Flint to relatives and friends in his native Stouffville, where he finished his public school education in 1890 or 1891, and Markham High School in 1895.

The regular monthly meeting of the W.C.T.U. will be held in the Baptist Church, on Thursday, June 18, at 3 o'clock. A report will be given from the recent convention at Newmarket. Good program expected.

COMMUNISM ROBS US OF RELIGIOUS AND PERSONAL FREEDOM

Rev. Andrew Johnson, Kentucky evangelist, addressed a good sized audience in Ratcliff's Hall, Saturday evening, on the subject of Communism. Mr. Morgan Baker, M.P.P. acted as chairman, and made a brief address, which the evangelist said was right in accord with his views.

The speaker of the evening who is conducting special evangelistic meetings at Pike's Peak rounded out his denunciation of Communism when he summarized thus:

"I condemn Communism for the following reasons:

1. It robs the individual of all personal, political and religious freedom.
 2. It destroys all personal initiative.
 3. In its denial of the sacred right of the private ownership of property it destroyed the proper incentive.
 4. It uses force and violence instead of reason in putting its program into effect. It rules by fear.
 5. It arrays class against class—contending for the rulership of the proletariat over the citizen.
 6. It attempts to change human nature by a mere social system. No system of government will turn a bad man into a good man. Communism furnishes no effective cure for fallen humanity.
 7. It uses all kinds of deception in propagating Karl Marks' social policies. It cries peace, peace, and at the same time unfurls the Red Flag of War.
- The six abominations of Communism as taught by Karl Marks he said are these:
1. The abolition of government.
 2. The abolition of the right of the private ownership of property.
 3. The abolition of inheritance.
 4. The abolition of the home and the communal education of children.
 5. The abolition of patriotism.
 6. The abolition of God and all religion.

STOUFFVILLE LOSES TO SUNDERLAND IN THE 10th

On Wednesday last Stouffville went down to a not inglorious defeat at the hands of last year's provincial baseball champions, Sunderland, by the score of 6-5. The winning run came to Sunderland after two were out in a ten innings battle.

The locals held a two run lead until the fourth when Sunderland made good use of a triple and a walk to chalk up one run. Stouffville scored one in the first on a hit by R. Button and in the third on hits by Hodgins and Button and a walk to M. Reesor. Hodgins on the mound for the home club wavered in the fifth when Sunderland managed to bang home five runs, Anderson, Brandon, Kitchen and Clay doing the slugging. Manager O'Neill at once made a shake-up in the line-up; Clark went to the mound, Cook to catch, Pennock to 1st. In the seventh after two were out, D. Hodgins managed to reach first on an error, M. Reesor got his second walk and B. Clark hit safe to bring in the third run for Stouffville making the score 5-3. With Clark holding the northern batters well in check the boys put forth all they had to tie the score and were rewarded in the ninth when hits by Hodgins and Cook, a walk to Pennock, coupled with two errors brought the game to a five-all tie. Going into the tenth innings Hood and Cochrane struck out, Hodgins got his third hit of the game, but Reesor went out at first to retire the side, with two out and a man on second in the last half of the tenth Cook made a bad overthrow in attempting to catch the runner advancing to third and thus ended the day Sunderland 6, Stouffville 5.

Hodgins in his six innings allowed seven hits, struck out two, and gave out two walks. Clark in four innings allowed two hits, struck out two and gave no walks; Junkin and Starr did the twirling for Sunderland.

NIGHT BASEBALL

President Clifford Oakley and General Manager Arthur H. Leman have decided to confine all week-day contests to night baseball games, thus meeting the demands of all Ontario baseball fans. Saturday and holiday games will be played as day games and also the odd contest, during the week-days, will be played in the daytime when it is necessary for both teams to catch early train for scheduled games elsewhere.

The first of the big night baseball summer program, at the Maple Leaf Stadium on Fleet Street, Toronto, gets underway on Friday evening, June 19, with the popular Montreal Royals as opposition for the Leafs.

Then comes the big night, being staged by the Boosters Club and the Native Sons of Canada, in honor of "Tim" Daly, who is completing 25 years of faithful service as trainer of the Toronto Baseball Club.

For the benefit of friends of the Toronto Baseball Club the following list of games, with special notation of the night contests for the mid-summer-home stay up to July 1st is as follows:
