Councillor R. E. Brown received a complete knock-out when he encountered "Old Man Flu" early last week, and as a result has been taking an enforced vacation for about 10 days. His improvement to normal health is but slow.

Messrs. Gordon and John Quantz, also lady friend spent the weekend at the home of their parents Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Quantz. On Sunday night Gordon, who is an employee of the C.N.R., left on a trip to Delray Beach, Florida, where he intends to spend three weeks or a month on a well earned holiday.

John S. Hall of Toronto gave an illustrated lecture before the members of Stouffville Horticultural Society at their annual meeting which was largely attended in Ratcliff's Hall. A pot luck supper was enjoyed and all officers were re-elected. H. O. Klinck, president, was presented with piece of furniture in recognition of his recent marriage. Reeve Weldon acted on behalf of the society in presenting the gift.

The regular meeting of the Junior Farmers and Short Course Club will convene in the Mansion House Dining Room at 8 p.m. on Thursday, February 11. There will be a demonstration on wool work. Miss K. Houston will give a travel talk on her recent trip to Scotland. All members make an effort to attend please. Miss L. Dowsnell, secretary.

For the second time this winter the Chevrolet people have delivered their new cars to the local agency by motor truck. The huge caterpillar truck pulled into Stouffville one night last week with four cars aboard. Mr. Widdfield, local agent, says this is the safest and most economical way to make winter delivery.

A public meeting is called for Oddfellows' Hall on Friday, February 12, to discuss the possibility and advisability of re-establishing the Stouffville branch of the Loyal Orange Association. This meeting is called for 8 o'clock, and will be addressed by the provincial organizer. All Orangemen and others interested in the promotion of Protestantism are invited.

A real piece of local talent was brought to the forefront at the United Church on Sunday evening when the public worship service was taken by the Young People's Society of the Church. Miss Gladys Brooks directed the service, Miss Vira Tindall read the lesson, and Miss Lillian Dowsnell offered the evening prayer. The usual sermon was dispensed with and short talks on phases in the life of Christ were given by four young people. Miss Edna Birkett, Miss Edith Swift, Mr. Jack Pennock, also Mr. E. Knowles, of Toronto, ex-president of the Young Peoples' Union of the Toronto East Presbytery. These young speakers all excelled themselves and received rapt attention from the large congregation present. Last week the executive of the Y.P.S. of the Presbytery met at Stouffville, spending Saturday going over their executive problems, while on Sunday they attended the church services morning and evening. About 15 delegates were on hand representing territory from Dunbarton to Uxbridge.

This Friday evening (Feb. 12) all are invited to attend the euchre in the O.E.S. rooms. Prizes and social evening that will be appreciated.

A figure was missing in the newspaper report of Stouffville United Church in our last issue. It made the amount given to Missionary and Maintenance fund appear as $113, whereas the congregation paid to this fund $1,113, quite a considerable difference.

Stouffville carried off district curling honors in the first round of the Junior Tankard by defeating Unionville on Friday night by the score of 14-8. The local rink consisted of Jack Pennock, Sam Boruisky, Walter Slack and Claude Brillinger.

The continued illness of little Marguerite Grubin, following an operation for appendicitis, has given the family and friends great concern. Last week a second operation was performed, but the desired improvement has been scarcely noticeable. Mrs. Grubin left Tuesday for Toronto and will probably remain at the hospital most of the week where a special night nurse has been taken on for the child.

The death of Emma M. Jackson, widow of the late W. J. McDonald, occurred in Toronto on February 3rd. Mrs. McDonald made numerous friends in Stouffville, on the occasion of her various visits to our town as the guest of her cousin Mrs. Jas. McCullough. The sad news of her death will be received with general regret.

A few days ago Brierbush Hospital was presented with a large Areoid Barometer, by Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Baker, of Toronto, as a small appreciation for the good care received by the former's mother Mrs. August S. Baker who was a patient at this institution for nearly two years. The gift was very much appreciated by the superintendent and staff of the hospital.

The death of Edward Gleeson of Claremont occurred there last Wednesday, February 3, in his 78th year. For years he had served the territory as bailiff of the Claremont district and was widely known in his pursuits. Mr. Gleeson is survived by his wife whose maiden name was Mary Lyons. The funeral took place on Saturday from his late home for interment at the R.C. cemetery in Oshawa. Mass was celebrated at St. Francis de Sales Church in Pickering.

Residents of Bradford were startled the other day when they saw a full-grown deer running down the main street with three howling dogs in pursuit. It had escaped from the Holland Marsh. "The dogs saw the deer in an open space near the marsh and tried to run it down, but the deer was too fast," declared Game Warden George Wilson. Within the recollection of plenty of Bradford residents time was when a four-footed deer in the neighborhood would not turn nearly so many heads as the attractive 2-footer.

