

Large Crowds See Stouffville Win 14-2

Before an exceptionally large crowd in Memorial Park on Thursday evening, Stouffville defeated Goodwood Softball team by the score of 14-2.

Stouffville's main bulwark was their pitcher "Doc" Daniels and several heavy sluggers, Bruce Stover who collected four hits in five times at bat, Jack Barkey and George Morden. Goodwood despite their loss pulled off one of the smartest plays of the game when they grabbed a double play in the third innings with no one out, and their pitcher Cooper, appearing a bit shaky. The locals collected twenty hits off the Goodwood twirler while the most they could nick Daniels for was eight scattered blows.

Line-up, Goodwood: p Cooper; c W. Todd; 1b J. Todd; 2b Byam; 3b Stewart, s.s. E. Fokkett; lf Redshaw, cf Mantle.

Stouffville: p Daniels, c Bruce Harper; 1b Borinsky; 2b Stover, 3b Lou Morden; s.s. Barkey; lf Nicholson; rf Sanders; cf McNelly.

Street Dance, Stouffville, this Friday night, July 22nd.

GROW SLIM AND TRIM AND FULL OF ENERGY

Follow the new
BREAD DIET!

Follow this Bread Diet Plan

This Diet Plan gives about 1600 Calories a day—the reducing allowance of the average woman.

BREAKFAST
1 glass fruit juice
Small serving meat, fish or eggs
2 SLICES TOAST, 1 sq. butter
1 cup coffee (clear), 1 tsp. sugar

LUNCH OR SUPPER
Moderate serving meat, fish or eggs. Average serving 1 green vegetable
2 SLICES BREAD, 1 sq. butter
Average serving fruit salad
1 glass milk

DINNER
½ glass fruit or tomato juice
Generous serving meat, fish or fowl. Average serving 2 vegetables, 1 green
2 SLICES BREAD, 1 sq. butter
Small serving simple dessert
1 cup coffee or tea (clear), 1 tsp. sugar

UNLIKE extreme diets that cause fatigue and jumpy nerves... the bread diet builds up energy. As weight comes off, peppiness! For bread is not just a "starchy" food. Science has proved that it is a combination of carbohydrates and protein that actually helps to burn up fat. So follow the bread diet and reduce safely. Enjoy six slices of bread every day.

A sad and important event which was not chronicled last week was the funeral service for the late Mrs. Crawford whose tragic death was reported the week previous. Rev. W. A. Westcott conducted the service which was very largely attended at Wesley Church on Friday, July 8. Floral tributes were very beautiful. Her three sons, Ernest, Harry and John, her nephew, Clarence Hughes, and two grandsons, Ross and Lorne Avis, were pallbearers. Before her marriage Mrs. Crawford was Ada Homer of the fourth concession of Whitchurch. Her husband, William Crawford, former clerk of Whitchurch, and a daughter, Gertrude, Mrs. Geo. Sproxtton, died several years ago. Three sons, Harry and Ernest of Toronto, John, clerk of Whitchurch, one daughter, Gussie, Mrs. Fred Avis, several grandchildren, two great grandchildren and one sister, Mrs. W. A. McDonald, survive. On Tuesday morning, July 5, her son, John, and nephew, Clarence Hughes, were repairing a barn roof on the home farm, now occupied by Clifford Lloyd, when a section of boards gave way. Mr. Hughes fell with it and Mrs. Crawford was on the floor directly below. She was knocked over and one leg was fractured. Owing to a serious heart condition and shock, Mrs. Crawford became unconscious while being removed by the ambulance to York County Hospital.
