

Vandorf

Mrs. Cale is able to be out among her friends again.

Misses E. and Norma Kingdon were home over the weekend.

Misses Richardson of Newmarket, were visitors at W. D. Richardson's home.

Mr. Art Starr of the O.A.C. Guelph was at the Starr home over the weekend.

Mr. George Powell of Toronto (our former merchant) was in town on Sunday.

Miss Elsie VanOstrand of Toronto Normal School spent the weekend under the parental roof.

The Ladies' Aid are holding a big fowl supper the first part of November with a good program following.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Major and Neil and Byer of Newton Robinson were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Richardson and family.

The regular monthly meeting of our Ladies' Aid will meet at the home of Mrs. Percy Allin on Wednesday of this week owing to the fowl supper next week.

Sunday morning we had a large attendance at church and those who were a little late found only a few front seats vacant. There were six infants baptised, children of Mr. and Mrs. John Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Avis, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Graham. Our full choir rendered suitable selections.

Next Sunday we will celebrate our 57th anniversary. Rev. G. E. Coulter, M.A., of Riverdale United Church, Toronto, will address the morning service with our own choir rendering special music. At 7.30 p.m. the guest minister will be the Rev. H. Hull, B.A., D.D., Perth Ave. United Church, Toronto, and Hartman choir, will supply the music.

HALF-HOLIDAY ENDED

Beginning with the month of November our butcher shop will remain open six days a week, the Wednesday half-holiday being ended in October.

We trust the public will appreciate our effort to render service every business day of the week.

SHELLS MEAT MARKET
Phone 200

Altona

M. O. Madill spent a few days at Rosedale this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Davis were visiting friends in the city on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. McIntosh and Miss Esther Davis were visiting at Listowel over the weekend.

The Twinkling Star Class held their regular meeting at the home of Miss Ruby Tindall on Tuesday evening.

Last week was a busy time for those who took part in the ploughing matches. A number from here were at Lemonville on Wednesday, Columbus on Thursday and Brampton on Friday. Several prizes were won by our plowmen to whom we offer our congratulations.

The Young Folks are planning to have a Hallowe'en Party to-night, Thursday, in the basement of the school. Games and prizes for best costumes. All the young people are invited.

CHURCH HILL

There was a goodly number at Sunday School on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Duckworth spent Sunday at Mr. and Mrs. E. McNelly's.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Brethour visited the latter's sister, Mrs. Robert Hutchison on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Boadway visited at Mr. and Mrs. A. Vaughan's home one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lazenby and Leone had tea Sunday night with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Alcock, at Siloam.

Congratulations to Mrs. P. Alcock who is staying at her daughter's Mrs. H. Brethour. Mrs. Alcock will be 75 years of age on November 1. May she see many more happy years.

Owing to some misunderstanding on the part of someone we were without a preacher on Sunday, however we are looking forward to having Rev. Mr. Tranter with us again this Sunday.

Christian Endeavour meeting this week will be held on Thursday night at the home of Mr. A. Clark. Topic to be taken by Mr. Martin, after which there will be a social. The ladies are requested to bring sandwich or pie.

Send The Tribune to absent friends.

Bloomington

Mrs. W. A. Fockler spent a few days at the home of her daughter in Sudbury recently.

Miss Laura Hill spent several days last week at Greenbank.

Miss Winnie McCaull of Toronto spent the week-end with Miss Audrey Smith.

Mrs. Chas. Tindall is at the home of her daughter at Woodbridge.

Miss Effie Smith of Lindsay also Mr. and Mrs. John McKittrick of Greenbank, Miss Thelma McCoomb and Mrs. F. Tears of Toronto spent a day recently with Mrs. Jos. Winterstein.

Miss Annie Cutting of Quaker Hill is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Winterstein.

Ballantrae

J. Peterson of the 7th concession is sporting a new truck. Thos. Simpson is sporting a new Chevrolet.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Fockler spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Trumbley, Mount Albert.

Quite a crowd turned out to charivari our newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Evans, on Saturday night. Mrs. Evans was the former Maud Windsor.

A big panel truck belonging to an Oshawa shoe traveller, took fire and was almost completely destroyed recently, on the 8th line north.

The Miller family have recently moved into their newly acquired property in the old hotel block on the corner. Mr. Miller has been undertaking inside alterations recently besides installing electricity.

