Mrs. Wm. Asling who is slowly recovering from quite a severe illness is still in a nursing home in Markham village. Friends in Stouffville will be glad to learn of her early complete recovery.

Stouffville Veterans—A meeting of the Veterans will be held on Monday, June 6, at 8 p.m., in the Municipal Hall. All veterans are asked to attend, as this is the annual meeting and election of officers will be held. O. Lehman, President, B. Lickorish, Secretary.

Painters and decorators in Stouffville have experienced one of the busiest seasons in a long time, all of which indicates that the American "slump" hasn't reached the local district, and that the determination to keep their home premises looking spick and span is well carried out.

Saturday night crowds in Stouffville are growing to such proportions that some day additional parking space will have to be provided. For our part we hope the crowds keep increasing even if the traffic cop is worried half to death. Where there is a crowd there is money, just as sure as where there is smoke there is fire. Consequently, the more people who come here the better for our merchants, and our town in general, even though the traffic and parking problem may be increased.

Every Saturday afternoon and evening a social hour may be spent at the "Brown Betty Tea Rooms" where Mrs. Hayball, expert tea cup reader will tell you the fortunes of your cup, over a delightful tea table. Tea and reading 25c.

You'll spend a lot of time in sport trousers this summer if you want to be in the fashion swim. A full line of these smart trousers, celanese, flannel, etc., at F. E. Rae's Tailor Shop.

Among our long-distance subscriptions received last week was a remittance from Mrs. D. Yake of Cappon, Sask. The Yake home in the west has had The Tribune read in it for many many years.

Mrs. Wellington Bennett, 8th Concession Markham, who has been in the Wellesley Hospital for eight weeks is still very ill. We learn from friends who have visited the hospital recently.

Earl Cook who was struck down by a ball in practice, while playing in Toronto for Syracuse a week ago, has returned to his American city and is reported to be progressing nicely, although not yet able to play. Earl had been removed to the Toronto General Hospital for two days following the accident.

Over 70 neighbors and other friends swooped down on the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Storey, Gravel Hill, one evening last week, and presented Mr. and Mrs. Howard Storey, (newly weds) with a miscellaneous shower. Many useful and lovely gifts were seen.

George Connor, who has been living with his sons-in-law Leslie Grove on the 4th concession of Whitechurch, has taken up residence in Stouffville with quarters in Bert Maskell's house on Stouffer street. Mr. Connor was born on the 10th of Whitechurch over 75 years ago, and has spent all his life in this locality.

The Tribune now has an unlimited amount of space for the insertion of local news, and we ask the help of our readers in gathering it. If you know of some interesting event, call us on the telephone, stop us on the street, or better still write it up yourself, but be sure it gets to the ears of our staff or rural correspondents, all of whom are in search of news from the editor down. Now then, all together you town and country readers.

Tenders for the addition to the Stouffville School will close at noon on Saturday this week. There has been a very keen demand for plans, specifications and tender forms, indicating a flood of prices being submitted. The total contract may be let to one man or separate tenders may be accepted for the different trades. Including interior fittings there will be $18,000 spent.

Sam Barnes, 83, a barber at Collingwood, appeared in police court the other day for the first time in his long life. He was charged with giving a hair cut for 15c less than the legal set rate. An adjournment for two weeks was granted, and may it be lengthened to all time adjournment. With rates in Collingwood at probably 40c for a haircut, imagine the barber doing a charitable act to some unfortunate by cutting his hair for 25c, and being liable to prosecution by the courts for so doing—Slowly but surely we are being swallowed up by such laws and regulations.

Summer Windbreakers and Raincoats. A fine selection at F. E. Rae's Tailor Shop.

Over six truck loads of tin cans and what have you were removed to the town dumping grounds last Friday during the annual clean-up day. The tonnage was considerable.

Miss Doris Ross, former public school teacher here, but now of Newtonbrook, was in town over Sunday and rendered a couple of solos in the United Church Sunday evening which were greatly appreciated.

