Huron Indians predict snow two feet deep by December 1st. They cite 16 reasons to back up their contention.

The sale of standing timber wood lots on Friday of this week on the property of James Brodie at New Gormley will undoubtedly draw a large crowd. The bush is located on the south side of the townline opposite the former George-Collard farm, and is easily accessible from the road. Ten acres will be sold by auction.

Last Thursday the Edmonton Journal features the late R. J. Daley who was buried here on Monday as one of the largest ranch owners in Alberta. His Rosedale ranch at Camrose composed more than 3,000 acres while he held at one time extensive holdings at Bittern Lake. These lands he improved and builded on, thus was our native citizen a builder-up in the land of his adoption, as he was in his native home.

Mission Bands of the Presbyterian Churches of Markham, Agincourt and Scarborough met in St. James Presbyterian Church, Stouffville, Saturday afternoon, Oct. 17th. the Findlay OVAL —heats while it cooks and cooks while it heats—performing its double duty efficiently and economically. It's the true oval firepot—not an ordinary firebox with rounded corners—that makes this extra service possible. The Oval is designed for either wood or coal—or both—and is easily adapted for deep or shallow fire which makes it a quick baker and efficient heater. Its modern appearance and attractive lines and finish make it a perfect piece of furniture for any home. Three sizes to fit varying requirements. Two finishes—standard, and illustrated, and full porcelain. Note these features:

Oval firebox, with cast iron linings in upper section and fire brick below. Firebox for wood long and roomy with large end door.

Triple roller coal grate—easily removed through ashpan door.

Special wood grate with slide to retain fire overnight.

With grate in lower position large chunks of rough wood can be burned.

Perfectly controlled oven, with ample room for all baking needs.

Large reservoir with top and lid finished in black porcelain to prevent rust. Flue controlled heat in the two larger sizes.

We shall gladly send you without obligation descriptive literature, or give you a demonstration.

BRATHWAITE HARDWARE
Stouffville, Ontario.

A petition has been going the rounds of Main street asking that Gordon Lehman be appointed Game Warden for York County.

Mr. Henry Brillinger and Mr. T. C. Gostick, Stouffville, accompanied Rev. P. D. Augustine of Claremont to Montreal last week where they attended the annual Raptist convention for Ontario.

So far as our observations go, all public school teachers enjoy the time off from school duties to attend the annual Teachers' Convention and we have yet to hear a complaint from the children. The convention this year was held last week.

Our local C.N.R. agent H. B. Preston was called to Frankfort the other day owing to the death of his aged mother who died in her 86th year. During his absence Mr. Preston's position is being filled by Mr. F. J. Bradley of Belleville who is rapidly making friends in town.

The town of Newmarket is asking for the establishment of a police court there, on the ground that over 1200 cases were tried in nine months which arose north of Richmond Hill. The Hill also wants a court established there, and as there is not business enough to go around, one of these towns or both of them are going to be disappointed.

The W.M.S. of St. James Presbyterian Church held their Thanksgiving service Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 20th, in the church. Rev. Michael Fesenko, Th.B., gave a very interesting address upon Ukrainian Mission work in Toronto. After outlining the political and cultural background of these immigrants, the speaker described their distribution in Canada and the efforts made by Protestant missionaries to counteract the influence of communistic agitators.

Remitting for his copy of The Tribune in a letter in which the writer says, "We enjoy very much the weekly news from the old home town." Mr. E. A. Quantz of Innisfail, Alberta, takes exception to a recent statement from another Albertan but which The Editor considered was made more or less in a jocular way. Mr. Quantz writes: "In your issue of Oct. 1st on front page. I note that our Alberta subscriber says, 'We Albertans are all happy, for we are expecting our basic dividend in November.' I would like to refer that subscriber to what Priscilla said to John Alden when he was proposing to her for his friend Miles Standish. She asked John why he didn't speak for himself.—Nuf said. Mr. John Ratcliff in the same issue is quoted as saying 'Mixed opinion is encountered all through Alberta on the Aberhart social credit scheme.' I am fully endorse Mr. Ratcliff's statement as being absolutely correct.

Thermometers dipped to within ten and even four points of zero early Tuesday morning in a sudden over-night change of temperature. Vegetable growers were considerably worried about the cabbage, while many lost potatoes which were not well protected. Scores of car radiators burst, where owners failed to put in anti-freeze or cover the radiator up well.

The dance held in Ratcliff's Hall last Friday evening did not draw a capacity crowd, although those who attended were loud in their praises of the fine evening enjoyed, and they are asking for another one in not too distant future. However, when those in charge paid up the expenses there wasn't the price of a ticket left over, and whether they are willing to venture again, remains to be seen.

C. M. Forsyth, of Claremont, well known to hundreds of our readers was quite seriously injured last week when he was thrown from a horse he was riding. In search of cattle which had gone astray, he was riding after dark, and was found unconscious, and could give no account of how he was thrown from the back of the horse. His condition is much improved this week.

The following officers were elected at the Canadian Girls in Training reorganization meeting held at Helen Rowbotham's last week. President—Kathleen Kellington; Secretary—Marjory Farthing; Treasurer—Thelma Atkinson; Pianists—Ruth Lehman and Gladys Stover.

This organization is undenominational and sponsors a program including missionary projects and other subjects of real interest to the girls.