Two Toronto youths were "nabbed" by the law on Sunday evening in the city and charged with stealing two hounds the property of Messrs. Ross and Will Hood of Ballantrae. Constables Bob Windsor of Whitechurch and Constable Fleury of Aurora tracked down the thieves who had made off with the dogs on Saturday afternoon.

LATE CONTRIBUTIONS

The North York Plowmen gratefully acknowledge contributions received after the prize list was issued from the following donors:

- W. R. Groskirth, W. P. Mulock, M.P., Cosgrove Brewery, J. D. Lucas, Newton Rae, E. W. Andrew, W. Stevens, Claremont Dairy.

Goodwood

Glad to report Amos Stafford a little better.

Now who said "No more wedding bells in 1938." Just watch.

Mrs. Charles Harper is spending a few days visiting friends in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gulliver, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Henderson of Oshawa visited Mr. and Mrs. William Henderson on Sunday, also Mrs. Mason Flumerfelt and daughter of Toronto.

The Goodwood United Church are holding their anniversary services on November 13, when the Gormley quartette will have the audience spellbound by their inspirational singing. A hot fowl supper will be held on Tuesday evening following.

On Saturday afternoon last the members of the class of Mrs. James H. Wagg, were invited to her home. A very pleasant time was spent. The regular monthly meeting was held after which a team hunt was staged for a run out doors. Then a lovely luncheon was served by Mrs. Wagg including hot chocolate.

8TH LINE MARKHAM

Mr. and Mrs. Jennings of Temperanceville were recent visitors at the home of their daughter Mrs. Alvin Wideman. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Reed of Toronto visited with Mr. and Mrs. John Harris on Tuesday of last week.

Mrs. Wilson of Niagara Falls who has been spending a time at the home of her brother Mr. Robinson has returned to Niagara Falls.

Mr. Samuel Wideman who passed away at his home at Almira was well known in this locality and quite frequently attended the Wideman Church here and two weeks ago attended the Sacrament in the church. He was a former preacher and conducted the services some years ago.

This part of the township was pretty well covered during the pheasant shoot last Friday and Saturday. The hunters met with varying success, some obtaining their full quota and some getting no luck at all.

Mrs. R. Lunau's furniture sale which was to have been held last Wednesday was postponed to October 26, to be held in the Markham skating rink.

For Hallowe'en--

Decorate your home with flowers for this occasion

LARGE 'MUMS

$1.00 a Dozen and up

POM POM VARIETIES

50c and 75c per bunch

FREE DELIVERY

THE MARKHAM FLORISTS

Phone 6120 (reverse charges)

Certified Seed Potatoes

Lists of growers having Certified Seed available may now be secured from your Agriculture Representative.

Seed requirements for next year should be obtained now.

Certified Seed is your best protection against disease.

BUY NOW

Co-operation & Markets Branch, Ontario Department of Agriculture.

Dickson's Hill

Sam Barkey was in Toronto on a business trip one day last week.

Now that we no longer hear the dinner bells, in the community we are not too sure that we don't hear wedding bells.

Remember the announcement of last week, about the seventy-fifth anniversary of Dickson's Hill Church which will be held on November 13.

After spending several months in Rochester Miss Doris Lott returned to the home of her sister Mrs. Ward Hallman the early part of this week. Welcome back Doris!

Did you have any luck shooting pheasants on Friday or Saturday? If every gun shot we heard meant a fallen birdie, there were surely some delicious fowl suppers.

Mr. and Mrs. William Redshaw were called to the bedside of their daughter who lives down East. She was seriously ill with plural pneumonia. They returned home on Sunday after spending several days with her.

Mrs. Kenneth Walker accompanied her father Mr. Wesley Johnson, Markham and brother Lorne of Woodbridge on a trip to Manitoulin Island to visit her brother Gordon who has charge of a large pastorate at Spring Bay. They left here Saturday morning and we hope they will enjoy their holiday and arrive home safely without running into any snowbanks.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY

The public is cordially invited to a Masquerade Hallowe'en Party, to be held Monday evening, October 31, at 8 p.m. in the basement of Saint James Presbyterian Church, by the Band of Willing Helpers. Silver Collection.

UNIONVILLE JUNIOR FARMERS Annual

Fall Dance
MAMMOTH HALL
MALVERN
Friday, Oct. 28
Hannagain's Music

Refreshments Admission 50c

VICTORIA SQUARE

Dr. Evelyn Gee of Vancouver, who came east to spend two weeks at her sister's bedside, returned to Vancouver last week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Nichols enjoyed tea a week ago Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bitnel of Toronto.

