NEW MAIL ROUTE OPENED THIS WEEK

Will Serve 105 Box Holders Between Stouffville and Musselman's Lake

On Monday a new rural mail delivery started from Stouffville, serving a section through the south end of Whitechurch Township heretofore unserved by daily service.

The contractor or courier, Mr. Lloyd Moyer was notified by the P.O. Inspector on Saturday to tune up his bus and be ready for business after waiting for a couple of months since he obtained the job.

The new route will be known as No 2 and extends over 17 1/2 miles serving 105 box holders, of which over 80 now have boxes placed.

Proceeding up the 10th of Whitechurch, the route crosses to the 9th at the lake, thence back to Bloomington and across to the 8th, thence over Tarr's sideroad, across the 7th and down to Bloomington sideroad, across to the 8th and down to sideroad above Ringwood and over to the 9th.

Boxholders are urged that they are required to have their names on the mail box. This not only applies to the new route but to all other routes. While it is a postal regulation it should also be a matter of pride, and consideration for public convenience. The farmer is a business man and a city or town business place which failed to place the name of the concern at the front would be looked upon as a poor place to shop. The farmer is in much similar light in this matter as many another business.

If the hours are strictly adhered to during August no further curtailment is anticipated, but the regulations governing the use of hose must be observed during August to ensure ample supply for all.

ROAD CONDITIONS ARE INTOLERABLE

The roadway from Ballantrae circling Musselman's Lake is described as intolerable by President Evans of the Ratepayers' Association, and a concerted effort is on foot to have a hard top built from Ballantrae around the south side of the lake and back to Ballantrae by the north shore and sideroad. It is pointed out by the Association and other residents that three or four hundred dollars is spent every year for oil, plus a large outlay for roadwork, but in spite of all this the road is worse than the "rocky road to Dublin."

A petition may be circulated, but in any event the ratepayers are taking the matter up, and will request the Whitechurch Township Council to do something. It is proposed that the municipal, provincial and dominion authorities link together in bearing the cost of this piece of road, approximately 3 1/2 miles around. The ratepayers about the lake, according to Mr. Evans are willing to bear their share of the cost, and with this offer they intend to dangle the matter before the authorities. The road is impossible so long as it remains a gravel top, but Mr. Evans commended the members of the council for their effort in doing what they could to keep the road in repair.

From Musselman's Lake to Stouffville via the 9th concession is equally difficult to maintain owing to the heavy traffic, and here again something of a permanent nature would be a paying proposition. The argument against a hard top surface for the 9th, is that the traffic can travel along the 8th, but the residents on the 9th do not see it that way.

BETHESDA

Miss Helen Atkinson was the Sunday guest of Miss Reta McIntyre

Mr. and Mrs. Russel Hunt, Wm. and Harry had tea, Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Shaffer.

A carload of young folk from here motored to Kitchener, for the weekend, where they attended the last few meetings of the Kitchener Camp.

In spite of the threatening weather there was a large crowd at the Institute picnic last Thursday. Everyone took part in the races and contests planned by the Stouffville girls.

We hear quite a number of the prizes were won by the Bethesda group. About five o'clock the folks sat down to a picnic lunch provided by Bethesda girls. This was very much enjoyed by all in spite of the flies and raindrops.

We are beginning to think our boys should have got together a little offenser with their balls and bats. They met the sixth line last Friday night and had — shall I say a tough battle. Were you there? Not among that big crowd who cheered for our home team? Oh well, they didn't need much help we knew that when we saw the score card. We will have a bit of sympathy for our boys and reduce it a bit. We will say it was about—30 to 3 in favour of the little boys of the Sixth Line team.

Miss Fern Young, public school teacher at Port Colborne is visiting her sister Mrs. S. H. Foote on the 6th concession.

JUNIOR FARMERS' PICNIC

Camp fire and program in the evening. All girls are asked to bring their picnic lunch or pay a fine. Everybody welcome. Come and enjoy a good time.

