CHURCH HILL

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Boardway spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Lazenby and Leone spent Monday with Mr. George Harrison of Mount Albert.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Fairles and family, Mr. and Mrs. Mack McDonald of Stouffville spent Monday at Mr. Joseph Martin's home.

Christian Endeavour will be held this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hoyle Brethour. The topic will be given by Miss Amy Lagerer.

Miss Barbara Pegg has returned home after being engaged in Newmarket during the past few months.

There was a good crowd turned out to church on Sunday to hear the address given by our new pastor, also to enjoy a violin selection given by Miss Kay Ord, of Toronto.

The open-air skating rink at Ballantrae was well patronized on Christmas and New Years.

We sympathize with the Yakeley boys and with William A. Broad in the death of the latter's mother who passed away at the Ontario Hospital on New Years day. She was in her 58th year and was a daughter of the late Andrew Yakeley of this section. Her husband predeceased her some years but a son survives William Andrew Broad. There is also one sister Mrs. Jos. Scott of Newmarket and three brothers Christopher, Alfred and Oliver Yakeley. The funeral this Thursday afternoon will be from O'Neill's undertaking parlors, Stouffville to the Christian church there, thence to Mount Albert cemetery. Church service at 2 p.m.

Bethesda

Glenn and Velma Bolender spent last week in Port Elgin.

We are sorry to report that Mr. Ralph Allin is quite ill. He is well known over the district.

Miss Bessie Bolender of Toronto was home over New Years.

Misses Selena and Flossie Atkinson spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. A. Gallbraith of Newtonbrook.

The W. M. S. are meeting this week at the home of their president Miss Selena Atkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Yake spent New Years in Stouffville with Mr. and Mrs. Sam McKewen.

The local ponds have not been much of a skater's dream so far this winter, and the Stouffville Arena has been well patronized by our citizens during the holiday season.

The old woman must have a good number of geese to pick this winter, because the "feathers" have been flying quite heavy over our district for the last week. Old Dobbin will have to get out and loosen up his stiffened joints by all appearances.

Mr. S. McDowell, our school teacher has been ill at his home in Markham. The children are having their holidays prolonged as a result.

We are wondering if a moustache really does keep out that cold winter wind, or if it is just a fable.

Ballantrae

While Christmas and New Years are the times for family gatherings and many were to be seen in this district, we imagine that probably the largest was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Beach. All their children, grandchildren were present and they numbered thirty four. Can you beat that, 34 good sturdy Canadian children.

We wish to extend our congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Needler, highly respected farmers here who last week celebrated their silver wedding anniversary. Prior to locating here they were residents of Shrubmount district so have a real interest all over this section. Mr. and Mrs. Needler have three sons, but no daughters. A party was held at their home in honor of the anniversary occasion.

CEDAR GROVE

Some like the Chevrolet Some like the Nash, Some would like to be like Bob. And grow a neat mustache.

Visitors for the New Year weekend at Geo. McIntosh's were Miss Audrey Lewis of Markham, Mr. Lou Wormworth and Mr. Frank R. Collins.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Milroy and Rilla were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Reesor of Markham.

On Friday morning of last week while Murray Milroy was out hunting he was accidentally shot by one of his companions.

He was taken to the Wellesley Hospital where his condition is reported as favourable. The community all hope for a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Sim Reesor and family spent Monday at Jake Wideman's of Mongolia.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Reesor and family were at Wade Brown's on Christmas Monday.

Mr. Cameron McIntosh arrived home on Saturday on a pair of crutches. "Some class to some people." Anyway we all hope for a speedy recovery Cameron.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Milroy and family of Stouffville and Mr. and Mrs. Beau Bonner and family of Newtonbrook were at the latter's home for Christmas

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Wideman spent Christmas at Simeon Reesor's.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Rowbotham of Cornwall were home for Christmas at George Freeman's.

Claremont

Owing to the big storm Sunday night, many expected guests have to forgo their New Year's festivities.

Mr. Fred Ward of Edmonton is visiting friends and relatives here.

Approximately 1,000 skiers passed through here over the weekend out to enjoy the hills in this vicinity. Weather conditions are perfect for this sport

Miss Isobel Gregg was home from Ottawa for the weekend.

The local theatre has not enjoyed much success of late. We are hoping for increased attendance, now that the holidays are over

Dickson's Hill

The sympathy of the whole neighborhood goes to Mr. Jos. Reesor and family in their bereavement.

