REDUCED ROUND TRIP

HUNTER PASSES ON TRAIL

Wm. H. Tindall, 81, Was Deer Hunting When Death Overtook Him.

The death on Friday last of one of the eldest citizens of the district Mr. William H. Tindall while on a hunting trip in Northern Ontario, came as a tremendous shock to the family. Probably one of the oldest men to shoulder a rifle and go north, for he was in his 81st year, Mr. Tindall died on the trail, and only a few moments before was chatting brightly with his companions. He was seen to lay his arms suddenly aside and get down on the ground, but in the moment his companions stepped to his side, life was gone. A trail had to be cut for two miles in order to remove him to their camp at Gooderham, from whence he was brought to the home of his only bridge Township.

BELIEVED KILLER OF 107 SHEEP

Two Dogs Shot May Have Slaughtered Sheep and Geese in Pickering

Townline. George Byers caught the Heise, Gormley. canines at his geese after they had killed nine of the flock, and shot them in the act. The curs were of the collie and mongrel-breeds, and apparently are disowned. They had no tags on.

Since October 7 up to the day of the killing, Nov. 9, farmers have lost 107 sheep, while J. Byer lost nine geese, Chas, Bryan seven, and Chas. Gostick three, all killed by dog or dogs.

Speaking to the Tribune Mac. Forsyth, sheep valuator, said they had no actual proof that these two dogs did this killing, but they are strongly suspected as they had been sighted at various places where sheep were killed and the fact that no slaughter has taken place since the shooting of the dogs, is pretty strong evidence against them, said Mr. Forsyth.