Owing to the vast amount of extra work in changing over to an "all home-print" the news in this issue may not be compiled on pages as it should be, but as time goes on we hope to establish certain pages for a certain type of news.

There is $15,000 placed in the Dominion estimates for a new post office in Beaverton. The office in Stouffville cost $28,500 and is one of the poorest the government erected anywhere—One wonders what Beaverton will get for $15,000. Well we can venture a guess—they'll get a start, and additional money later.

Reeve James Rennie, 10th concession, has purchased a new horse to take the place of the black gelding which he lost from lockjaw three weeks ago, and which broke up his black team so well matched. It is said the animal contracted the dread lockjaw through something in the soil which is communicated through the feet. The horse died suddenly when its jaws became paralyzed.

Sunderland who have entered the O.B.A. "Lakeshore" Intermediate "B" have made a clean sweep to date winning their first game from Bowmanville on the 24th, 8 to 6, and the second from Cobourg on Saturday 4 to 3. On the holiday Sunderland's 18-year-old star, Tamblin, struck out fifteen Bowmanville batters, while his team-mates slammed out eleven hits.

Stanley Rose has resigned from the principship of the Uxbridge Public School. This term he was granted leave of absence to take a special course at Hamilton, and would have resumed his duties at Uxbridge again next September. However, at a special meeting of the school board there Mr. Rose's resignation was read and accepted. It is expected that the supply teacher will receive the permanent appointment. At the same time the principal of the High School and two members of the staff resigned, hence there will be quite a change in the personnel of the Uxbridge school staff next fall.

Craig Watterworth, aged 10, and his sister, Johanna Watterworth, aged 12, of Glencoe, were instantly killed on Tuesday night of last week when they were struck by a motor car as they were roller skating down Glencoe Main Street. Police claim the car was driven by Bassett Douglas Snider, 36, of Detroit. He was arrested following the accident. The same kind of accident could happen in Stouffville where roller skating is permitted on the smooth pavement on Main street, and then we presume, it would be clamped down on with all force. However, the fatality in Glencoe should serve both as a warning to parents and motor drivers alike to be careful.

"And where is Frank Kribbs?" is about the first question our old townsman of 25 years ago asked when he entered The Tribune office one day last week. We refer to Mr. Eurias Hamilton who motored out from the city for an hour or two. Mr. Hamilton is not a young man any longer but he never forgets the old days in Stouffville where he spent so many years as a banker. Now to get back to the question, Frank Kribbs is still in the Ontario Hospital at Orillia. It will be remembered that last summer he met with an accident while in the Orillia institution which resulted in the loss of the only good eye he had since boyhood. He is now totally blind and of course cannot enjoy life as he once did. Mr. Hamilton was sorry to hear of Frank's plight.

John Castle who was injured in a motor accident a week ago last Sunday is still confined to the Brierbush Hospital X-ray examination has not revealed any broken bones, despite the various reports heard on the street. Mr. Castle is a resident of the east end owning a home at the corner of Main and Tenth streets north.

William Eckardt is building a modern garage at Eckardt's Corners a mile east of Stouffville, at the turn to Altona. The corner is being rounded and the building is constructed of cement tile. All-in-all the place will be attractive and no doubt an added incentive to business. Baker & Sons of Gormley have the contract for the building.

The local plumbing shops of Goudie and Brathwaite have secured the contract for the public toilet rooms at the municipal hall, and work is expected to start at once, part of the fixtures having now arrived. There are still a few dollars coming in by donations and these will be acknowledged in due time. The added funds will be available for installing heating facilities in the hall.

A frame barn standing just north of Lintner & Griffiths blacksmith shop was destroyed by fire on Monday evening about ten o'clock. Fortunately there was no wind, and the mounting flames when discovered were quickly quelled by the prompt arrival of the fire brigade with two lines of hose. The building which belonged to Mr. Howard Malloy was used as a garage. Two cars were destroyed belonging to Dawson Davis and Willis Monkhouse, also a number of carpenter tools belonging to Mr. Malloy. The cause of the blaze is a mystery.

