The chances of a township election are still very much on the side of a run. Deputy Reeve Ashenhurst, we are reliably informed intends to stand for the reeveship, and looks for an acclamation as it was understood between him and Reeve James that when the deputy wishes to step up he would not be opposed. On the other hand Reeve James claims a chance of the wardenship and this may influence him to stay in the field. The other members of the council Messrs. Fred Middleton and Edgar Johnston may both be in the field for the higher place.