SECOND APPEAL TO ASSESS HOSTEL ALSO FAILED

TOWNSHIP LOSES TAX APPEAL

A decision was handed out this week in the appeal for tax exemption on the Toronto Men's Hostel farm at Vandorf against the Township of Whitechurch, granting full exemption to the Hostel which had been tax free for years, but which was assessed this spring by the local assessor.

In his decision, His Honor Judge Barton stated, that he could not find any change in the Act since the Late Judge Widdifield rendered a judgment on an appeal three-years ago, and which was found at the time to be tax free under section 9, sub section 4 of the assessment Act.

It was pointed out before the appeal court that the farm rents for $600 per year for around 300 acres, and it was contended that a lower rental would obtain if the tenant had taxes to pay, therefore it was sought to show that the Vanostrand estate owner of the property, benefits from the tax exemption, and not the Toronto Men's Hostel.

His Honor, however, was influenced by the strict wording of the assessment act exempting all philanthropic institutions from local taxes, and accordingly rendered judgment. Mr. Harry Naughton acted as legal representative for Whitechurch.

The appeal of the Marylake Agricultural School and Farm Settlement in King was equally successful, in a written judgment handed down in County Court, which ruled that it be non-assessable for taxation by the Township of King. The appellant, in the appeal, stated that it was a non-profit organization under the provision of the Ontario Companies' Act and the object of the institution was to re-establish families of persons as self supporting economic units and to provide instruction in farming.

Everybody is looking forward to the evening of Aug. 12, when the Women's Institute are holding an ice cream social on the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Tindall, when Pete the Mountain Boy and Tony Comedian, of Toronto, will give the program.

TO SHOW, OR NOT TO SHOW?

Proposal Advanced to Cancel Big Annual Show of Flowers and Vegetables

Owing to the condition of many gardens the idea has been expressed in some quarters that the annual two-day Flower Show planned for August 27 and 28 should be cancelled. In order to put this matter to a vote of the membership of the local society an open-meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. B. Dote at 7:30 on Thursday evening, July 30th. "If you have any definite feelings on the matter or an alternative plan to suggest, please make a special effort to attend this meeting," says president H. O. Klinck.

Mrs. S. B. Lehman, of Almira, visited her daughter, Mrs. J. Gayman on Tuesday.

Mrs. Wilmot Lager and son Ellis of Owen Sound, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Lager, Church Street, one day last week.

Mrs. Dougherty and daughter Patsy are here from Buffalo visiting her father Mr. M. T. Leavens, and brother, Postmaster Leavens.

Saturday is the first day of August, and is just one month from the time taxes become due in Stouffville—Sept. 1st. Sometime this month ratepayers will be handed that reminder which indicates what they have to pay. The rate is slightly advanced, but will amount to very small increase on the ordinary tax bill.

SAW THE QUINTS
A party of local ladies while on an extended motor trip in Northern Ontario last week, called at Callender and had a peep at the famous five babies. The local party included Mrs. T. Birkett, Mrs. Clay Baker, Miss Jean Collard and Miss Doris Ross.

HIGHEST HORSE $165
Horses sold up to $165 a head at the public auction sale held at the stock yards on Saturday by Harry Paisley and Jack O'Boyle, who had gathered together 30 head, including animals from Western Canada, and some other choice Ontario farm horses. There was fair bidding on all classes excepting perhaps the 2-year-olds from the West. Even in this lot there was some most promising young things and since the sale the owners are offering the farmers good trade-ins for aged horses or other stock, and several sales have been made on this basis. Sixteen animals were sold in the ring and several sales were completed later and the owners expressed their satisfaction with the sale and the response from the general public whom they declared they wanted to satisfy and give a fair deal.

Auctioneer A. S. Farmer worked hard to keep up the lively interest in the sale that was manifest throughout the afternoon.

