Markham and Whitechurch Milk Producers' Association Discusses Problems

Unionville, June 24 — At the meeting of the Milk Producers' Association of Markham and Whitechurch Townships, held in Markham Township Hall, Dr. L.B. Abbott, hay and pasture specialist of the American Cyanamid Company, of Vermont, U.S.A., was the speaker. He dealt in a humorous and forceful manner with pasture improvement, paid a glowing tribute to the soil of Ontario, calling the province the garden of the world in regard to productiveness of the clovers, alfalfa, alsike, red clover and timothy, as well as leguminous crops. He said that on returning home from his annual visit to Guelph Experimental Farm and contrasting the soils of the two countries he thanked God for the tariff. On this visit, he said, he had inspected a field of red clover the equal of which he had never before seen. And yet the owner said it was pretty good.

"Do you realize your heritage?" the speaker asked. Dr. Abbott gave comprehensive advice on the growing, harvesting, curing, etc., of fodder and silage. C. H. Clark, secretary of the Ontario and Toronto Association, also addressed the meeting on the problems of fertilizing pastures, herd development, lower production costs and yet maintaining prices sufficiently high to make dairy farming profitable. Obviating the handicap of highest production during a period of least demand in the cities and lower production in the peak demand months are problems yet to be solved, he said.

H. R. Hare discussed methods of ascertaining cost of production and distributed account books for tabulating expenses, etc.

W. M. Cockburn also addressed the meeting. Herman Kidd presided.

Goodwood

Toronto Flashes

Hello folks—Here we are again—Summer has arrived and we are still looking for warm weather and if it were not for the June weddings taking place we would still think it was spring. Anyway rain or shine we have to be satisfied. Word comes from the West also Southern States that the Tribune paper is looked for weekly, and the scribe is told that the correspondent at Goodwood certainly is letting them know of the happenings at the old home village. Now, I think we should congratulate him for his work. Every person at times likes to think of home and the old home village. Today friends our minds are of Goodwood. When we read of the passing away of one more of our respected mothers, Mrs. John Maye in her 83rd year. Yes we remember her, and also her sons and daughters. To them, the Scribe and city friends send sympathy.

Mrs. Harry Reid, of Isabella, Manitoba who was the youngest daughter of the late Wm. Stewart, of Stouffville left for her home in the West last Friday. Mrs. Reid came East for the funeral of her father who passed away a few weeks ago. Of late Mrs. Reid had been calling on old acquaintances. While in Toronto her nephew, Elwood McDonald, Inspector of the Bank of Commerce, took Mrs. Reid about to call on friends. Some we know personally: Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Brown, also Misses Annie, Victoria, and Bella Watson, of Sherridan Ave., Mr. McDonald is the son of Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, his mother being Miss Minnie Stewart before her marriage. This family is well known also the Misses Watson known in and around Quaker Hill. The Tribune paper each week is welcomed in these homes. So whether North or South, East or West you will come across someone who takes this paper.

Miss Minnie Lee, of Goodwood, is visiting in the City. Miss Lee enjoys coming back to see her relatives and friends as a few years ago she resided in Toronto.

Several Goodwood folks visited Newmarket on Sunday, 21st Decoration and Memorial Day.

Mrs. P. LaFraugh, of Stouffville is visiting her brother in Toronto. Mrs. LaFraugh a few years ago lived here and by the way folks, if you have forgotten who Mrs. LaFraugh was before marriage, think of Miss Martha Brown, sister of our Goodwood friend George Brown.

Word has arrived from Goodwood informing the Toronto folks that the Decoration Day Service at Goodwood Cemetery will be held on Sunday, July 12th at 3 o'clock (s.t.) Rev. Mr. Lunau a former pastor, of Goodwood will give the address with the local clergy assisting. In past years Toronto people have attended well and once more the Toronto Representative wishes each and every one to tell your friends (especially former Goodwood people) to be present.

Howard Harper looks forward to the gathering of the Harper Clan, on July 1st.

George Stewart informed us that the Decoration Day Orchestra this year would be much larger in numbers, with more violins. We are also informed that the local orchestra has a new member in the teacher's wife, Mrs. Wagg. This we are glad to know as this lady is none other than a niece of the Scribe.

Well, Well, Well—(Your sure footing) We were at the United Church S. S. Garden Party—Yes and there were people from near and far. Mr. Charles Blueman from Woodstock. By the way if you did not recognize him he was the man with a navy blue suit and grey felt hat. Well years ago his father kept store which was near our friend George Brown's home, and his mother when a girl was Miss Wagg, a sister to the late Mrs. Ed. Davis, and Mr. Blueman, like the scribe is a Goodwood farm boy, also there were people there from Belle Ewart, Toronto, Stouffville. Yes George Downswell, Ed. Davis, and L. E. O'Neill.