Mr. Orla Heise and the Misses Elva and Miriam Heise motored to Fort Erie recently to attend the dedication service at Ontario Bible College.

The many friends of Anthony Gardener were shocked to learn of his very serious accident while threshing last week. The prayers and good wishes of his friends here go with him during his confinement in Brierbush Hospital.

The Rev. William and Mrs. Haig, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bennett and Margaret were in Scarborough recently attending the Goforth-Middleton Wedding. Mr. Haig was the officiating clergyman.

A large crowd of young folk gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hill last Wednesday evening to present Miss E. Cripps and Mr. Quear with a shower of useful and beautiful gifts in view of their approaching marriage.

The second time in less than two months, death has entered the home of Mr. Ernest Caseley. Miss Pearl Caseley was suddenly called on September 1st with infantile paralysis and one week later a little daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Caseley, it was soon feared that all was not well with Laura, the young mother, as her condition became worse she was taken to Toronto General Hospital where everything that human power could do was done but all to no avail and she passed away early Sunday morning, October 16th. The funeral was held at the United Church here last Tuesday afternoon and was very largely attended. Mrs. Casely was before her marriage, Miss Laura Gee the younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gee and lived all of her life here, she always took an active interest in church and community affairs to the husband and two infant daughters, the father and mother, two brothers and sister, the heartfelt sympathy of all is extended.

Birth—At Victoria Square, on Monday, October 17, to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Pickering, a son.

Fall Specials

THIS STORE NOW OPEN WEDNESDAY AFTERNOONS

MISSES FALL AND WINTER FROCKS

An attractive line of Cotton Flannel Dresses in Plaid and Check Patterns, including plain and dirndl styles, some with zipper fasteners. Warm and serviceable, for school or better dress, priced at each ... $1.00

COTTON FLANNEL

In conventional, checks and floral patterns, and in desirable shades —For the woman who does her own dressmaking, these will have an instant appeal. A wide range of choice. Per yard 29c

FALL UNDERWEAR

A dependable line of Cotton Undies in Fall weight, Vests with short, or no sleeves, and Panties and Bloomers. Ribbed Cotton of a fine even weave, and some with silk stripe, per garment 45c, 49c, 59c

ALL WOOL AND SILK AND WOOL HOSE

With the coming of colder weather there is need for warmer Hose, and these Hose are first quality made by well known manufacturers. They are full fashioned, and in all the newest Fall shades 79c, $1.00, $1.10

A SPECIAL IN FOUNDATION GARMENTS

Odd lines in Corsets and Corsettes to be cleared out at a low price —some are slightly soiled. Priced originally up to $4.50. Sale ... $1.00

SERVEX HANKIES

Convenient little packages of disposable tissue, fits a man's pocket, a woman's purse, or the boy or girl's school bag, per package 5c

ALL WOOL HOSE

Three quarter length Hose for children, English make. Size 7 to 9, unexcelled quality, pair 49c

WOMEN'S HIGH QUALITY HATS

Fine Felts in the newest and most attractive styles and in all the popular shades. A wide range to choose from $1.95 to $3.50

WOOL SCARVES

These are large size in plaid patterns, all wool, & in lovely warm colours. A real Fall and Winter Scarf 59c 95c.

WOOL GLOVES AND MITTS

In bright and attractive colours these Gloves and Mitts are warm and cosy for the cool days of fall and winter. All very moderately priced.

POWDER PUFFS

Blue Bird Powder Puffs in sets of two, three or four, most attractively put up in decorated cellophane boxes, a very dainty article for your dressing table or purse 15c

WOMEN'S HANDBAGS

In all the popular shades, these Bags are made of assimilated leather and are cleanable, water-proof and durable, fully fitted, priced at, each $1.00 High quality, full leather, and suede handbags, beautifully fitted, and new in style and trimmed, unusually attractive $2.95 to $4.95

DIRNDL APRONS

Have you seen these attractive and Novel Dirndl Aprons, which have been on display in our windows? They are Blindercraft products, which is a guarantee of quality, each 29c Many other styles are on display also, all Blindercraft quality and priced at 15c to 75c

GIFT SILVER AND GLASSWARE

Here you will find the finest quality Silver and Glassware in useful and fancy dishes, casseroles, trays, cream and sugars, cake plates, butter dishes, etc. all moderately priced.

SHAW'S STORE

Phone 9512