Lloyd Wideman is taking a trip to Toronto every week for a lesson on the trumpet. We hope he will be an expert player before long.

Mr. Simeon and Miss Martha Hoover visited with their sister Mrs. Emma Wideman of Mount Joy on Tuesday evening.

Don't forget Y.P.U. at Dickson's Hill on Monday night.

Mrs. Herb. Wideman and Mrs. Lee of Gormley had dinner together at the North Gate Cafe, in Toronto, Saturday.

Our pastor Rev. P. G. Lehman will be showing lantern slides illustrating the life of Christ, in the church next Wednesday evening. Come and enjoy them with us.

The young people of the community are enjoying the skating this season.

Altona

Mr. and Mrs. O. Zellers and family visited at O. M. Madill's on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. David Nighswander and family at Joseph Hoover's on Tuesday.

Miss Alma Fretz is planning to attend Bible School at Kitchener during the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Howsam and family with Mrs. Kerry of Prince Albert on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Thompson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred McNair with William McNair's on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Taun of Stouffville; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Grove, Ringwood; Mrs. W. Crosier, Port Perry; Howard St. John and Wm. Malloy at David Crosier's on Monday.

The school meeting at Glasgow returned Lou Slack for three years as a trustee. The other two members are Walter Davis and Cecil Latham. The meeting was quiet and elicited little interest.

The Altona W. I. will meet at the home of Mrs. Leslie Hodgson on Wednesday, January 11, at 2 p.m. The motto, "There is no place so delightful as one's own fireside." It is expected there will be an address on "Laws Affecting Women and Children." Roll call, "Something my Grandma Told Me." Mrs. Dunkeld will give a reading on "The History of our Settlement." Display of antiques and old fashioned dress parade. The program is under the leadership of Mrs. Wagg. All members and visitors are requested to attend.

JUNIOR FARMERS'

Skating Party

Cedarena

Tues., Jan. 10

Lunch and Coffee Provided

Admission 25 and 10c

Gormley

The revival meetings scheduled to open here on January 1st in the M.B.C. church are being very well attended despite the rather heavy roads and frequent storms. Elder W. H. Yates is the evangelist and Pastor I. B. Brubacher invites all to hear him. Meetings each evening at 7.45.

We were glad to have the snow plough operate on the 4th and along the townline to Stouffville on Monday. After thinking there would be no winter it came in with a bang last week.

Lemonville

Mr. and Mrs. George Martin and Keith spent Monday in Stouffville the guests of Mrs. Forsythe.

Mrs. Yake of Toronto, Mrs. Forsyth, Randolph and Gordon of Stouffville, Mr. Will Harding, also Mrs. Ralph Baker and Jean spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Martin.

VICTORIA SQUARE

At Victoria Square, on Dec. 23rd, to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Beatty, a daughter.

Our young people enjoyed a skating party to Richmond Hill rink on Saturday, evening. Returning they stopped at the church where hot beans and pie awaited them. As the old year ended and 1939 arrived all journeyed to their homes feeling that it had been a pleasant evening indeed.

Miss Elsie Caswell of Orangeville, a former teacher at S.S. No. 4, Markham, is spending a few days with Mrs. Robert Gee and calling on other old friends here.

Miss Myrtle Avison returned to her work in the Preventorium at North Toronto, this week having spent two weeks at her home here convalescing after an attack of scarlet fever.

Miss Alma Farquharson of the nursing staff of Grace Hospital, Toronto, spent the new years weekend at her home here.

We are glad to report Miss Mable Sanderson and Mr. Lorne Mortson on the road to recovery after a siege of pneumonia.

The wind and snow of Sunday night must have had a merry time rolling millions of large snow balls, and on Monday each field in our neighborhood appeared covered with a huge white tufted bed spread. A very pretty sight and most unusual.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Wellman and family of Headford were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Nichols at dinner on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Feige entertained the home folk from Uxbridge for their annual family gathering on New Years.

Four annual meetings were held last week in connection with our church work. On Tuesday evening the members of the Sunday School elected their officers and discussed plans for the new year. On Wednesday the Mission Circle met and on Thursday afternoon the Mission Band under the splendid leadership of Mrs. H. Collard and Mrs. H. McCague. On Friday the W.A. held their meeting. All report a good year and hope to keep up the good work in 1939.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Pickering visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. Perkins.
