

Cruising on The Great Lakes

Canada's unique inland sea voyage across the Great Lakes is a delightful holiday outing in addition to being a pleasant and interesting alternate route on a cross-Canada trip.

More people every year are turning to the Canadian Pacific Great Lakes Steamship cruises for a holiday that possesses attractions out of the ordinary. The 542-mile trip is along a magnificent lake and river shoreline, and is sometimes completely out of sight of land. Leaving Port McNicoll, the boat threads its way over a historic Indian water route through beautiful Georgian Bay; strikes out into Lake Huron, second largest of the Great Lakes, 207 miles long and 101 miles wide; winds through St. Mary's River, the international boundary; passes Sault Ste. Marie, and emerges into Lake Superior, the world's largest lake.

Shipboard pleasures which contribute to the charm of the trip are the change of air, refreshing coolness, magnificent scenery, and complete rest. The steamers are equipped for deck sports, including quoits, shuffleboard, and deck golf. Dancing and music enliven the evening hours.

The two Canadian Pacific steamers "Keewatin" and "Assiniboia" are back in service groomed for the most exacting of up-to-date travel demands. In addition to the regular winter check-over they were modernized in other ways, several staterooms in each being luxuriously renovated and additional reading matter being supplied for the libraries.

The schedules make it possible to take an enjoyable week's return trip from either end of the lakes, with overnight stops at destination. Special boat trains connect with all arriving and departing steamers. In addition, attractive all-expense tours at very low cost have been arranged to provide pleasant combinations of rail trips overland and steamship cruises across the Lakes, with leisurely stop-overs at famous vacation resorts. The weekly excursions of the "Manitoba," leaving Port McNicoll Mondays for Fort William, returning Saturdays, are also proving very popular this year.

Dowswell Reunion at Exhibition Park—One Hundred Present

The fourteenth Reunion of the Dowswell clan was held on Saturday, July 30, in Exhibition Park. The day was spent in renewal of old acquaintances and meeting of new faces. Games and races were a new feature in the afternoon's program. One hundred members were in attendance and sat down to bountifully set tables for dinner and supper.

This group are the descendants of Thomas Dowswell who came from Devonshire, England, in 1831, and settled in Woburn, in Scarborough.

Many places were represented but the more distant were Ellwood City, Pa., Newark, N.J., Buffalo, and Kenmore, N.Y., Detroit, Essex and Winnipeg, Man.

Mr. Wm. Dowswell former carriage maker of Claremont, Ontario and now of Toronto was the oldest member present, while Margaret Baker was the youngest.

Since Toronto is so conveniently situated for a large number of the clan it was decided to hold the 1939 Reunion in Exhibition Park, on last Saturday in July.

The next executive for 1939 are: Hon. Prest. J. Ambrose Dowswell, Essex; President, Harry Armbrust, Toronto; Sec'y Treas., Lillian Dowswell, Stouffville; Field Convener, Fred Roberts, Hamilton; Social Convener, Jessie Herron, Toronto.

WORK PROCEEDS ON BOX GROVE BRIDGE

Work is going ahead this week on repairing the west footing of the eighty-foot steel bridge on the Box Grove side-road. It has been necessary to construct a dam to divert the water to the east side, and a pump was installed on Tuesday to drain the enclosed portion. The water was taken out, 100 gal. a minute. The dam holding back the creek required some 2,000 ft. of lumber and about 150 yards of clay to construct. Markham Township Council viewed the project on Tuesday to consider the advisability of constructing an entirely new footing or merely repairing the 30-year old one, now considerably undermined.

Mr. and Mrs. Ewart entertained Mr. Pocks of Toronto, on Sunday. He gave an outline of the Ontario Temperance Federation's work and the terrible toll of deaths & accidents caused by strong drink. How can we help the youth from this pitfall?

Only fourteen ladies attended the Institute meeting held at the home of Mr. J. M. Walton in Kettleby. We are sorry there were so many other attractions for the same day, for those who did not go to Kettleby missed one of the high-lights in this year's program. Mr. and Mrs. Walton are a most hospitable host and hostess and made our visit to their home one that will linger long in our memories.

The business meeting was held on the spacious verandah the president presiding. After singing the Opening Ode, Mrs. Willis read the Institute Creed. The roll call, historical events, brought to mind some happenings in our own burg and elsewhere. Mrs. J. A. VanNostrand recalled the fire at Vandorf that started in the black-smith shop and destroyed the community hall, and sent sparks flying to the roof of the VanNostrand home and caused considerable excitement for a while that day. Mrs. Arthur VanNostrand told of her experience when the tornado swept across the lower part of Vandorf, destroying buildings and uprooting trees in its path. Mrs. Moynihan told us of Kettleby as she knew it in her school days. Mrs. Cole gave her experience with that of her father's and uncle's families at the time of the Chicago fire in 1871. While we had all heard of that fire, Mrs. Cole's story of it made it very real. Mr. Walton gave the history of Kettleby in its early days, having seen it rise to a thriving little village with its mills and implement shop, etc. Then after the dam had been washed away, and the activities had ceased, Kettleby settled down to the quiet little place it is among the hills.

Mourns Death of Sister in West

Mrs. Jess. Cober of Stouffville received word last week of the death of her sister Mrs. Susanna Vanalstine who died in the hospital at Saskatoon and was buried from the Grace United Church, Weyburn. The service was conducted by Rev. A. Roskamp, of Knox Presbyterian church. The floral tributes were beautiful.

Mrs. Vanalstine, whose maiden name was Susanna Dresser, was born in Markham township, Ontario, in 1866. In 1887 she married Robert J. Goheen of Dundalk. They farmed at Dundalk until the spring of 1906, when they went to Western Canada and settled near Hume. In 1910 Mrs. Goheen died of typhoid fever. In 1910 Mrs. Goheen was married to Alexander Vanalstine of Dundalk, who also predeceased her.

Mrs. Vanalstine is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Clarence Stone of Weyburn, and Mrs. Ruth McInnis of Saskatoon; three sons, Eby Goheen of Detroit, Mich., Clifford J. Goheen, Chicago, Ill., and M. A. Goheen of Colonsay, Sask; two sister, Mrs. M. Walker, Toronto, Ont., and Mrs. Jesse Cober of Stouffville, Ont., one brother, William Dresser of Woodbridge, Ontario, and also seven grandchildren and one great granddaughter.

ROOM ENOUGH FOR ALL

Don't crowd and push on the march of life,
Or tread on each others' toes,
For the world at best in its great unrest,
Is hard enough as it goes.
Oh, why should the strong oppress the weak
Till the latter go to the wall?
On this earth of ours with its thorns and flowers,
There is room enough for all.

If a lagging Brother falls behind
And drops from the toiling band,
If fear and doubt put his soul to rout,
Then lend him a helping hand.
Cheer up his heart with words of hope,
Nor season the speech with gall;
In the great highway, on the busiest day,
There's room enough for all

If a man with the tread of a pioneer
Steps out on your track ahead,
Don't grudge his start with an envious heart,
For the mightiest once were led.
But gird your loins for the coming day.
Let nothing your heart appall;
Catch up, if you can, with the forward man,
There is room enough for all.

And if by doing your duty well
You should get to lead the van,
Brand not your name with deed of shame,
But come out an honest man.
Keep a bright lookout on every side
Till, heeding the Master's call,
Your soul should go from the world below
Where there's room enough for all.
