

SPECIAL BODY WILL DISCUSS MART RENTALS

Letters Pertaining to Space Rates For St. Lawrence Stalls Received by County

Copies of a letter from City Property Commissioner Graham D. Bland, pertaining to the cost of space rentals at the St. Lawrence Market, will be forwarded to members of the special market committee for their consideration, it was decided by resolution at a meeting of York County warden and commissioners last week.

The committee was asked to submit a report on the matter on August 4. In his letter Mr. Bland pointed out that the cost of operating the market space allotted to York County farmers ran as high as $4,500 and $5,500 annually. This expense does not allow for the replacement of lighting facilities, office administration and other costs.

After allowing for proper aisle and working space, the area is 1,450 square feet. Worked out at seven cents per square foot per Saturday, the total cost for the year would be about $5,000. The cost will be borne by the farmers who use the facilities of the market from week to week.

Goodwood Church Scene of Pretty Wedding

Bailey—Ashenhurst

Goodwood United Church decorated with baskets of summer flowers and fern, was the setting for a wedding on Saturday, July 23rd, at three o'clock, when Hilda Elizabeth Ashenhurst, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Ashenhurst, Goodwood, Ontario, became the bride of Mr. John Bruce Bailey, only son of Mr. John Bailey, Epsom, Ontario. Rev. J. Robeson, uncle of the groom officiated. The wedding music was played by Miss Edna Foskett, of Goodwood and the soloist was Miss Alma Baker of Stouffville.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a graceful floor-length gown of pink silk net over satin with deep border at hem and holero of imported French cut taffeta, pink satin slippers and pink elbow-length mittens. Her finger-tip veil of illusion and lace was arranged in halo style and caught with a tiny wreath of pink rosebuds and she carried a cascade bouquet of Briarcliff roses, baby's breath and maiden hair fern. The bride's only ornament was a silver necklace, the gift of the groom. Miss Laura Ashenhurst, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and wore a floor-length gown of turquoise blue lace with deep insertions of silk net over pink satin, matching blue halo with shoulder veil and pink elbow-length mittens. She carried an arm bouquet of gladioli and maiden hair fern. Mr. Malcolm Tucker of Apsley attended the groom and the ushers were Mr. Reedy Ashenhurst and Mr. Lloyd Ashenhurst of Toronto, cousins of the bride.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home and was served by Miss Kathleen Beelby cousin of the bride, Miss Florence Feasby, Miss Madalene Cook and Miss Blanche Todd. The bride's mother received in a navy sheer dress over printed crepe with matching hat and wore a shoulder corsage of mauve sweet peas and fern. Mrs. J. Robeson, aunt of the groom, also received and wore printed chiffon with matching hat and a shoulder corsage of mauve sweet peas and fern.

Later the happy couple left on a motor trip to Ottawa and points east, the bride travelling in a frock of navy sheer with white trimmings, white three-quarter length coat, large navy and white felt hat and matching accessories. On their return they will reside in Epsom.

A MONO FARMER ROBBED, $300

Masked Bandits Armed With Automatics Are Guilty

Orangeville, July 29—Three armed bandits wearing black masks, held up John McBrien, wealthy Mono township farmer, and his two hired men, Albert Hall and Charles McArthur, late tonight and escaped with $300 in bank notes, after tying McBrien and his hired man together with rope.

Mr. McBrien an uncle of the late Fred G. McBrien, M.L.A. for Parkdale in the Ontario Legislature, was preparing for bed when the three men with slitted black masks over their eyes entered the house. Each of the trio carried black automatics in their right hands.

"Stick your hands in the air," said the leader as he stepped into the farmer's house. Mr. McBrien, who had come to the door, complied and the two hired men did likewise. Two of the armed thugs swiftly tied the legs and hands of the farmer and his helpers with rope. Then they rolled them on the floor and piled some kitchen furniture on top of them.

Going systematically from room to room they searched all the drawers and found $300 hidden in the house in separate amounts. After finding the money they left the house and were heard driving away in a motor car. Neither McBrien nor the two hired men were attacked by the armed trio.

was then learned that the hydro at ropes which bound them, the three men freed themselves. It lines and the telephone line had been cut. Going to a neighbor's house they telephoned Constable H. T. Hammer of the Provincial Police.

Constable Hammer immediately broadcast the occurrence of the robbery to the county and neighboring police. The robbery is believed to have taken place about 10.30, but it was much later than that before the police were notified. All roads were combed and motorists going or coming from summer resorts at mid-night were stopped and questioned.

The farm house where the robbery occurred is about two and a half miles from Orangeville. A sister of Mr. McBrien, Miss Alice McBrien, is a superannuated Toronto school teacher, and has been making her home with her brother. She was not at home when the robbery occurred.

CONTENTIOUS ACT TO GO

At last the contentious Farmers' Creditors Arrangement Act is to go. In Ontario it passes at the end of the present year. There will be a general feeling of relief. This was undoubtedly one of the most unsatisfactory acts ever put on the statutes. Through its operation the farmers' credit was all but ruined. There will be no tears shed when it passes to oblivion on the 31st of December.

Exports of Canadian cheese to the British island of Malta in the Mediterranean during 1937 (1,400 cwts.) almost doubled in volume compared with 1936. The imports into Malta of Canadian wheat flour also advanced in volume and price, the increase in wheat with diminished supplies being in price only.
