Rev. H. Shantz officiated at the funeral of the late Mrs. Allan Pike who passed away in the Western Hospital on Monday of this week. Interment was made at Dickson Hill cemetery on Wednesday afternoon of this week following a service held at 2335 Yonge street. The late Mrs. Pike was only in her 39th year and besides her sorrowing husband she leaves four boys the youngest of whom is 13 years. The young mother whose maiden name was Annie Beatrice Woolings, lived in Gormley when her father kept the general store at the corner which is now a harness shop. Her husband who is a son of the well known Isaac Pike has the sympathy of the whole district.

Sunday Schools have Problems to Face

Local Religious Education Council Holds 48th Meeting

The 48th annual convention of the township of Whitechurch and the village of Mount Albert religious educational council was held at Hartman United Church.

The address of welcome was given by Leslie Oldham and replied to by the president, James Hope.

The subject, "Who Owns the Child" was dealt with by Rev. W. E. Smalley of Stouffville, who emphasized the fact that the child belongs to the community as well as to the parents, and that the community has to face the responsibility of the welfare of the child.

Mrs. Robert Filyer of Stouffville spoke of the relationship of the Sunday-school to the church and pointed out that the child should begin in Sunday-school and grow from that into membership with the church. Mrs. Filyer thought that a great deal depended upon the teacher—her personal testimony in the class and her everyday life.

It is very important that teachers meet regularly with their classes or their influence with the class is spoiled.

"Memory work in the Sunday-school is an important part of our work," she said. "If the children are given a good grounding in memory work in the Sunday-School they will carry it with them into their church life."

The evening service began with a song service led by Leslie Oldham and accompanied by the orchestra.

Sunday-school provided special members of the Mount Albert music during the evening.

Dr. R. O. Jolliffe, United church missionary from west China, addressed the session. After speaking on war conditions in China, he gave a most interesting and enlightening account of Sunday School work in west China. It was inspiring to hear of the eagerness of the Chinese in some sections to attend Sunday-School.

"The natives call on their neighbors and bring them in," he said. "Crowds of young people come in from all streets. So many are wanting to come that it has become a problem to find space for all." He told of a Sunday-school being held in the morning, one in the afternoon and another in the evening and that was not enough, so a Saturday school was added.

Another problem facing them is the distribution of Sunday-school papers. One pastor said, "We can buy the papers for our own church people but do not know how to supply the crowds that come." Dr. Jolliffe then spoke of the influence of the Christian schools and colleges.

The restrictions on Christian teaching have been removed and while many come for the secular higher education, they receive Christian teaching as well. Dr. Jolliffe explained that where leadership is wanted the young people are sent to these Christian seats of learning in preference to their native colleges. Many hearts and lives have been changed and a good work is being done.

Rev. Mr. Morton of Stouffville led the worship service the next morning and gave a few thoughts from Romans 12:1. "Too many are building on their own works, but we must take the Lord, for He said 'I am the way.' Strait (difficult) is the way and few there be that find it." "We are not as concerned as we should be about our loved ones who are not taking the narrow way," Mr. Morton said.

James Hope, in his remarks, stressed the importance of Sunday school work, and told Sunday school workers not to be discouraged and quit.

Twenty from Ringwood attended the church vocation school in Markham last summer and report that a wonderful work is being done in that school.

The Sunday-school lesson for July 3, from Joshua, "A Choice of Loyalties," was very ably taught by Mrs. George Price, of Mount Albert.

After singing the hymn, "My faith looks up to Thee," Mrs. Elmer Starr gave the report on temperance work, and said that work being done along this line in this county is very encouraging. She urged that temperance be taught in every school, having a temperance superintendent in each school and to make use of the literature provided by the temperance federation.

During the discussion period conducted by Rev. Mr. Patterson, representative of the O.R.E.C., the meeting was told to read the newspapers and the church papers for information on temperance.

"Years ago there was a hotel every mile between Port Hope and Peterborough, today there are none," the speaker said. The afternoon session was opened by Isaac Pike of Bethesda. The hymn, "All Hail the power of Jesus' Name," was sung, then Mr. Pike read and commented on 1 Cor. 13.

It was decided that another teacher training class would be held this fall or winter. Groups were then formed for discussions and they were conducted as follows: Mrs. Orval Drewery, girls' division; Hoyle Brethour, boys' division; Rev. R.V. Wilson, young people's division; Mrs. Robert Filyer, missionary department; Mrs. Elmer Starr, temperance; Mrs. E. A. Cole, home department.

In the young people's group, the qualities of a good teacher were discussed.