Little "Buddy" Smith of Galt has lost the sight of one eye it is feared as a result of a fire cracker exploding in his face. He was playing with other children when the accident happened. Suppose it had happened here in Stouffville, we could see where their might be trouble extending right back to the seller of fire crackers. There is a bylaw forbidding the sale of fire crackers in town, but it was not enforced this year and should therefore be removed from the list of useless bylaws down in the village archives. If the sale is permitted, the merchant should not have the bylaw hanging over his head to attack him with in the event of someone being hurt. It is then that public opinion would come out and say, "what right had so-in-so to sell fire crackers." They are being sold in other towns, so why not remove the restriction, or on the other hand enforce it?

NO LIABILITY TO AGENT

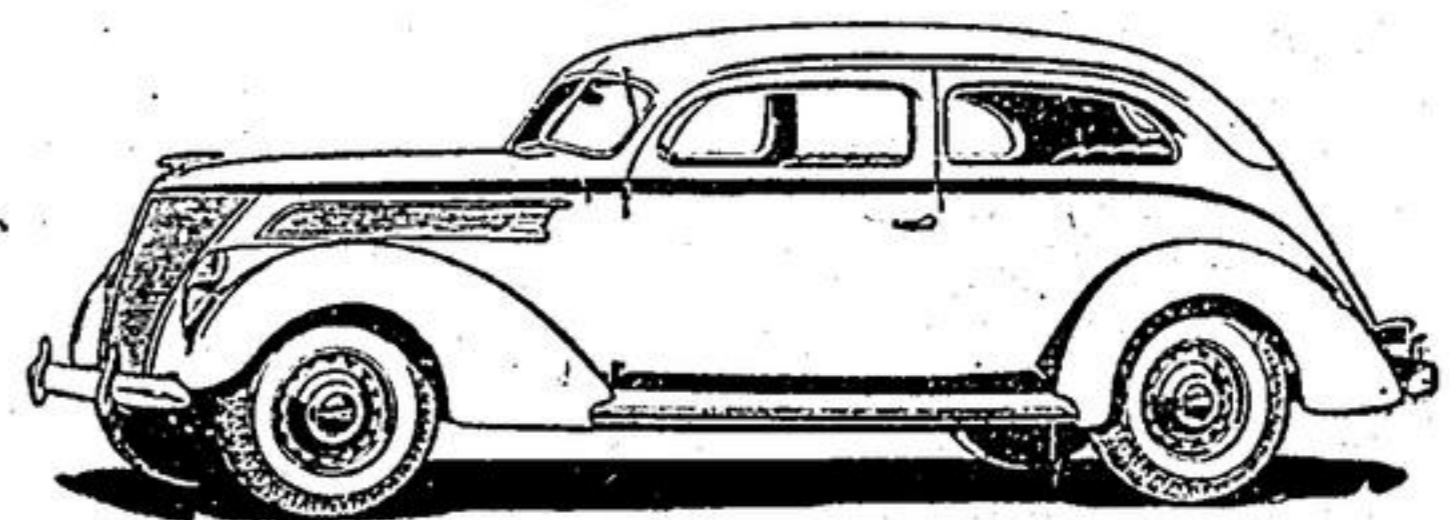

There seems to be a misapprehension abroad concerning the outcome of the Good-Harper Supreme Court action. recently settled, which Mr. Harper would like to have corrected. It will be remembered that The Tribune published the decision in this case last week, wherein Milton Good proprietor of the Fergus Creamery dropped the action against Mr. Harper. The liability for any agency commission is disclaimed by Mr. Harper who would like it explained that he never listed his farm for sale and never entered into agreement with any agent whatever, a fact which he felt many people do not understand.