When Ford's tin tizzle were receiving free advertising that greatly increased their sales one of the jokes was that when one Ford car was seen following another anybody could tell the time: "It was tin after tin." With a baby boy following the quint in the Dionne home it is said when Oliva and Elzire are asked the time they invariably say in broken English, "One after five."

INNISFIL TWP. REPORTS A CASH SHORTAGE

The number of rural municipalities to encounter difficulties in the last few years over incompetent manner in handling public funds steadily mount. The Township of Innisfil lying between Barrie and Bradford is the latest to make a public disclosure of mismanagement.

With an auditor's report before them drawing attention to a shortage of $3,115.58 members of Innisfil Township Council on Monday in session at Churchill, appointed Reeve Charles Henry and Deputy Reeve O. R. Todd a committee to deal with the matter.

The motion authorized the committee to arrange a meeting with the township solicitor "to further consider the adoption of the chartered accountant's report, and to also arrange to meet those concerned at a special meeting." The date of the special meeting was not specified.

The auditors, Messrs Welch, Anderson and Co. after six month special investigation of the township's books, reported that the sum of $2,991.23 had been collected in taxes by township officials and not paid by the township.

Because of the increasing number of rural municipalities "going wrong" a drastic tightening up on the methods employed in bookkeeping and the general conduct of municipal affairs is being forced by the Ontario Dept. of Municipal Affairs. While it calls for much more work and therefore added expense, it is believed to be a necessary step in the interest of the general tax payer.

CREAM STILL ON THE UP!

The Stouffville Creamery are now paying for special grade cream 27c, first grade 25c, second grade 23c, delivered at the Creamery.

CROP CONDITIONS

Representative Cockburn Advises Planting Of Kale, Rape, Rye

Rain, falling generously Wednesday night and Thursday morning last week was music in the ears of farmers.

The rain gave farmers of this district their first break in more than a month.

With normal weather for the rest of the summer, farmers have a real chance to get considerably better than half a crop. Some farmers will still be hard hit. Others will escape lightly.

Only six out of 22 wheat crops grown by members of the Belhaven grain club, judged last week by W. M. Cockburn, York county agricultural representative, were up to average.

"Wheat is rusted badly, but it is pretty well filled out before it rusts," Mr. Cockburn reports.

"The cool weather is helping the farmers a bit," Mr. Cockburn said. "Crops sown early on well prepared land have come through well. Crops on spring plowing are next thing to a loss."

"Late potatoes should do all right, although some varieties take the heat better than others."

"The corn is good. How it is doing so well in spite of the lack of moisture is a mystery to most people."

"If the weather stays like this, farmers will be wise to turn cattle into the late grain. Some of the grain is not going to be worth cutting. They might as well use it as pasture while it is good pasture. Some farmers have already done so. It will save them from drawing on next winter's feed supply."

"If we get more rain the farmers would be well advised to sow rape, kale or sudan grass or fall rye for pasture this fall. Kale and rape make a very satisfactory pasture for young stock, but are not satisfactory for dairy cattle. Rye can be used for pasture this fall and it will still make a crop next year."

OUR NEIGHBOR TAKES A HOLIDAY

Our contemporary, The Markham Economist, is taking this week off from issuing a newspaper, and during the interval the entire staff is expected to "get their wind" in fitness for another year's grind. The general manager Mr. Jack Whetter is now on the high seas returning from a holiday in England. Jack is a privileged member of the Fourth Estate as most newspaper men cannot take time off to go fishing on the nearest frog pond.

The next issue of the Markham Economist will come out on August 6th.

Ed. Wurm, the genial bailiff from Markham village, is likely to stage something of a "man hunt" in Stouffville, that is, provided there is any demand for cars of ancient vintage.

The limb of the law has advertised for bailiff sale on August 4, one Durant car to be sold in Stouffville. If the indefinite announcement is intended to create interest as to what section of the town the sale will be held, there is method in the ways of the bailiff. Perhaps it is only an oversight.