One of our residents who enjoys reading statistics, especially if they are of local fact, calls our attention to the population living on Church street, as composing almost in themselves a real community so varied in their vocations in life that they are about self-sustaining. However, if they ever attempt anything like that, it will be with the same disastrous results that our Yankee cousins experienced when Uncle Sam undertook to build a wall around the U.S.A. in an attitude of "live unto ourselves" spirit. On Church street, Stouffville, the census taker would report something like this: 2 active ministers, 2 retired ministers, 3 tailors, 4 bakers, 2 truck drivers, banker, undertaker, miller, constable, 3 merchants, 2 hardware merchants, lawyer, butter maker, druggist, picture theatre proprietor, mail courier, 3 telephone operators, 2 henneries. There are 36 children living on the street, 12 widows, and 8 spinsters. We note that the foregoing incorporates corners of Church and Main street as part of Main street. Beyond the business men no record is made of the retired men and university students, unless they are included with the children. At any rate the foregoing figures presented to The Tribune, whether right or wrong, are impressive.

West End Service Station MOTORISTS BEWARE

DO IT TODAY—Don't court trouble for Jack Frost will get you in the long run.

Mr. Russel Daley, Edmonton was in town this week, having accompanied the remains of his father for burial here Monday. This is his first visit to the native village since going West over 30 years ago, and naturally the changes he sees are many.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hogg, Holt, Ontario, announce the engagement of their eldest daughter, Gladys Irene, to Mr. Wilbert Newton Day Morton, son of the Rev. and Mrs. E. E. Morton of Stouffville. The marriage will take place in Olivet Congregational Christian church, Toronto, November 14th.

Local people were entertained at a dinner party at the home of Dr. I. S. and Mrs. Clubine, Toronto, on Friday evening, including Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Clubine, Mr. and Mrs. Edgerton Clubine and family, Mr. Morgan Baker, M.P.P., and family. It was the occasion of Dr. Clubine's birthday, also that of Miss Alma Baker.

At the last regular meeting of the W.C.T.U. held in the Christian Church an excellent address on the Temperance situation was given by the Rev. L. E. Atkinson pastor of the United Church. "Every nation under the sun has some kind of monster working to destroy human life—Opium in China; Slavery in Africa, and drink in all. If put in a pile the skulls of those destroyed by strong drink would be more numerous than those destroyed by war.

Going back over the history of the Temperance Movement he referred to the monster petition presented to and granted by Sir William Hearst which gave prohibition to Ontario. Thinking they had reached their objective the Temperance people stopped their educational work while the other side began their propaganda and it was not long before Premier Ferguson put back into politics the question of beer and wine, and every effort has been made to keep it there. Since then we have had to face the monster. It is not peculiar to either party.

Here are some of the facts, 1935's liquor bill for Canada was $156,000,000 as near as can be ascertained nearly as much as the value of the whole of Canada's wheat crop, which was $158,000,000 and almost equal to the value of all the gold, nickel, and copper mined in the country. At a time when money is needed so badly, what a waste? Now it is entering into social life, more and more. The brewers are making it easier for the young people to get it. It is hard for our boys to resist its insidious temptation. In 1926 imprisonments for drunkenness were 10,278; last year there were 29,205. Drink is the reason of 90 per cent of divorce cases. Crime of all kinds is on the increase. Serious crime has increased 92 per cent. Highway accidents are going up from year to year. We have sowed the wind and are now reaping the whirlwind. Then there is the injustice of the ruling of the Liquor Board.

Markdale voted 63 per cent in favor of Local Option and yet an authority was granted. Only last month Justice Rose in spite of opposition declared Markdale dry, all honor to him. Why should Orillia be bothered by an authority at Athlety?

Local Option has done much good but things have changed since 1900 and in these days of rapid transition more is needed.

What we need is a referendum for Ontario. Just now that seems impossible, but that only means that it will take a little longer. There is slowly arising an attitude in the country demanding a vote on this question. So much is going on that is disgusting.

When he sees his boy or girl going down, the attitude of many a man is changed. We need to take a definite stand. We cannot evade the question.

Let us keep talking about it, agitate in the right way. The day must come when the monster is driven from the land. To this end we must work and we must pray, concluded the speaker.

If there were any war veterans employed in the ditching job carried on by the corporation in laying water mains in the west end one morning last week, it must have reminded them of the grim trench warfare twenty years ago. On this particular morning instead of a great German Army making life miserable, it was a small black and white animal which took the situation most coolly and held the trench to himself until one of the workmen bombarded him with stones, when he gave up his life but left something behind that was not exactly the perfume from a bed of roses. Councillor Weldon was one of the early arrivals at the scene of activities on the memorable morning, when the great find was made in a deep trench. Evidently the little animal, commonly and correctly called a skunk, had fallen in during the night and was unable to get out. Even when the Councillor and his workmen with pick and shovel gazed down on him he stood apparently undisturbed. But small as he was, no one attempted to go near him, and it was not until some ammunition was brought up that a well directed blow ended the career of something that had been a pest to the district off and on. All the men on the job agreed that they had good reason to remember the murdered skunk all that day.

ANY DAY A FISH DAY

A Message From the Premier of Ontario

Ontario's commercial fishing industry is an important factor in our industrial life. In view of this fact and the exceptional value of fish as food, it is a pleasure to direct the attention of the people of this Province to a Dominion-wide campaign to encourage greater consumption of Canadian fish.

In Ontario alone we have more than twelve varieties of food fish from which to choose, so that there should be no monotony occurring in this course of the menu.

An appeal is made to the people of this Province to promote in every way possible consumption of Canadian fish, thereby assisting in the further growth and development of an important Provincial asset, the commercial fisheries.