To Rev. George Barry and family we extend our best wishes to him in his next circuit. He is an able minister.

Goodwood Correspondent, we missed your news items last issue. No doubt he was tuning up the old fiddle for Decoration Day. Anyway he's O. K. and we will let him off this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Diston McDonald visited Mr. and Mrs. Davey on Sunday.

Miss Leggate who is well known to Goodwood folk was visited on Sunday and asked to see the Scribe who was sitting outside in the car. She told us she had just been reading the Toronto Flashes, but did not know who the writer was. After shaking hands she declared she had seen the writer at Goodwood United Church School when Mr. Blueman spoke on Mother's Day a year ago. Miss Leggate is looking the best of health and still has her white fluffy dog. She will visit Goodwood shortly.

The Correspondent was asked last Thursday night if he thought there ever would be a paved top coat on the Stouffville road to Uxbridge. Well it is to be hoped some thing will be put on over those wavy wash board ridges. While they don't look so bad in daylight see them under

ALTONA

Reserve Friday, July 17th for the W. I. Garden Party to be held at the home of David Crosier, Altona. Supper and program. A good time is expected. Come one, come all.

Miss Edna Stevenson, our public school teacher entertained the pupils and parents at a picnic on Monday afternoon.

The work of re-decorating the Glasgow church is going on, and their Sunday School is joining with Altona, until the work is completed.

About forty of the W. I. members journeyed to Kinsale, on Thursday their branch. A very sociable afternoon was spent.

The regular monthly meeting of the Altona Women's Institute will be held on Tuesday, July 7th, at the home of Mrs. H. Yake (Please note change of date.)

The programme will be in charge of Group 2 under the leadership of Miss Mary Crosier. The topic for this meeting—"The making and care of clothing and the principles of correct dressing" will be taken by Mrs. A. Wideman. The roll call is to be answered by "My Pet Proverb." There will be an exchange of household slips (poited). The motto for the month—"If you want to be happy, begin where you are." Visitors are always welcome.

The oat crop in Ontario occupies a much larger area than any other cereal. Production for 1935 is estimated at 2,376,700 acres, yielding 85,561,000 bushels, which is an increase of 4,035,000 over 1934. Quality was below average due to rapid maturity. The acreage of oats for the past five years has averaged considerably less than it was for the period 1920 to 1925, when a peak of over 3,000,000 acres was reached. The oat crop is one of the good reliable cereals and the acreage for 1936 should be at least equal to that of 1935.

the strong head lights at night. You will surely see them and you certainly won't forget them after riding for a few miles. Here's hoping something will be done soon.

And now Mr. Nolan the Editor of the newsy Stouffville newspaper. The writer asks you to put a large red circle around the date, Sunday, July 12th, so as to meet the Toronto Scribe at Goodwood at 3 p.m. If you meet such former Goodwood residents such as Geo. Downswell, Ed. Davis, Wm. Ball, Ed. Davey, Alex. Scott, Alf Pugh, also their wives. Yes don't forget the ladies, Mrs. Fred. Button, Mrs. McCullough, Mrs. Watson, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Crosby, Mrs. John Lee, Miss Gertrude Todd, Miss Harper, Elsie Johnston, and so many more. Just tell them Goodwood awaits their return.

The L.O.L. here will be visited by Victoria Corners and other lodges on July 7th with entertainment, addresses and presentations.

Goodwood was a lively place Saturday night as a game of football was underway between the locals and Claremont with a no score.

Rev. George Barry and family after 5 years pastorate here left Tuesday for their new charge at Walter's Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Reid of Bracebridge, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Reid and son Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Reid and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Oalen, of Toronto, were guests at J. F. Reid's on Sunday.

Instead of the everlasting overcrowding of public schools such as we read of in the city areas, Goodwood trustees have been alarmed lest their grant be cut because of dwindling school enrolment. The number on the roll for the term just closed is only 44, and there are two teachers but the principal, Mr. Kidd taught fifth form work. The Junior Teacher had only 14 pupils. The rumor that a teacher is being dropped is not correct. Said Trustee Distin McDonald: "We have decided to continue with two teachers for another school year at least."

Copy for the printed program to be used at the Goodwood Cemetery Decoration service on July 12, is in the hands of the printer. Rev. A. E. Lunau will deliver the main address and other ministers will assist, also Goodwood orchestra will participate. There will be a printed program for all who attend, with the hymns to be sung printed.