Stouffville Junior Hockey team has been ordered to meet the Scarborough "streaks" on the local ice here this Thursday evening to settle a disputed fixture of January 15. At that time the ice was soft and the visitors failed to put in an appearance, although the Stouffville nine took the ice and claimed the game. Their claim was disallowed by the O.H.A., thus the meeting this Thursday evening. The outcome of this clash means a great deal to the Scarborough lads who must win to retain their right to meet Aurora in the play-offs. Having more or less resented the decision of the O.H.A., the local lads intend to defeat the visitors as they did when the two teams came together on January 25. This is likely the final O.H.A. game of the season to be played here with your own boys in the limelight, and a good turnout is hoped for. Gen's 25c, ladies and children free.

As will be noticed elsewhere in this issue Col. W. P. Mulock, M.P. is endeavouring to have the village of Stouffville and Township of Markham returned to the riding of North York, and local people have deluged him with telegrams encouraging him to take such action. From time to time Markham and Stouffville have been "footballed" around by the two old parties, placing us first in one riding and then in another, but we feel that the consensus of opinion today would be overwhelming throughout these municipalities to become a part of the electoral district of North York again, rather than to remain in East York which is such a one-sided riding. In North York the element of success is open to both parties and the riding is decidedly more rural. Back exactly 50 years ago Stouffville, Pickering and Whitchurch Townships and Newmarket and Uxbridge towns were all in a riding called West Ontario for the election of 1837. Since then Stouffville and Markham have mostly been in North York, but from time to time Stouffville and Markham have been switched back and forth to suit the fortunes of the party in power.

A Bean Supper and Valentine Party under the auspices of the Band of Willing Helpers will be held in the basement of the Presbyterian Church, Wednesday, Feb. 17. Supper beginning at 6.15 p.m. Admission 20c and 10c. Everyone welcome.

Short Course Classes in York County this winter are being held in Newmarket where there is an enrolment of 53 farm girls and boys. This is a very gratifying number but it is in sharp contrast to the classes conducted at Stouffville last winter when the enrolment reached one hundred.

Perhaps it is just as well that the weather for the early part of February proved a little more like winter than that which we had enjoyed throughout January. Some folks were being lured into a false security, and more progressive fruit men were reported to be even considering replacing their old apple orchards with banana and orange trees.

Our attention has been called to an error in a statement appearing in The Tribune last week. The report said that Baxter's house in the east end of the village was once the old Free Hall. It is pointed out that the old Free Hall is now John Monkhouse's tailor shop, whereas the Baxter house stood close by the hall and served as a bake shop, conducted by Moses Hill and a man named Branton. This was more than 50 years ago.

Mr. F. J. Cassidy who succeeded his brother as Massey Harris agent in Stouffville about two years ago, has been appointed to a road position as travelling salesman for the big implement concern. A new agent will be named for Stouffville this week, and in this connection the name of D. L. Stouffer, of Ringwood is mentioned. Mr. and Mrs. Stouffer will shortly retire from the farm. Preparatory to the change the local agency is offering some specially reduced prices to clear out the stock of used implements, as announced on the back page of this issue.

"Enclosed find $2 for my Tribune renewal, which seems a small amount to pay considering the pleasure I get out of it," writes one of our subscribers living in Woodstock. Further, the subscriber whom we greatly appreciate writes: "I am in a position to see a good number of weekly papers, and I really think that The Tribune is the best. All carry a fairly good account of local happenings, but there is more to a paper than that. Often there are splendid things in the inside pages which should not be missed each week." Needless to say the publisher of The Tribune appreciates this kind of letter coming to our desk now and then.

Newspaper editors receive some puzzling things through the mail, so often of an anonymous nature and little attention is taken, but this week we are in receipt of a letter from an unknown writer who forwards the cash to pay for the insertion. We presume the paragraphs is intended for a joke, hence if its author will call around and prove his identity The Tribune will be glad to refund him or her their money for contributing the following: "What we would like to know is? What was it a certain man saw Sunday night so interesting that would cause him in the wee hours of the morning to forget where the door was and to enter by the upstairs window. It must have been he was looking high for the key hole, or else he was just a plain Romeo. Tell the rest of us married men how you get away with it Mr. ?"

The Women's Day of Prayer, Friday afternoon, February 12th, at 3 p.m., in the Baptist Church, Stouffville. All ladies of the town cordially welcome.

Mrs. J. A. Lehman was in town on Monday, she is endeavouring to sell the old home at the corner of Rupert and Albert streets, which is an attractive brick cottage.

The Stouffville Public Library Board will meet in the Library, on Thursday, February 10th, at 7:30 p.m. This is the annual meeting for the election of officers for 1937. It is important that every member be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bunker are leaving Stouffville right away to take up residence on a farm near Newmarket just west of Yonge street. Clarence will be farm manager for a city owner who intends to conduct a farm as a hobby. Charlie Alsop has rented the Mott property to be vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Bunker at the corner of Montreal and Stouffer streets.

The regular meeting of the Sr. Women's Institute, will be held at the home of Mrs. W. T. Byam, on Wednesday, February 17th, at 2:30 p.m. Motto, for afternoon—"Think only the best, work only for the best, and expect only the best." Roll call answered by a helpful word of Scripture. Paper—"Life of Stanley Baldwin," by Mrs. C. E. McLeod. Echoes from the Hand Book will be given by a member. Music and social hour. You are invited.

There has been years when the Grim Reaper has superseded the Stork in the matter of vital statistics for Stouffville, but in 1936 the Stork was several jumps ahead of the hearse. The number of births registered in the village during the year totalled 39, and deaths 28. There were 16 marriages performed which showed an increase over any period in the last five years. Of course it was leap year, but we are not implying that this made up for the difference. It is rather a coincidence though that the greatest marrying year in the last five should be leap year.

In defending salary increases to numerous county officials last week Dr. Dales of Newmarket made the remarkable statement that "some of these officials have not had an increase in fifteen years." How many other workmen have had increases in the past fifteen years. Most people have been satisfied to hold their own throughout this depression which is now lifting, and such defence put up in behalf of more money for officials who were paid very well, is amusing to many. The superintendent of the House of Refuge and his wife who were each increased one hundred dollars has not been in office for more than three or four years, and if the positions were thrown open today increased one hundred dollars have jobs at less than had heretofore been paid.

The W.M.S. of the Stouffville United Church met on Thursday, Feb. 4th, with Mrs. Thomas president, in charge. The devotional period was taken by Mrs. Herbert Lee. A splendid synopsis of the 4th Chapter of our Study Book was given by Mrs. Harris. Several of the members had the privilege of attending the Toronto East Presbyterial of the W.M.S. of the United Church from which very interesting and inspiring reports were brought to the meeting by Mrs. Harry Sanders and Mrs. Still. The Supply Committee of our W.M.S. are holding a sewing meeting Thursday afternoon in the Sunday school room. The ladies of the congregation are invited to bring print, flannelette, or any material suitable for making quilts. Pot luck supper served at 6:15. Husbands are invited.

There are rumors of one or two changes in the mercantile makeup of our Main street in the offing, but so far there are no definite details to announce, the press is informed by the interested parties. Prospects are, however, that shortly Stouffville is to have a Ten-to-a-Dollar Store, and in fact the only obstacle in the way of such a store being established here before, is the lack of store accommodation. It now appears that with some contemplated changes in the near future there will be an opening. The reception such a store would receive at the hands of other merchants here is varied. Some of our merchants say it will add that necessary "pep" to Main street which they say is lacking, while another merchant said that while he was in a line that would receive added opposition, an up-to-date Five-to-a-Dollar Store would bring more people to Stouffville and the place would be more widely patronized as a live business centre that it is today. Reeve Weldon said he would welcome any improvement that such a store might bring to Main street, and thus the matter stands until more definite details can be handed the public.

Try This Appetizing Recipe
BAKED CREAM SALMON
1 1/2-lb. can Canadian salmon
2 pint milk
Salt and pepper
2 tbsps. butter
2 tbsps. flour
Grated onion

Free the salmon from bones and separate into bits. Cook the flour and butter together without browning, and add one pint of milk, salt and pepper and enough grated onion to flavour delicately. Place a layer of sauce in a baking dish, then a layer of fish and so on, having sauce on top. Bake to a golden brown and serve very hot.

SARDINES LYONNAISE
Chop together cold boiled potatoes, one small onion, the contents of one tin of Canadian sardines (drained), fry with butter or beef fat until browned and serve with parsley.

ANY DAY A FISH DAY

CLAREMONT

A highly respected resident in the person of Miss Jennie Forgie, passed to her rest on Tuesday afternoon, February 26th, following a brief illness from heart trouble. Deceased had been in her usual health until a few days before her passing and her death came as a great shock to a wide circle of friends. Born on the Town Line north of Claremont, Miss Forgie was a daughter of the late John Forgie and Barbara Duncan, natives of Aberdeenshire, Scotland, who settled at Cherrywood, Pickering Township in 1855, coming to Claremont later. She had lived here all her life with the exception of a few years spent as dietitian in Toronto, and in Philadelphia, Penna. She was a woman who put others before self and always took pleasure in doing deeds of kindness. She was a member of the Presbyterian and later of the United Church and a zealous worker in all the women's organizations, being a Life Member of the W.M.S. During the past eleven years she had been church treasurer and had never missed a meeting of the Board of Stewards of which she was a member for eight years being one of the first women elected to that office. Surviving are two brothers and four sisters, namely: William of Mt. Forest and John, of Dunbarton, and Mrs. T. Neal (Isabella); Mrs. R. H. Carson (Barbara) and Miss

Anne, of Claremont and Mrs. H. J. Stephens (E. Agnes) of Thedford. One sister, Mrs. G. Hargrave and one brother, James predeceased her a number of years ago. The funeral was held from her late residence on Friday afternoon, when a private service was conducted at her home, followed by service in the United Church, in charge of her pastor, Rev. J. E. Glover, B.A., assisted by Rev. P. D. Augustine, of the Baptist Church, and Rev. E. M. Burgess, of Dunbarton. Two passages of Scripture were selected for the funeral discourse: "She Hath Done What She Could" and "A Good Soldier" and appropriate expression given to her exemplary Christian character as witnessed in the home, the church and the community. Interment was made in the Claremont Union Cemetery. The beautiful floral tributes from relatives and friends and the various church organizations bore silent testimony to her sterling worth.
